Bedford Bruins Win From Oilers

The Bedford Bruins won their fifth straight victory last Sunday defeating the Omaha Oilers 7-3. Sickels opened the fourth frame with a single and was promptly sacrificed to second by Marshall. Lowry doubled, Jeter smashed a towering triple to left center and Jamison followed with another two-bagger and three runs were in. Radke was safe on Carter's error and Jamison scored for a total of four runs enough to win.

The Oilers defense fell apart in the sixth when the Bruins scored twice on four errors. The final tally came in the eighth on doubles by Lowry and Radke.

The visitors scored single runs in the last three innings all of which were unearned.

Walters collected half of the Omaha hits getting three singles in four attempts. Lowry paced the locals with two doubles.

Jeter struck out fifteen and five of the Bruins went down swinging.

The Benson Blues, one of the fastest semipro teams from Kansas City, Missouri will furnish plenty of opposition on the local diamond next Sunday afternoon.

Score by innings:

Omaha	000	000	111	—	3	6	5
Bedford	000	402	01x	—	7	4	3

Batteries: A. Dunbar, J. Dunbar (6) and Walters; Jeter and Radke.
