Standard Form For Members of the Legislature Stand Heli find Senator Name of Representative recented Arentalis 520 1. Birthday and place a n m 2. Marriage (s) date place 4 Der 1864 martha & Car . . 3. Significant events for example: A. Business admitted to the bar in Clinton County in. B. Civic responsibilities G.A.R. C. Profession daway 4. Church membership_ Uthodist 5. Sessions served 36 1904 1906, 1907 6. Public Offices A. Local Mayor of Nangton 1897-1902. Clerk of the Court 1860-1866; Fran (preste tallo rough B. State C. National 7. Death 18 aug 1918 Contry He spter ton down barried three other chie 8. Children Mrs. relded they fother 9. Names of parents

10. Education Educated in common schoole until age 16 11. Degrees 12. Other applicable information_ Depublico Military service ompany G. 1 his parente moved to Arasi til 1843, They them mon wid until 1959. We Thus the corperter's trade saving his work are 16 hr academy at Les arter, Illinois. earning th dat age 19 he read 1 tought Minsie, the bar he soon moved to. being as while he practiced law

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source Non Applicable Applicable Information obtained 421 moton 6 Jus 1918 p. 10 col 613-1908 614

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

R, HAMPTON, IOWA

present one of the most esornaments of a home is a preloset full of home-canned vegand fruit.

ıri. .arschall, wife and daughlyllis, were among the Hampsitors to the North Iowa Fair son City last Wednesday.

: A. L. Wood, assistant state ary surgeon, has been called to oines for duty at the state fair ls during the 1918 exhibition commences August 21st and les for ten days.

hen you bought your war saytamps you loaned your money government for a period of five to be used in carrying on the The war isn't over and the five aren't up. So don't ask your Sam to give you your money 10W.

"The Wolves of the Rail," the Artcraft picture presenting Wm. rt, the Thos. H. Ince star, which e shown at the Windsor, Satur-; 24th, Hart is responsible LU. ich of the story. Many effective in recent Hart pictures have he work of this famous westernd it is a well known fact that Narrow Trail," his first Artcraft e, was the product of Hart's pen. Irs. Jacob Miller started Thursnorning on a western trip, her ation being Portland, Oregon, she will make a several weeks at the home of a brother who is not met for several years. She ts also to enjoy the splendid proarranged for visitors during the nal G. A. R. Encampment, which its sessions there August 20th On her return trip home th. Miller will stop at points in Idaho visit with relatives.

he Hampton-Kelley Canning any will start the season's pack row (Thursday) afternoon and it 1 that the factory will be pe ng ull capacity next week. The ects for a big pack of sweet corn y promising and a large number ople will find employment at the overnment no visitors will be al-

D. W. DOW CROSSES DIVIDE.

Pioneer Lawyer and Prominent Resident of Hampton Joins Great Throng. Died Sunday Morning. Funeral Held Tuesday Afternoon.

On Sunday morning at 5:45 o'clock death called from scenes of former usefulness Hon. D. W. Dow, one of Hampton's oldest and most prominent citizens, a man of generous impulses who never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer. The end came at his home as the result of weight of years, and was hastened by kidney and heart trouble which had been sapping his vitality for some time. He was nearing his 83rd milestone.

Daniel Webster Dow was born in Washtenaw county, Michigan, Sept. 30; 1835, and was the fourth child in a family of ten children, seven boys and three girls. He was one of the five sons who served in the War of the Rebellion. When a child his parents moved to Wisconsin and lived' near Waukesha until 1843 and then went to Whiteside county, Illinois, where they resided until 1859. He was educated in the common schools until he was sixteen years of age, when he was "given his time" and started out to make his own way in the world. For a year or two he worked at the carpenter trade, securing necessary means to attend an academy at Lee Center, Illinois. After he had sufficient education he taught school and at the age of nineteen read law under Joseph Knox at Rock Island. He was admitted to the bar in Clinton county, Iowa; early in 1859, and soon afterwards came to Hampton and in 1860 was elected clerk of the court, which office he held six years. He then resumed the practice of his profession and had since made his home here, excepting two years spent in St. Paul.

Mr. Dow was elected county attorney in the early nineties serving in that capacity six years. In 1897 he was chosen mayor of Hampton without opposition and in 1902 was elected representative in the state legislature and re-elected in 1906, serving during the for several we Testions and State Legislatos Colladion condiles By volugrees and statient be state His lies. His activity as an attorney prac-"...." torminated with his election to Hansell to Have New Banker.

J. V. Blackford of Ingham township, one of the best known and most highly esteemed farmers of this county, has decided to quit rural life and engage in banking. He has purchased the shares of stock in the Hansell Savings Bank held by John L. Straw and will-become cashier of that-institution.

Mr. Straw, who is manager of the Hansell Elevator Company, recently purchased the stock owned by the cashier of the bank, H. L. French, in order that the latter might join the colors, and it was announced that he would succeed Mr. French. It seems that the stockholders of the elevator company did not relish the thought of losing their manager and at their urgent request Mr. Straw has consented to stay on the job.

Mr. Blackford is getting familiar with the work at the bank and will assume the duties of cashier in a short time. He will move his family to Hansell and his farm will be operated by his son-in-law, H. A. Missildine, of Des Moines.

The Student Nurse Reserve.

The Student Nurse Reserve campaign is going better in Franklin county than in many parts of the state. Eight young women have enlisted and several others have signed enrollment card but have not yet sent in their application blanks. The first to enlist, as early as July 21, was Miss Edith Clock of Geneva. She has been accepted and has her call to go next week to Camp Shelby, Mississippi. The young women are not responding as rapidly as it was hoped they wouldprobably because so many who would be eligible have gone into other government work.

While the government has been "taking over," the profiteers are not yet overtaken.

, was the product of Hart's pen. 's. Jacob Miller started Thursorning on a western trip, her tion being Portland, Oregon, she will make a several weeks t the home of a brother who is net for several years. She is also to enjoy the splendid prourranged for visitors during the al G. A. R. Encampment, which its sessions there August 20th h. On her return trip home iller will stop at points in Idaho visit with relatives.

ie Hampton-Kelley Canning ny will start the season's pack ow (Thursday) afternoon and it ected that the factory will be g full capacity next week. The cts for a big pack of sweet corn ' promising and a large number ple will find employment at the for several weeks. By order of vernment no visitors will be alin the buildings this year. Ems are required to sign oaths of nce before commencing work.

ie Iowa Library Commission old a library exhibit as has been e past three years in its 01 on the ground floor, north end Women and Children's buildt the state fair grounds in Des s. Special attention will be given work of the Traveling Library Library War Activities includod conservation, book collection, s of local soldiers, etc. Every ttending the state fair is urged k up this exhibit and learn of ovision of the state for supplyee books for its people and also libraries are doing to help win ar.

unty Agent J.F. Thomas spent days last week at the North Fair at Mason City. Tuesday dged the dairy cattle, on Wedy looked after the pig club conand Thursday attended a conferof county agents. He reports the ot up to last year in any respect ig¹ 'onsidering the unfavorable d one. The swine exhibit was but other classes of live stock . There were 150 horses entered e racessourden owa themonanaed, Statenegi with other years, was not large at an minimator and Thilder a year or two he worked at the carpenter trade, securing necessary means to attend an academy at Lee Center, Illinois. After he had sufficient education he taught school and at the age of nineteen read law under Joseph Knox at Rock Island. He was admitted to the bar in Clinton county, Iowa, early in 1859, and soon afterwards came to Hampton and in 1860 was elected clerk of the court, which office he held six years. He then resumed the practice of his profession and had since made his home here, excepting two years spent in St. Paul.

Mr. Dow was elected county attorney in the early nineties serving in that capacity six years. In 1897 he was chosen mayor of Hampton without opposition and in 1902 was elected representative in the state legislature and re-elected in 1906, serving during the 30th, 31st and 32nd general assemblies. His activity as an attorney practically terminated with his election to the legislature. He was a stanch republican in politics and paid very little attention to the isms which seemed to guide and control other men. He was a member of J. W. Mc-Kenzie Post, G. A. R. and the M. E. church.

The deceased was united in marriage to Miss Martha' J. Carter, of Reeve township, on December 4, 1864. To this union five children were born, two of whom survive and with the aged mother are left to mourn the death of the husband and father. The living children are Mrs. J. F. Erich of Chicago, and Mrs. W. T. Webb of Hampton. Mr. Dow is also survived by one brother, C. N. Dow of Omaha, Neb., and one sister, Mrs. Mary Cantral of Denver, Col.

In the passing of D. W. Dow another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our old settlers and it can truthfully be said that a good man has gone. He was well known and highly esteemed by all the older residents and those surviving will learn of his death with deep feeling of sorrow.

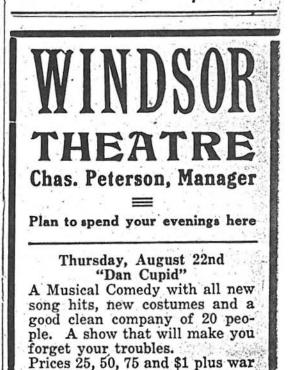

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. C. Witzigman, were held from the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made lators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the Sta in the Hampton competery.

"Des Conta " Big Musical Show Com-

State, Inghi joung

listed and several others have signed enrollment card but have not yet sent in their application blanks. The first to enlist, as early as July 21, was Miss Edith Clock of Geneva. She has been accepted and has her call to go next week to Camp Shelby, Mississippi. The young women are not responding as rapidly as it was hoped they would probably because so many who would be eligible have gone into other government work.

While the government has been "taking over," the profiteers are not yet overtaken.

tax. Seats on sale Thursday morning. Friday, August 23rd "The Forbidden Path" A big Fox Standard picture featuring Theda Bara. This picture gives Theda opportunity to show her ability as an emotional actress. A great story that is sure to please. Also a one reel comedy. Prices 10 and 20 plus war tax.

Saturday, August 24th

"The Wolves of the Rail" A five reel Artcraft picture featuring W. S. Hart. In his new character of "Buck" Andrade, a railroad detective, he is just as fearless and daring as when opposed to law and order, and he makes short work of ridding the makes short work of ridding the scenes were photographed in the mountains of California where a Department of Iowa Grand Army of the Republic Veteran's name Dow, Daniel W War Residence. Battles, etc. Occupation Nearest relatives Date birth Sept 30, 1835, Place Washtenaw; Mich Father Nativity Date death Aug 18, 1918 Place Hampton, Iowa Cause Hampton CemeteryPlace burial Nativity War record 2d Lt Iowa Garten G 44 /Ife Inf Rank Company Regiment State Organizatio Children Age 28 Res Franklin Co. Apptd. 2d Lt 2 My 164 Enlisted Date Roster Iowa Soldiers Ex.Soldiers living Ia.1886 Hampton Franklin Recorder Jan 6, 1892 Discharged Department of, Iowa Grand Army of the Republic Veteran's name Dow, Daniel W Record Membership and Dues Paid . 84 Maysville May 25;1867 Offices of honor in G. A. R. Date Joined Post No. Place J.W.McKenzie 81(2) Hampton Je 1882 . . Date Member-at-Large Date Paid Suspended Died

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.