Mr. Hoadley Huff Stuart was born February 12, 1888, at Hot Springs, S. D., and died Dec. 23, 1942, at Glendale, Calif.

Mr. Stuart in his youth lived with his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. T. McKay Stuart and family. He was a graduate of the Glidden, Iowa, high school and studied civil engineering at the Iowa State College at Ames, where he was a member of the Varsity football team. In the World War I, he was commissioned a 1st Lieutenant at Fort Snelling, Minn., and served 13 months over seas with the 352nd Inf. 88th Div. After returning from the first World War, he with his brother-in-law, E. E. Fisher, operated their own Mercantile business and ranch in Wyoming and were active in oil lease promotions. Mr. Stuart was a Mason of the Roosevelt Lodge at Lusk, Wyo., and at one time a member of the Kiwanis Club; being territorial manager in southwest Iowa and Nebraska. However, for the major portion of his life he was a salesman for several companies in the mid-western states. Later, while living in California, and at the time of his passing, he was employed by a Glendale furniture company.

Funeral services were held at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in the Little Church of the Flowers at Glendale.

His departure leaves his wife, Lela Fisher Stuart; his daughter, Jean; a sister, Mrs. W. J. Harris of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Fred C. Stuart of Joliet, Ill., and Dr. A. B. Stuart of Cloquet, Minn.; also relatives of the Stuart and Fisher families and many friends.

of Pneumonia Wednesday Morning

Mr. Harvey B. Haselton, 98, Glidden's oldest citizen, died at his home here Wednesday morning at 2:00 o'clock, following an illness of pneumonia and flu since Christmas. His health had been excellent up until about the holiday season, and he had made his regular calls down town.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 at the Presbyterian church in Glidden, Rev. S. R. Reed officiating.

Burial will be in Westlawn cemetery.

Harvey B. Haselton, son of Parker and Lodena (Barden) Haselton, was born April 4, 1845, in Chenango county, New York. The first four years of his life were spent in New York state, 18 years in Illinois and 11 years in Wisconsin. Since that time he has been a prominent resident in Carroll county—65 years.

He secured his education in the country schools at a time when teachers 'boarded around' among the pupils. He remained under the parental roof until 30 years of age. For ten years he devoted his summer months to farming and taught country school in the winter.

In 1878 he purchased 160 acres of land in Carroll county, which by industry and good judgement was improved and other acres added.

In the year 1913, Mr. Haselton retired from the farm and moved into his newly built residence in Glidden, which has been his home since that time. On March 25, 1873, he was

RATIONING HAS NOT EMPTIED SHELVES

Can Openers Still Have Plenty To Do In Carroll County

Kitchens

Rationing has not emptied the shelves of Carroll county residents of canned foods it was revealed today, a total of 153,698 cans being used monthly, according to A. H. Nugent, general sales manager of the American Can Company.

Mr. Nugent based his figure on the government's compilation of 22,770 ration book holders in the county and the statement by the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics that the per capita consumption of canned goods so far this year is .225 cans a day. On the basis of the average size pre-war can, approximately 371 pounds of pure metallic tin is reclaimable for the war effort from these cans, he explained.

Men in service eat 8,000,000 cans of food a day and millions of pounds of canned items are being shipped abroad for lend lease, he said.

He secured his education in the country schools at a time when teachers 'boarded around' among the pupils. He remained under the parental roof until 30 years of age. For ten years he devoted his summer months to farming and taught country school in the winter.

In 1878 he purchased 160 acres of land in Carroll county, which by industry and good judgment was improved and other acres added.

In the year 1913, Mr. Haselton retired from the farm and moved into his newly built residence in Glidden, which has been his home since that time.

On March 25, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Jane Gibson, who was born near Castle Douglas, in county Galloway, Scotland, who came with her parents to America in the year 1860. To this union, five children were born—Florence M., Samuel G., Parker H., William R., Harvey B. Jr. Of these, Parker H. of Chicago, and Harvey B. of Des Moines, survive. Mrs. Haselton died in 1921.

In 1926, Mr. Haselton was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Prill, of Douglas, Wyoming, who with the two sons Parker H. Haselton of Chicago, Dr. Harvey B. Haselton of Des Moines and one brother David B. Haselton of Glidden, survive him.

Mr. Haselton was a democrat in politics and was honored with many public offices during his lifetime in Carroll county. For many years he served on the Board of Supervisors and served two terms in the Iowa Legislature. He was a staunch champion of education and served for many years on the Board of Education. He was a supporter of all worthy causes which would make life bet-

Talking It Over—

Miss Connie C. Foote, Extension Nutritionist at Iowa State College, advises storing enough meat in the locker to provide the family table for 3 or 4 months. A good grade of beef and fat lamb may be stored long as 6 or 8 months. Meat from thinner animals, ground meat and sausage, however, will be better if used within 4 months.

Workers would not have to take a job if moved into an area lacking suitable housing. They would be given traveling expenses and subsistence allowances on the basis of those given members of the armed forces.

H. B. Haselton Dies in Glidden This Morning

98-Year-Old Pioneer Had Been Ill Since Christmas

H. B. Haselton

April, died at his home here about 2 o'clock this morning. He had been ill since Christmas time when he suffered an attack of pneumonia. The body is at the Huffman Funeral Home in Carroll, awaiting completion of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Haselton had represented Carroll County in the state legislature for two terms, having been elected in the fall of 1891. He had served as a Carroll County supervisor during different terms. He was first elected in 1887. Later, he again served in that capacity for a number of years. He was chosen chairman of the board in 1904.

Mr. Haselton was born April 4, 1845, at Smithville Flats, Chenango County, N. Y., a son of Parker and Lodena Haselton, who were likewise natives of that county. His parents' families had lived in Massachusetts before the American Revolution and had furnished soldiers to fight for their country.

In 1849 Mr. Haselton went with his parents to Green Lake County.

While the passage of the big bombers over the capital's outskirts created a sensation, Berlin was not believed to have been one of the scheduled targets. Even the Germans made no claim that the city itself was attacked.

London Speculates

The London press speculated today that the U. S. eighth airforce had lost three score bombers in yesterday's attack on Germany. Today's broadcast German communique claimed 136 American planes including 124 four-engined bombers, were shot down, and a German-censored report reaching Sweden estimated the U. S. airforce lost 25 per cent of the planes sent over western Germany.

All these figures were without official confirmation—the eighth airforce still was compiling its reports almost 24 hours after the bombers' returns from the assault, which turned into a three-hour running battle.

Possibly 60 Bombers

The Evening News speculated that American losses might have been 60 bombers—possibly on the basis of last October's attack on Schweinfurt, Germany, when that record loss was suffered. The Germans at that time claimed 123 planes downed.

A special communique from the German high command, broadcast last night, also said 123 planes were shot down in yesterday's attack, but DNB today raised this figure to 136. Meanwhile the Scandinavian telegraph bureau's Berlin correspondent, estimating losses at 25 per cent, said there was speculation that nazi planes were equipped with a new secret device which improved their effectiveness in combatting heavy bombers.

New Type Fighter

A preliminary U. S. announcement on the attack, unquestionably one of the greatest aerial battles of the war, said the bombers' escort included Thunderbolts, Lightnings and a new type of long-range fighter.

The Berlin correspondent of Stockholm's Aftonbladet said part of yesterday's attack, at least, was directed against Magdeburg, important arms and railroad center about 100 miles west of Berlin, and Halberstadt, in the same vicinity. The correspondent added that Fortresses flew across the outskirts of Berlin for the first were 25 cents up in early sales.

 The shipment of 13,000 hogs

 slaughter requirements for the refresh arrivals needed. Prices were unchanged, good and choice 200 to the support price of $13.75. Al-those of a week ago when embar-

The liberal supply of 11,000 cat-steers somewhat improved. Top fed steers brought the top of bulk of sales were at $13.50 to
