HOBART PUBLISHING COMPANY

1905

At Wapello, Iowa, May 22, 1881, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Griebel, of that place, who was formerly prominent in church work as Sunday-school superintendent and church organist, and for twenty years they have occupied a pleasant home at the corner of Eighth and Division Streets, where they are the center of a devoted circle of friends, and enjoy an environment of refinement and culture. As feeling a genuine solicitude for the general good, Mr. Andre takes part in public affairs as a member of the Republican party, but has never sought political office, confining his activities to private business and the use of his influence in the interest of good government.

EDWARD ANDRE.

EDWARD ANDRE, son of P. A. Andre, was born in Burlington, June 20, 1856, and has been connected with the Green Horn shoe store in a clerical capacity for the major part of the last thirty years, during which time he has formed a large circle of acquaintance in this city and vicinity. He wedded Miss Anna Romkey, and one child graces their union, this being a son, Dale. The family resides at Seventh and Maple Streets. Mr. Andre has won general respect and consideration, and has many friends.

---

P. HENRY ANDRE.

P. HENRY ANDRE was born in Burlington, Iowa, June 21, 1860, son of P. A. Andre, and after leaving school learned the trade of carriage blacksmith; but after the failure of the large factories at this place on account of eastern competition, he entered the shoe store, in which he has been engaged as a clerk for twenty-three years.

On Dec. 24, 1882, he married Miss Clara Glendy, of Omaha, Nebr., and they have one daughter, Pearl, who is organist of the First Baptist church of Burlington. Their home, built in 1897, is located at the corner of Division and Gunnison Streets. The family are earnest Sunday-school workers, and Mrs. Andre is also a member of Whatsoever Circle of the King's Daughters, in whose work she takes a prominent part.

A large measure of popularity has come to Mr. Andre, and in 1902 he received the honor of nomination for the office of county clerk of Des Moines county at the hands of the Republican party, although he was subjected to defeat, as the county is strongly Democratic. His religious connection is with the First Baptist church, to which he has long given his services as usher, while he has also been a member of the official board for a long term of years. Fraternally, he has membership relations with the Woodmen of the World, in which he has, at various times, held the several offices.
