

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Springer, Louis J. Senator _____

Represented Buchanan County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 1853 Berks County, Pennsylvania

2. Marriage (s) date place
Did not marry

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities Knights of Pythias

C. Profession Lawyer

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd General Assemblies 1902, 1904, 1906, 1907

6. Public Offices

A. Local Elected Judge since city attorney 1881-1885, mayor for 7 years starting 1885 serving one year as clerk of the district court; Clerk of the District Court 181-1892, city auditor, 1861-1884 and 1899-1901

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 19 Apr 1914 Kutztown, Pennsylvania buried at Kutztown where parents are buried

8. Children No children

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education _____
_____
_____

11. Degrees

Graduate of Fayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania

12. Other applicable information

Democrat

- He came to Independence, Iowa around 1880 where he practiced law.
  - He formed a law practice in 1910 with M.A. Smith which continued until Louis' death.
- _____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source      Non Applicable      Applicable      Information obtained

- Iowa Official Register 1907-1908, p. 633
- Obituary - The Independent Conservative, Independence, Iowa,
Wed. Apr. 22, 1914, p. 1, col. 5, 6
- Obituary - The Independence Bulletin Journal, Independence, Iowa, Thurs. Apr. 23, 1914, p. 1, col. 4
- Article - The Independence Conservative Independence, Iowa,
Wed. Apr. 29, 1914, p. 3, col. 5

leaves to mourn their sister, Mrs. Mary Muncey of two brothers, Henry P. Wauneta, Neb., and William of Jesup. Her life she united with the Episcopal church in Jesup, and her mother and sister, Ida, and a faithful and devoted member of the same church at the time of her death. Mr. Wilkins has been a great but a sufferer. Many a time has it been said that she could not rally, and had to pass through all the trying, but at last the thread snapped, and the burdens of life were lifted, and she to be with her Savior whom she loved, trusted and served. Her grief never failed. While we grieve for her loss, we can but feel that she is hers, for she has passed on and where no sorrow or pain can ever come. She is asleep.

QUASQUETON LADY DIED AT ROCK RAPIDS, IA.

Man Had Submitted to Three Operations.

Mr. Penman, formerly of Quasqueton, passed away Wednesday, April 12, 1914, at her home at Rock Rapids following an operation, which she endured in recent years. She was the only daughter of Frank and Sherretts Lewis, was born at Quasqueton October 12, 1877, and lived at her home until in 1893 when she moved to Independence with her mother. In a few years she moved to Rock Rapids and was married to Henman of that place June 14, 1898. Most of her married life has been spent at Rock Rapids. Deceased was an excellent lady, bright, energetic and good natured. She was an devoted wife, daughter and sister, and a faithful friend. Her many old friends will grieve that her useful life is ended, and extend hearty sympathy to the bereft husband and brother. The funeral was held at Rock Rapids Friday afternoon and was made there.

CANDIDATES, SIX CAN BE NOMINATED

to Decide Who Will Be "The Goat" on Judgeship.

Source: Iowa Territorial and State Legislators Collection compiled by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa.

HON. L. F. SPRINGER PASSES AWAY DIED AT OLD HOME IN PENN SYLVANIA

Death Results From Stroke of Paralysis Suffered While on Visit to His Old Home.

TELEGRAM.

Reading, Pa., April 20, 1914.
M. A. Smith,
Independence, Iowa.
Mr. Springer died Sunday afternoon. Funeral at Kutztown Thursday at 2 p. m. Kindly inform all friends.
F. A. MARX.

The above telegram to the former law partner of Hon. L. F. Springer, was the first information here of the death of Mr. Springer, which as stated, took place at Reading, Pa., Sunday afternoon. It had been known among his intimate friends that his condition was such that the end was not far, but such knowledge only softens the blow while it does not abate the real sorrow with which the intelligence is received. It has been more than two years since the deceased was first

HON. LOUIS F. SPRINGER.

Independence in 1880. In 1881 he was elected city attorney, succeeding C. E. Ransier, and served four years. In 1885 he served a year as mayor, filling out the term of C. M. Durham, who died in office. He served two terms as clerk of the district court, from 1891 to 1895, then returned to the practice of law. He served as representative from this county in the state legislature in the twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first and thirty-second general assemblies. Every election to county office was gained over adverse majorities, indicating his popularity with the voters of the county. While it is fortunately true that no one is absolutely essential to the life of a community, yet it can be said of Mr. Springer that he occupied a niche in local life that will not be easy to fill, and he will be long remembered by those who enjoyed association with him in his better days.

Mr. Springer's parents died a few years ago at the family home in Kutztown, at an advanced age. He is survived by three sisters and one brother, all living in Kutztown. The funeral takes place at Kutztown tomorrow at 2:00 p. m. His law partner M. A. Smith, left Tuesday afternoon to be present, charged to bear the condolences of many Independence friends.

DEATH OF PIONEER RESIDENT OF QUASQUETON

Joseph Turis Had Lived There Over Fifty Years.

After an extended and painful illness, Joseph Turis passed away Sunday evening, April 12, 1914, at his home in the north part of town. Deceased was born in Patterson, New Jersey, May 7, 1830. He came to Quasqueton in 1856 and this has since been his home. He was united in marriage to Melvina Watson, February 17, 1862. They were the parents of seven children as follows: William, Mrs. Ella Clarke, Charles and Leonard, of this place; Joseph and Albert of Elkton, S. D. A son died in infancy. In 1862 Mr. Turis enlisted in Co. C, 27th Iowa Volunteer Infantry, with Captain Jacob M. Miller, leaving August 19, for the scene of war. He faithfully served his country and received an honorable discharge in 1865. Mr. Turis was a kind husband and father, and a good neighbor and citizen. His many friends were sorry to learn of his death, and extend sincere sympathy to the wife and children in their sorrow. The funeral was held at the late home Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. and there was a large attendance. Rev. C. W. Basham conducted the services. Comrades attended in a body. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery, the

THE PAS "SQU"

DIED AT A

Settled in
Years Ago
Life

Hugh McGowan a resident of Quasqueton, passed away at the residence of this city, after a long illness. Despite his disease, he was able to be here a few weeks ago. We know of the fact that he was afflicted with the disease a little to slow us down. It is a fact that he had his old home in Quasqueton, a man of sturdy friendships. He was also a good actor when he talked of his experiences more than twenty years ago. He was born in Dublin, Ireland, when quite young. He had a good fortune. He was in both the South American and the West. He was not a fortune teller, and finally moved to Michigan for there to Iowa near Sunnyside. He was in this county for many years, remaining in Quasqueton until he died. He is now at rest. He was a good man, and his death is a loss to the community. He was a good neighbor and a good citizen. His many friends were sorry to learn of his death, and extend sincere sympathy to the wife and children in their sorrow. The funeral was held at the late home Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. and there was a large attendance. Rev. C. W. Basham conducted the services. Comrades attended in a body. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery, the the general election. The before the primary are as W. Dunham of Manches-

Ill Close Cafe.

rs. who for the past five en running the Chatham will close the cafe May ers has accepted a posi- e Lambert Wholesale Ci- he will go on the road erters at Fort Dodge. s expects to go to Oel- to visit in the home of Hanson, a sister of Mr.

boat was launched Mon- It has been newly e and out. The boat has ed by Frank Orr, E. Ta- h Daugherty.

e no Progressives have ts of party affiliation itor of Buchanan county, k county eighty of such ve been filed.

mar school of this city nthrop last Saturday to hey only played four in- am out with a score of vor Winthrop.

rs. B. Works of Santa ho have been guests the ks in the Mr. and Mrs. u home, left Wednesday ith relatives in St. Johns- nt.

number of the high school anning to go to Iowa City end the debate between Independence for the onship and the state o be held in that city on ay 16.

has received word that Rev. Lyon of Winona ew $10,000 home was e ground Monday in the that - burned thirty at city and is still burn- ons was away from home ival meeting in Logans-the First Presbyterian rs. G. W. Blamer and C. ve installed as elders. v very impressive and . Donnan retired, accom- iester and J. F. Coy ac- W. Blamer to the altar. s of the church stood Miss Margaret Buck sang the effects of his illness were pathetically evident, and it was a different Springer from the "Senator" of old days that exchanged greetings with hundreds of friends. He himself seemed to realize the difference, and what probably preyed most upon his mind was the realization that he could not go back into the business which had absorbed the best and happiest years of his life. In the course of a few weeks he returned to the old home in Pennsylvania, since when word from relatives was to the effect that he was steadily failing, till the not unexpected telegram came, announcing his death.

Few, if any men, have passed out of the business circles of Independence who have been more generally missed than Mr. Springer. Although it has been over two years since he ceased to be an active factor in the affairs of our city and county, there was scarce a day in which you did not hear his name mentioned in some connection. It was not because of his great wealth, for he was a man who passed up many opportunities to add to his fortune in ways that are considered legitimate. The highest office he ever held was that of representative from his county, and that was more of a business sacrifice than an advantage to him. People believed in the man, and they were not misplacing their confidence. The writer expresses himself feelingly, from a business association in which he came to know Mr. Springer intimately and knows that in all his dealings he was the soul of honor. In the practice of his profession he never took an unfair advantage, and there are scores of widows and orphans in this county who owe to him a debt of gratitude for the manner in which he advised them and handled their estates. He never was a great trial lawyer, partly from temperament, partly from innate disposition to compromise differences and avoid enmities. He had his peculiarities and none knew them better than his intimate friends who allowed for them and discounted them against their estimation of his true worth. He was unusually sensitive to criticism, and in spite of the fact that he was active in the politics of the state for twenty-five years and knew the rules of the game, he could not entirely forget criticism that he felt was inspired solely by partisan opposition. His democracy was inbred and fundamental, yet in spite of his attachment to his party, he left it in '06 when he could not subscribe to its platform. When the party was reunited, he took his old place in the party councils, and was known and his advice sought for throughout the state.

Louis F. Springer was born in Berks county, Pennsylvania, of "Pennsylvania Dutch" stock. He was a graduate of Lafayette college at Easton, where he was a pupil of Dr. Lord, one of the most scholarly men of his time. Later he studied law, and came west to practice, locating in Horace Gates Madison was born October 24, 1902, in Buchanan county, Iowa. He passed away Monday, April 20, 1914, at the age of eleven years, five months and twenty-seven days. His was a short but happy life until he was taken sick on August 24, 1913. Last December he was operated upon and since that time he has been confined to his bed. He was a patient sufferer, uttering never a word of complaint. Horace was very bright and industrious and attended school and Sunday school regularly. He was a favorite among his teachers and playmates and loved by all his acquaintances. He leaves to mourn his death his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Madison; one sister, Verna; two brothers, Stanton and Nicholas, and a baby brother a week old. The funeral services were conducted at the family residence at Gatesville at 2 p. m. Tuesday, April 21st. Rev. Theodore Morning officiated. Burial was made in the family lot at the Wilson cemetery. Many friends and relatives from this city attended the funeral services.

Court Convenes Monday.

The April term of district court convenes next Monday. There will be no jury trials at this term and no petit jury has been summoned. There are twenty-five criminal cases on the calendar, all old cases. There being no jury, no criminal cases will come up for trial. Most of the criminal cases on the calendar are the Kieffer banking cases. There are twenty-two new law cases, fourteen new equity cases. Only one new divorce case has been filed, that of Mae Kies vs Valentine Kies. Other divorce cases on the calendar are Matilda M. McCarthy vs. Sylvester J. McCarthy, Bernice L. Young vs. John A. Young, Viola Laura Gill vs. Willis R. Gill, Ortelia B. Kaltenbach vs. F. B. Kaltenbach, Mary I. Holmes vs. Edwin N. Holmes, Josephine Scovel vs. William Scovel and Roy A. Thomas vs. Inez Thomas.

The calendar is a large one, containing 180 law cases, 84 chancery cases and 54 probate cases, a total of 318 cases. Four law, twenty-five chancery and three probate cases are noticed for trial. The trials however, will probably dwindle to less than half that number. The next following regular term of court begins September 14.

Baptist Church Notes

Morning service Sunday April 26, at 10:30. Subject, "The Call of Matthew the Publican." Sunday school following the morning service. B. Y. P. U. at 7 o'clock p. m. Subject for the evening service, "Hell, or The Lost World; Will It Be a Reality?" God singing at all our services. Chorus choir in the evening. We extend a cordial invitation to all. Mid-week services on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.—W. H. Stichel.

belonging to the interesting ing was an addi of Dubuque, upc features of whic the banking; sit the gathering; a Wednesday even cial club room adopted a resol Johnson of the Trust Co., of W ed in the Water the First Natio as a member of of the new regi

BRUCE BALDWIN AFTER CL

Passed Away at Week of Bruce Baldwin out the state a race promoter, patetic genius, turned at all n at St. Joseph, after several y heart trouble, v his death. His to his old home funeral took pl week.

Deceased was the Cascade Pl and grew up h about fifty year his death. He more than the forceful writer man, but with qualities to m thing, and after ful attempts in work drifted i other, following cases, where h iclicity departme Sunday papers to pot-bollers. He is well re ence, where h the time of th was promoter meet pulled o Hancock at Du the zenith of l time past he suffering from if any of his whereabouts nouncement of

BO

This office boy to learn kind that is v to learn and manship the the shop now seven aspirants for judgeships in this district. Only six candidates can be on the primary, under the partisanship judgeship law. Candidates must fall out at work before the Ides of March. Five of the seven can go to Waterloo, and as Waterloo has nearly a half vote of the district it can be the "Waterloo way" is a considerable figure in it, both in the primary and in the general election, when the names are to be chosen. At the primary attempt on the part of the "hog it" at the primary will not tend to help the cause in the general election. The names before the primary are as follows:

- W. Dunham of Manchester
- W. Mullan of Grundy Center
- F. S. Merriam of Waterloo
- A. B. Lovejoy of Waterloo
- J. S. Lovejoy of Waterloo

VIII Close Cafe.

Persons who for the past five years have been running the Chatham cafe will close the cafe May 1st. The owner has accepted a position with the Limbert Wholesale Co. and he will go on the road. The quarters at Fort Dodge. The owner expects to go to Oelwein to visit in the home of Mrs. Hanson, a sister of Mr. Hanson.

The boat was launched Monday. It has been newly built and out. The boat has been built by Frank Orr, E. T. Daugherty.

At no Progressive have been of party affiliation. Editor of Buchanan county, and county eighty of such have been filed.

Number school of this city in Winthrop last Saturday. They only played four in-came out with a score of 1-0 in favor of Winthrop.

Mrs. B. Works of Santa Fe who have been guests the weeks in the Mr. and Mrs. Works home, left Wednesday with relatives in St. Johnsbury.

Number of the high school planning to go to Iowa City to attend the debate between the independence for the judgeship and the state will be held in that city on May 16.

Person has received word that the Rev. J. W. T. ... new $10,000 home was the ground Monday in the ...

stricken with paralysis, while on a visit to his old home in the east, and during all of that time his hundreds of friends here have eagerly scanned all news of the state of his health. For many weeks after being stricken he lay, almost at the point of death, in a hospital oblivious to surroundings and to the care that was being lavished upon him. Gradually he began to show signs of improvement, and slowly gained till he was able to leave the hospital for his old home at Kutztown, where relatives gave him every attention. Last summer he had so far improved that he was able to come back to Independence for a visit, but the effects of his illness were pathetically evident, and it was a different Springer from the "Senator" of old days that exchanged greetings with hundreds of friends. He himself seemed to realize the difference, and what probably preyed most upon his mind was the realization that he could not go back into the business which had absorbed the best and happiest years of his life. In the course of a few weeks he returned to the old home in Pennsylvania, since when word from relatives was to the effect that he was steadily failing, till the not unexpected telegram came, announcing his death.

Few, if any men, have passed out of the business circles of Independence who have been more generally missed than Mr. Springer. Although it has been over two years since he ceased to be an active factor in the affairs of our city and county, there was scarce a day in which you did not hear his name mentioned in some connection. It was not because of his great wealth, for he was a man who passed up many opportunities to add to his fortune in ways that are considered legitimate. The highest office he ever held was that of representative from his county, and that was more of a business sacrifice than an advantage to him. People believed in the man, and they were not misplacing their confidence. The writer expresses himself feelingly from a business association in which he came to know Mr. Springer intimately and knows that in all his dealings he was the soul of honor. In the practice of his profession he never took an unfair advantage, and there are scores of widows and orphans in this county who owe to him a debt of gratitude for the manner in which he advised them and handled their estates. He never was a great trial lawyer, partly from temperament, partly from innate disposition to compromise differences and avoid enemies. He had his peculiarities and none knew them better than his intimate friends who allowed for them and discounted them against their estimation of his true worth. He was unusually sensitive to criticism, and in spite of the fact that he was active in the politics of the state for twenty-five years and knew the rules of the game, he could not stand the slightest criticism that he felt was inspired solely by partisan opposition. His democracy was inbred interred in Greenwood cemetery, the following gentlemen bearing the body to the grave: C. J. Walter, T. F. Halstead, J. M. Foster, E. T. Clarke, E. F. Irwin and M. J. Peiry.

DEATH ENDS SUFFERING OF YOUNG HORACE MADISON

III. Since Last August and Operated Upon in December.

Horace Gates Madison was born October 24, 1902, in Buchanan county, Iowa. He passed away Monday, April 20, 1914, at the age of eleven years, five months and twenty-seven days. His was a short but happy life until he was taken sick on August 24, 1913. Last December he was operated upon and since that time he has been confined to his bed. He was a patient sufferer, uttering never a word of complaint. Horace was very bright and industrious and attended school and Sunday school regularly. He was a favorite among his teachers and playmates and loved by all his acquaintances. He leaves to mourn his death his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Madison; one sister, Verna; two brothers, Stanton and Nicholas, and a baby brother a week old. The funeral services were conducted at the family residence at Gatesville at 2 p. m. Tuesday, April 21st. Rev. Theodore Morning officiated. Burial was made in the family lot at the Wilson cemetery. Many friends and relatives from this city attended the funeral services.

Court Convened Monday.

The April term of district court convenes next Monday. There will be no jury trials at this term and no petit jury has been summoned. There are twenty-five criminal cases on the calendar, all old cases. There being no jury, no criminal cases will come up for trial. Most of the criminal cases on the calendar are the Kiefer banking cases. There are twenty-two new law cases, fourteen new equity cases. Only one new divorce case has been filed, that of Mae Kies vs. Valentine Kies. Other divorce cases on the calendar are Matilda M. McCarthy vs. Sylvester J. McCarthy, Bernice L. Young vs. John A. Young, Viola Laura Gill vs. Willis R. Gill, Orrella B. Kaltenbach vs. F. B. Kaltenbach, Mary I. Holmes vs. Edwin N. Holmes, Josephine Scovel vs. William Scovel and Roy A. Thomas vs. Inez Thomas.

The calendar is a large one, containing 180 law cases, 84 chancery cases and 54 probate cases, a total of 318 cases. Four law, twenty-five chancery and three probate cases are entered for trial. The calendar, however, will probably dwindle to less than half that number. The next following regular term of court begins Septem-beral will take St. John's Cathedral. Garland will be in the ... The pall bearers, Richard ... George Iek McAleer, A. T. Soener.

Attend Ba Presidents C National and I tional banks a Group 9 of the sociation at C nesday. The by 150 delegat belonging to th the interesting ing was an ad of Dubuque, u features of wh the banking's the gathering; Wednesday ev cial club roo adopted a res Johnson of th Trust Co., of ed in the Wat the First Nati as a member o of the new rep

BRUCE BALL AFTER I

Passed Away Week o

Bruce Baldwin out the state race promoter patetic genius turned at all at St. Joseph after several heart trouble. His death. Hi to his old hom funeral took week.

Deceased w: the Cascade F and grew up about fifty ye his death. B more than th forceful write man, but wit qualities to r thing, and aft ful attempts work drifted other, followh cases, where licity departm Sunday paper to pot-bollers He is well r sections ... the time of t was promoter meet "pulled

Before an audience that practically filled the spacious auditorium of the high school the pupils of the Hawthorne school presented a very pretty play, "Bibi," a comedy of toys, in three acts, by Charles Barnard, Friday evening. Barnard is the author of "The Out Fair" and in "Bibi" he has gotten together a decidedly cute production, with many beautiful and interesting and inspiring features. It is the first of a series of entertainments to be given by the various grade schools, the second being "Boy Lue," which will be presented by the Lincoln school tomorrow evening, and the third "The Milkmaids," which will be presented by the Grammar school on Friday of next week. The authors of Hawthorne school, Miss Sarah Mason, principal, Misses Parsons, Boies, Lyon, Hoyer and O'Toole, labored faithfully and incessantly to make the play a success, drilling the pupils and arranging the various features of the production. The success of the play must be very gratifying to them as it was to all who saw it. It was presented in a way that kept the audience interested from beginning to end; it was full of very pretty scenes and acts, drills and steps, attractive and fetching costumes. The scene is a toyman's shop, with Katy, the toyman's daughter, in charge. The sandman enters and puts Katy to sleep. Katy dreams, Sylvania, a retired fairy, appears upon the scene, awakens the owl with her smelling salts, and many interesting and humorous situations follow throughout the play. There are all kinds of dolls and when brought to life by the use of the smelling salts they cut up many lively capers. The cast includes Bibi, a French doll, who is inclined to flirt, Angelica, a rag doll, Copsy, a black doll, who is a typical colored "passon," Prince Caramel, a gentleman doll, Capt. Tillerope, a brave sailor doll, Sergeant Bonbon, a soldier doll bedecked with medals, the sandman, man-in-the-moon, the frog, owl, cat and pig, jack-in-the-box, paper collies, jumping jacks, letter blocks, half of dolls' heads, the snowballs and others. The frog leaps about, the owl caws, the cat "meows," the pig grunts, the colored doll sings and dances prettily, the pig winds the cat's tail, Bibi attracts the gentlemen and soldier dolls, both of whom fall in love with her, but when put to the test the soldier proves his worth and wins the prize. Katy is tied to a chair and later released by the cat. The man-in-the-moon takes Bibi for a trip to the moon and one of the planets of the solar system. The "nigger gal" eats watermelon, talks colored person talk, announces many times that there's just one man vivah to cross. The first of the play is a night in December, the hours in the three acts being 7 p. m., midnight and morning. The many pretty, happy incidents of the dream are carried out with pleasing effect until the sandman and fairy get busy in the morning, awakening Katy and the dream is over, and the toys and dolls, again inanimate things, are back in their accustomed places in the toyman's shop.

WEEK'S OBITUARY RECORD

HON. L. F. SPRINGER.

While not unexpected, the news of the death of Hon. L. F. Springer came as a sad announcement to his many old Buchanan county friends. The news was received here in a message to his former law partner, M. A. Smith, and stated that Mr. Springer had passed away Sunday afternoon in a sanitarium in Philadelphia. Mr. Smith departed Tuesday afternoon for Kutztown, Pa., to attend the funeral, the burial being made today in that city, the old home of Mr. Springer, whose illness dates back over a period of three years. He suffered an attack of paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. His illness was such that he was obliged to give up his law practice and later he went to his old home state, afterward returning to Independence for a short time.

L. F. Springer was a native of Berks county, Pa., where he was born in 1851. He was a graduate of Lafayette college at Easton, Pa., and came to Independence in 1879 and engaged in the practice of his profession. His worth as a man and his popularity as a man won him many positions of public trust. He was city solicitor here in the years 1881 to 1884 inclusive and during the years 1899-1901 inclusive. He was mayor during the year 1885. He represented Buchanan county in the Iowa house of representatives in the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first and Thirty-second general assemblies, and was clerk of the district court of Buchanan county during the years 1890-1894. He formed a law partnership with Attorney M. A. Smith in 1900, which partnership continued until his final illness, being terminated in 1911. During his many years residence here he built up a large practice and enjoyed a wide acquaintance and friendship. In all of his dealings with his fellow man, in official and civil life, he was the soul of honor, and he was known far and wide as a man who was strictly on the square. What better recommendation can a man have? What better legacy can he leave, than a memory that he was always "on the square?" His keen intellect, his broad mind, his great ability, made him an efficient man in official life, and in his every day life here, where he was known to everyone by the familiar name of "Springer," he made a friendship and won a warm regard that caused universal regret when his illness overcame him and it was learned that he would never be a well man again. In his many years of active life in Independence he proved himself a man among men and in his death his old associates and friends will keenly sympathize with his bereaved relatives. Mr. Springer never married. He is survived by one brother and three sisters, all living at Kutztown, Pa. His collection of papers by one of his sons, Knights of Pythias.

J. B. STEWART.

honorably discharged in 1865. He was a good husband and father, an accommodating neighbor, an upright man in every way. Many friends were sorry to learn of his death and extend heartfelt sympathy to the wife and children. The funeral was held at the late home Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. and it was largely attended. Brief services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Basham. The few comrades attended in a body. Interment in Greenwood cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pallbearers: T. F. Halstead, C. J. Walter, E. T. Clark, J. M. Foster, E. F. Irwin and M. I. Perry.

Enjoyed a Musical Treat.

As a special feature at the Methodist church Sunday evening the audience enjoyed a musical program by those musical geniuses, the Craven family, of Tinton, formerly with the Midland chautauqua system. There was a very large audience, it being necessary to bring in extra chairs. The program included the march Majestic, the overture Joy to the World, the orchestra number Night in June, the vocal trio Open the Gates, cornet solo The Rosary, overture Sky Pilot, brass quartet Jesus Lover of My Soul, orchestral number Memories of the Home, a reading Old Red Cradles, a vocal trio Art Thou Weary, and The Chimes, an orchestral number. The orchestra includes J. F. Craven, violin, Irene, piano, Irma, cornet, Opal, clarinet, and Norma, trap drum and orchestra bells.

Passenger Rates Some Higher.

F. C. Norman, agent for the Illinois Central, announces that new passenger tariffs will go into effect on that road May 1. It will be a change of all joint rates all over the west, northwest and south, all old tariffs being cancelled on the above date and the new ones going into effect. They will show a slightly higher rate than at present. Instead of the present through fare or a flat rate to certain distant points, the rate will be made according to the distance regardless of the short lines. There are no joint rates in Iowa as yet. The passenger tariff to local points was changed some time ago, the rate to Jesup and Winthrop being a cent higher than formerly and correspondingly higher to other points a little farther distant.

Brotherhood Has Program.

The Methodist Brotherhood and their ladies to the number of 125 enjoyed one of the regular Brotherhood spreads in the church parlors Monday evening and at least fifty more came for the program given later by the Craven orchestra. The orchestra delighted the hearers with a program which included the march United Liberty and songs from The Old Folks, Swanee River as a brass quartet number, reading, at the photographers, by Miss Craven, an imitation of a clock store by the quartet, a whistling quartet number, Whistling Johnnie, and the march, The Old Folks. The Craven orchestra is a fine organization of entertainers. This was the last meeting of the Brotherhood for this season.

Copy

S

erly of this city.

Sunday's Telegraph-
r. and Mrs. A. M. Pond
rned home to Dubuque ided southern tour, in sited Florida and Cuba.

s. Con Lanning mourn
eir infant son, born il 16. He passed away
23. Our sympathy is hem in their bereave-

Vincent Gill, nee Miss of this city are the
of a son born April 19.
Hill have two daughters delighted over the ar-

Jambell and daughter,
eft for their home in hey have been guests
f Mr. and Mrs. M. W. ttended the Presbytery
past week.

mond is the proud
one new silver baritone ork make. It is sure a aymond will try it out which he gives at
is evening.

Young, who has been ill is convalescent. She school duties the first
The girls in the normal tment have been taking ing her absence.

Atkinson arrived in this for a visit in the home
s, Dr. and Mrs. W. W.
Atkinson has been ab-
ast year, singing in Chi-
y and other points.

Clarke went to Cedar to visit her brother and n that city. Her niece, ving, who is a trimmer ill meet Mrs. Clarke in for an over Sunday

s. John Shoemaker are home from California.
to make several visits Stockton, Kan., they ne home of Chas. Risley.
v come along the first

eth Fluck of Le Mars, visited in the home of
r. and Mrs. Wm. Fluck,
ed in Marquette, Mich.
Concord, Pa. The young side in Pennsylvania on are twelve high schools in this district. The same meet and contest was held in this city a year ago.

A number of the farmers living north of Otterville have built and are now operating a new farmers telephone line. The following farmers are interested in this line: G. J.
Strauss, A. M. Saunders, Charles and George Kroma, W. J. Turner, H.
Bright, Orley Bantz, Lewis Gissel and Mr. Cumberland. It starts at the W.
J. Turner farm at Jericho, 2½ miles north of Otterville and extends to the C. Budzine farm where it connects with the old 22 line. It is on what was formerly the old 31 line. It has twelve shares, and its stockholders number nine.

Springer Funeral in Pennsylvania.
M. A. Smith arrived home Sunday from Kutztown, Penn., where he attended the funeral of the late L. F.
Springer, at the home of relatives there. The funeral was attended by a goodly number of friends of the deceased and family, but Mr. Smith was the only representative of the old friends and associates of this county.
However, the latter testified to their recollection and regard for deceased with a beautiful flower piece that was conspicuous among the floral offerings. Mr. Smith did some industrious traveling during his brief absence. He left here last Tuesday afternoon, arriving in Chicago next morning; left there on the first train, arriving at Reading early Thursday morning, thence by trolley to Kutztown. It was necessary for him to be back here for the opening of court Monday morning, and he left Kutztown as soon as possible after the funeral and got here Sunday.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, } ss.
Lucas County, }
Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured
by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.
FRANK J. CHENEY.
Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December,
A. D. 1886.
(Seal) A. W. GLEASON,
Notary Public.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

W. H. Howe, Pres., David H. ... man, Vice-Pres., J. H. Coulter, Secy-Treas., M
mick Building, Chicago, Ill. Long Distance
phone, Harrison 1191. Auto Phone 63-436.

International

The IHC Line GRAIN AND HAY MACHINES

- Binders, Reapers
- Headers, Mowers
- Rakes, Stackers
- Hay Loaders
- Hay Presses
- CORN MACHINES
- Planters, Pickers
- Binders, Cultivators
- Ensilage Cutters
- Shellers, Shredders
- TILLAGE
- Fig. Spring-Tooth,
and Disk Harrows
- Cultivators
- GENERAL LINE
- Oil and Gas Engines
- Oil Tractors
- Manure Spreaders
- Cream Separators
- Farm Wagons
- Motor Trucks
- Threshers
- Grain Drills
- Feed Grinders
- Knife Grinders
- Binder Twine

"I HAVE a motor

eighty miles
summer, for t
never missed a tri Service such as the profits of yo duce rapidly at t
your general ha
motor truck wou
ness men, realiz
to be secured, l
the light running,
The solid tires
is simple and ha
The brakes are sa
is of the best.
International is b
Let us show y truck will do for logues and full in

International Harvester

(Incorporated)
Dubuque
Champion Deering McCormick

Subscribe for THE SIX FIVE IMPORTED BELGIAN