PROMINENT MAN DIES

Hon. George W. Hanna of Lu Verne Passed Away Wednesday.

Prominent In Politics and One of Wealthiest Men In Northern Iowa. —Owned 6115 Acres of Land.

George W. Hanna, one of the leading and best known citizens of northern Iowa, died at his home in Lu-Verne, last week Wednesday afternoon, after an illness extending over several months. He founded town of Lu Verne in 1880, and by careful investments he became one of the wealthiest men of the county. bank, a private institution, has prospered, and is known as one of the substantial financial institutions of this section of the state. Mr. Hanna has always taken an active part in the politics of the state, and upon two occasions he served as representative of this county, in the state legislature. In 1888 he was a delegate to the republican national convention which nominated Harrison for president, and was one of the presidential electors for ex-President Taft. He was a great promoter, and his judicious invest-ments flourished. He owned in Kossuth and Humboldt counties, 6115 acres of fertile prairie land, besides valuable interests in Mexico. Hanna ranch, located in Lu Verne township, is stocked with hundreds of head of fine cattle, horses and hogs. His wealth is estimated by many at a million. He was an earnest republican and was Lu Verne's first postmaster and also first mayor of the town he founded. He purchased lands when they were cheap, and they are now valuable.

George W. Hanna was born at Waterloo, Iowa, June 3, 1850, his parents having moved to Black Hawk county from Illinois, making the journey with an ox team. He received his early education in the schools of that city, lat-

George W. Hanna was born at Waterloo, Iowa, June 3, 1850, his parents having moved to Black Hawk county from Illinois, making the journey with an ox team. He received his early education in the schools of that city, later attending the public school at Goldfield, Iowa. He attended the Upper Iowa University at Fayette and received the M. A. degree. During the Civil War he was associated with his father and uncle, Philip Hanna, in furnishing beef to the war prisoners He also taught a at Rock Island. number of terms of school and was for a time engoged in the mercantile business at Goldfield before locating at Lu Verne.

In 1876 he was united in marriage to Miss Ophelia McIntosh, a native of Wright county. Four children were born to this union, Eugenia, wife of T. A. Robertson, now living in the south; W. Scott, now practicing law at Lu Verne; Geneva, wife of Attorney Swicher of Iowa City; and Consuelo, who is attending the University at Iowa City. Funeral services were held at the home Saturday, and many friends of the deceased were present to pay their last respects to one of the pioneers who assisted in bringing this country from a wilderness to its present prosperous condition. Judge Hanna, an elder brother, passed away at his home in Texas about one week ago, and Consul Phil Hanna, of Monterey, Mexico, was unable to be present at the funeral of his brother on account of illness.

Jennings, Harvey Algona Soldier Boy, Writes Home.

Tells of Great Sand Storm.—Soldiers Wear Goggles and Handkerchief Over Face For Protection.

Harvey Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jennings, living east of Algona, has written a letter from Camp Cody, New Mexico, telling of some of his experiences in the army, a part of which we are allowed to print below. Young Jennings, eager to defend his country, enlisted in the army early last summer before the draft, and for a time was stationed at Ft. Dodge. He went to Camp Cody early in the fall. Portions of the letter follow:

"Camp Cody, January 8, 1918--Dear Mother: I sure like to receive letters, but there is none I look for like the one from home.

"I am on kitchen police today. We get four days at a time of kitchen work. It isn't quite as hard as drilling and we get all we want to eat. They are putting a cement floor in

LUVERNE BANKER DIES.

Geo. W. Hanna, Prominent Banker and Real Estate Owner Passes Away.

Special from Lu Verne: George W. Hanna, a highly respected citizen and a member of one of Iowa's pioneer families, passed away at his home in Lu Verne, Iowa, at 5:00 p. m. Wednesday, January 16, 1918. He was born June 3, 1850 in Black Hawk county, Iowa, being the third son of George W. and Mary Melrose Hanna.

Although he had attained great honor as a citizen and had accumulated much of this world's goods he took greater pride in humble birth than anything else; and this is best expressed in his own words: "I was born June 3d, 1850 in a log cabin built by my father in Waterloo township. This log cabin was the first in the township and served for many years as a church, courthouse and free hotel. I was rocked in a cradle dug out of a basswod log. It was great to be able to boast of a cradle in that day and age."

Heattended the village school and Prairie Home Seminary and later, Upper Iowa University at Fayette. After completing his education he taught school for a term in the Jockeytown district, south of Waterloo, and then moved to Goldfield, Wright county. He was in business in Goldfield for several years and in 1880 moved northwest and founded the town of Lu Verne and made it his home until the time of his death. His successes in life were due to the fact that he was a constructive and indefatigable worker.

Mr. Hanna represented Kossuth in the 30th, and 31st general assemblies, and even further honors might have been his, had he chosen to accept them.

due to the fact that he was a constructive and indefatigable worker.

Mr. Hanna represented Kossuth in the 30th, and 31st general assemblies, and even further honors might have been his, had he chosen to accept them.

Mr. Hanna's land interests were large besides being owner of the private Bank of Lu Verne.

Mr. Hanna was married to Ophelia M. McIntosh, of Goldfield, Iowa. Sept. 27th., 1876. He is survived by the wife, and four children: Mrs. Eugene Edith Hanna Robertson, of Monterey, Mexico: Winfield Scott Hanna, of Lu Verne, Iowa; Mrs. Geneva Anna Hanna Swisher, of Iowa City: and Miss Consuelo Hanna, who is a student in the Iowa State University, Also brother, Philip C. Hanna consul general for the northern district of Mexico; and three sisters: Mrs. Emily George and Mrs. Edith Colton of Waterloo, and Mrs. Mollie Tiller of Cedar Falls. Also two grand children: Georgia Robertson and Treadwell Ayers Robertson Jr.

An older brother, Judge Johnson Hanna, died last Sunday at his home in Blackwell, Texas.

Mr. Hanna had a wide acquaintance throughout the state and aside from the immediate relatives, he leaves a wide circle of friends who mourn his decease.

Funeral services were conducted at the home at Lu Verne, Saturday at 2:30 p. m. by Dr. F. W. Court., pastor of First M. E. church, Waterloo, Iowa, assisted by Rev. J. H. Edge, pastor of the M. E. church, Lu Verne. Mr. Paul Davis of Waterloo, an old friend of the family, very beautifully rendered the old hymns; "The Home of the Soul," "Lead Kindly Light," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." Interment was made in the Lu Verne cemetery.
