New Styles In New Bathing Suits Shown

By HEDDA HOYT

ORRK, August 10.—(U. P.)—nearby beaches are thronged with women in one-piece bathing suits and other select fashions. Women of social position have ruled the one-piece outfit, but at better class resorts women are wearing formal little suits of crepe de chine which are made on the French with straight trousers. An old fashioned chintz design in a Chinese pattern is chosen. The suit may be slit up the sides and lined by narrow bands. Little trousers extending to the knee are newer than bloomers. They are of contrasting colors. Half-socks are also worn at smart resorts. One either wears a nude toned hose or bare feet. Vivid kid mules are worn on the feet and later dotting slippers.

Crepe de chine suits figured in the new design are perhaps as popular as any others. The bandana is worn about the head over the bathing rubber cap may be of colored satin or of solid colors. One sees many bathing wraps of indescribably beautiful designs. A Spanish shawl is pressed into service. One matron wore a wrap embroidered in multi-colored flowers over a black silk reason there is a great diversity on the beach. Colorful and women look like little girls dressed in figure

Only the very young Misses wear the knitted suits and these are nearly so colorful as the more formal dress. Among the popular colors for the one-piece costumes are purple, tan, Copenhagen is necessary for action. The records of the state department should be examined for within a few weeks there may be a catastrophe."

That was about two months ago and nothing has happened yet, of moment. It is safe to assume however that had the senate been in session the newspapers would have been flooded with Chinese developments and the situation would have been handled entirely different from the manner in which it has been handled.

great nutrition is the recognition that light is equivalent or supplementary to the anti-rachitic vitamin," declares J. G. Halpin of the poultry department.

"Since the ever increasing development of artificial incubation and brooding of chicks, considerable loss has resulted from leg weakness. In order to combat this injurious disease, poultry men must feed a ration which contains the necessary vitamin. This vitamin is present in cod liver oil, eggs, and some other materials. Unless the early chicks can get into direct sunlight or are fed material of this nature, they will be seriously handicapped in their development.

If the chicks cannot be placed out of doors or in direct sunshine, as is the case often with early hatched chicks, suitable additions to the rations should be fed to substitute for the necessary sunlight. A very satisfactory ration has been prepared by Halpin, and consists of the following ingredients.

Yellow corn, 80 parts; middlings, 20 parts; bone, 5 parts; lime rock, 5 parts; salt, 1 part; and skim milk to drink.

This ration is very successful when direct sunlight is supplied.

Regularity in Feeding Helps Prevent Ailments

Chickens are subject to two disturbances of the crop—crop bound and pendulous crop. Pendulous crop is usually due to inflammation of the digestive tract which causes distention of the crop with gas or liquid food. Crop bound is caused by an obstruction of the crop from eating long wilted grass, gorging on grain or a closing of the lower opening of the crop. In either case it is important to clear the crop. This may be done in the crop-bound bird by making the bird swallow a dose of oil, and after working the crop gently to loosen the mass, suspend the bird by the feet—don't hold them tightly together—and removing the mass from the mouth. Several spoonfuls of warm water with a little soda in it will help. Keep the bird without food for a day, then feed sparingly on soft, easily digested food or give raw eggs in milk. Regularity in feeding will help prevent crop-bound cases.

Weed Seeds in Scratch Feeds Is Cause of Loss

As a result of high percentages of weed seeds found in scratch feeds the Ohio department of agriculture is cautioning purchasers to watch carefully on the labels for the percentage noted. It is declared by the department that this type of feed
