

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Doubleday, Oliver E. Senator
Represented Polk County, Iowa

1. Birthday and place 22 Feb 1832 Tipppecanoe County, Indiana

2. Marriage (s) date place

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities _____

C. Profession Farmer; stock raiser

4. Church membership Methodist

5. Sessions served 25th, 26th General Assemblies 1894, 1896

6. Public Offices

A. Local _____

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 6 Apr 1907 Douglas Township, Polk County, Iowa; buried

8. Children _____

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education _____

11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information Republican

- He came to Polk County, Iowa in 1860
- At the time of his death he owned more than 1,000 acres of land in and around Douglas Township of Polk County.

her charms to the highest, pocketed the proceeds. To the experience of the world, and official thinker, this plea so set forth is likely to have in-

was engaged from the on last night, notably the dis- w Praed and Crofts as to la Viva, and the rector's the episode which made him of the girl. This serves to rector's attitude a trifle less when he but feebly protests learns that his illegitimate about to contract a marriage intimate son.

ghlan enacted Mrs. Warren and rises to considerable force when she pleads with her or a mother's right. But for the implied moral of the play, al has no alluring fascination little sympathy.

anford started well as the in- cold-blooded, matter-of-fact character in which Shaw, no ed to draw a type of the new ig woman—but she failed to be in the latter acts. Forest Orr ast as the flippant son of the t the rector, played by st field, was quite as impossible described him. Richard Pitt- made an effective Praed. The nerally were somewhat shaky lines, and the voice of the was frequently heard.

W. E. A.

++
s bright particular star ak's bill at the Empire. The s crowded to its capacity last many were unable to gain ad- liss Irwin has the breeziness ; cyclone, and like her sister, possesses a hearty, infectious r. The moment she steps on he is on good terms with the She sings a number of comic rpreted with amusing descrip- y, and indulges in a joke fest a cordial reception.

Masssey appear in a lively led "The Intruder." Harrison resent a ludicrous "hayseed" "The Old Maid and the Rube," rris and company, appear in a edy, "What Happened to Evans and Evans sing and Jolsen whistles and sings, and nswelg gives some pleasing se- the violin. A number of good tures are also shown.

MOVING-ATTRACTIONS.

lille— 15 p. m.—"Girls Will Be Girls." 2:30 and 8:15 p. m.—Vaudeville. n, 12:15 to 6; 7:15 to 11—Moving

l. S. S. for Foster's and the sale at the Opera House phar- the Empire, at the box office.

Will Be Girls" continues at the light and tomorrow night.

more, in a new college play, "comes to Foster's Thursday. The feature of the play is a 1050 Seventh street, 23 years old. He is pushed close by S. G. Sweet 604 Tenth street, 79 years old, who has lived in Des Moines for thirty-six years.

Signs Cheerfully.

"I have signed hundreds of petitions in my day," said Mr. Logget, "among them one asking that Iowa be admitted as a state, but rone with more pleasure than this paper.

W. H. Butler yesterday mustered enough courage to carry a petition into the territory of the enemy, invading the city hall. Although he got no signers, there was no hostile demonstration. Aldermen Eugene Waterbury and C. C. Christy have come out in favor of the new plan, the former working heartily for it.

PIONEER FARMER IS DEAD

Oliver E. Doubleday, Former Legisla- tor and Prominent Man, Lived Here Fifty Years.

Oliver E. Doubleday, a pioneer of Polk county and former legislator, died at his home in Douglas township Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. He was 76 years old and had been a resident of this county for more than fifty years. He is survived by four daughters. Funeral services will be conducted at the Friends' church on Four Mile creek, this morning at 11 o'clock.

Oliver E. Doubleday was born in Tippecanoe county, Indiana, Feb. 23, 1832, and came to Polk county in 1860. He was a careful manager and thorough agriculturist and stock raiser, and by thrift accumulated comfortable means. He owned at the time of his death more than 1,000 acres of land in and around Douglas township, most of it being under cultivation.

Mr. Doubleday took a deep interest in all township matters and was always a persistent worker for the interests of that community.

GIBSON IS GIVEN JUDGMENT

Not Afflicted With Psychosis, Accord- ing To the Rash Allegations Made.

L. E. Gibson was last night awarded a verdict for $5 against the Capitol Hill De- bating society in his famous suit for $10,000, which he claimed as damages for slander in that the society had adjudged him insane. Last night the final argu- ments in the case were made before a large audience at the East Side Church of Christ and after an evening of hilarity over the proceedings of the mock court the case was brought to a close. The jury found that the plaintiff was not capable of handling such a large sum of money and directed that it be paid into the church fund for safe keeping.

Is Stricken On Engine.

MASON CITY, Ia., April 8.—Special. While on his engine Sunday evening at Spencer, Michael Barlow of this city had case for appointment. ficer under the new juvenile law, says that her candidacy is a serious one and that she is conducting it in a dignified manner. "I think The Register and Leader did me an injustice in its state- ment about my candidacy Sunday," she said yesterday. "I have lived in Des Moines many years and I have many friends here, and I am assured of their kind support."

++
COLORED INVENTOR HERE.—C. E. L. Baker of St. Louis, a colored inventor and patented, who invented the friction heater of the Friction Heater & Roller company of St. Louis, was in Des Moines yesterday on his way to the Jamestown exposition. Mr. Baker's patent was tried out for a time on the cars of the Des Moines City railway, but was given up after a short time. His visit here was to gather up some of his property which still remained in the hands of the local traction magnates. He left last night for Jamestown.

FAREWELL DINNER.—Several promi- nent negro families united in a farewell dinner to the Rev. O. A. Johnson, former pastor of Burns A. M. E. church, and his wife at the Jones cafe yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Burns will leave to day for In- dependence, Mo., where they will take up church work. Among those who attend- ed with their wives were: Rev. W. S. Brooks, pastor of St. Paul's A. M. E. church; Rev. T. L. Griffith, pastor of the Corinthian Baptist church; Rev. J. H. Harris, the new pastor of Burns A. M. E. church, and S. Joe Brown.

Personal Mention.

Miss Flora Dunlap returned yesterday from a short visit at Ames, Ia.

Ada Sprague, who has been spending her vacation at home, left yesterday for Grinnell, where she is attending Iowa college.

DeWitt C. Sprague, who has been at home for the spring vacation, has re- turned to Cedar Rapids, where he is a teacher in the high school.

The Rev. J. A. Wirt, D. D., pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, left last evening for a trip to Texas, intending to visit Fort Worth, Houston, Dallas and Galveston. He goes for a much needed rest and will be away two weeks.

Mr. James Fagan of 1125 Second street left last night for Omaha, where he will

SEE OUR EXCLUSIVE
selections
Wall Papers
Draperies and other Decorations
reasonable prices
New York Wall Paper
and Stationery Co.
Opposite Postoffice.