Rath Packing company purchased all of the 4-H market pigs at an average of $27.50 per 100. The total for this sale was $1,036.94. There were 19 pigs sold, averaging 199 pounds each. Gordon Pollock, Volga, received the highest price paid for his senior champion barrow. Others selling were Ronald Buhr, Westgate; Herbert and Gerald Winter, West Union.

The F.F.A. market pigs were also sold in this sale at a total of $1,153.70. These 19 pigs averaged 209 pounds each and sold at an average of $29.50 per 100. Weng of West Union purchased four of these pigs, the rest going to Rath Packing company.

AmVets To Open Club Here Next Thursday

The local AmVets organization will open their club room over the Ford Garage with a stag party for all veterans on Thursday evening, Sept. 4.

The rooms have been completely redecorated, the club officers have announced. The front part will be set aside for teen-age activities and will be equipped with games, ping pong table, and dances will be held. Pop and ice cream will be sold to the younger set at cost.

The Hot Point range given by the organization at the fair went to James Drosser, Cresco, and the Majestic radio with $20 worth of records to Robert Howard, also of Cresco. John Kiple, West Union, won the GE Iron.

STORES TO CLOSE

Business houses and stores will be closed all day on Monday, Sept. 1, in observance of Labor day, the retailer's committee announced this week.

Mrs. Hattie Dorland, Osage, assisted with work in the floral hall at the fair last week.
