The Farmers Union shipped a load of hogs to Ottumwa recently. The weather man treated us to a 6 inch snow and zero temperature last week. Guess the only folks enjoying such weather are little tots whom old Santa remembered with new sleds at Christmas. Clyde Short shipped a load of hogs to Ottumwa for his brother, George, and A. C. Minear. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kerr and family were in Iowa City recently. Ray Gates purchased a number of shoats from Geo. Taylor and Sam Kerr this week. Dr. Bauman was a professional caller in this neighborhood recently. Recent Douds callers were Mrs. Rose Hootman and daughter, Rena; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horn, Clyde and Margaret Short, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ramsey and children. Mae Green, en route to her home in Douds from Iowa City, spent a few days at the Will Watt's home and attended the revival meeting in Kilbourne. The men of the White school district recently hauled and loaded a car of baled hay at Douds for Mrs. Lon Parks. Mrs. D. E. WILLIAM A. TADE

Hon. William A. Tade, son of John and Martha Davies Tade, was born in Lee county, Iowa Territory, Sept. 17, 1841, of a large family—two sisters surviving: Lottie T. Davidson of Mt. Pleasant, and Mary Dewey of Baldwin City, Kansas. He attended public school in or near Augusta, Iowa, and after coming with the family to Van Buren county in 1854, at Harrisburg Center. At fourteen years of age he entered Iowa College, then located at Davenport. Oct. 2, 1861 he entered the service of his country as a private of Company F, Fourteenth Iowa Infantry, and after being mustered in in Davenport with his regiment, assigned to the Army of the Tennessee, and sent at once to the front. He participated in the engagements at Ft. Henry and Donelson, and at the battle of Shiloh was captured by the enemy, remaining a prisoner eight months in Montgomery, Mobile, Macon and finally the Libby Prison where he was afterward paroled and exchanged. He then rejoined his regiment at Benton Barracks, and later took part in an expedition to Rolla, Mo., thence to Cairo, Ill., where he served for several months as river detective in the Provost Marshal department. At this time he was commissioned Lieutenant of an independent company known as the Liberia Guards, with which company he made an expedition to Helena, Ark. JOHN S. MOORE

John S. Moore died at his home in Bonaparte at one o'clock a. m. of Saturday, Jan. 15, after an illness of many months, being survived by his wife and one son, Joseph. Mr. Moore had been in failing health for several months. He had gone to various hospitals and sanitariums but any relief which he may have secured therein seemed but temporary. His death was hastened by a fall several months ago in which his leg was badly broken. Grey Heath orchard of 160 acres, north of Bonaparte, the largest in the state, is a growing, living monument. Raymond Parrot has moved his dwelling from its former location to the northern part of the farm, near the road north of the Oak Grove Free Methodist church.

H. B. Smith is showing his friends a sample of the corn borer which has been so destructive in the east and already made its appearance as far west as Illinois. The specimens were sent him by his son-in-law, Earl Stinson, who is county agent in northern Indiana, and they are carefully preserved in alcohol.

Congratulations and best wishes are in order for Paul Reneker and his bride of the Oak Grove neighborhood. The bride was formerly Miss Florence Horn of Douds. We are pleased to learn that they will make their home in this community.

WILLIAM J. STRICKLING

William Jordan Strickling, son of Henry and Sarah Ann Strickling, was born at Winchester, Van Buren county, Iowa, May 15, 1858; and departed this life at the Burlington hospital Friday, Jan. 14, 1927, at the age of 68 years, 7 months and 29 days.

He was united in marriage with Laura Brady April 11, 1880, at Independent, Van Buren county, and to them were born: Harlie A. of Oneida, Ill., and Frank E. of Decatur, Ill. His wife preceded him in death in May 1925.

Mr. Strickling is survived by his sons and their wives; two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Overman of Keosauqua, Mrs. Lena Stewart of St. Louis, Mo., a half sister, Mrs. June Ream of Spokane, Wash.

There have been four deaths in this family in less than three years: J. C. Strickling, a brother; Mrs. Beatrice Johnson, a sister; Mrs. Mary Strickling, step mother; and Mrs. W. J. Strickling, wife of the deceased.

Mr. Strickling was a member of Keosauqua Lodge No. 10, A. F. & A. M., and Eastern Star, Blackmar Chapter at Burlington.

He lived in Keosauqua the greater part of his life, having moved to Keokuk, Iowa, some twenty years ago for the purpose of educating his sons in the Keokuk Medical College and School of Pharmacy. After their graduation he and his wife moved to Burlington where they have since lived.

Mr. Strickling suffered a stroke of paralysis ten years ago from which he never fully recovered and on Jan. 4, 1927, another stroke proved fatal.

A short funeral service was conducted from the J. M. Overman residence Monday morning, Jan. 17, at eleven o'clock, by Rev. M. D. Cox of the Methodist church, and members of the Masonic order. Mrs. Price officiated. The "burial" was conducted by Mrs. Dr. Craig. Interment was made in the cemetery near town.

lie B. Phelps, Howard D., and Lily Hathan of Hillsboro; Alice C. Aikens of Winterset; Orville of Milton; Lola Morrison of Douglas, Wyo.; and Kate, who preceded him in death on Oct. 10, 1898. The mother of this family died May 10, 1881.

In 1882 he was married to Miss Nancy Dewey, a sister of his former wife, and unto them were born two sons: Will B., living in the old home, and John Logan, who departed this life August 30, 1908.

He was called to his reward Jan. 13, 1927, at Cedar Dell, the old home farm where so many years of his life have been spent, aged 85 years, 3 months and 26 days.

There are left to mourn their loss his devoted wife, seven children, twenty three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

In 1890 Mr. Tade was honored by an election to the State Legislature and displayed the same fidelity to duty which characterized his entire life, proving himself an efficient and capable officer. He was actively interested in the organization of the Hillsboro Farmers and Traders Savings Bank and held the office of president at the time of his death.

He was a man of faculty, for while to him the neatest and dearest of earthly things were his home and his family, he was ever intensely interested in all things pertaining to the welfare of the community, the county, the state and the nation.

But more than all he was an earnest, consecrated christian; a man who under all the trials and troubles and difficulties and distresses of life could yet look up and say: "My Father," with perfect faith and trust. For almost half a century he held the office of deacon in the Harrisburg church and until the last few years, when prevented by the infirmities of age, he could always be found in his place on the Sabbath Day. He held the position of superintendent of the Sunday School for a number of years and into this work he put the energy and enthusiasm that made it such a power for good in the community.

The picture of Deacon Tade that will linger longest with many Harrisburg people is that of the slight, erect, gray-haired man coming briskly into the church with his bible clasped in his hand and the look on his face which said to all so plainly that he was glad to "go up to the house of the Lord."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. C. Droz Sunday afternoon. A short service at the farm home concluded at the Harrisburg church. A large crowd from Harrisburg and surrounding community was present at the church.

health for several months. He gone to various hospitals and sanatoriums but any relief which he have secured therein seemed temporary. His death was hastened by a fall several months ago in his leg was badly broken.

Grey Heath orchard of 160 acres north of Bonaparte, the largest in the state, is a growing investment to the thought and foresight of Mr. Moore, although at the time of his death it did not belong to him.

John Sloan Moore, son of John and Phebe Moore, was born in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, July 1, 1871, and departed this life at his home Bonaparte, Iowa, Jan. 15, 1927, the age of 55 years, 6 months and 14 days.

He was married to Phebe Meek May 5, 1876. She passed away Nov. 27, 1917.

On Dec. 22, 1920 he was united in marriage to Wella Myers. To this marriage was born one son, Joseph, who died in his mother's arms the loss of a father and loving father and husband.

Besides the wife and son he leaves to mourn his departure several cousins and a host of friends.

He was baptized in the Christian church at Keosauqua, but several years ago he became a member of the Presbyterian church at Bonaparte.

He received his education in the schools of Johnstown, Pa., and

HON. THOMAS TEALE

Honorable Thomas Teale was born in Greenwich, Kentshire, England, on January 10, 1842, a son of Frederick and Diana C. Teale. In 1845 his parents came to the United States and made their home in Orleans county, New York, but shortly thereafter moved to the west and for a time lived in Milwaukee county, Wisconsin. From there they moved to Jo Daviess county, Illinois.

When Thomas was a boy he was left fatherless and, in a great measure, was thrown on his own resources. Thus early in life he learned the practical lessons of self-reliance. He grew to manhood in Jo Daviess county and, in 1861, upon President Lincoln's first call for three-year volunteers, enlisted in the defense of his country and was assigned to Company E, Fifteenth Illinois Infantry. At the battle of Shiloh he was wounded by a musket ball and, after hospital treatment, was granted a furlough. He rejoined his regiment and participated in the engagement at Hatchie and subsequently, in view of the fact that his wound was giving him trouble, he was detailed brigade postmaster, serving in that position until August, 1863, when, on account of disability, he was honorably discharged. He returned to the family home in Jo Daviess county and remained there until he removed to Iowa in 1865.

He was identified with Decatur county and its business interests continuously from the fall of 1865. His first purchase of land there was 160 acres in section 16, Fayette township. He improved this, but subsequently moved to the farm in section 4 where he lived at the time of his death, which was about one mile west of Lamoni. This farm of 320 acres was all under cultivation and the improvements are among the best in the township. His home showed the thrift and refinement of its owner. Soon after the village of Lamoni was laid out he erected a stone building to be used for business purposes. Fayette township had no more active and energetic citizen than Thomas Teale. Enterprising and public-spirited, he assisted materially in all projects that tend to the upbuilding of town and county.

In politics, Mr. Teale was a Republican, prominent in the councils of his party. In 1885 he was elected to represent his district in the General Assembly and served in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second General Assemblies.

He was married in 1867 in Jo Daviess county, Illinois, to Lucinda Graham, daughter of Theodore Graham. Ten years thereafter death entered Samuel Locke, Mary Locke, Jane Locke and Lizzie Locke. The first two help on the farm and the last two are teachers by profession.

He owns a farm containing two hundred and forty acres of land in a fair state of cultivation. He has held some district and township offices. Is not a politician. In religion Unitarian. He does not think that he deserves the distinction of an old settler of this place, yet says that he has received so much generous kindness from old settlers, both of Jefferson and Van Buren Counties, Iowa, that if putting his name down for a book will perpetuate their good acts and their good name, he will willingly do so.

HON. WILLIAM A. TADE, who lives on section 4, Harrisburg Township, is a prominent and influential farmer of Van Buren County and her representative in the General Assembly of the State. Widely known, with a circle of friends almost innumerable, his sketch will be of interest to many, and we take pleasure in thus presenting him to the readers of the ALBUM. He is not only now a resident of Iowa, but was born in the Hawkeye State, his birth occurring in Lee County on the 17th of September, 1841. Little is known concerning the early history of the family, except that his grandfather was a resident of Kentucky, whence at an early day he removed to Illinois. He also held a commission in the Black Hawk War. John Tade, father of our subject, was but five years of age when he accompanied his parents to Illinois, where he grew to manhood and married Martha Davis. In 1835 he became a resident of Lee County, Iowa, making a location near Ft. Madison, in what is now Denmark Township. He bought land at the first land sale in the Territory of Iowa and made his home in Lee County until 1854, when he came to Van Buren County. His home is now in Decatur County, Kan. His wife died in 1848, when our subject was a lad of some seven summers. Nine children were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Tade, and all grew to mature years, while seven are yet living, as follows: Ewing O., a Congregational minister, now in charge of the church of East Grandville, Mass.; George W., who died while a student in Iowa College, in 1858; B. F., a retired farmer of Sacramento, Cal.; James A., who died from disease contracted in the late war; Susan E., wife of William G. Marshall, of Kansas; John D., a resident farmer of Decatur County, Kan.; W. A., of this sketch; Lottie, wife of J. B. Percival, a farmer of Harrisburg Township; and Mary A., now Mrs. G. K. Dewey, of Nebraska.

Our subject spent his boyhood days in a manner common to farmer lads, alternating his time between labor in the fields and the perusal of the common branches of learning. In October, 1861, when twenty years of age, he entered the service of his country as a private of Company F, Fourteenth Iowa Infantry, and after being mustered in at Davenport, was, with his regiment, assigned to the Army of the Tennessee and sent at once to the front. He participated in the engagements at Fts. Henry and Donelson, and at the battle of Shiloh was captured by the enemy, remaining a prisoner for eight months, during which time he was incarcerated in Montgomery, Mobile and Macon, and finally was sent to the horrible Libby Prison, where he was afterward paroled and exchanged. He then rejoined his regiment, which was stationed at Benton Barracks, and later took part in an expedition to Rolla, Mo., whence the troops made their way down the river to Cairo, Ill., where Mr. Tade served on detached duty for several months as river detective in the Provost Marshal department. While engaged in the discharge of those duties he was commissioned Lieutenant of an independent company known as the Liberia Guards, which was organized by Gen. Buford, and with which company he made an expedition to Helena, Ark. At Little Rock, Ark., the company was merged into the Fifty-seventh United States Colored Regiment, and Mr. Tade was made Quartermaster and served in that capacity until January, 1866, when he was made Captain of the company and ordered to New Mexico; here he remained until December of the same year, when he returned to Leavenworth, Kan., and was honorably discharged, after having been in the service continually for more than five years. During the entire time he was never known to shirk any task imposed upon him, but was ever faithful to his duty and the cause for which he was valiantly fighting.

Early in the year 1867 Mr. Tade began the improvement of the farm on which he now lives, but which he had purchased some time previous. He now possesses a well-improved farm of two hundred and five acres, divided into fields of convenient size, a glance at which shows to the observer that a man of thrift and industry has the management and control of the same. He is also a leader among the stock-raisers of the county and has made a specialty of Hereford cattle and Shropshire sheep, being among the first to introduce both into the county. In reality he did not begin his business career until 1867, and the wonderful progress which he has made should be the cause of pride to himself and friends.

In June, 1868, Mr. Tade was united in marriage with Miss Sarah E. Dewey, the union being celebrated in Lee County, Iowa, where the lady was born. Her parents were George H. and Chloe B. (Butler) Dewey, both natives of Massachusetts. Unto them were born seven children, yet living—Nellie B., Alice C., Howard D., Orville, Kate, Lilly and Lola (twins), all living at home. The mother of this family died on the 10th of May, 1881, in the faith of the Baptist Church, of which she has been an active and devoted member for many years. In 1882 he was again married, his second union being with Miss Nancy Dewey, a sister of his former wife, and unto them have been born two children—Willie B. and John L. Mr. and Mrs. Tade and the four eldest children are members of the Baptist Church, of Harrisburg, in which he holds the office of Deacon. He is an active advocate of all laudable enterprises and a liberal contributor to benevolent and charitable institutions. Socially, he is a member and Past Commander of J. L. Jordan Post, G. A. R., of Hillsborough, also belongs to the Farmers Alliance, being President of the Harrisburg Society, and holds membership in the Masonic lodge. The interest which he has taken in politics has contributed not a little to the success of his party—the Republican—in Van Buren County. A firm believer in its principles and one of its staunchest advocates, he labors for its welfare and is an influential member in its State and county conventions. He was honored by an election to the State Legislature, and displaying the same fidelity to duty which has characterized his entire life, he is proving himself an efficient and capable officer. He makes no hasty decisions, but, with the interests of the people at heart, carefully weighs all subjects which come before the Assembly for settlement, and his judgments are therefore unbiased and have the stamp of a true and loyal citizen upon them.

VURNUM SAUNDERS CALHOUN, one of the early settlers of Van Buren County, engaged in farming on section 21, Union Township, was born in Holmes County, Ohio, July 5, 1838, his parents being Newton and Esther (Saunders) Calhoun. His grandfather, David Calhoun, a gentleman of Scotch-Irish descent, emigrated from Beaver County, Pa., to Holmes County, Ohio, about 1816, but further than this little is known concerning the early history of the family. At the time of the removal, Newton Calhoun, who was born May 19, 1809, was in his eighth year. He was reared among the wild scenes of that heavily timbered country and in his youth was inured to hardships, while into his mind were instilled lessons of industry. His scholastic training was very limited indeed. Before attaining his majority, he was married on the 8th of April, 1830, to Matilda Saunders, who was born October 16, 1811, and by whom he had three children, one of whom died in infancy, while George and Thomas are farmers of Scotland County, Mo. His wife died February 12, 1836, and on the 18th of October, of the same year he wedded Esther Saunders, sister of his first wife, who was a native of New York State, but when two years of age removed with her parents to Holmes County, Ohio. She was born April 5, 1815.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.
