

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Kepple, Presley Long Senator _____ Represented Chickasaw County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 11 Jul 1857

2. Marriage (s) date place

Elizabeth Pembrough 12 Dec 1893 Charles City, Iowa

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities Mason; I.O.O.F.

C. Profession Merchant

4. Church membership Congregational

5. Sessions served 36th, 37th, 38th General Assemblies 1915, 1917, 1919

6. Public Offices

A. Local Postmaster at Iowa for 11 years; township constable; Justice of the Peace; Chickasaw township trustee; member of Chickasaw and Iowa school boards; Iowa town councilman

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 19 Mar 1940 Nashua, Iowa; buried Greenwood Cemetery, Nashua, Iowa

8. Children Madge (Mrs. W. C. Hanson); Carl; Irulas; Glenn; Ralph (died in infancy); Madge (Mrs. C. M. Stein)

9. Names of parents Daniel and Elizabeth (Byers) Kepple

10. Education

Attended district school in his neighborhood in Chickasaw; later attended the Baptist Seminary at Orange, Iowa

11. Degrees

12. Other applicable information

Republican

- He was one of the first white children born in Chickasaw County.
- His parents moved to the village of Chickasaw where he grew up on the Little Cedar River
- After marriage they lived on farm by Chickasaw for 9 years moving to Iowa farm in 1892
- Then he went into partnership with his brother John and Fred Kepple, in the General Merchandise Store for 10 years
- His wife, Elizabeth, died in 1920.

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
- Obituary -			The Nashua Reporter, Nashua, Iowa, Ind. Mar. 25, 1940, p. 1, col. 4, 5

LOOKED LIKE OLD TIMES

AT DEPOT HERE LAST FRIDAY

Large Crowd Was Present Visit Illinois Central Soybean Train

looked like old times at the Central depot in Nashua Friday afternoon, when a crowd of people stood on the platform awaiting the arrival of the train. Tickets were sold, however, except there were some unresisting slowaways, the train pulled out later with none but the host accompanying it here. It is the Illinois Central's Soybean Train, which is on a tour of northern Iowa and Oklahoma, with stops in the various towns along the company's lines, town people and children, estimated to total 300, visited the train which was in Nashua Friday. It was a half-hour behind schedule, as it had to wait at Des Moines City, so it could follow a freight from that place. The train minded waiting for it, however, as the spring-like weather made it nice to have an outdoor excursion.

Motion Pictures

Some of the passenger cars carried motion pictures were outlining the recommendations of cultivation of soybeans.

A movie had been made by the International Harvester command was shown through the window of that concern.

Exhibit Car

The former car had various exhibits which showed various types of soybeans, the importance of the cultivation of soybeans to live-

There was also an exhibit of various by-products of soybeans. Principal of these are such as soap dishes, ash trays, which are made by molding soybeans with other substances into a material similar to plastic. Sources: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

P. L. KEPPLE, A FORMER STATE REPRESENTATIVE, CALLED BY DEATH

DIED TUESDAY NOON AT THE KIRKLAND HOTEL

Was 82 Years Old, One of the First White Children Born in Chickasaw County

P. L. Kepple, 82, a former representative of Chickasaw county in the Iowa Legislature, died Tuesday noon at the Kirkland hotel, Des Moines.

The above picture of P. L. Kepple, better known as "Press" by his host of friends, was taken while he was serving as a member of the Iowa Legislature.

He was buried in his family lot in Greenwood cemetery.

Born at North Washington

He was born at North Washington, Iowa, the fourth of seven sons of Daniel and

EARLY
GRA

At the

An early death was discovered in the case of Randall G. Nashua.

Randall G. Nashua, a fence rower, was ordered if he was having "spots" soon discovered small grasshoppers of the grasshopper fence.

When he died in office Tuesday morning, he was a live insect as definite as definite.

This is the first heard of in this town out in this

Not being in time weather, we know whether the condition we were in or not.

Another debate is being held in a hatch of grasshoppers in a hard summer, to eliminate them to be frozen we any day.

REV. HANCOCK OF LIT

Is Substitute Who is
Be

Rev. F. H. Hancock, the First Baptist pastor in Nashua, pastorate of the church, was pastor of the church enforced by the church.

Rev. Hancock's weddings and conduct were held at the church on the mornings, Nashua for the church.

to a material similar Panels of wood paint-oybean oil paints and were also exhibited. is shown that soybeans be used in the manu-f of rubber by adding
ybe. to live rubber, creasing the amount of oducts that can be made antity of gum rubber.
ere also exhibits of imriceties of oats, barley which are especially Iowa climate and soils.

f Gets Attention

er car, a chef was preper for members of the w. ors entered the exhibit ould see him through n the doorway, and he erable attention, as he g away on a cigar while paring the meal.
n was in charge of Schwietert, general ag-agent of the Illinois who was assisted by P. agricultural agent. The department of Iowa ge cooperating with the nd county farm agents fr of agriculture rail had made arrange-farmers, high school members of civic organ-nd business men to visit active and entertaining al exhibition.

P. L. Kepple, 82, a former representative from Chickasaw county in the Iowa Legislature, and a life-long resident of the county, died Tuesday noon at his room in the Kirkland hotel, where he had lived the last year and a half.

Death was caused by Bright's disease, from which he had been seriously ill for the past few weeks. Although he had not been in good health for some time, Mr.
Kepple had been unusually active for a person of his age until overtaken by his final illness. Not many weeks ago he was around town getting signers for political nomination papers for friends who had decided to run for office.

Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Thursday).

There will be a short prayer service for relatives at the Lundt funeral home at 1:30, followed at 2 o'clock by the public funeral at the First Congregational church. Rev. F. L. Hanscom, pastor, will officiate.

As was requested by Mr. Kepple during his last illness, the Masonic ritual will be performed at the grave by the local lodge.
As he was also a member of the Odd Fellows, he had likewise expressed a desire that members of this order be invited to attend the funeral in a body.

Burial will be made in the

Born at North Washington

Presley Long Kepple, the fourth of seven sons of Daniel and Elizabeth Byers Kepple, was born at North Washington, Iowa, July 11, 1857, and passed away March 19, 1940, at the age of 82 years, 8 months and 7 days.

He was one of the first children born in the first pioneer settlements in Chickasaw county, and was closely identified with the county's development and history throughout his life.

Moved to Chickasaw as a Boy

His parents moved to the village of Chickasaw, which grew up on the Little Cedar River, when he was a small boy, and he attended district school there.
He later attended the Baptist Seminary a Osage, Iowa, for a short time.

He was married to Elizabeth Rumbaugh, at Charles City, Iowa, Dec. 12, 1883. At the time of their marriage she was teaching in the school at Chickasaw. They had been children together, having started to school at the same time in North Washington.

They lived on farms at and near Chickasaw for nine years, moving to Ionia in 1892.

Storekeeper and Postmaster at Ionia

Here he was in partnership with his brothers, John and Fred Kepple, in the operation of Kepple Bros. General Merchandise Store for ten years. He later conducted a similiar business in Ionia, in partnership with his son, Glenn, selling out to the latter in 1910.

He was also postmaster at Ionia for 11 years.

Mr. Kepple believed it to be the duty of every citizen to take a deep interest in good government and he served as township constable, justice of the peace and trustee in Chickasaw township, and on school boards at Chickasaw and Ionia. He was also a member of the town council at Ionia during his residence there.

Representative Three Terms

He was elected Representative in the State Legislature from Chickasaw county, and served in the 1915, 1917 and 1919 general assemblies. He is the only person to have served in that office from this county for three consecutive terms.

He took pride in the fact that he voted for the adoption of the 18th Amendment, giving the right

Nashua for the worship at church.

Rev. Kent's
that his rest provement in enter a clinic

His daughter
Sylvian Lehr
rived today
She came by and Mr. and drove there t

AMERICAN
ASS'N SE

Will Be of Members an from All

H. H. Ott, s Motor Club of the American ciation, was i making a set assistance to in this county mobile travel
United States
may need ser

The Americ
sociation is which not on roads but als ble step to sa eling and the get some ur laws through legislatures.

Banwell Has

Banwell's g ed the offic
Nashua, Mr. C
porter.

Local motor sociation wil many free A garage is sul
by AAA men in the nation disabled on cality.

An advert some of the (Contin

ATTEND THE HOME PROJECT MEETING IN KEASLING DISTRICT

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa farmers, high school members of civic organization and entertaining exhibition.

Odd Fellows, he had likewise expressed a desire that members of this order be invited to attend the funeral in a body.

Burial will be made in the

Storekeeper and Postmaster at Ionia

Here he was in partnership with his brothers, John and Fred Kepple, in the operation of Kepple Bros. General Merchandise Store for ten years. He later conducted a similiar business in Ionia, in partnership with his son, Glenn, selling out to the latter in 1910.

He was also postmaster at Ionia for 11 years.

Mr. Kepple believed it to be the duty of every citizen to take a deep interest in good government and he served as township constable, justice of the peace and trustee in Chickasaw township, and on school boards at Chickasaw and Ionia. He was also a member of the town council at Ionia during his residence there.

Representative Three Terms

He was elected Representative in the State Legislature from Chickasaw county, and served in the 1915, 1917 and 1919 general assemblies. He is the only person to have served in that office from this county for three consecutive terms.

He took pride in the fact that he voted for the adoption of the 18th Amendment, giving the right of equal suffrage to the women of Iowa. He voted for the right as he saw it in all things.

His long life was one guided by Christian charity, and the principle of the Golden Rule, and his good deeds were many. He believed that the right would triumph and was of an unusually hopeful, optimistic temperament.

He and his wife joined the Congregational church at Ionia, when they went there to establish their home, and both worked and supported it as long as they lived there.

Mrs. Kepple died in November, 1920.

Six Children

Six children were born to the couple: Madge, now Mrs. W. C. Hanson, Parkersburg, Iowa; Carl, of Independence, Iowa; Trula, of Washington, D. C.; Glenn, of Independence; Ralph, who died in infancy, and Gladys, Mrs. C. M. Finn, of Durand, Wis.

There are nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. His brother, C. F. Kepple, of Garrison, Iowa, also survives him.

roads but also a necessary step to safeguarding and the get some uniform laws through legislatures.

Banwell Has

Banwell's got the official Nashua, Mr. O. Porter.

Local motor association will many free AA garage is sub by AAA mem in the nation disabled on locality.

An advert some of the

(Continued)

AN ENTIRE DEVOTED

NASHUA

B

In This Nashua

Joining the mission, in form the pu butter in the increase the this import The Reporter vote an ent sue to Nashua

The local grocers and co-operated that appear various art recipes" we National De

We believe readers will enlightened. to page seven formation a

THE WOMEN AND THE HOME PROJECT MEETING IN KEASLING DISTRICT

—Flashlight Photo by Bob Goodsell

Women have been attending the Women's Home Project Meeting in the Keasling school district, Chickasaw township, this year. In the afternoon, they prefer to go off into the other room and play cards. The women discuss their homemaking problems, but the men attend them "in class" when The Reporter's photographer visited the meeting at the Albert Wagner farm and took the above

At this time, the women had something of real interest to demonstrate to the men, and something the men can take part in making—making a fruit box.

The kit contains necessary dishes for a family picnic, thermos to keep drinks hot or cool, and even a first-aid kit for any emergency that may occur on a picnic. Always ready, the picnic kit makes an easy task for mother to prepare for a family outing.

In the picture, various features of the picnic kit are being demonstrated by Mrs. Edmund Poppe, kneeling at left, who is Home Project leader in the township; her assistant, Mrs. Earl Huffman, kneeling at extreme left, and Mrs. Lyle Huffman, standing at right. Mr. Huffman is Chickasaw township Home Project chairman.

The men in the picture, left to right, are: Edmund Poppe, John Frank Watson, who seems to be hiding behind Albert Wagner farm, Homer Frederici, Homer Huffman, Earl Huffman, and Lyle Huffman. Mr. Watson is present for roll call, even if it is hard to find him in the picture, only the top of his head being seen.)

Other women in the picture are, left to right: Mrs. Nels Watson, Mrs. Homer Huffman, Mrs. Ed Griffin, Mrs. Mrs. Frederici and Mrs. Kosky.