

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Akin, Louis Lawrence, Senator Represented Carroll County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 29 Nov 1890 Grant Township, Carroll County, Iowa

2. Marriage (s) date place

Clara May Olson 20 Nov 1912 Eldfield, Iowa

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business Member of the Farmers' Cooperative Association; member of the Farmers Union; listed in the Who's Who in the Midwest 1963

B. Civic responsibilities Scoutmaster; Mason; Eastern Star

C. Profession Minister; farmer

4. Church membership Disciples of Christ

5. Sessions served 42nd General Assembly 1927

6. Public Offices

A. Local Carroll County state farm debt adviser;

B. State

C. National

7. Death 29 Jul 1984 Carroll, Iowa; Buried Westlawn Cemetery, Eldfield, Iowa

8. Children Robert Lawrence; Richard Kenneth; Ethan Magnus; Louis J. (predeceased his father in death); Nora May (predeceased her father in death)

9. Names of parents Ethan IV and Charity Ella (Giffith) Akin

Akin, Louis Lawrence

10. Education He was educated in a one room schoolhouse in Grant Township, Carroll County, Iowa from 1895 and graduated from Glidden, Iowa High School in 1909.

11. Degrees He studied law for one year at the University of Iowa from 1909 and switched to Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa in 1910 to study the ministry.

12. Other applicable information Republican

- He served churches in Grant, Audubon, Epworth, Logan, all in Iowa and San Dimas, California.
- He was retired from the Disciples of Christ Church in 1984.
- His family farm was named Akindale Farm.
- His funeral was officiated by his grandson, Reverend Paul Akin.
- His wife, Clara, born 1 Apr 1887, died 21 Nov 1974, also buried Hillman Cemetery, Glidden, Iowa.

Rev. Louis L. Akin

REV. LOUIS L. AKIN

Private family services for the Rev. Louis L. Akin, 93, a retired minister of the Christian (Disciples of Christ) church, who died Sunday, July 29, at the Carroll Health Center Nursing home, will be conducted Thursday at the convenience of the family.

A grandson, the Rev. Paul Akin, will officiate. Burial, under the direction of the Dahn and Woodhouse Funeral Home of Carroll, will be in Westlawn cemetery at Glidden. A Masonic memorial service will be conducted at 8 p.m. Wednesday for family and friends at the Carroll funeral home. Friends may meet with the family at the funeral home from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday.

A memorial fund has been established in Rev. Akin's name for Nebraska Christian College.

Rev. Akin is survived by three sons: Robert L. and his wife Iola, Carroll; Richard K. and his wife Mary, Texas City, Tex., and Ethan M. and his wife Dorothy, Port Isabel, Tex.; 11 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, wife Clara Mae, son Louis Jr., and daughter Thora.

Rev. Akin was born November 29, 1890, in Grant Township, Carroll

MRS. ROGER (ANITA MEEHAN) KAPUT

NEWTON—Mrs. Roger (Anita Meehan) Kaput, 37, of Newton, formerly of Carroll, died Monday, July 30, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Mrs. Kaput taught elementary school in Marshalltown for 10 years before she and her husband formed a partnership, the Kaput—McAdams Men's Clothing Store in Newton.

Mass of the Christian Burial will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Thursday, August 2, at Sacred Heart church in Newton with the Rev. William Kaska as celebrant. Burial will be in Newton Union cemetery under the direction of the Reese Funeral Home of Newton.

A wake service will be conducted at the funeral home at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Friends may call at the funeral home after 1 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Kaput is survived by her husband, Roger, Newton; a son, Travis, and two daughters, Tara and Tricia, all at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Meehan, Carroll, and a sister, Mary Meehan, Davenport.

She was born April 13, 1947, at Storm Lake, graduated from Kuemper High School in Carroll, attended Mount Mercy College in Cedar Rapids and graduated from the University of Iowa with an education degree. She was married to Roger Kaput in Carroll. She was a member of Sacred Heart church in Newton and the National Education Association.

A memorial fund in her name has been established and contributions may be sent to the Newton funeral home.

LAURA A. LAMP

MANNING—Laura A. Lamp, 90, died Monday, July 30, at St. Anthony Regional Hospital in Carroll.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, August 2, at the Ohde Funeral Home in Manning with the Rev. John Milligan, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church of Coon Rapids, officiating. Andrea Puck will be organist and Larry Genzen soloist. Burial will be in the Manning cemetery. Serving as casketbearers will be grandsons: Gordell Lamp, Gordon Lamp, Donald Kinney, Roger Bukacek, Dennis Bergstadt and Arnold Lamp Jr.

WAS
oil-bea flaxse gener
Agric
Tuesd
Laci prime prices
price
The bean
June,
$1.20
Veg levels celery heade
Ove their cent, ahead
Depar
July wheat
But th
by hi broile
The their from high calve feed
In perce they July.
Liv
howe
June perce
Ove
143 pe parise figure
June
April cent
straig
The IDSA

church, who died Sunday, July 27, at the Carroll Health Center Nursing home, will be conducted Thursday at the convenience of the family.

A grandson, the Rev. Paul Akin, will officiate. Burial, under the direction of the Dahn and Woodhouse Funeral Home of Carroll, will be in Westlawn cemetery at Glidden. A Masonic memorial service will be conducted at 8 p.m. Wednesday for family and friends at the Carroll funeral home. Friends may meet with the family at the funeral home from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday.

A memorial fund has been established in Rev. Akin's name for Nebraska Christian College.

Rev. Akin is survived by three sons: Robert L. and his wife Iola, Carroll; Richard K. and his wife Mary, Texas City, Tex., and Ethan M. and his wife Dorothy, Port Isabel, Tex.; 11 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, wife Clara Mae, son Louis Jr., and daughter Thora.

Rev. Akin was born November 29, 1890, in Grant Township, Carroll County, a son of Ethan III and Charity Ella Griffith Akin. He was married to Clara Olson on November 20, 1912, at Goldfield, Iowa.

He began his education in a one-room country school in 1895. He drove his first automobile in 1901. He attended schools in Glidden, graduating from high school in 1909. At the University of Iowa, he studied law the first year, then switched to Drake University in 1910 to study for the ministry.

He was elected to the Iowa Legislature in 1926, served as scoutmaster for Troop 28 in Carroll in 1932, was appointed state farm debt advisor for Carroll County in 1933 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He was listed in Who's Who in the Midwest in 1963.

Rev. Akin was active in Masonic work most of his life. He was a 50-year member of all the Masonic bodies and had served as master of Signet Lodge No. 264, A.F. & A.M. He was also a member of the Order of Eastern Star and had served as patron. For serving in all the offices of the Chapter, Council, and Commandery, he was honored by Sir Galahad Priory No. 7, of Nebraska.

Rev. Akin served churches in Stuart, Audubon, San Dimas, Calif.; Exira and Logan, Iowa.

JOHN BROGAN

School in Carroll, attended Mount Mercy College in Cedar Rapids and graduated from the University of Iowa with an education degree. She was married to Roger Kaput in Carroll. She was a member of Sacred Heart church in Newton and the National Education Association.

A memorial fund in her name has been established and contributions may be sent to the Newton funeral home.

LAURA A. LAMP

MANNING—Laura A. Lamp, 90, died Monday, July 30, at St. Anthony Regional Hospital in Carroll.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, August 2, at the Ohde Funeral Home in Manning with the Rev. John Milligan, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church of Coon Rapids, officiating. Andrea Puck will be organist and Larry Genzen soloist. Burial will be in the Manning cemetery. Serving as casketbearers will be grandsons: Gordell Lamp, Mahlon Lamp, Donald Kinney, Roger Bukacek, Dennis Bergstadt and Arnold Lamp Jr.

Mrs. Lamp is survived by six children: Harvey Lamp, Denison; Wilbur Lamp, Manning; Mrs. Walter (DeLoris) Sonnichsen, Denison; Arnold Lamp, Coon Rapids; Mrs. William (Marian) Nicholson, Aurora, Colo., and Norma Archer, Lakewood, Colo.; 16 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren; four sisters: Selma Hacker, Templeton; Bertha Joens, Council Bluffs; Ella Stewardt, Audubon, and Effie Christensen, Gray, and a brother, Raymond Friedrichsen, Denison.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, a son Clifford, a granddaughter Karen Lamp Long, a son-in-law Robert Archer; a grand son-in-law Merlin Long; five brothers: Ferdinand Lamp, Edward Lamp, Grant Lamp, Henry Lamp and Harry Lamp, and a sister, Emma Beese.

Mrs. Lamp was born March 19, 1894, at Bloomfield, Neb., a daughter of Friedrich and Anna Thompsen Friedrichsen. As a young girl she moved with her family to Manning where they farmed southeast of town. She attended White Bear rural school across the section from her home.

On February 3, 1915, she was married to Edward Lamp at Manning. They farmed around Manning until 1933 when they moved to the Denison area. He died on May 2, 1974, and in October, calves in feed and

In general percent of they remain July.

Livestock however June and percent.

Overall 143 percent parison. figures. June and April the cent but straight

The fa IDSA lic tion of th and facil of Healt said.

Area emerger it were not have nurse. E clients halfway either w

Altho be sta

Schul; him aft and has saying l to comp by Nov.

Schulz change motion assessm develop on his ov could st

MRS. HILDA SMITH HASELTON

Services were held here Monday morning for Mrs. Hilda Smith Haselton, 88, of Glidden, who died Friday at St. Anthony Regional Hospital. She was a former teacher in Glidden and Lake City.

Officiating at the Dahn and Woodhouse Funeral Home was the Rev. Gehra'd Risen of the United Presbyterian Church. Private burial for the family was conducted at Westlawn Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dick Haselton, Clark Haselton, Jerome Junker, Dan Haselton, Charles Haselton and Jim Ahern. Honorary pallbearers were Randy Peters, David Ring, Kevin Haselton, Steven Sorden, Kirk Haselton and Lowell Janning.

She was born July 25, 1896, at Lake City, the daughter of James O. and Mary Hansen Smith. She was graduated from Lake City High School in 1914 and attended Iowa State Teachers College, now the University of Northern Iowa at Cedar Falls, where she earned a teaching certificate.

She also attended Morning-side College and returned to Iowa State Teachers College for additional work.

Active in community affairs here, Mrs. Haselton was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, the United Presbyterian Women and Bethany Circle.

She was an honorary life member of the Board of Christian Education of the United Presbyterian Women, a member of the auxiliary of the Merle Hay Post No. 386 of the American Legion, an honorary member of Entre Nous Club, which she joined in 1922, and Signet Chapter No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star.

She was the widow of Ray Haselton, a prominent Glidden farmer. The couple was married March 10, 1922.

Mrs. Haselton had been a resident of the Carroll Health Center for the past year.

Surviving are the following children: David B. Haselton and his wife, Mary, of Sioux Falls, S.D.; Mrs. Marian Junker of Marshalltown, James C. Hasel-

REV. LOUIS L. AKIN

Private services for the Rev. Louis L. Akin, 93, retired minister of the Christian (Disciples of Christ) Church, were conducted last Thursday. He died July 29 at the Carroll Health Center Nursing Home.

A grandson, the Rev. Paul Akin, officiated. Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery. A memorial fund has been established in Rev. Akin's name for Nebraska Christian College.

He was born Nov. 29, 1890, in Grant Township, Carroll County, the son of Ethan III and Charity Ella Griffith Akin. His marriage to Clara Olson took place Nov. 30, 1912, at Goldfield, Iowa.

He began his education in a one-room country school in 1895 and attended schools in Glidden where he was graduated from high school in 1909. At the University of Iowa, he studied law the first year but switched to Drake University in 1910 to study for the ministry.

He was elected to the Iowa Legislature in 1926, served as Scoutmaster in Carroll in 1932, was appointed state farm debt advisor for Carroll County in 1933 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and was listed in Who's Who in the Midwest in 1963.

Active in Masonic work most of his life, Rev. Akin was a 50-year member of all the Masonic bodies and had served as master of Signet Lodge No. 264, A.F. & A.M. He was also a member of the order of Eastern Star and had served as patron.

For serving in all the offices of the Chapter, Council and Commandery, he was honored by Sir Galahad Prior No. 7, of Nebraska.

Rev. Akin served churches in Stuart; Audubon; San Diemas, Calif.; Exira and Logan, Iowa.

Surviving are three sons: Robert L. of Carroll, Richard K. of Texas City, Texas, and Ethan M. of Port Isabel, Texas, 11 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; a son, Louis Jr., and a daughter, Flora.

and Jerry of Mapleton, and two daughters: Janet Genter of Denver and Judy Kuehl of Mapleton. She was the mother of Mrs. Ron Genter of Denver.

Former resident injured in accident

On the last day of a two-week trip to the southeastern states, Harley and Linda Alcox were injured in a motorcycle accident near Marshal, Mo. She is the former Linda Brookbank of Glidden.

Relatives said that Harley was released after medical treatment but that Linda was admitted to the University of Missouri Hospital at Columbia. She suffered a broken right arm and burns and cuts on her left arm. She is expected to be transferred later to Stewart Memorial Hospital, Lake City.

Friends may write her at the University of Missouri Medical Center's burn unit, Columbia, Mo.

The average American uses about 28 pounds of soap and detergents a year.

cent of contract. Under take-or-pay pipeline companies for a specified even if they cannot Take-or-pay provisions written into many contracts in the assure pipeline adequate supply of period of rapidly. Since 1981, U.S. usage has decreased, forcing pipelines to pay for gas even though they do not store it. Those requirements have the substantial impact prices over the since pipeline cost the cost of pure gas on to local gas who in turn, pass their customers.

The rule changes one of the issues natural gas legislation before the U.S. House of Representatives. The bill dorses that bill. Iowa congressionals to work for its passage.

The rulemaking be approved by specific rule changes proposed.

Local softball team

HEADING FOR OPEN STATE ACTION at Ce
Mister D's softball team, which won fourth nl

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.