Former Local Lad To West Coast City Aurora News

Staff Sgt. Charles (Max) Prindle, who flew 65 missions as a gunner with the Ninth Air Force, has reported for duty with the animal husbandry section of the AAF regional and convalescent hospital, Fort George Wright, Spokane, Washington. Farming is one of several projects included in the individualized convalescent program for AAF veterans. This program combines work projects, classes, reconditioning exercises, and games, and is designed to restore combat airmen to a high state of overall fitness following the stresses and strains of their combat experiences. Sgt. Prindle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prindle was a former Aurora farm boy. He entered the army in March, 1942, served in the Aleutians with the 11th Air Force and was in England and France for 12 months. His decorations include the Purple Heart and the Air Medal with 12 Oak Leaf Clusters. His wife resides in Waterloo.

Native Of County Died At Quasque

Thomas Halstead Enjoyed A Long Life Of Activity.

Quasqueton, (Special):

Thomas Franklin Halstead, a son of Russell and Levina Everett Halstead, was born on January 31, 1862, in Cono township, Buchanan county, Iowa, and departed from this life on the morning of May 27, 1945, at his home in Quasqueton, Iowa, at the age of 83 years.

At an early age he moved with his parents to a farm in Liberty township, where he continued to live until he reached the age of twenty-one, at which time he moved to Quasqueton.

On January 1, 1890, he married Clara M. Plank, of Quasqueton. Their home for many years to come was the old Halstead farm from which they retired in 1925, moving to Quasqueton where he continued to live until his passing. To this union were born two sons and one daughter, Louis R., Everett R., and Nellie Pearl Kress. Each live on a farm in the immediate locality of their parental home.

As a life-long resident of Buchanan County, he will be remembered for his active interest in politics and civic affairs. He served his county as a representative in the 35th General Assembly. Intensely interested in the growth and development of his community, he was always a willing and capable worker and leader.

Those who remain to mourn his death are his wife, two sons, and one daughter; three sisters, Mrs. Luella Gault, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Mrs. Grace Schmutz, of Coffeyville, Kansas; and Mrs. May Stoneman, of Independence, Iowa; nine grandchildren, of whom three grandsons are serving their country: Louis N. and Everett D. Halstead, in Germany, and John F.
Halstead in the South Pacific, six great grandchildren; many other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held in the Union Church at Quasqueton Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Keith Orr, pastor, officiat-
