Obituary.

Early Friday morning at his home in Walnut township, John Schoenenberger passed away after several weeks of suffering. At his bedside were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Adelaide Nicholson, and his four sons, Ralph, Walter, Guy and Iver. The funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Rock City cemetery.

The deceased was born June 5, 1850 in Fairfield county, Ohio, the first child of Nicholas and Louise Schoenenberger. Four more sons and five daughters completed this family circle, all of whom attained maturity. Five of the children are all that now remain of this group. They are Mrs.

Louise Wilson and Mrs. Christina Akers, of Des Moines, Mrs. Theresa Boling, of Lorimor, Henry Schoenenberger, of Winterset and Edward Schoenenberger, of Walnut township.

In 1855 the parents moved to Madison county, soon afterward settling upon their farm in Walnut township, and later building in Clanton bottom the stone house that has long been a landmark.

The early years of the deceased were not unlike those of other pioneer farm lads, and consisted of much hard work and few days at school. Born of German parents he did not learn to speak English until his twentieth year. On March 10, 1875 he was married to Miss Lavina Travis, a schoolmate and the daughter of a neighbor. Throughout their married life they resided in Walnut township, the last thirty-nine years on the farm known as their home. To them were born five children, all of whom live in the county. There are also five grandchildren.

John Schoenenberger was intensely interested in the welfare of the community, having served his township and county almost continuously in offices that were arduous rather than lucrative. Madison county honored him by electing him to the 32nd General assembly. He made good use of his opportunities and acquired his measure of success by hard effort. As husband and father he was of the highest type. Home and family were sacred to him. Religiously he was a man of simple faith, having confessed that his peace with God had long been made. His loss will be felt not alone by family and friends but by the entire community.

Real Estate Transfers.

Transfers filed with the county recorder for the week ending this date: Nancy E. Williamson to Ind Sch Dist of Bevington, blk 7 Bevington.

Obituary of Fred Beeler.

Fred Beeler, one of Madison county's pioneer citizens, died at his home in Walnut township Friday night, April 16, at the ripe old age of 79 years. He leaves to mourn him four sons, Othelo, Fred, Charles and William, also eight grandchildren. The funeral occurred Monday, the 19th, from the old home at eleven o'clock, and was attended by a large concourse of people, as no man was more widely known. Rev. S. C. Howe, of Truro, of the Friends church, officiating, and the large gathering of people attested the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in the beautiful Ebenezer cemetery, within sight of the old family home.

Shortly before his death Mr. Beeler wrote his own obituary, which we reprint from the Peru Mail:

I, Fred Beeler, eldest son of Fred Beeler and Mary Ann Stolz Beeler, was born in Baden, Germany, December 4, 1835, came to the United States with my parents in 1846, settled in Ripley county, Indiana. In 1854 went to St. Louis, where I worked at my trade as blacksmith. In the spring of 1855 went to Leavenworth, and worked at my trade in Leavenworth and Kansas City until 1858, both of these cities then being mere villages. I then went overland to the Rocky Mountains where I mined for gold with moderate success until July 1860, when I came to Madison county, Iowa. In October 1860 and in 1861 made two trips across the plains with ox teams loaded with provisions, from Winterset.

Was married to Nancy McClure January 9, 1842. To this our union were born five sons, the eldest, Otto, dying of cholera infantum at the age of 22 months and the other four sons have grown to manhood in this community. And thus our journey together through life on this earth for over 39 years or more was ended February 12, 1901, and all that time we lived on the same place or farm that we both loved, where all our sons were born and reared to manhood and where I expect fully to end my days be they few or many. And I die in full confidence of a Divine power who made and controls the universe, that there have been no changes of control that we know of. Whatever was made by Divine power is perfect and remains perfect so far as the other world is concerned we do not know. Divine power is for good, not for evil. We believe that we should do unto others as we should be done by. For some years I have watched as my old friends one by one pay the debt of nature. The years have robbed me of strength to some degree until I realize my turn to go is not far hence, (and the thought does not distress me.)

When most of man's dear associates are on the other side, and when time has robbed him of his affections and passions, life holds but few charms to claim his thoughts, and but after three years he purchased a steam power threshing outfit and during the years that have since elapsed he has received a good share of the patronage of the farmers in Madison county. For several years he shipped his outfit to north-western Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota and engaged in threshing in those states during the season, which is later than the season in Madison county, and by so doing added materially to his income.

Mr. Blomquist is a republican and for five years was trustee of Penn township, while he is now serving his second term as school treasurer of that township. He is a self-made man and has always given the closest attention to his work as a farmer and stock-raiser as he has realized that success is dependent upon industry and good management. He believes in the wisdom of raising a good grade of stock and as his cattle and hogs are always in good condition when sold he receives high prices for them in the market. The same spirit of progressiveness that distinguishes him as a farmer is characteristic of him in all of the relations of life and he is justly held in high esteem.

JOHN SCHOENENBERGER.

After thirty-seven years of active life, John Schoenenberger is now overseeing the operation of his farm, leaving the actual work mainly to his son. He has gained a handsome competence from farming and stock-raising and has achieved distinction in the political field, having represented his district in the state legislature. He was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, on the 5th of June, 1850, the oldest of ten children whose parents were Nicholas and Louisa (Tennis) Schoenenberger. The father, a native of Germany, came to the United States with his parents when but fourteen years of age, the family home being established in Pennsylvania. The paternal grandparents of our subject, John and Elizabeth Schoenenberger, resided in that state for a few years, the former being employed on the construction of the first railroad built there. Subsequently the family removed to Fairfield county, Ohio, where the grandparents passed away. In 1855 the parents of our subject removed with their children to the west, and on the 25th of June of that year located in Scott township, this county. The following spring, however, they settled on the Harper farm in Walnut township, containing one hundred and twenty acres, which they acquired and operated. It was subsequently known as the Schoenenberger homestead. The father died there in 1902, and his widow then made her home with her youngest son, Edward D., in Monroe township, where she passed away in 1904.

John Schoenenberger remained at home until he was twenty-five years of age, his time in his boyhood and youth being divided between the work of the farm and the acquirement of an education. He attended school in district No. 6 and district No. 2, Walnut township, but not being content with the knowledge gained there, continued to read and study at home until he became a well informed man. When twenty-five years old his marriage occurred and he then located on section 5, Walnut township, where he purchased eighty acres of land. After two years he traded it in on his present homestead, which includes three hundred and ten acres of land. He became the owner of five hundred acres, but as his children married and began life for themselves he gave them each a farm, and his own property now comprises three hundred and ten acres. He has always carried on general farming and has also devoted considerable attention to the raising of Jersey hogs and shorthorn and Jersey cattle, feeding about two carloads of cattle annually and from one hundred and fifty to two hundred hogs each year. He has attained gratifying financial prosperity and now rents his farm to his son, Iver Earl Schoenenberger, although he continues to direct its operation to some extent. He is a stockholder and was one of the organizers of the Savings Bank of Peru.

On the 10th of March, 1875, Mr. Schoenenberger was united in marriage with Miss Lavina Travis, a daughter of M. B. and Lavina (Byer) Travis. Mr. and Mrs. Schoenenberger have five children, as follows: Adelaide L., born December 26, 1875, married Emory Nicholson, of Winterset, who has now passed away. To their union was born a daughter, Mary Lavina, who is fourteen years of age. Ralph Travis, born December 13, 1878, married Grace Adelaide Hartsook, and they reside in Scott township. Their children are three in number, Kathryn, John and Paul. Walter James, born January 11, 1881, married Cora Jane Welch and is engaged in farming in Scott township. John Guy, born August 27, 1885, is a graduate of the State Agricultural College at Ames and is now a veterinary surgeon of Winterset. He married Miss Hazel Wheeler, of Des Moines. Iver Carl, born January 31, 1890, is farming in Walnut township. He married Miss Lela Alice Deardorf, of Ohio township, and they have a son, Charley Carl.

Mr. Schoenenberger has consistently voted the democratic ticket since age conferred upon him the right of franchise and he has been honored with a number of offices of public trust. For four years he served as assessor of Walnut township, for several years was township clerk and trustee, and for eighteen years was school treasurer of his district. In 1906 he was elected to the state legislature on the democratic ticket, although his district is ordinarily republican by a majority of eighteen hundred. He served for two years and fathered some important legislation. His wife is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Peru. Both have performed well the duties that lay before them and have contributed in no small degree to the community welfare.

FRED COCHRAN.

Fred Cochran, who is farming on section 14, Grand River township, was born upon the Cochran homestead, in this county, on the 25th of April, 1870, a son of Wesley and Elizabeth (Hamblin) Cochran, a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this work. He was reared under the parental roof and as soon as old enough began assisting in the work of the farm, being thus prepared to win success as an agriculturist in later life. His formal education was acquired in the public schools in the neighborhood of the homestead. After he reached years of maturity his father gave him a good farm, comprising two hundred and forty acres in Grand River township.
