

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Mr. George A. Senator _____

Represented Union County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 27 May 1843 Bristol County, Massachusetts

2. Marriage (s) date place

Elen Frances Allen 12 Mar 1867 Bristol County, Massachusetts

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business He was an official in the Agricultural Association; president and director of the fair association

B. Civic responsibilities Iowa Historical Society; Sons of American Revolution

C. Profession Farmer; breeder of thoroughbred farm animals; insurance agency; real estate

4. Church membership Congregational

5. Sessions served 33rd General Assembly 1909

6. Public Offices

A. Local School board secretary 20 years; Justice of the Peace 10 years; Union County supervisor; County treasurer 2 terms;

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 26 Mar 1935 Creston, Iowa; buried Graceland Cemetery, Creston, Iowa

8. Children Frank A., Arthur H., Fred H.; a daughter died in infancy; another daughter (Mrs. James S. Moore) died 28 Jan 1922

9. Names of parents Captain William T. and Sarah A. (Stone) of Ia

10. Education He was educated in common schools in his native town; he also attended an academy

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Republican

- He moved to Union County Iowa in 1870.
- Military service - Civil War - he was unable to meet the army requirements as his services were not demanded.
- He received rigid business training in the counting room of a Quaker merchant
- In 1861 he came west and in 1865 he engaged in farming in Bureau County, Illinois
- After farming for a year he returned to Massachusetts to get married. He brought his wife to Illinois where they lived on the farm for 3 years.
- He and his brother, William, came to Union County for the first time in 1869 to prospect the area. In 1870 they returned and bought land in Grant Township.
- His wife, Ellen, died 2 May 1929
- He compiled and published a history of Union County in 1908.

tion. He said: "I have no aspirations in that direction," so his name can be removed from the list of republican candidates. Governor Landon of Kansas, Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., Congressman Fish of New York and a half-dozen others are all more than willing to be "drafted," but no one man seems to stand out ahead of the bunch.

With the money he already has in his hands, and with the amount that will be left over from this last five billion dollar appropriation, it doesn't seem possible that any one can defeat President Roosevelt. He will have an enormous amount of cash to scatter in the right places at the right time, because everyone knows that this last appropriation is not to be spent during 1935. Only a part of it will be disbursed, and the rest will be kept until closer to election day. And while we boast of being a free-thinking, free-acting people who can neither be bought nor sold, the fact remains that a large amount of cash has its effect at the polls.

Assuming for the moment that President Roosevelt could NOT be re-elected, then the next president of this country should be a man who was not born to wealth, but who has known comparative poverty. Some man who, as a boy, has looked longingly at bake-shop windows and had to pass them up because he didn't have the money to buy. It should be a man who knows the value of a dollar, and knows it from experiencing the want of it, or from having earned it. This idea of a rich man, who has never known want or privation, but who has had every wish from babyhood supplied—the idea of him understanding the burdens of the poor is just so much poppycock. His knowledge along that line is simply synthetic.

There is nothing wrong with a man having money and a lot of money; if it was honestly obtained, but it does not fit him for an understanding sympathy with those who have nothing, and never have had but little. And it was never a matter of greater importance than it is now, because the great mass of American citizens are poor, and millions of them are growing poorer. To really comprehend their burdens it is necessary to have been hun-

MAY 27 1935
MORNING EDITION CAME TO COUNTY IN '10;
BURIAL FRIDAY

Light Stroke, Advanced Age Causes Death of Man, 92.

George A. Ide, pioneer and outstanding citizen of Union county who spent the closing 65 years of his life in active service in this community, died at 6:30 last evening.

Saturday he was in his office at the George A. Ide and Son Insurance company here. Monday and Tuesday he remained at home as he noted a slight pressure about his heart. Much improved yesterday morning, he had planned to return to the office today. A light stroke, coupled with advanced age, he being nearly 92 years of age, caused his death.

In excellent health during his entire life, he missed but few days from active work. During the past few years he had been faithful in reporting each day at his office here.

Rites to Be Friday.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Congregational church here, in charge of the Rev. Clyde Harris of River Falls, Wis., assisted by the Rev. Paul Zieke, resident pastor.

Burial will be in Graceland cemetery.

George A. Ide was born May 27, 1843, in Bristol county, Massachusetts. His father, Captain William T. Ide, owner of a large farm in Massachusetts and interested in other lines of business. His mother, before her marriage Sarah A. Stone, was a direct descendant of Roger Williams. George Ide was the second of 11 children.

He joined the Congregational

House Passes Warrant Sale, Refund Order

Des Moines, March 27. (AP)—An amendment under which the successful completion of a basic science course in an accredited college would be substituted for an examination before the state science board was approved today by the Iowa House.

Des Moines, March 27. (AP)—The Iowa House voted unanimously, 99 to 0, today for passage of the warrant refunding and public bidding bill and by acclamation adopted an amendment to the bill. The final action was taken on the bill in less than five minutes after the bill was called up for adoption.

The amendment was offered by three of the authors of the original bill. They are R. G. Moore of Harrison, A. H. Bonstetter of Kossuth and LeMar D. Foster of Cedar, all Democrats.

Approved By Herring.

The House members understood that the amendment met with the approval of Gov. Clyde Herring who urged its adoption.

The major change in the bill was the addition of a clause under which the executive council was given the optional right to reject the public bids and sell the warrants at a described private sale. It requests, however, that the terms of the private sale equal the favorite bid of the public sale.

In the senate the house bill to require registration of voters in cities of 10,000 or over instead of 6,000 or over remained for consideration as unfinished business while a senate bill to allow the fixing of division of land sold at an execution sale topped the calendar.

The senate, meanwhile, had fixed times for considering a variety of other measures. The direct hog bonus bill and the measure to limit the duration of promissory obligations were also on the agenda.

...the loss remains that a large amount of cash has its effect at the polls.

Assuming for the moment that President Roosevelt could NOT be re-elected, then the next president of this country should be a man who was not born to wealth, but who has known comparative poverty. Some man who, as a boy, has looked longingly at bake-shop windows and had to pass them up because he didn't have the money to buy. It should be a man who knows the value of a dollar, and knows it from experiencing the want of it, or from having earned it. This idea of a rich man, who has never known want or privation, but who has had every wish from babyhood supplied—the idea of him understanding the burdens of the poor is just so much poppycock. His knowledge along that line is simply synthetic.

There is nothing wrong with a man having money and a lot of money, if it was honestly obtained, but it does not fit him for an understanding sympathy with those who have nothing, and never have had but little. And it was never a matter of greater importance than it is now, because the great mass of American citizens are poor, and millions of them are growing poorer. To really comprehend their burdens it is necessary to have been hungry, and been hungry because there was no money at hand to purchase food, and not because dyspepsia makes it necessary to avoid caviar and pate de fois gras.

Japan officially leaves the League of Nations today. It takes two years to get out, but she gave her notice that long ago and the red tape is cut. There is nothing but rejoicing in that country as a result—no one regrets it. In connection with the separation a significant remark was made by a high Jap official. "The League is a European affair, in which we are not interested. We will devote our attention to Asia and avoid Europe."

That official is right: It is a European affair, and his statement applies as well to the United States as to his own country. Just as Japan, an Asiatic nation, is not interested in that European set-up, neither should we, an American nation, ance company here. Monday and Tuesday he remained at home as he noted a slight pressure about his heart. Much improved yesterday morning, he had planned to return to the office today. A light stroke, coupled with advanced age, he being nearly 92 years of age, caused his death.

In excellent health during his entire life, he missed but few days from active work. During the past few years he had been faithful in reporting each day at his office here.

Rites to Be Friday.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Congregational church here, in charge of the Rev. Clyde Harris of River Falls, Wis., assisted by the Rev. Paul Zieke, resident pastor.

Burial will be in Graceland cemetery.

George A. Ide was born May 27, 1843, in Bristol county, Massachusetts. His father, Captain William T. Ide, owner of a large farm in Massachusetts and interested in other lines of business. His mother, before her marriage Sarah A. Stone, was a direct descendant of Roger Williams. George Ide was the second of 11 children.

He joined the Congregational church, with his parents when he was 13 years of age. On April 12, 1861, he volunteered for service during the Civil War. Unable to meet army requirements, his service was not demanded.

After a common school and academic education, he received rigid business training in the counting room of a Quaker merchant. In 1861 he left New England and made his way westward. Five years later he engaged in farming in Bureau county, Illinois. After a year of farming he returned to Massachusetts to marry Miss Ellen Frances Allen March 12, 1867. The couple returned to Illinois to reside on the farm for three years.

Came Here In 1869.

Accompanied by a brother, William Ide, he came to Union county for the first time in 1869 on a prospecting tour. A year later, 1870, the two brothers returned to Union

(Continued on Page 5.)

tant returning and under budget bill and by acclamation adopted as amendment to the bill. The final action was taken on the bill in less than five minutes after the bill was called up for adoption.

The amendment was offered by three of the authors of the original bill. They are R. G. Moore of Harrison, A. H. Bonstetter of Kossuth and LeMar D. Foster of Cedar, all Democrats.

Approved By Herring.

The House members understood that the amendment met with the approval of Gov. Clyde Herring who urged its adoption.

The major change in the bill was the addition of a clause under which the executive council was given the optional right to reject the public bids and sell the warrants at a described private sale. It requests, however, that the terms of the private sale equal the favorite bid of the public sale.

In the senate the house bill to require registration of voters in cities of 10,000 or over instead of 5,000 or over remained for consideration as unfinished business while a senate bill to allow the fixing of division of land sold at an execution sale topped the calendar.

The senate, meanwhile, had fixed times for considering a variety of other measures. The direct hog buying bill and the measure to limit the duration of promissory obligations both were set as special orders for Thursday, the county extension service for 10 a. m. Friday, a cream regulatory bill for 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday, and the homestead exemption measure for Thursday, April 4.

Slot Machine Bill.

House passage today had been accorded a slot machine license fee bill and a measure to prohibit employment of minors at any kind of work in places where liquor or beer is sold. A bill to require insurance firms, with the exception of life and county mutual associations to file rate schedules and to prohibit rebate practices was defeated 45 to 45.

Meanwhile the bill to legalize the reduced salaries paid public officials under the salary reduction law was ready for the governor after house concurrence in senate amendments and passage.

Another governmental reorganization bill was ready for submission to the senate. The state planning committee of that branch reported up ordson tract-Co. Opposite

alfalfa hay Nord

le top gas ember $15

d oats. Home thwest Cres-Kent.

d Minnesota er hundred n Pine 503-J

Deere 15 ft or plow; two McCann, tele-

straw, ear atoes, seven on gravelled

ison tractor head and first class 52.

$2.25 bu.
Rye Grass, pedeza, $2.75
Co.

and vege-of blooming enhouses & one 536.

atoes, gar-fruits and altry, cream, & Harris, th Elm

T

urnished 304 North

n five room Maple, tele-

fa. eight d Dry. Write tiser.

acres. Share r grass. See 1-R-151.

se, good im-

WELDING—MACHINE WORK

ACETYLENE ELECTRIC WELDING STOPS WASTE EXPERT WELDING of all broken or worn parts made of metal.
HAVE US WELD IT AND SAVE THE DIFFERENCE

CRESTON WELDING CO.
122 North Pine

ABSTRACTS AND LOANS

Guaranty Abstract & Loan Co.
R. Brown, (Atty.) Pres.
Creston, Iowa.

RENDERING SERVICE

WANTED!
DEAD STOCK
Monroe County Plant Offers Prompt free removal of one or all of your dead animals. Most modern equipment. Service in accordance with the State Agr. Dept.
Call Us—We Pay The Charges
Phone 263 Creston.
Get our prices on meat scraps and tankage, you will be interested.

SHOE REBUILDING

QUICK AND EFFICIENT Service at Reasonable Prices
Shoe Hospital
R. B. Woodhull, Prop.

BEAUTY SHOP

VIOLETS Beauty Shop. Soft water. Telephone 84, Ide Building.

WANTED

WANTED:—Old horses for Fox feed. Telephone 71-R-53 Spaulding.
Henry Hainline.

WANTED: — Plastering and patching. Prices reasonable. L. E.
Peery, telephone 1252-W. 208 South Birch.

WANTED:—to haul ashes and rubbish. Also black dirt and fer-

"West of the Pecos," from Zane Grey's well known brings Richard Dix to the Strand Thursday and Friday. type of role that made him famous. Martha Sleeper ap-the leading feminine role, masquerading as a boy during wild days of the old west.

CAME TO UNION COUNTY IN '70

(Continued from Page 1)

county and purchased land in what is now Grant township, in the sparsely settled open prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ide took especial pride in the development and improvement of their prairie farm constructing substantial buildings, planting orchards and groves and in many ways adding to its comfort.

Three sons survive: Frank A. Ide of Creston, connected with the First National bank here; Dr. Arthur W.
Ide of St. Paul, chief surgeon in the Northern Pacific hospital there and Fred W. Ide of Creston, associated with his father in the insurance business here. One daughter died in infancy. A second daughter, Mrs. James S. Moore at the time of her death, died Jan. 28, 1922.

Wife Died In 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Ide were separated after 62 years of marriage by the death of the wife on May 2, 1929.
Since that time, George Ide made his home with a son, Fred W. Ide.

By industry and economy the Ide family developed its farms into some of the best farming property in the county. George Ide was interested in the breeding of high grade horses and cattle; he was an officer in the Agricultural association and was president and director of the fair association at various times.

Held Many Offices.

His conscientious assumption of responsibility won for him many offices during his life-time. Sunday school superintendent 30 years; secretary of school board 20 years; justice of peace 10 years; member of Iowa historical society; member of Sons of American Revolution; served Union county as county supervisor; served two terms as county treasurer; member of the 33rd General Assembly of Iowa; and

Closing Prices of Today's Mar

(By The Associated Pres

- American Can 41 1/2
- Amesbury 10 1/2
- A. T. & T. 192 1/2
- Amer. Tob. B. 7 1/2
- Atchison 3 1/2
- Auburn 17
- Barnsdall 6 1/2
- Bethlehem Steel 34 1/2
- C & N W. 2 1/2
- Chrysler 24
- Curtis Wright 27 1/2
- Canal Sols. 18 1/2
- Cont. Oil 15 1/2
- Corn Products 64 1/2
- Eastman 120 1/2
- General Electric 22 1/2
- General Motors 28
- Graham-Paige 1 1/2
- Gt. Northern Pfd 10 1/2
- Hudson 29
- Illinois Central 10 1/2
- Int'l. Harvester 37
- I. T. & T. 5 1/2
- Johns Manville 42 1/2
- Kennecott 18 1/2
- Montgomery Ward 23 1/2
- Math. Alkali 25
- Martins 5 1/2
- Mid Cont. Pet. 10 1/2
- Natl. Biscuit 24 1/2
- N. Y. Central 18
- Northern Pacific 17 1/2
- J. C. Penney 62 1/2
- Penn. R. R. 17
- Phillips Pet. 15 1/2
- Packard 3 1/2
- Penick & Ford 67 1/2
- Procter & Gamble 45 1/2
- Radio 4 1/2
- RKO 1 1/2
- Remington Rand 8 1/2
- Sears Roebuck 34 1/2
- Stand. Oil Indiana 27 1/2
- Stand. Oil N. J. 27
- Shell Union 5 1/2
- Stand. Oil Cal. 29
- Stewart-Warner 7 1/2
- United Am. 11 1/2
- U. S. Steel 29 1/2
- Union Pacific 37 1/2
- West. Mfg. 25 1/2

ABSTRACTS AND LOANS

Guaranty Abstract & Loan Co.

R. Brown, (Atty.) Pres. Creston, Iowa.

RENDERING SERVICE

WANTED!

DEAD STOCK

Monroe County Plant Offers Prompt free removal of one or all of your dead animals. Most modern equipment. Service in accordance with the State Agr. Dept. Call Us—We Pay The Charges Phone 263 Creston.

Get our prices on meat scraps and tankage, you will be interested.

SHOE REBUILDING

QUICK AND EFFICIENT

Service at Reasonable Prices

Shoe Hospital

R. B. Woodhull, Prop.

BEAUTY SHOP

VIOLET'S Beauty Shop. Soft water. Telephone 84, Ide Building.

WANTED

WANTED:—Old horses for Fox feed. Telephone 71-R-53 Spaulding. Henry Hainline.

WANTED: — Plastering and patching. Prices reasonable. L. E. Peery, telephone 1252-W. 208 South Birch.

WANTED:—to haul ashes and rubbish. Also black dirt and fertilizer for flower beds. Telephone 629-X.

WANTED TO RENT:—Five or six room, modern, furnished home. Responsible party. References. Write M-6 care News Advertiser.

MISCELLANEOUS

HASTING CAB LINE. 24 hour service. Telephone 180.

DRESSMAKING. Designing. alterations, coats relined. Mrs. Waller county and purchased land which is now Grant township. It is sparsely settled open prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ide took especial pride in the development and improvement of their prairie farm constructing substantial buildings planting orchards and groves and in many ways adding to its comfort.

Three sons survive: Frank A. Ide of Creston, connected with the First National bank here; Dr. Arthur W. Ide of St. Paul, chief surgeon in the Northern Pacific hospital there and Fred W. Ide of Creston, associated with his father in the insurance business here. One daughter died in infancy. A second daughter, Mrs. James S. Moore at the time of her death, died Jan. 28 1922.

Wife Died In 1929.

Mr. and Mrs. Ide were separated after 62 years of marriage by the death of the wife on May 2 1929. Since that time, George Ide made his home with a son, Fred W. Ide.

By industry and economy the Ide family developed its farms into some of the best farming property in the county. George Ide was interested in the breeding of high grade horses and cattle; he was an officer in the Agricultural association and was president and director of the fair association at various times.

Held Many Offices.

His conscientious assumption of responsibility won for him many offices during his life-time. Sunday school superintendent 30 years; secretary of school board 20 years; justice of peace 10 years; member of Iowa historical society; member of Sons of American Revolution; served Union county as county supervisor; served two terms as county treasurer; member of the 33rd General Assembly of Iowa; and compiled and published, in 1908, a comprehensive history of Union county.

George Ide and family were members of the Pilgrim Congregational church.

A statement taken from his history of Union county well describes the life of George A. Ide. "He endorsed all movements for public good and whatever tended toward the growth and welfare of the community in which he lived.

- Ames 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

CHICAGO POULTRY

Chicago, March 27. (AP)—Poultry market steady. Hens 19-20; leghorn hens 21; rock fries 25; colored 24; born 21; rock broilers 25; 24; roosters 15; turkey young ducks, 4 lbs. and up 27; small 18; geese 14, c. 6-7 lbs. 24.

Minnesota er hundred Pine 503-J
Deere 15 1/2
r J; two Co. tele-straw, ear
atoes, seven on gravelled
ison tractor
head and first class 52.
$2.25 bu.;
Rye Grass,
pedeza, $2.75
Co. and vegef blooming nhouses &
one 536. atoes, gar-fruits and dtry, cream, & Harris,
th
I 304 North
i five room Maple, telefarm, eight Dry. Write iser.
res. Share r grass. See
l-R-151. a, good im-ood deal to Care News Want Ads.
ussell n, Iowa ites Furniture