AP Correspondent Unreported Since Chinju Battle

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEAD-QUARTER IN KOREA.— (P) — Associated Press Correspondent William R. Moore has not been heard from since Sunday afternoon when he went to the Chinju battle front.

He last was reported with an element of the 24th division that was split in two by the Red drive. The unit fled Monday morning from Chinju.

Moore left for the Chinju front on the southernmost flank, Sunday afternoon by jeep.

Moore, 40, was born at Nowata, Okla., and worked on the Daily Oklahoman at Oklahoma City. He joined the Associated Press at Denver in 1937, served in the army from 1942 to 1946, and rejoined the Associated Press in New York.

Moore has served as a major with the U. S. army of occupation in Korea. He returned there as Associated Press correspondent in April, 1948. When the war broke out, he was on his way back to Korea from vacation.

Moore has filed a notable series of dispatches from the front.

Nine other newsmen have been reported captured, missing or killed in the Korean war.

They include Wilson Fielder, Time-Life, missing; Mike Gigantis, (Philip Dean) reported captured, and Ray Richards, reported killed, both of International
