PETER HADLEY DIES THIS MORNING

FORMER COUNTY OFFICIAL ILL
BUT FEW DAYS

RESIDENT FORTY-THREE YEARS

After an illness of two days, Peter Hadley, former county treasurer and county representative, passed away at his home, 1221 Sixth avenue north, this morning about 11:00. Mr. Hadley who was sixty-seven years of age, was taken suddenly ill Tuesday evening at the chautauqua. His condition was serious from the start and as uremic poisoning developed the end was not unexpected.

Mr. Hadley came to Webster county forty-three years ago when with his bride,
who was before her marriage Miss Anna Myrah, he drove overland from his boy-hood home in Wisconsin. He has lived continuously in this community ever since. He settled on a farm in Newartownship and only left it in 1906 when he was made county treasurer and moved to Fort Dodge to perform the duties of that office. He has been prominent in public affairs and served as representative from Webster county for several terms.
His first wife passed away fifteen years ago and seven years ago he was married to Mrs. Bessie Peters who survives him.

He is survived by four children who are Major Herbert Hadley, stationed at Camp Dodge; William and Lawrence Hadley of this city, and one daughter, Mrs.
Ida Cromwell, of Billings, Montana. Another son, Arthur Hadley, died eleven years ago.

The funeral will take place some time Monday, although the definite arrangements have not been made.

Perhaps the most important contribution of Mr. Smith to his State and generation is his "History of Dickinson County," issued in 1902. This work is much more valuable than the usual chronology bound and bearing a county name. It deals with causes and effects, incidents and events, in a manner at once broad and instructive, giving evidence of intimate association and keen comprehension. Mr. Smith knew as did not other living man as to what had been experienced and accomplished during forty-five years of important development in the region of which he wrote. Of the most tragic event in the history of Iowa he wrote from knowledge much of it first hand and most of it well authenticated. There is in print no account of the Spirit Lake Massacre that deals more intelligently and graphically with the important details as well as with causes and effects. Few are left to tell the story of earlier settlement and sacrifices in the counties of Northwest Iowa.

PETER HADLEY.

MR. SPEAKER—Your committee appointed to memorialize the life and public services of Peter Hadley, an honored member of this House in the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth assemblies, and who died at his home in Fort Dodge, Iowa, the nineteenth day of July, 1918, beg leave to submit the following report:

Whereas, In view of the loss the state has suffered by the decease of Honorable Peter Hadley of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of the Honorable Peter Hadley, the state laments the passing of a valuable and honored citizen who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid, to give voice in the counsels of his fellows, and to offer sympathy to the needy. That in the long and active residence in Webster County, being identified with its educational, commercial, and political activities, he enjoyed a large acquaintanceship through the county and the state, which he deeply appreciated and profoundly respected.

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed, to say that in regretting his removal we mourn for one who was worthy of our respect and regard.
