are constructive forces which lead to the development of art, culture, education, and wealth, and which tend to curb rather than cause war. The question was, "Resolved: That this house disapproves of nationalism." Sydney, in upholding the affirmative, was represented by H. C. Gadsall, W. S. Sheldon, and N. C. Nelson. The university team was composed of Herschel G. Langdon of Gilmore City, Burton A. Miller of Newton, and Louis Carroll of Davenport. It was the fifth international debate to be held here, two of which have been with Sydney, and was broadcast by station WSHL.

Former Editor Dies Suddenly

Had Made Home in Des Moines Many Years: to Be Buried Here

A. H. Davison, one of the best known citizens of Rock Rapids, years ago, died at the family home in Des Moines Tuesday. The remains will be brought to Rock Rapids Saturday morning and the funeral will be held from the Lockwood & Piewitz parlors at 11:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Riverview cemetery, where the remains will rest between Mr. Davison's two wives, the first of whom passed away many years ago, and the last, but a month since. There will be no services here, but Masonic pallbearers will carry the body of their late brother to the grave.

No particulars of Mr. Davison's death are obtainable at this time, as the message was from a Des Moines undertaker, who requested that Lockwood & Piewitz make the local arrangements, and which set the time for the service.

Mr. Davison was well known and served the citizens of Rock Rapids and Lyon county in a public capacity on more than one occasion. He was for some years superintendent of the Rock Rapids public schools, and following his service in that capacity, became publisher of the Rock Rapids Reuorter which he edited for several years, and was then elected to the state legislature from this district, serving through the 25th General assembly. Later he removed to Des Moines, where he was connected with the state executive council, as secretary of that body for several years, and it was said of him that he was the first secretary of that organization to put it on a real business footing.

For several years past Mr. Davison has been living in practical retirement, and has devoted his time and attention to compiling a genealogy of the Davison family, a work that he had just completed and made ready for the press.

Mr. Davison was a native of Pennsylvania, and was about 75 years of age. He is survived by two daughters and two sons, and a brother, C. E. Davison, sheriff of Miner county, South Dakota. He was a member of the Masonic lodge in all its branches, and of the Methodist church. He was a man of strong likes and dislikes, a firm friend and a good hater, and was highly regarded by those who knew him best.

WARNING

The Iowa State Law requires that all vehicles turn to the curb upon an alarm of fire, and proceed only after the fire apparatus is on its way.

It takes only about two minutes after a fire alarm comes in for the fire truck to get under way and you will be delayed only a short time.

Please observe the law and give the fire boys a chance. Fighting fires is dangerous in itself and the chances of getting hurt are trebled when cars rush to the fire and through the streets.

Home Talent Show To-nite

Big Cast to Take Part in Comedy "The Poor Nut" at Lyon Theatre

Ninety Rock Rapids people are to take part in the home talent production, "The Poor Nut" which will be shown at the Lyon theatre this evening, and again tomorrow night. This show is sponsored by the Women's club and is being produced under the direction of Mrs. H. W. Farnham, formerly in charge of dramas in the Rock Rapids schools.

The show, as the name implies, is a comedy—a comedy of college life, and the big scene centers around a track meet between the University of Ohio and the University of Wisconsin. "The Poor Nut" plays an important part in this race, as he does all through the show, and provides plenty of laughs for the audience.

To Drive to West

Earl Helmsdinger, who has been here for the past few months, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Helmsdinger, expects to leave next week for San Francisco, Calif., where he will spend the winter. He will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by Mr. and Mrs. Ward Egbert and their son, Joe, former Rock Rapids residents, who have been living in Stony Falls for the past few years. Frank San Francisco the Egberts will go to Lamas Valley, Oregon, where they expect to enter business, and to make their future home.
