G. W. Speer Buried Wednesday

Funeral services for George W. Speer, 78, who died at his home Monday evening, Feb. 4, were held at the Overton Funeral home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. J. S. Pollock was in charge of the services.

Mr. Speer had been a dealer in real estate in Indianola for many years. Following service as mayor he had held the office of justice of the peace for over a decade.

Mrs. Speer, teacher in the Indianola schools, and a sister, Mrs. Ella Graham of Des Moines, survive.

Weather With Reynard In Thursday Fox Hunt

Come all ye brave companions
Who love to hunt the fox;
Who love to chase bold Reynard
Among the hills and rocks—

With a hoot toot toot and a halloo,
A long and merry chase—
With a rat tat tan and a rick tick-
tan,
Away with the royal dogs!

Those may not be the words, but they give the general idea of the urge behind some 25 huntsmen who departed southward from Indianola Thursday forenoon to hunt the fox over sleet-covered hills.

Among Those Present

Justice can't be done to names, but among those hunting were Prof. Lester Spring, Walter Compil, Bruce Rowe, George Killinger, Jim Amserry, Frank Houghtaling and seva whole family of foxes could slip through (there ought to be a hundred to do a fox hunt properly, Killinger says), the huntsmen returned and had a good time talking about it over a hearty meal.

Spring Takes Shot

Les Spring, they say, had the most sport, peppering Reynard with a half dozen shots. But no foxes came home with the hunters.

If there had been foxes brought back, they would have brought $3 bounty and the pelts would have been turned over to the Indianola Pistol club. Maybe they'll make another drive before the bounty expires—March 15. Bounty will be paid on only 100 foxes, however.

They Steal Poultry

Many complaints of foxes stealing poultry have been received by George Killinger, deputy state interest rate best obtained

Both measures are in effect this time because of the recent increase in the cost of money without bids, and confirmation and statement from officers making up the next council as to respect the recent "blunder."

Bills on Warrants

Two other bills, in House File 74 by Rep. Blue of Wright and Iowa House of Representatives Friday, relate to general warrants drawn against the treasury but not related to state sinking fund deposits.

House File 74 by the word "warrant" to read as follows: "No warrant shall be issued than par, plus accrued interest."

Public Bids

House File 75 by the state executive council anticipate revenue and anticipatory warrants issued in interest rate 4 per cent same to be sold on the highest bidder, records to be kept change in the law in order merely to insure public to reduce the establishment to four per cent.

While these measures offered in the legislative principals in the present controversy were amendments in connection with the entire bill to refund the issue of warrants all without bids. These Governor Herring and Attorney General Wegman.

Wegman, Herring

Wegman: "In the first place, I understand drawn by someone other than the attorney general's office third place, if, as I presume to substitute the executive council a general order of the governor, then and myself, I probably to answer. The legislature will answer. Such give the governor the cause he appoints the Herring: "The bill the Senate Friday issuance and sale of warrants is my answer."

THE STATE OF IOWA
Des Moines

Mr. Montgomery saw the development of this county and the state from primitive pioneer days up to the high type of modernity existing today. He farmed the virgin prairies of the state with oxen instead of with horses or tractor. His was a rich life in toil, social experience and progress, and his reminiscences were most interesting.

He was married to Miss Mary Mellon in Pennsylvania in 1864, his bride being a cousin of Andrew Mellon, recent secretary of the national treasury. After coming to Fayette county two children were born to them and their home was not invaded by death until the passing of Mrs. Montgomery.

Mr. Montgomery served one term in the state legislature, being elected in 1885. He has twice represented the Dubuque presbytery in its general assemblies and has held membership in this denomination for more than 66 years.

He was a great lover of the beautiful and enjoyed his garden which he tended carefully as long as he was able. He enjoyed visiting with his fellow men and his last years were pleasant ones as he traveled down the hillside of life with quiet dignity. Independent as long as physical strength was given him to do for himself, he enjoyed life to a degree not attained by all. There are many old friends of many years standing who will recall his memory for helpful deeds rendered during Mr. Montgomery's active years in the community and mourn with his children the passing of this patriarch of Fayette county.

The funeral was held at the Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. George DeF. Fisher, burial following by the side of his late wife in the West Union cemetery.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-sixth General Assembly, That the foregoing memorial be adopted as its appreciation of the life and character and public service of the Honorable J. K. Montgomery. Everywhere he was known as a man honored and trusted, a man of sterling quality and irreproachable character.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the children of the deceased.

GEORGE L. SCOTT,
H. H. SORG,
OVE T. ROE,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 18, 1935.

HONORABLE GEORGE W. SPEER

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee which was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions commemorating the life, character, and services of the Honorable George W. Speer, beg leave to submit the following report:

George W. Speer was born in Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, November 18, 1855, of American parentage of Scotch Irish descent. Both parents were also born in Pennsylvania. He died February 4, 1935.

He was reared on a farm and received a common school education. In the spring of 1887 he removed to Indianola, Warren county, Iowa, where he engaged in the abstract, real estate, loan and insurance business, which he continued until his final sickness.

Mr. Speer was married in 1905 to Miss Ethelda U. Nixon, of Page county, Iowa, who survives him and resides at Indianola. Mr. Speer has served his community two terms as city alderman, and many terms as notary public. He was elected as state representative in 1910, and served one term with distinct credit to himself and his county.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-sixth General Assembly, That in the passing of the Honorable George W. Speer the state has lost a faithful servant and valuable citizen, a man of high ideals in living and citizenship, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

VICTOR FELTER,

J. R. CAMPBELL,

A. R. WEED,

Committee.

Unanimously adopted, April 18, 1935.

HONORABLE GEORGE C. STANZEL

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee appointed to prepare resolutions commemorative of the life, character and public services of the late George C. Stanzel, of Sac county, Iowa, beg leave to submit the following report:

George C. Stanzel was born in Clinton county, Iowa, on August 31, 1865. He moved to Sac county with his parents in the year 1876 and was educated in the public schools of that county. He passed away at his home in Sac City on April 18, 1935, after a lingering illness of several months.

He was united in marriage on February 19, 1894, to Miss Carrie Fulcher, who with their three children, Mrs. Florence M. Laudon, George A. Stanzel, and Fred E. Stanzel, mourn the death of their beloved husband and father.

Mr. Stanzel's interests have been primarily those of farming and although he retired from active farm work a number of years ago, he owns considerable Sac county land and gave it his individual attention.

In politics Mr. Stanzel was a republican and served as representative from Sac county in the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth General Assemblies and in the Forty-fifth Extra Session. He also served as treasurer of the school board of Sac City, was a member of the city council, and a member of the K. P. Lodge.

Mr. Stanzel took an active interest in community affairs and held the highest regard and esteem of his fellowmen. He was a faithful public servant, always giving the best he had for the good of the greatest number of people. He was a kind and loving husband and father, devoted to making the home life as comfortable and as happy as possible for those dependent upon him. He was an attendant of the Methodist church and gave of his time and substance unstintingly.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-

GEORGE C. CALL was born in Kossuth County, Iowa, September 24, 1860, and died in Sioux City December 18, 1934. His parents were Asa C. and Sarah (Heckart) Call, noted Kossuth County pioneers. He obtained his education at Algona and early turned his attention to real estate business and became a large land owner. He was active in civic affairs and was for a time mayor of Algona. In 1902 he removed to Sioux City, disposed of his properties in and around Algona, and soon became an extensive real estate owner in Sioux City and devoted much time and energy to forwarding that city's business interests. In 1916 he helped organize the Call Bond and Mortgage Company and at his death was its president. He early became an active advocate of the improvement of the Missouri River for navigation and worked incessantly for it. He labored for more equitable freight rates for his city, and for the improvement of the highways leading to Sioux City. He served as president of the Sioux City Real Estate Board, and was president of the Greater Sioux City Committee. For twenty years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Morningside College.

FERGUS L. ANDERSON was born near Ohio, Illinois, March 16, 1865, and died in Marion, Iowa, December 25, 1934. Burial was in Oak Shade Cemetery, Marion. His parents were Fenwick and Jeanette Peck Anderson. He acquired his education in rural public school. When seventeen years old he began to learn telegraphy and afterward was stationed as an operator at several points on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, going to Marion in 1890 as a night operator. During leisure hours he took up the study of law and was graduated from the Ann Arbor Law School in 1894 and began practice in Marion. He served as city attorney of Marion for six years, and was mayor of the city. On September 1, 1921, Governor Kendall appointed him as one of the judges of the Eighteenth Judicial District in place of Milo P. Smith, resigned. By reason of elections he served for eight years, or until in 1929 when he resigned and returned to the practice of his profession.

GEORGE W. SPEER was born in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, November 19, 1855, and died in Indianola, Iowa, February 4, 1935. He was reared on a farm and received a common school education. In 1887 he removed to Indianola and engaged in abstract, real estate, loan and insurance business in which he continued until shortly before his death. He was a member of the Indianola City Council, was elected representative in 1910 and served in the Thirty-fourth General Assembly, was active in civic affairs of Indianola, was mayor of the city, and for several years was justice of the peace.

WILLIAM BIERKAMP was born in Hanover, Germany, September 18, 1849, and died in Durant, Cedar County, Iowa, December 13, 1934. Burial was in Durant Cemetery. He spent his boyhood in his native country, and migrated to the United States in 1868, settling at Davenport. There he attended a private school for a time and later entered
