

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative _____

Senator

Dunnegan,

John Joseph - Represented Fremont and Page Counties, Iowa

1. Birthday and place

16 May 1861 Mt. Hope, York County, North Carolina

2. Marriage (s) date place

Ellen Ella Adams

8 Oct 1890

Haco, York County, Nebraska

3. Significant events for example:

- A. Business As well as being a prominent contractor he had interest in the Shenandoah National Bank as well as Electric Light, Heating and Power Company of Shenandoah
- B. Civic responsibilities Mayor

C. Profession Contractor

4. Church membership

Methodist

5. Sessions served

6. Public Offices

A. Local Shenandoah city councilman 1894-1895; Trustee of the Shenandoah Methodist church

B. State

C. National He was a delegate for the Democratic National Convention at Denver, Colorado in 1908

7. Death

7 Feb 1929 Shenandoah, Iowa buried Rose Hill Cemetery, Shenandoah, Iowa

8. Children

Jennie (Mrs. E. J. Gottsch)

9. Names of parents

Joseph and Pauline (Ireland) Dunnegan

10. Education He received a rural school education for a short while most learned by himself

11. Degrees

12. Other applicable information Demarest

- He arrived to Appanoose County, Iowa in March 1883. Soon there he moved to Howard County, Nebraska in 1884
- He returned to Iowa in 1891, locating at Sherandoak, Iowa. There he engaged in the plumbing business and sale of windmills and pumps.
In 1902 he began the contracting business. His speciality was erecting water works and laying off pavement and sewers.
- His father died before he was born, his mother died when he was 2. He was bound out to a man named Hoskins and his wife who treated him poorly. He ran away at age 12. He then began to work for a Mr.
Mendenhall. Later he contracted with a railroad to furnish wood for locomotives. When coal replaced wood, he was without a job.
- That is when he moved on to Appanoose County, Iowa and worked as a section hand on the railroad.
- He then went to Howard County, Nebraska where he fed cattle, but lost his savings when the stock market
- He and his wife then moved to Sherandoak Iowa in 1891. There he dug wells, and then secured a half interest in a plumbing business
- Later he did big jobs in Illinois, Indiana, South Dakota, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Colorado as well as Iowa. Larger jobs were done in Chicago, St. Louis, Cape Pradear and Melina Illinois.
- His business grew extensively in southern Iowa

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
- Iowa Official Register 1913-1914 p. 672-673
- ancestry.com (accessed 10/3/2007) ✓
- Page County Genealogical NPA
- History of Page County - from 1909 p. 556-558
- Obituary - The Shenandoah Evening Sentinel, Shenandoah, Iowa Fri. Feb. 8, 1929, p. 1, col. 6 and p. 5, col. 4, 5
- Burial - The Shenandoah Evening Sentinel, Shenandoah, Iowa Mon Feb 11, 1929, p. 1, col 5 and p. 5, col. 1, 2, 3, 4
- Funeral - The Shenandoah Evening Sentinel, Shenandoah, Iowa Fri, Feb 8, 1929, p. 1, col 5
- Obit. - The Shenandoah Evening Sentinel, Shenandoah, Iowa Sat Feb. 9, 1929, p. 4, col. 3, 4, 5, 6

BELIEF FACTOR, IS DE

Historical Dept. of Iowa
E. R. Harlan, Curator

It's Final Test

HEART A THURSD FATAL T

PRESIDENT "SHENANDOAH'S BEST FRIEND"

J. J. DUNNEGAN

Outstanding Figure
Iowa Was Nat'l
Contractor
Services

John J. Dunnegan, most outstanding figure over the great divide Thursday night.

His family and have realized for a long time that the end was near. He had been ill for some time and was unable to do his usual work.

During the day business was conducted as usual and at night with the usual seemed to be going on with the usual. His daughter, Mrs. was leaving after when he suddenly the worse and passed minutes.

For the last two his heart had been undue exertion in. Two months ago he home from St. Louis semi-collapse and where he has been cared for by his and his only child and and Mrs. E. J. O'Connell.

The outstanding known Mr. Dunnegan arrival in Iowa thirty eight years vigorous young man years, desperately sult of early and luck. But he had by and never deep as the was nothing

FUND $500

More Says Needed

INSURED

Protects Liver

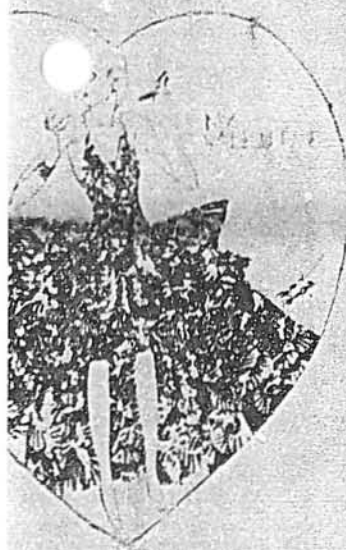

FARMERS EXCHANGE WIVES
Neighboring Families Seem Happy
In Their New Homes

Lawson, N. D. EP The marital difficulties of the Lawrence Atkins apparently ended today after an exchange of five children and house

FUNERAL SERVICES
SUNDAY AT 2.30

Will Arrive For Last Rites For
J. J. Dunnegan

Modern Valentine

Patterson, cartoonist and artist, is nothing if he isn't original. He "broadcasts" that his valentines be very original. In this sample below he has done away with all the familiar frills and lace that were always a part of the

International Newsreel

"Hello, Fisherman"

Myers, the artist, and his wife, Mrs. E. J. Myers, arrived at Edison home here at

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO J. J. DUNNEGAN

Great Assemblage of Relatives and Friends Honor Memory at Impressive Service

A great assemblage of friends gathered with relatives at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday afternoon to pay tribute to the memory of J. J. Dunnegan. It was one of the largest, if not the largest funeral ever held in Shenandoah. The beautiful large church auditorium, which he was one of the leaders in building, was filled to the galleries.

Masses of floral tribute silently bespoke the esteem in which he was held. Pulpit, altar, the choir loft and at either side of the front of the church was banked with flowers. Eight automobiles were used to take the flowers to the cemetery.

Reservations were made for the Sunday school class of Mrs. Dunnegan, the P. E. O's and the Tri-H club of which Mr. Dunnegan's daughter, Mrs. E. J. Gottsch is a member. A number of friends, business associates in the Dunnegan construction company accompanied the relatives. The funeral procession was headed by the pastor, the Rev. Levi P. Goodwin, who read scriptures as the procession entered the church, and by Rev. John W. Todd.

Mrs. Ermal McMichael presided at the pipe organ. H. J. Becker sang a solo and a quartet of Mrs. E. E. May, Mrs. Isaac Jackson, Rosa Smith and W. A. Burke sang familiar hymns. The flowers were in charge of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Tindall, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. May, Miss Ella Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Hyde.

Comforting verses from the Bible were read by Rev. Goodwin and a prayer offered. Rev. Todd read the obituary and gave a personal sketch of the civic leader. Rev. Goodwin closed the services with a short talk. It took more than a half hour for the friends and relatives to file

"Woman Disputed"

Here's the famous painting "La Belle Ferroniere" ("The Blacksmith's Daughter"), the reason so many words are being spilled in the suit brought by Mrs. A. L. Hahn, of Kansas City and Paris, against Sir Joseph Duveen, art expert, who says the picture is "a copy of a copy."

FARMING OUTLOOK TO BE DISCUSSED

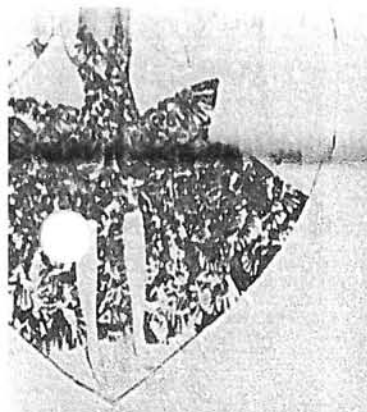

Will Meet at Clarinda for Conference

Senate
R

took the ices
it 34
passed Govern
Senat
ter, ab win

The
in ord work
to me a d a l 20 of use eight consti more by an
the nine
Gov
Tavor making as soci cause upon

of the will sent seven been penit ernor possi
Bill
perso army late our game sion and invest panie in roo
Und
comp
will

Patterson, cartoonist and is nothing if he isn't He "broadcasts" that he at his valentines be very
In this sample below as done away with all amiliar frills and lace ere always a part of the

International Newsreel

Delio, Fisherman"

Myers, Fla. (UP) —
t Elect Hoover arrived Edison home here at clock today for the lection of Thomas A.
Mrs. Hoover and of the party were met lock on the Edison es-the inventor and his
and Mrs. Henry Ford.
Mrs. Harvey Firestone
d officials, headed by Giner Hough.
"Fisherman." Edison
the president-elect and shook hands. r smiled warmly and ook hands with Ford estone as the cameras party retired to the or a few minutes before ng a parade through

CAN MAKES E WITH ITALY

Treaty Ends 58 Years of agement: Catholics Are

R. Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by Volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

gan, the P. E. O's and the Tri-H club of which Mr. Dunnegan's daughter, Mrs. E. J. Gottsch is a member. A number of friends, businessmen, construction company the relatives. The funeral processional was headed by the pastor, the Rev. Levi P. Goodwin, who read scriptures as the processional entered the church, and by Rev. John W. Todd.

Mrs. Ermal McMichael presided at the pipe organ. H. J. Becker sang a solo and a quartet of Mrs.
E. E. May, Mrs. Isaac Jackson, Rosa Smith and W. A. Burko sang familiar hymns. The flowers were in charge of Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs.
R. K. Tindall, Mr. and Mrs. E. E.
May, Miss Ella Murphy and Mr.
and Mrs. Leo V. Hyde.

Comforting verses from the Bible were read by Rev. Goodwin and a prayer offered. Rev. Todd read the obituary and gave a personal sketch of the civic leader. Rev. Goodwin closed the services with a short talk. It took more than a half hour for the friends and relatives to file past the casket. The long procession was formed and proceeded to Rose Hill cemetery where beneath the protecting limbs of stately birch trees and a border of blossoms the interment was made as the sun broke thru the snow clouds.

The pallbearers, who were mostly men who had been associated with him in the banking and construction business, were Harry Ross, Fred Schneider, Jack Gilmore, John Behm, Tom Murphy, Faby Ambler, Elmer Briggs and Walter Anderson.
The honorary pallbearers were John Lovitt, Charles Hamilton, Ralph Lake, A. W. Murphy, W. L. McGuiloch, Maxie Jewett, Charles Banks and Fred Pringle of Chicago, and John Vance of Milford, Neb.

Among those from out-of-town who came were the following relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. A.
C. Stream, Mehlon Stream, J. G.
Stream, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berry, Mrs. Clarence Hohnbaum, Waco, Neb.; Walter Anderson, Chicago; Faby Ambler and Jack Gilmore, South Bend; Dan McLaughlin, Des Moines, Senator D. L. Wilson and Horace Fosskett, Des Moines; Mrs.
G. A. Gottsch, LeMars, Ia.; John
Vance and M. Ely, Milford, Neb.; Fred Pringle, Chicago attorney who was also Mr. Dunnegan's next door

Here's the famous painting,
"La Belle Ferroniere" ("The Blacksmith's Daughter"), the reason so many words are being spilled in the suit brought by Mrs. A. L. Hahn, of Kansas City and Paris, against Sir Joseph Duveen, art expert, who says the picture is "a copy of a copy."

FARMING OUTLOOK TO BE DISCUSSED

Agricultural Economics Workers Will Meet at Clarinda for Conference

On February 14, 1929, there will be a meeting in the District Court room in Clarinda, of much importance to farmers, business men and others interested in the agricultural situation. This is called an "Agicultural Outlook" meeting, one of a series of thirty that will be held in Iowa during the period February 11-18, inclusive. Agricultural economics workers from the Agricultural Extension Service of Iowa State college will be present and will discuss the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics "Outlook" report and interpret it for local conditions.

The purpose of the meeting is to get together prominent farmers, bankers, elevator managers, cooperative shippers, editors, broadcasters, vocational agriculture teachers, rural ministers, officers of farm organizations, agricultural committees of service clubs, and others interested in the building up of a farm policy that will produce the most favorable economic results.

The papers and radios are putting out agricultural reports and forecasts in large numbers. Farmers ing and planting programs in order to anticipate the best prices. The

The re-did at Govt
a good entire month
of the
will be sent to Severe been a pendin error possibly
BB person arbitr
state comm
game
sions sation and cl invest panies
Introd
Unde ces of comple
will be pen at the
The
and to recept on the comm
under sure that t
the
The
house
Simme
elmina life in or les clared ance with ness
Car
Introd
provin
rearing prima not n $20 Cassid
The
the ed w
and

FARMERS EXCHANGE WIVES

Neighboring Families Seem Happy In Their New Homes

Lansford, N. D. UP.—The marital difficulties of the Rikansrud and Willis Knight families were apparently ended today after an exchange of wife, children and household goods.

Rikansrud and Knight, divorced by their wives on charges of misconduct, each married the other's wife in a double ceremony at Meilla, Manitoba, and the two couples returned to their neighboring farms near here in the same honeymoon automobile.

The new Mrs. Rikansrud was said to have taken her two children into her home and the former Mrs. Knight has been given custody of her five children.

Relations between the two families were said to be friendly.

The Rikansrud and Knight farms are only a short way apart.

GOLD WAVE WILL MOVE EAST IOWA

Sub-Zero Temperatures Which Hit Northwestern Portion Hardest Will Pass Away

Des Moines, (I.P.) The cold wave which last night attacked the northwestern portion of Iowa will move tonight to the southeast portion, Charles S. Reed, Federal Weather Observer, said today.

Temperatures last night ranged from 12 degrees below at Sioux City to 8 degrees above at Keokuk, he said but relief from the cold is in sight, for the places hit the hardest. The cold wave is moving from the northwest to the southeast part of Iowa and will carry with it sub-zero temperatures, while the extreme east section of the state will receive snow tonight, he said.

Fannie Brice is Married

New York, (I.P.) Fannie Brice, comedienne and former wife of Nicky Arnstein, was married today

FUNERAL SERVICES SUNDAY AT 2.30

A Number of Business Associates Will Arrive For Last Rites For J. J. Dunnegan

Funeral services when friends will pay tribute to J. J. Dunnegan, long a civic leader, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church. The services will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. L. P. Goodwin assisted by the Rev. John W. Todd, a friend of many years.

The burial will be in a lot in Rose Hill cemetery.

Pall bearers and honorary pallbearers have been selected from associates in banking and contracting business and friends. Pallbearers will be:

- | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------|
| Harry Ross | Tom Murphy |
| Fred Schneider | Faby Ambler |
| Jack Gilmore | Elmer Briggs |
| John Behm | Walter Anderson |
| Honorary Pallbearers: | |
| John Lott | A. W. Murphy |
| R. G. Berry | W. L. McCulloch |
| Charles Hamilton | Maxie Jewett |
| Ralph Lake | Charles Banks |

Messages of condolence are pouring in from friends and associates in many states. Among those who are coming for the funeral services are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stream, Meillon Stream, J. G. Stream, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berry, Waco, Neb., brothers and sister of Mrs. Dunnegan; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, Chicago; Faby Ambler and Jack Gilmore, South Bend, Ind.; Dan McLaughlin, Des Moines, contractor; Senator D. L. Wilson, who is coming from Des Moines, and Mrs. G. A. Gottsch who will arrive tonight.

"SHENANDOAH'S BEST FRIEND"

Jim Ahlgren Pays Tribute to J. J. Dunnegan, Civic Leader

My friend is gone, my best friend is dead. How much he did for Shenandoah only a few know; but it called for his only child and Mrs. E. J. Gottsch. The editor of the known Mr. Dunnegan arrival in Shenandoah, thirty eight years ago, vigorous young man of years, desperately poor, full of early environment. But he had industry and perseverance. His future and ambition deep as the world, nothing to Shenandoah and the few clothes he had on their backs. But all that he proved one of the best assets to this city of the history. He went at a remuneration far above any of the thousands who have worked for him. In last fifteen or twenty years, a lexicon there was no discouragement. He had almost no schooling, schooling of hard kind, learned from his contacts and seldom if ever from on. Through all the of his childhood and early ever preserved a word for the future. Like Abraham he was ever sustained of humor. Few could do better or to get better by a story. He was jokes and the years of his friendship of his friends. Dunnegan was having been by himself from fortune in later years. him, he was always every movement to the need, and in hundred thousands of instances, really to those he thought helping many a poor himself. No one will how many thousands spent in this way, as he of his charities. As a reporter the instances of notice time and there as we asked of Mr. Dunnegan, his reply was say anything about it. But Mr. Dunnegan, Shenandoah came with public spirit. He made Shenandoah the first and it was over his dollar but what he gave in some way.

HISTORY OF
PAGE COUNTY
IOWA

Also Biographical Sketches of Some Prominent Citizens of the County

By W. L. KERSHAW

ASSISTED BY THE FOLLOWING NAMED AS AN ADVISORY BOARD:

EDWIN C. LANE,
Editor The Clarinda Journal

C. A. LISLE,
Editor The Clarinda Herald

W. P. FERGUSON,
Shenandoah, Judge of the Superior Court

G. B. JENNINGS,
Attorney-at-Law, Shenandoah

VOL. II.

ILLUSTRATED

CHICAGO:
THE S. J. CLARKE PUBLISHING CO.
1909

Savings Bank was effected, Mr. Fishbaugh being connected with the work. On the 7th of January, 1909, the doors of the new institution were thrown open to the public, with Earl C. Fishbaugh as cashier, and already the business has made rapid strides, the possibilities and indications of future success being most favorable.

Mr. Fishbaugh is a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and also of Juniata Lodge, K. P.; of Page Camp, No. 1049, M. W. A.; the Woodmen of the World; the Ancient Order of United Workmen; the Royal Neighbors; and Shenandoah Lodge, No. 1122, B. P. O. E. He likewise belongs to the Congregational church and is interested in those movements which tend to promote humanitarianism and uphold the moral standard. His political allegiance is given to the republican party where state and national questions are involved but at local elections he casts an independent ballot, voting for the candidate irrespective of party ties if he believes that the best interests of the community will be conserved thereby. In the spring of 1909 he was nominated and elected on the labor ticket to the office of city treasurer and his personal popularity and the confidence reposed in him were indicated in the fact that he received the highest vote of any candidate at the election and is the youngest treasurer that has ever filled the office.

On the 15th of December, 1908, Mr. Fishbaugh was united in marriage to Miss Irene Fender, a daughter of Martin Fender, a farmer of Page county, now residing in Shenandoah. Like her husband Mrs. Fishbaugh is a member of the Congregational church and they are prominent socially. He is a young man of strong personality and of marked individuality and is classed with the able young financiers of southwestern Iowa. Everywhere he is held in high regard and his friends are legion.

J. J. DUNNEGAN.

J. J. Dunnegan, one of the leading contractors of southwestern Iowa, making his home in Shenandoah, was born in North Carolina on the 10th of May, 1861. He is the son of Joseph and Pauline (Ireland) Dunnegan, both of whom were also natives of North Carolina and representatives of old southern families. The father was reared in the south and, like his father before him, was a slave-holding planter, being the owner of fifteen slaves at the time of the outbreak of the Civil war. He enlisted for service in the Confederate army and died from the effects of poison administered by a northern spy at Manassas Junction. His widow died soon after the war at the early age of thirty-three years.

J. J. Dunnegan was but two years old at the time of his mother's death. He was bound out to a man by the name of Hoskins at six years of age and because of the treatment he received ran away at the age of twelve years and found a home with a Mr. Mendenhall, with whom he remained until his eighteenth year. He then started out in life on his own account and for two years was employed at four dollars a month. He then secured a contract to furnish wood for the Southern Railway and at this made as high as one hundred and fifty dollars per month, but when wood was supplanted by coal he no longer had a business. Coming to Iowa, he secured a position as a section hand on the Wabash Railroad at Centerville, where he continued for nine months, and subsequently he went to Milford, Nebraska, where he fed cattle for four years in the employ of a well known ranchman of that section of the country. Later he removed to Perkins county, Nebraska, where he secured a homestead, but in that venture lost his savings of the past years. Returning to Milford, he again engaged in feeding cattle for his former employer and was also busily engaged in other work. Again he carefully saved his earnings until his economical expenditures and unfaltering industry had enabled him to acquire a sum of money sufficient to purchase a livery stable at Milford. But his luck as yet had not changed, for one year later the livery stable burned and he was again left without funds. This was in 1891.

The same year Mr. Dunnegan came to Shenandoah, where he sought employment in a plumbing shop and four months later he purchased a half interest in the business, while in the spring of 1902 he became sole proprietor of the enterprise, which he conducted until 1903. He then sold out to the firm of Frink & Hamilton and in 1893 he began contracting in connection with his plumbing business. His first contract was the building of the Shenandoah Water Works, in 1893. Since that time he has been prominently identified with the construction of water works, sewer systems and street pavings, and his business has carried him into various sections of the west as he has executed contracts all over the states of Iowa, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Michigan. His business has grown to extensive and profitable proportions and he is today one of the prominent contractors of southwestern Iowa. In addition to his interests in that line he is a director in the Shenandoah National Bank and is largely identified with the Electric Light, Heating & Power Company, of Shenandoah.

On the 8th of October, 1890, occurred the marriage of Mr. Dunnegan and Miss Ella Stream, of Milford, Nebraska, and unto them was born a daughter, Jennie E., who is now attending high school. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dunnegan are prominent and faithful members and active workers in the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Dunnegan is serving on the church board of trustees and acted as a member of the finance committee in the raising of fifty thousand dollars for the building of a new church. His wife is a member of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies and is also a member of the public library board and of its book-purchasing committee.

Fraternally, Mr. Dunnegan is associated with Shenandoah Lodge, No. 1122, B. P. O. E.; Tricentum Lodge, No. 300, F. & A. M.; and Page Camp, No. 1049, M. W. A. In politics he is a stalwart democrat, believing the interests of the country are best conserved through the advancement of democratic principles. He has been an influential factor in local councils of the party for a number of years, served for two years as a member of the city council of Shenandoah, and in 1908 was a delegate to the democratic national convention at Denver, which nominated W. J. Bryan. He ranks as one of Shenandoah's most prominent business men, possessing the alert, enterprising spirit that enables him to accomplish whatever he undertakes. In his former years he seemed to suffer defeat and failure, but patience is the price of power and Mr. Dunnegan was persistent and earnest, never giving up his intention of eventually engaging in business for himself. He therefore used his opportunities to the best advantage, overcame all difficulties and obstacles in his path and has made substantial progress until he is now at the head of a prosperous and growing business.

HENRY E. DEATER.

Henry E. Deater, who since January, 1906, has capably served as the postmaster of Shenandoah, is the secretary, assistant editor and assistant manager of the Sentinel Post Company. His birth occurred in Lagrange, Indiana, on the 18th of April, 1862, his parents being John and Nancy J. (Leighter) Deater, both of whom were natives of Pennsylvania. They were married in Indiana, to which state they had removed in early manhood and womanhood. The father, who established his home in Lagrange, was an agriculturist by occupation and filled the office of county judge for some years. He passed away at the comparatively early age of forty years, his demise occurring in 1862. The mother of our subject afterward married again, her second union being with Thomas Bean, who died in the year 1870. Mrs. Bean still survives, however, and is a resident of Abingdon, Illinois.

Henry E. Deater was but eleven years of age at the time his stepfather died, leaving a widow and four children in straitened circumstances, and it became necessary for him to aid in the support of the family as best he could. He manfully shouldered the responsibility and assisted in the maintenance of his widowed mother and her children until he had attained his twentieth year. His stepfather had established the family home in Appanoose county, Iowa, but subsequently Henry E. Deater removed to Warren county, Illinois, with the mother and her four children, there continuing to reside until 1882. In that year he started westward with the intention of reading law under the direction of Judge E. G. Godfrey, of Minden, Nebraska, who had been his last school teacher. He had a sister living at Shenandoah, Iowa, and, stopping here on a visit, determined to remain for a time in order to attend college during a term of ten weeks. He had thirty dollars on his arrival, which he gave for tuition and worked in the dining room to pay for his board. On the expiration of his term the president of the college, William M. Crone, insisted that he continue his studies there and when Mr. Deater told him that he had no money the president said he would personally furnish the necessary funds to complete the four years' course even if it required a thousand dollars. Through his influence Mr. Deater obtained a position in the college which enabled him

Iowa Cemetery Records

Name: John J. Dunnegan
Death Date: 07 Feb 1929
Page #: 230
Birth Date: 10 May 1861
Cemetery: Rose Hill
Town: Shenandoah, Grant
Level Info: 43462 Gravestones copied by Graves Registration Project, W. P. A.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com, Iowa Cemetery Records [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: The Generations Network, Inc., 2000. Original data: Works Project Administration, Graves Registration Project. Washington, D.C.: n.p., n.d.

Description:

These cemetery records represent seventy-six counties and Graceland Cemetery of Sioux City, Iowa, in the United States, that were transcribed by the Works Project Administration. Records in this database generally include the page number where the record can be found in the WPA index, the name of the deceased, birth date, death date, age, cemetery name, town name, and additional comments if any. Learn more...

1900 United States Federal Census

Name: John J Dunnegan
 Home in 1900: Shenandoah, Page, Iowa Age: 39
 Estimated birth year: abt 1861
 Birthplace: North Carolina Relationship to head-of-house: Head Spouse's name: Ella Race: White
 Occupation:
 Neighbors:

Household Members:	Name	Age
	John J Dunnegan	39
	Ella Dunnegan	28
	Jonnie Dunnegan	7
	Newton N Irwin	42

Source Citation: Year: 1900; Census Place: Shenandoah, Page, Iowa; Roll: T623 457; Page: 151; Enumeration District: 88.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. 1900 United States Federal Census [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: The Generations Network, Inc., 2004. Original data: United States of America, Bureau of the Census. Twelfth Census of the United States, 1900. Washington, D.C.: National Archives and Records Administration, 1901. T623, 1854 rolls.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1900 United States Federal Census, the Twelfth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, address, relationship to the head of household, color or race, sex, month and year of birth, age, birthday, marital status, number of years married, the total number of children born of the mother, the number of those children living, birthplace, birthplace of father and mother, if the individual was foreign born, the year of immigration and the number of years in the United States, the citizen status of foreign-born individuals over age twenty-one, occupation, and more. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are to actual images of the 1900 Federal Census. Learn more...

|||||||
Copyright © 2007, The Generations Network, Inc. -