Howard Benn, sr. Dies in Florida

Was Washington County Resident Until 1926—Son Leaves for Funeral

Howard Benn, sr., 65, died last night at eleven o'clock at his home in Tampa, Fla., after an illness of several months. His only son, Howard Benn, jr., who lives six and a half miles southeast of town, left this morning for Tampa to attend the funeral.

Mr. Benn underwent a major operation last June after which he failed steadily. He moved to Tampa in 1926, and the funeral services and burial will be there.

Surviving are his wife, Mable, and son, Howard, jr., two grandchildren, Norman and Marlene Benn, of whom he was very fond; three sisters, Mrs. Frank Wilson of Wellman, Mrs. Charles McCreedy of Sigourney and Grace Benn of Los Angeles, Calif.; two brothers, Jay and Irwin of Los Angeles; and a step-brother, Raymond Benn of Washington.

Howard Benn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Benn of Ainsworth was born June 14, 1876. The family home was on a farm northeast of town. Mr. Benn in former years was cashier in a Kalona bank and served in the state legislature.
