1,793 Farms Complete '53 ASC Projects

Conservation practices having an estimated cost value of 20 1/2 million dollars were completed on 121,000 Iowa farms in 1953 under the direction of the agricultural stabilization and conservation agency of the United States department of agriculture.

Of the total cost, $8,381,125 will be met with federal funds paid directly to participating farmers under the government's cost-sharing plan, officially known as the agricultural conservation program or ACP. It was reported this week by Dwight W. Meyer, state ASC committee chairman.

Nearly 63 per cent of all cropland in the state was operated last year by owners and operators participating in ACP, he stated.

Average

In the state as a whole, cost-sharing for 1953 will average $69.27 per participating farm and $53.73 per payee. Participants have until Dec. 31 to file applications for payment of cost-sharing on 1953 practices.

In Pocahontas county, ACP practices were completed under the 1953 program on 1,793 farms, and owners and operators will receive a total of $113,824.51 in cost-sharing payments. Any who are eligible for 1953 ACP payments but have neglected to complete their applications should do so at once. Average earned payments for 1953 practices in Pocahontas county amounted to $63.48 per farm and $39.45 per payee.

A. J. Manzer New Smoke Shop Owner

A. J. Manzer of Laurens last week purchased the Smoke Shop, and took possession of the business Monday. It will be known as Manzer's Smoke Shop.

For several years the business has been owned by Dr. L. J. Taylor and operated by A. E. Oberlin.

Pocahontas County Farm Bureau Will Build New Offices

A new building will be erected at Pocahontas for the Pocahontas county Farm Bureau. It was definitely decided by the board of directors of the organization at the September meeting.

George Lehnus, president of the organization, said this week that construction will start as soon as final details are worked out.

Plans call for 36' by 48' one story office building with a full basement. The structure will be of clay tile construction and will provide space for seven offices. The Pocahontas county extension service offices and the Farm Bureau Insurance offices will be located in the basement of the Farm Bureau organization. The basement will have a seating capacity of approximately 150 and will also

Two Will Speak At Outlook Session

Two speakers have been secured for the Pocahontas county outlook meeting to be held at the court house assembly room Tuesday evening, Oct. 5, according to County Extension Director E. I. Rosenberger.

They are L. J. Bodenstainer, assistant professor of farm management, and Richard McWilliams, extension animal husbandman, both of Iowa State college at Ames. The speakers will discuss livestock, feed outlook and management information.

Founder and First President Laurens State Bank Dies

E. K. Winne, 79, of Laurens, one of the founders and the first president of the Laurens State bank, died Friday at his summer home on Sunset beach at Lake Okoboji after a long illness.

Final rites were held Saturday, at 1:30 p.m. at the Hitchcock Funeral Home in Laurens. The Rev. R. P. Phillips, pastor of the Laurens Methodist church, officiated.

Palbearers were E. B. Pannkuk, Don C. Miller, Blaine Gildea, F. C. Gilchrist Jr. and U. F. Dubbert, all of Laurens, and Joe Edge of Havelock. Burial was in Union cemetery at Humboldt.

Born at Humboldt

Edward King Winne, son of Rose and Salem Winne, was born and attended school at Humboldt. After attending college in Des Moines he worked at the People's Bank at Humboldt.

In 1901 he was elected state senator from Humboldt, Pocahontas and Buena Vista counties, and at the time was the youngest man ever to have been named to that position. He served three terms, in the 29th, 30th and 31st general assemblies, and held various honorary political appointments.

Ill health forced him to go to Montana, where he cruised land for railroads and did some drilling for oil. When he returned to Iowa he worked for the Iowa Public Service Company as head of public relations.

Come to Laurens

Mr. Winnie helped organize and was president of the Rock Rapids State Bank, and in 1935 came to Laurens to assist with organization and become president of the Laurens State Bank. He took an active interest in the growth and development of Laurens until ill health made it necessary for him to retire several years ago. He was a member of the Unitarian church, and had been a Rotarian, Elk, Shriner and member of other fraternal organizations during his lifetime.

Mr. Winnie is survived by his wife, the former Helen Maloney of Rock Rapids. His parents are the late John and Mary Winnie.

Havelock Amvets retained their Lion's league championship for the second straight year and M. and J. R. Hakes came out second for the third straight year after the two clubs met in a play-off tilt Sunday evening at Havelock. The score was 10-8, Havelock.

Havelock made their bid for the championship late in the season after several games were rained out. In previous encounters, Hakes defeated Havelock 5-4 and then lost 9-15. Each club dropped two games before Sunday night's meeting.

Final standings are:

TEAM	W	L
Havelock Amvets	7	2
M. & J. R. Hakes	6	3
Laurens Lions	3	4
Iowa Life	3	4
Co-Op Oil	3	6
Firemen	2	5

Hakes were leading up to the third inning 2-1. Then Havelock pushed across two runs in the bottom of the third and broke loose for six more in the fourth inning. Jack Mankle drove a home run over the center field fence with one on to help things along. He also hit a triple later in the game to lead Havelock hitting.

Ray Boughey hit a triple and Hakes came right back with five runs in the fifth inning, making it 7-9. Each team added one more run in the last inning. Gibson and Brazier made up the winning battery. Bud Reining pitched and Fred Forsythe caught for Hakes.

C. Rubel to Move Laurens Sale Barn To Edge of Town

A plan to move the Laurens sale barn to a new location was revealed this week by Cecil Rubel, owner and operator of the Laurens Livestock Sales Company.

Mr. Rubel has purchased the 60-acre J. R. Davidson farm at the west edge of Laurens, just south of the Rock Island railroad tracks. He will take possession March 1, and sometime later expects to tear down the present sale pavillion in town and establish the business at the new location.

Before buying the Davidson farm, Mr. Rubel sold the farm on which he now lives, southwest of Laurens, to Charles Carroll. Clarence Stepler has rented the place, and will operate both Carroll farms next year.

Light Rain, Mild Weather Recorded

Laurens had a little more than three-fourths of an inch of rain during the week, according to records kept by Henry Ries. This included .50 Wednesday, .21 Sunday and .08 Tuesday.

Following are the minimum and maximum temperature readings:

Sept. 8	51	71
Sept. 9	56	63
Sept. 10	51	76
Sept. 11	59	72
Sept. 12	61	79

Poorest Golf Score Wins Best Award

Damon "Sam" Cole, Laurens girls' coach and junior high teacher, came in last in a golf tournament Saturday at Storm Lake but he also got the last laugh when the prizes were awarded.

He turned out to be winner of the nicest award at the schoolmasters golf tournament after he had successfully placed last in the last flight. For his efforts he received four popular brand steel folding chairs, a bottle of shampoo (to wash the dirt from his hair), a book written by Sam Sneed on how to play golf... plus the nickname of "Sam"!

Three others represented Laurens in the tournament won by Dutch Houseman, coach at Emmetsburg. They were E. R. Salvason, Francis Peterson, who placed fourth in the second flight, and George Tideback.

Cole, who has only played about three or four games of golf, commented on his achievement: "We won't have to sit on the floor anymore."

Laurens Exhibitors Win at Two Fairs

Laurens exhibitors won a number of awards in the grain departments of the Iowa state fair and the Clay county fair this year.

At Des Moines, Charles T. Halder won first on 30 ears, fourth on 10 ears, second on four stalks, sixth on freak ear, sixth on soybeans, ninth on peck of shelled corn and ninth on bushel of corn. At Spencer he had first on largest ear, third on 80 ears and fourth on 10 ears in the professional class.

Frank Schlensig, at the state fair, won first on four stalks, second on 30 ears, third on 10 ears, second on freak ear, third on soybeans and eighth on bushel of corn. At the Clay county fair he placed third on 80 ears, amateur class.

Leland Halder placed fourth on 80 ears at Spencer.

Ferguson Competing For Regional F. F. A. Speaking Honors

Dale Ferguson, representing Iowa, left Tuesday for the regional F. F. A. speaking contest at Olney, Ill., and will compete today (Thursday) for the regional title with winners from 13 other states.

Winner of regional competition will go to the national contest in October at Kansas City, Mo.

Ferguson won the state contest in April at Davenport when he spoke on "Safety Today" where he outlined a program which, if adopted, should help reduce the accident rate.

He was accompanied by his father, Earl Ferguson, and Alvin M. Andersen, vocational agriculture instructor at Laurens will return tomorrow (Friday).

Laurens Trips Aurelia, 7-6 In First Game

It took just about 45 seconds for a crowd of around 500 to become hoarse last Friday night when Laurens Elks exploded for a touchdown and an extra point that won their opening ball game 7-6 over the Aurelia Bulldogs.

With less than a minute to go in the first half, trailing 0-6, and with the Bulldogs again growling at the door, Richard Stock, left half, intercepted an Aurelia pass on his own 10-yard line and streaked down the sidelines, twisting and dodging behind perfect blocking for 75 yards to the Aurelia 15 before being brought down.

Pass Score

Bulldogs Score First

Before Elk lightning struck, Aurelia was living true to the nickname. Receiving the kick-off on their 20-yard line they bulldogged their way to the Laurens eight. A fumble cost them possession of the ball momentarily but after an Elk fumble and a short kick they were back in position. A pass to Art Stesson put the ball on the Laurens six and then Dick

Anderson, who played an excellent game on both offense and defense, skirted the left end to put Aurelia in the lead, 6-0. The kick for the point-after-touchdown went left of the goal posts.

Threats Fall

Each team threatened in the third quarter. Bill Pauk intercepted and ran back a Bulldog pass 20 yards to erase their threat. Laurens falled on downs after a 25-yard pass from Smith to Grossnickle put the ball on the Aurelia 15. The Elks moved again in the last quarter from their own 35 to the Bulldogs 30 aided by a 14-yard gallop by Smith and a 23-yard sprint by Carter. A fumble ended the drive.

Aurelia uncorked two passes late in the game covering 30 yards but time ran out.

Injuries

Penalties were few but there were several injuries. Most serious was Jim Covey of Aurelia who dislocated his right knee in the fourth quarter. Bill Pauk banged his leg for the fourth time on the last play of the game but seemed to be walking all right later in the dressing room.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY CONCERT SERIES WILL OPEN OCT. 28

"Entertainment by music" might well be the theme of the Humboldt County Concert Association series, according to Lawrence Jaqua and Francis Toner, publicity chairmen.

"With this objective in mind we have made a special effort to select talent for its entertainment appeal as well as artistic merit. By this action we hope to appeal to even more people of this area than we ever have before," they continued in making this announcement of talent as the association prepares to open its annual membership drive Sept. 20.

Fleetwood Singers

At the head of the list in the series of many people will be the Fleetwood Singers, while others will await with interest the fall appearance of Lloyd LaVaux, one of the country's outstanding accordionists who will appear here on his 24th trans-continental tour.

The Fleetwood Singers will open the concert series Oct. 28 with an evening of stirring choral music. This male octet, composed of experienced young voices, is directed by James Fleetwood, nationally known choral conductor, and their program will be composed of many different kinds of music, ranging from difficult classical works to well known spirituals, folk tunes and novelty arrangements.

Accordion Soloist

Lloyd LaVaux, appearing here Nov. 22, has scored a sensation as an accordion soloist, playing the gamut from Bach to Gershwin and Richard Rodgers, on 23 triumphant coast-to-coast tours. He plays a specially built instrument, designed by himself, which commands a much greater range of tones, enabling him to perform authentically the music of the masters and greatly enhancing his lighter works.

To Erect Frank Gotch Memorial

Work is being completed on the Frank Gotch memorial which the Humboldt-Dakota City Jaycees will erect and dedicate at Gotch park Sunday, Sept. 26. The above picture was taken in the shop of Wayt and Son, Sac City, and is a "paste-up" of the stone before cutting was started. The stone will appear as with a few slight variations. Base for the memorial has been erected and a crew of Jaycees worked the weekend preparing the park for the dedication in two weeks.

ED WINNIE, FORMER RESIDENT, DIED FRIDAY MORNING

Friends here were advised Friday of the death early that morning of Ed K. Winnie, former Humboldt resident, at his cottage at Lake Okoboji. He had been in failing health for a number of years but had not been bedfast.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Laurens, where he and Mrs. Winnie had lived for about 20 years. Burial was in the family lot in Union cemetery in Humboldt.

Older residents of Humboldt knew the Winnie family well. The three brothers, Salem, Lawrence and Ed were familiar figures here and engaged in various business enterprises.

Lawrence and Salem moved to California a number of years ago. Ed was president of the Laurens bank until failing health forced him to retire.

He is survived by his wife and two nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers.

Plan Bible Conference At First Lutheran Beginning Sept. 26

From the Rev. Oscar Rem, pastor of the First Lutheran church in Humboldt, has come the announcement that a series of meetings will be offered to the community, beginning Sunday, Sept. 26, with Pastor A. R. Peterson of the Lutheran Bible institute in Minneapolis, Minn., as speaker.

The nature of these messages is to be of benefit to all members of the family. Meetings will begin at 8 o'clock every evening and will be held in the First Lutheran church.

In speaking of this conference Pastor Rem said: "America's future depends upon our knowing the principles of Christianity and being empowered by them. Too many of us haven't really gotten into the Word, and therefore haven't the power to meet life's problems successfully. These special messages should prove refreshing and helpful to us in a hurried and worried world, a facing a threatening future. The Bible has the answer to our problems."

Iowa, and secured a farm of 200 acres in Weaver township, but returned to Illinois. In 1872 he spent the summer on his farm and returned to his native state to teach school during the winter months. This he did for fifteen years, teaching first in Illinois and later in Humboldt county, where he located permanently in 1879. He married Ada I. Gillett, June 29, 1882, and to them three children have been born, Roy G., Anna C., and Partha H. A., all living at home and attending the public school.

Mr. Wilson is a Republican and has held office as township clerk, and as supervisor. In religion he is non-sectarian, but took an active part in the establishment of the Methodist church at Unique. He owns 600 acres of land in Weaver township and is numbered among the prosperous farmers of the county.

E. K. WINNE,

Was born in Humboldt, Iowa, November 25, 1873. His father, S. K. Winne, came to Humboldt in 1869, and engaged in the real estate business. He was elected county recorder in 1873, and served two terms. Afterward he was interested in the hardware business, continuing his work in real estate and loans until his death, May 13, 1896.

The subject of this sketch attended the public schools until his eighteenth year. At that time he went to Mason City and took charge of the Mason City Bottling Company's plant, which had been bought by a Humboldt company, and managed it until it was moved into its new buildings. He then attended the Iowa Business College at Des Moines, from which he was graduated in June 1893, having made an exceptionally good record while there. Returning to Humboldt he worked for the People's Bank until the fall of that year, he then took a position as book-keeper for A. R. Loomis. In March, 1895, he became book-keeper for the Mineral Springs Bottling Company, where he remained until July. He then became interested in the implement business, the firm name being Winne & Bennett. January 1, 1897, he sold out his interests to Mr. Bennett. In company with his brothers he has successfully carried on a real estate and loan business, the firm name being Winne Brothers.

Mr. Winne was appointed clerk of the fourth division code revision committee, in the extra session of the Twenty-Sixth General Assembly. Here again Mr. Winne distinguished himself by demonstrating his executive ability. After committee work was practically ended in the extra session he was delegated to do special work for the speaker in the way of tracing all house bills, seeing that they were properly engrossed in both houses. This was an especially important work because it necessitated seeing that all amendments were properly attached as designated by the Senate and House Journals. Had as careful a work been done in the final passage of the Titus Amendment, the great state of Iowa would not have been charged with negligence after the proposed amendment had been voted upon and carried by the people. He was unanimously elected as Journal clerk of the House in the Twenty-Seventh General Assembly. He has already shown that he possesses a keen insight into politics and is eminently successful. He was chairman of the Humboldt county Republican committee in 1900, and in consequence of his efficient work the majority of the Republican party in Humboldt county was increased 400 votes over the Republican majority in the county for 1899. Mr. Winne is president of the Humboldt Creamery Company, and secretary of the Humboldt County Agricultural Society. He was one of the originators, and is now one of the directors of the Humboldt Electric Light & Power Plant, and is also one of the projectors of the Humboldt Sewer Company. He holds stock in both the State and People's Bank of Humboldt, being a director of the latter. He is essentially a public spirited man. He personally puts forth every effort and contributes both time and money to all local interests whether it be religious, social, educational, political, business, or for the general welfare of his county and his home.
