LOCALS WIN TWO GAMES

Get the Best of the Leaths' on the Fourth and East Dubuque Sunday

The locals have won seven games this season and lost one—a cracking good record, say we.

On the fourth they met and defeated the strong Leath Furniture team of Dubuque—7 to 6, the details of the narrow escape being given below.

HON. A. G. KEGLER CALLED

Pioneer Merchant Closes Career. Also Mrs. Louis Hilbert, a Former Resident

One of the leading business and political characters of this county—Hon. A. G. Kegler—entered into rest at 4:30 o'clock Thursday morning. He had been ill but three days, more from the infirmities of age and fatigue, having just returned from a trip to the western part of the state. He had been failing rapidly, a fact which his friends noted with regret, and his death, while coming suddenly, was not much of a surprise.

August George Kegler was the son of Christian and Barbara Kegler and was born June 17, 1843, at Elbingen, Nassau, Germany, coming to America and this county in 1853.

In 1869 he was married to Katherine Lehmkuhl and they moved to this city the following year. One child, now Sister M. Judicia of Sparta, Wis., was the fruit of this union, the wife and mother preceding him to the tomb not long after their child was born.

He was married a second time, to Katherine Herbst, in 1883, and to them were born two sons and five daughters—August T. of Chicago, Wm. C. of Cincinnati, Mrs. Paul Kempter, and Mariela of this city, Mrs. W. A. Nelson of Cedar Rapids, Sister M. Rafaelita of Kansas City, Mrs. Fred Hoeye having died this winter.

Also, he is survived by two sisters—Mrs. Barbara Gross of Puyallup, Wash., and Mrs. N. C. Evans of Sibley, Iowa.

The funeral was held Saturday morning from his beloved St. Joseph's church, Rev. Father Hageman of Cresco, officiating. Thos. and Edward Gibbs, E. A. Kamp, Mike Hipschen, Henry Kueter and M. J. O'Connor acted as bearers and laid the body tenderly to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

During the funeral the Bellevue business houses were closed as a mark of respect to one who enjoyed it while he was living.

A large number of persons from abroad were present at the obsequies, and beside the immediate relatives were noted: Sisters M. St. Cloud of Kansas City, Leonarda and Borgia of Dubuque, Miss Nana Nelson, Cedar Rapids, Mesdames Anna LaMier and Christian Schmidt of Dubuque, Casper Herbst of Hartley, Iowa, Mrs. Emma Kegler of Moline, Albert Kucheman and wife of Moline, Mrs. Frank Kunz of Davenport, Tony Hullerman and wife of Preston, Edward Hullerman and wife of Perry, Jacob Hanapei of Mason City, Thomas Lambe and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibbs of Lamotte.

Mr. Kegler was a man firm in his beliefs and convictions and did his duty as he saw it. For that reason, his party chose him to represent this senatorial district in the 22d and 23d General Assemblies and justified the faith of the electors.

As a private citizen he was excelled by none. He will be greatly missed.

A message was received from Kenning by Nick Neu, apprising him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Louis sister, Mrs. Wm. McGowan of this city.

The funeral occurred Saturday at Kennebec and was attended by Mrs. McGowan.

Albert Trude Dead

His friends were shocked to learn last evening that Albert Trude, for twenty-one years a resident of Bellevue, had passed away Sunday night in Mercy Hospital, Dubuque, the result of a stroke of apoplexy while at a ball game in the afternoon.

He was an employe of the Milwaukee railroad and had been married twenty-four years. He is survived by his widow, who was Elizabeth Stein, and two daughters—Mrs. Clarence Dirksen and Miss Mabel. A sister and a brother reside in Savanna.

The funeral will occur tomorrow from the home in Dubuque, with interment in Linwood.

Battered on the Fourth by a companion to hold a firecracker in his mouth while it exploded, the young son of Geo. Zimmer demonstrated that the feat was possible, although the services of Dr. Dennison were required to put his features back in shape. If the average male of the species can get by the vicissitudes of youth he stands a good chance of living to a ripe old age—if he doesn't get killed in an automobile, or go to war—or something.

No arrangements having been made by the Chautauqua management for providing a piano, Henry G. Johnson came to the rescue and sent down a fine instrument, which was all right except that it needed tuning. All the tuners being out of town, Mr. Johnson, who knows every crook and turn of the piano business, went at it and tuned it himself. It was a big help in time of need.

On the night of the Fourth a big Lozier car—the one which was wrecked on Pat Dunn hill a couple of years ago, and which is now the property of John Putman, while returning from the Spragueville celebration rolled over two or three times, more or less, while descending Dyas' hill, south of town. There were seven men in the car, and how they all escaped being killed is a mystery. Nearly all of them suffered injuries and the car was battered out of recognition. Wagner & Plonell have the job of doctoring the car, and other doctors fixed up the damaged occupants. The third time will be a charm for that speed wagon.

The Masons and O. E. S. members will hold a joint picnic supper at Idylwood Park on Thursday, July 19th.

Mrs. James L. Brandt of Meeker, Colo., arrived in Bellevue Sunday morning for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Anthony Brandt, and to attend the homecoming. While enroute she spent a few days in Denver with her uncles, C. E. and A. G. Redmond, and families.

The Misses Hilda Joerger, Margaret Campbell and Lavita Hipschen went to Savanna yesterday evening to take the Steamer Drees for St. Louis. It seems strange that this packet can't stop at Bellevue for passengers.

Mrs. John Kurth drove to Maquoketa yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Louis Beck and Misses Nettie and Emma Leuz.

SPRAGUEVILLE CE

County Legion Pulls Unqualified Success Time In Little

The American Legion July observance at Spragueville, under the supervision of the local team, was a thing to look upon with pride. The little town afforded an admirable entertainment in an event in its history to the occasion nobly.

The following account of the event is given by the Preston Times:

Early Wednesday morning a large crowd began to gather in the town square. The town was early getting ready for the occasion. And the town was in good luck. At noon the two streets were closed to traffic, with the lines of cars, with the lines of cars, reaching way out into the country. Dinner was served by the Preston Catholic church.

The afternoon's program began at 2 o'clock. C. A. P. officer of the day, Mr. Pankow, introduced Mr. Pankow, mayor of Spragueville, who presented the large gold watch to Dr. E. L. Lamp, county commander, who accepted it and replied to the remarks.

Mr. Pankow then spoke of the day, Mr. Pankow, of Mason City, who presented the large gold watch to Dr. E. L. Lamp, county commander, who accepted it and replied to the remarks. It was rather long, but very patient and listened to what Mr. Pankow said. He showed his appreciation of the world in person, citizens and urged a gain them by observation and fighting the red element. It was an and well worth hearing.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in ball games, with a dance in the evening.

Johnny Wrig

"Carrying out the duty of a citizen and surprise the talented musicians, who serve several encores of excellence of their playing thoroughly at home and several arrangements in some of the cases. The offering of the young men with their number and clearness and clean Mass. Daily Telegram. These are the best of the music at given by the Legion at Columbia Hall Friday.

U. S. Rescu

The rescue work under the auspices of the fish commission, and of the Schmink Brothers, two crews of seven men each, will be continued.

Now, see here! The local team here is doing a fine job. The Preston bunch aren't you? Sure!
