London — (AP)—The admiralty disclosed Monday, that the British destroyers "Blanche" and "Brilliant" had been attacked—but not hit—by 5—unidentified—bombing planes.

The attack occurred Sunday off the Spanish coast in the same general area where the Spanish government_fleet_torpedoed_and_sank_one Stephing Hattle of Cash Shall have bills re increased ish vessel was a result of the naval to frebruit battle. He added, however, that it obviously was a like of mistaken identity.

(Spanish government warplanes took an active part in the naval battle, bombing insurgent warships and strafing their decks with ma-state supreme court since 1914, chine gun fire.)

The "Blanche" and the "Brilliant" were on Nyon patrol duty, protecting neutral shipping in the western Mediterranean against socalled "pirate" raids.

Although the attacking planes were unidentified, the admiralty official said he presumed they were "mopping up" for 1 side or the other after the naval battle and mistook the "Blanche" and "Brilliant" for enemy ships.

"They went for them," he said.

Des Moines — (AP) — Supreme Court Clerk B. W. Garrett Monday was the "last man" of the longtime republican state administrative heads under or near the golden dome of the statehouse.

The death Sunday of Code Editor Ulysses G. Whitney at Sioux City left Garrett as the lone survivor of 7 veteran G. O. P. officials to whom Allison, Larrabee and Speaker Henderson were more than names in Iowa history books and on monuments.

Garrett has been supreme court clerk 27 years. Whitney was code editor 24 years. The 7 served the state a total of 204 years, an average of 29 years apiece, before death and 3 straight terms of democratic rule ended all but 1 of their careers.

Infantry, with which he served until the close of the war. He was with Sherman on the march to the sea and in other notable campaigns. After returning to his home he continued farming and also engaged extensively in the cattle business, conducting his interests with excellent success for many years. About 1895, however, he gave up the cattle business and entered the real-estate business, believing there were splendid opportunities for activity along that line. He has built over sixty residences and business houses at Estherville during the past quarter of a century, no one having done more to improve the city than he. He still remains active, although he is now in the eighty-second year of his age.

On the 15th of October, 1855, in Brunswick, Maine, Mr. Ridley was married to Miss Esther A. Allen, who was born April 8, 1832, a daughter of John and Sarah Allen, the former a farmer of New Gloucester, Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Ridley celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary on the 15th of October, 1914, and both are still hale and hearty. Theirs has indeed been a happy married life and the pleasures of their household were enhanced by the presence of three children. Annie, the eldest, and the first female white child born in Emmet county, became the wife of M. J. Dana, of Sparta, Wisconsin, and to them were born three children, Ralph, Leslie and Joseph E. The eldest of these, Ralph, is married and has three children, Florence, Ruth and Richard, while Leslie Dana has three children, Eunice, Robert and Joseph. Lucy Ridley became the wife of J. D. Hoover, who is now deceased. She had three children, Ethel, Phillip and Esther Hoover. George Ellsworth Ridley, living in Cheyenne, Wyoming, married Mattie Lawrence and their children are Florence, Nellie, Etta, Edwin and Marybelle. Beside Mr. Ridley's great-grandchildren already mentioned, there are several others-Mildred Wing, Rex and Ruth Noe, Ruth Summers and the two Pennington children.

Throughout the long period of his residence in Estherville, Robert E. Ridley has contributed to its advancement and improvement in many ways. He was the second treasurer and recorder of Emmet county, filling the offices in 1859 and 1860. For many years he was a member of the city council and exercised his official prerogatives in support of many plans and projects for the general good. As justice of the peace he married the first couple in Estherville, the bride being his sister. In manner he has always been quiet and unassuming, free from ostentation and display, but his sterling worth has been recognized by his fellow townsmen and there is no resident of Estherville more honored and esteemed than Robert E. Ridley, the father of the city in which he lives, today a venerable citizen of eighty-one years.

U. G. WHITNEY.

U. G. Whitney, supreme court reporter, a member of the Sioux City bar, well known both as a lawyer and lawmaker inasmuch as he has served as a member of the general assembly, was born in Union, Hardin county, Iowa, July 10, 1864. His parents, George and Maria (Row) Whitney, were both natives of the state of New York. The father, who was born in Herkimer county, devoted his entire life to farming. He came to Iowa in 1856 and thereafter carried on general agricultural pursuits in this state until his death, which occurred July 11, 1912, when he was nearly ninety years of age. His wife has also passed away.

Spending his youthful days under the parental roof, U. G. Whitney attended the country schools of Hardin county and the public schools of Union, Iowa. He afterward spent two years as a student in Cornell College at Mount Vernon, Iowa, but in the interim devoted three or four years to teaching school. After leaving Cornell he entered the law school of Drake University at Des Moines and was graduated in June, 1890, and immediately thereafter was admitted to the bar. He then came to Sioux City, where he opened a law office and has since engaged in practice. In the twenty-four years which have elapsed he has made a splendid record as an able and learned member of the bar. He has won for himself very favorable criticism for the careful and systematic methods which he has followed. He possesses a retentive mind and has strong powers of concentration and application. In the discussion of legal matters before the court his comprehensive knowledge of the law is manifest and his application of legal principles demonstrates the wide range of his professional acquirements. In 1900 he was elected county attorney for Woodbury county. The excellent record which he made in that office led to his reelection and he remained in the position until 1910. He was then elected to the state legislature, serving in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth general assemblies and proving an active working member of the house by his stalwart support of many measures which he deemed beneficial to the commonwealth. Upon his retirement from the office he resumed the active practice of law, in which he has since continued, although he is now supreme court reporter and much of his time is taken up with the preparation of copies of the original opinions of the court and the required syllabi, statements, indexes and tables for the publisher of the Supreme Court Reports. He was appointed to the office for a four-year term in the latter part of 1914 and took office in January, 1915.

On the 20th of October, 1892, in Union, Mr. Whitney was married to Miss Lillian D. Rodwell and to them have been born three children: Martha M., Craig W. and George G. The parents are members of the Congregational church and Mr. Whitney belongs also to the Masonic lodge. His political allegiance is given to the republican party and he ever recognizes the duties and obligations as well as the privileges of citizenship. He is now chairman of the republican county central committee.

JAMES TAGGART PRIESTLEY, M. D.

Dr. James Taggart Priestley, a distinguished Iowa physician practicing in Des Moines, his equipment for the profession being the thorough training of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, was born in Northumberland, Pennsylvania, July 19, 1852. There are many illustrious names upon the pages of his ancestral history, for he is a direct descendant in the fourth generation of Joseph Priestley, D. D., an eminent divine, philosopher and scientist, who was born March 13, 1733, and was a son of James Priestley, a cloth manufacturer of Leeds, England, who early gave evidence of remarkable mental power and capacity. A contemporary writer, speaking of Joseph Priestley, D. D., said: "He was a man of broad and liberal thought, became a Unitarian clergyman and gained renown in religious debates. He was a materialist in philosophy and a strong opponent of the association of church one years of age. In June, 1886, he married Miss Marion E. Frisbie, of Sioux City, and they have two children—a son four years of age, and an infant daughter.

Howard S. Baker, born June 20, 1861, is among the enterprising and successful young men of Sioux City. He is a native of Syracuse, N. Y. He came to Sioux City about six years ago, and engaged in the drug business, retiring in 1888, after which he was one of the organizers of the American National bank, of Sioux City. Mr. Baker is engaged in the mortgage and loan business in the Chamber of Commerce building; he is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce. June 10, 1886, he married Mary G. Childs, of Syracuse, N. Y. In political matters he is a republican.

C. FRED GOULD is a native of Massachusetts, and was born in 1863. He educated in Philadelphia, and graduated from the College of Pennsylnia, in 1886. As his grandfather, father and uncle had all been dentists, Mr. Gould followed in their footsteps, and fitted himself for that profession. He came to Sioux City in July, 1889. Mr. Gould is a rising young dentist, and has an exceedingly large practice.

W. E. Bosshard, druggist, Sioux City, was born in Wisconsin in 1863. He attended Wisconsin college at La Crosse, and first engaged in the drug business at Elroy in 1883. He came to Sioux City in 1888, and opened his present place of business in the Opera House block, in partnership with Mr. Burdin. This partnership existed for a year and a quarter, when Mr. Bosshard bought out his partner, and is now conducting the business alone, with the assistance of three men who are employed by him. While not a college graduate, Mr. Bosshard is a careful, practical, thoroughgoing druggist and business man.

C. B. French, Jr., son of C. B. and Maria L. French, is a native of Illinois, and was born in 1862. He is a nephew of A. Z. French (deceased), a prominent early pioneer of this state, and a large land owner. Our subject was educated at Oberlin, Ohio. He immigrated to the west in 1887, and engaged in the banking business in Wayne county, Neb., and was assistant cashier of the bank there, but has since become president, and is principal stockholder in the Winside State bank, of Winside, Neb., a thriving bank, with a capital of $30,000, in a good town. Mr. French was assistant cashier in the National Bank of Sioux City, which has a capital of $1,000,000, but has recently sold his interest. His brother, B. T. French, is in the real estate business. C. B. French owns considerable city property in Sioux City. In 1888 he married Minnie F. Skeel, of Hennepin, Ill., and they have two children.

U. G. Whitney, attorney at law, Sioux City, was born in Hardin county, was, in 1864. He was educated in the common schools, and was then sent to Cornell college, Iowa. He entered law school in the fall of 1889, and graduated at Drake university, at Des Moines, in the spring of 1890. He is engaged in the practice of general law. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias organization, and attends the Congregational church. Mr. Whitney is among the rising young lawyers of Sioux City, and is held in high esteem by all who know him. Politically he is a republican.

INDEPENDENT LUMBER COMPANY, Sioux City. This company is a new one, having located here in the year 1889. The members are S. Barrow and J. H. Valleau. The lumber belonging to this firm is sold by car-load lots, and consists of lumber from the Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa forests. Although a new organization, this firm has received a goodly patronage, and with its enterprising members, success awaits it.

C. H. CLARK, proprietor of the Northwestern Business college, Sioux City, is a native of New York state, but his early life was spent in Illinois. He was educated in the public schools of Woodstock and the Normal school at Danville, Ill. He graduated in penmanship and completed the business course at Quincy, Ill. For two years he was in San Antonio, Tex., one year in Missouri, and also at Quincy, Ill., as instructor in penmanship and book-keeping. As a penman Mr. Clark stands high in his profession. At the International Fair association, San Antonio, Texas, 1889, he won the gold medal, which gave him the honor of being the finest penman in the south.

Mr. Clark was married to Miss Bessie Smallwood, of San Antonio, May 17, 1890, and took charge of the Northwestern Business college the following June. He is a member of the Baptist church and the Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Guy C. Rich, Sioux City, was born at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., in 1861. After completing his course in the common schools, he utilized the advantages afforded by the high school of his native town, and in 1880 began the study of dentistry. In 1882 he graduated from the Pennsylvania college of Dental Surgery. In the meantime he had been studying medicine, and after finishing his course in dental surgery, he entered Jefferson Medical college at Philadelphia, from which he graduated in 1885. From 1885 to 1887 he was engaged in practicing his profession at Mount Sinai hospital, New York city. He came to Sioux City in 1889, where he is engaged in practicing his profession, and is a prominent young physician. Politically he is a republican.

H. Weber, dealer in meats, Sioux City, was born in Germany, August 4, 1849. He is a son of Henry and Elizabeth Weber, the former a farmer. Our subject was left an orphan at six years of age, and remained in Germany until nineteen years old (spring of 1868), at which time he came to America. He worked on a farm near Davenport, Iowa, and remained there nine months. He then went to Lansing, Iowa, where he remained nineteen years. He came to Sioux City in 1888, and entered into the meat market business. In

Mr. Wenstrand was graduated from the public schools of Sweden, and immigrated with his father from their native land to Illinois in 1869. They later came to northern Page county, Iowa, and settled in what was then called Binn's Grove, and which is now the Nyman vicinity. He received a further school education in the public schools of Iowa, and studied law for two and one-half years. In 1879 he was married to Christin Olson and they began farming the virgin prairie. He was a pioneer and soon was recognized as a civic and spiritual leader of his community. He served as road superintendent, secretary and president of the school board, assessor, township clerk, township trustee, and justice of the peace. Mr. Wenstrand followed farming until 1896 when he was elected clerk of the district court of Page county, and served three consecutive terms in that office. He then removed to the farm again.

A Republican in politics, he was, in 1914, elected to the House of Representatives of Iowa as representative from Page county, and was re-elected in 1916; he thus served in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh General Assemblies of his state. He was associated with all movements for the good of his community, and was president of the bank at Essex. Mr. Wenstrand interested himself in church work and took an actove part as a member of the Swedish Mission Church.

He was a man of many friends, of sterling qualities, and sought to make his community a better place in which to live. He loved the young folks, was respected and honored by all who knew him, and no one doubted his integrity and sincerity of purpose. He gave unstintingly of his talents and strength for the welfare of his county and state, and was to his family a kind and loving husband and father.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the passing of the Honorable Alfred Wenstrand, the state has lost a valuable and honored citizen and the House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of his family in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be instructed to send an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

EARL C. FISHBAUGH, JR. O. N. HULTMAN, WM. KERR,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 12, 1939.

HONORABLE ULYSSES GRANT WHITNEY

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare a resolution commemorative to the life, character, and public service of the late Honorable Ulysses Grant Whitney of Woodbury county, Iowa, former member of the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth General Assemblies of Iowa, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Honorable Ulysses Grant Whitney, reporter of the Supreme Court from 1914 to 1938, was born July 10, 1864, near Union, Hardin county, Iowa. Admitted to the bar in 1890, he began his practice of the law in Sioux City, Iowa, where he continued to reside until his death. In 1901 he became county attorney of Woodbury county, Iowa, holding that office for ten years, at the end of which he was elected to the Iowa legislature, serving as representative from Woodbury county in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth General Assemblies.

In 1914 he was appointed reporter of the Supreme Court. During the period of code revision from 1914 to 1924 he served as one of three code commissioners whose work of compilation and revision resulted in the Code of 1924—the first complete code in Iowa since 1897. As a part of this work the legislature had added to the duties of his office the position of Code Editor, in which capacity he was responsible for 1924, 1927, 1931, and 1935 editions of the Iowa Code. He died at his home in Sioux City, Iowa, March 6, 1938.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-eighth General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable Ulysses Grant Whitney the state has lost an honored citizen, a man of high ideals in brotherly living and useful citizenship. The House would tender, by this resolution, its sincere sympathy to the surviving members of the family in their sorrow, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

> JOHN A. DAVENPORT, MRS. FRANK A. ELLIOTT, E. A. JOHNSON,

> > Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 12, 1939.

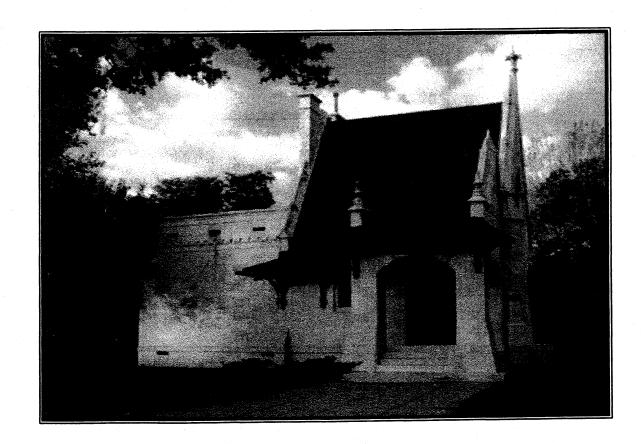

HONORABLE LARS O. WIGDAHL

Mr. Speaker: Your committee, appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character and public service of the Honorable Lars O. Wigdahl, a former member of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh General Assemblies of Iowa, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Lars O. Wigdahl, son of Ole Larson Wigdahl and Bertha Gunderson Wigdahl, was born at Vigsdahl, Stavaanger, Norway, December 7, 1856. He finished grade school in Norway. In the spring of 1880 the Wigdahl family came to the United States and located in Columbia county, Wisconsin.

In 1883 he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Osterhus. That year he took up the study of theology at Augsburg Evangelical Lutheran seminary in Minneapolis, having previously studied for three years at the Hauges Evangelical Lutheran seminary at Red Wing, Minnesota. In 1887 he was ordained as a minister of the Lutheran church and shortly afterwards was named pastor of the Zion Lutheran church at Ruthven,
