DOWNED AGAIN.

to Hospital Team Proved Too Much for the Knoxville Boys.

Knoxville's baseball team again went out to defeat out at the State hotel last Saturday afternoon, with a score of 5 to 2. Amsberry scored for Knoxville early in the first inning and Gray and Griffen ran two scores for the hospital. Then nothing of interest occurred until the fifth, when Casey a home run out over right field. All bases were empty, however, and only tied the score.

In the last half of the fifth was the most exciting time in the whole game. One man out and two on bases. The line went to bat and landed out a right one for a three-base hit, and the wrangle about a man turning in on first base saw his opportunity and stole home. This made the score 5 to 2, and the last four innings looked interesting even for the wild and morbid mob behind the bars in Madison.

The hospital is credited with five runs and five runs, and Knoxville with three hits and two runs.

Following is the line-up taken from the official score board:

Knoxville—Slocum, c; Amsberry, p; Jones, cf; Anderson, rf; Nichols, lf; Steffy, 2b; Casey, 1f; Rutman, ss; Gray, p.

LIFE'S BATTLE OVER

Many Answer the Grim Reaper's Dreaded Summons.

Recent Deaths Here and Elsewhere That Will Interest Marion County People.

Charles L. Anderson was born in Maryland, March 22, 1827. When a few years old his parents moved to Ohio and located in Knox county, where he grew to manhood on a farm. In the fall of 1850 he came to Iowa and settled in Warren county, then called Polk county. In the spring of 1852 he went to Hartford, and in 1855 was married to Miss Ellen Morgan. She passed away in 1860. When the civil war began he was the first man from his township (Richland) to enlist, and he joined the first company from Warren county. He was at once elected first sergeant, which position he held until May, 1862, when he was commissioned second lieutenant of the company. He was in some of the severest battles of the war and was marked by rebel bullets three times. One of these occasions was on Nov. 5, 1862, when he narrowly escaped fatal injury, being shot through the arm and body. He lay in the hospital for some weeks and then was granted a leave of absence. When he was again fit for duty he returned to his command and remained until after the fall of Vicksburg, when, on July 12, 1863, he was taken prisoner by the enemy at Jackson, Miss. He was a prisoner for twenty months. Nine months of this period he was in Libby prison. While in prison at Columbia, S. C., he made his escape and traveled at night and hid by day for three long weeks, only to fall into the hands of the enemy again when half dead with hunger and fatigue. He was exchanged in March, 1865, near Wilmington, N. C. He was honorably discharged at Washington, D. C., later in the same month, and arrived home April 15, one day after Lincoln's death.

He was united in marriage to Miss Ann E. Hancock, July 30, 1865. Four children were born: Charles M., who died at the age of 21; Delmar L., who died at the age of two; Mrs. Stella P. Gregg, now residing at Salem, Ore.; and Ernest L. Anderson, of Knoxville. For many years he with his family lived near Hartford. Then they resided in Indianola for ten years before moving to Knoxville, about five years ago. Four sisters and one brother survive. Mr. Anderson: Mrs. M. E. Sherwood and Mrs. Samuel Johnson, of Springfield; Mrs. Mark Breed, of Des Moines; Mrs. Della Remington, of Martelle; and George W. Anderson, of Whittier, Cal. One brother, Leonard V. Anderson, passed away some time ago. The cause of his death was senility. He slipped away Wednesday, April 21, 1915, having attained the age of 88 years and 1 month. He was a sincere Christian and was ready for the home-going. His faithful wife remains.

William H. Perry was born Nov. 10, 1833, in Lorain county, Ohio, and remained there until he was 19 years old, when he came to Muscatine county, Iowa, and from there to Marion county in 1885. He was first married in Muscatine county in 1861 to Miss Lizzie Benedict, who died while on a visit to Lorain county, Ohio, in 1867. No children were born to this union. On Sept. 18, 1869, he was united in marriage to Miss Sophia Riggs, in Muscatine county. She died Nov. 24, 1884. To this union four children were born, one boy and three girls. The oldest is Harry (Henry) Perry, of Haxtum, Colo.; Nettie, wife of J. L. McVay, of Knoxville; Tillie, wife of John Fleming, of near Gosport; and Stella, who died at the age of 20 years. There are also six grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Capell, of North Eaton, Ohio, left to mourn his death.

Mr. Perry was a soldier in the union army during the war of the rebellion. He first enlisted in May, 1861, in Co. A, 1st Iowa Vol. Inf. He served his three months' time and then enlisted in Co. F, Iowa Inf., on Aug. 14, 1862, in which company he served until the end of the war.

Short funeral services will be held today at the McVay home, at 9 a. m., after which the remains will be taken to Columbia, where the regular services will be held at 1 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. F. Robertson, of the M. E. church. Burial will be made in the Columbia cemetery.

COUNTING THE PEOPLE

Assessors Have the Census 1915 Almost Complete

An Interesting Comparison of Population Figures for Marion County for Years from 1890 to 1915

The census of 1915, now being by the assessors, is complete for Marion county with the exception of Knoxville city, Pella city, Knoxville and Washington townships. As a matter of comparison rather a surprise to notice in census reports that Marion county more people forty-five years than it has today, but such is the Marion county had in 1847, 23,975; in 1849, 37,977; 1850, 54,822; 1852, 18,541; 1855, 14,160; 1858, 12,924; 1860, 18,715; 1861, 20,181; 1870, 24,436; 1875, 24,094; 1880, 25,111; 1885, 22,419; 1890, 23,951; 1900, 24,159; 1905, 24,205; 1910, 22,995.

We print below the census figures upon townships, cities and villages in Marion county for the years 1890, 1905, 1910 and (so far as complete) 1915:

Martha Ellen Sullivan was born in Mahaska county, July 8, 1849. About 1870 she was united in marriage to G. C. Long, in Mahaska county, where they lived three years, when they removed to Columbia, in which neighborhood they have ever since made their home. The deceased is survived by her husband, G. C. Long, and five children, three boys and two girls: Edd Long, of Knoxville, county recorder of Marion county; V. T. Long, of Snowbelt, Mont.; Elmer Long, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Amanda Bingham, of Columbia; and Mrs. Minga Henry, of Albia. Besides these she leaves five brothers: John Sullivan, of Lovilla; Smith Sullivan, of Albia; Bert Sullivan, of Hamilton; and two sisters:

The Specialty Farmer.

Specialty farming is attended with more or less risk. It may mean a loss and it may mean a failure. Investments are always safer, for there is a shortage of one crop the other branches to help out. Even then we read of a small farm made by a man growing nothing but pickles, or one that has been ruined by devoting his life to the grove peaches, and so on. The article does not state how many failures of specialty farming have occurred before success was attained.

There is not the least doubt of the truthfulness of these reports as has been hinted. "The half has been told." Nothing is said about peculiar adaptation of the man to the business, a faculty that makes it like it better than any other. It is particularly interesting in other

A ball game last Thursday afternoon was of interest to some of the younger fans. That afternoon at 4 o'clock on the grounds of the East ward building, the East ward and West ward combined played the Eighth grade ball team and were very highly elated when they beat the Eighth grade to the tune of 13 to 6.

Attica 11, Melcher 6.

Attica defeated Melcher Sunday at Melcher by the score of 11 to 6. The feature of the game was the hard slugging of Jordan and Fothergill. Batteries: Melcher, Jones, Kirtly and Gullion; Attica, Simmons and Mark.

will be occupied in the morning by Bishop Leete, of Atlanta, Georgia. Bishop Leete is one of the younger men of the Board of Bishops. He was elected to his present office directly from a very successful pastorate, and is making a fine record in his new position. In the evening Bishop Stuntz will be with us. He is an Iowa man. He has experience in mission work in India and the Philippines. He is at present located in South America at Buenos Ayres, Argentina. He has a wonderful message and is a most fascinating speaker. The church ought to be crowded morning and evening to hear these men.

The superintendent, Mr. F. C. Sigler has flung out a challenge for twelve hundred at Sunday school on this occasion. That ought to be easily met and doubtless will be. Remember that you will count one, and be there.

The events in connection with the semi-annual meeting of the Bishops in Des Moines this week which will be of interest to local Methodists are as follows: Wednesday evening at 7:30 a general reception will be given at the First M. E. Church; Thursday evening at 6:30 a banquet in honor of the bishops; Friday evening at 7:30 a Young People's Rally with an address by Bishop Quayle; Saturday evening at 7:45 a Missionary Mass Meeting with addresses by Bishops Stuntz and Bashford.

A Booster Meeting

On Wednesday evening of last week the Woman's Club, City Council and Commercial Club, held a joint session at the M. E. Church. Mrs. F. S. Burberry, chairman of the Civics Committee of the Woman's Club, presided in her usual gracious manner. Mayor John J. Orr was first introduced and in a few well chosen words told what he would like to have done in Indianola. Mrs. Honnold, president of the Woman's Club gave an interesting resume of the work of the club for a better Indianola. She is the author of our slogan, "Indianola Boosts the Best." Charles G. Maxwell outlined the policy of the Commercial Club of which he is president, while the secretary, Mr. Will Lane talked interestingly on his favorite theme, "When Everybody Works and Nobody Shirks." J. H. McGranahan spoke of the city laws that are continually violated and suggested the remedy. Prof. Barrows gave stereopticon views of various parts of the city with remarks on the same. It was a very pleasant and profitable meeting and more such should occasionally be held.

Woman's Club Meeting

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held at Carnegie Library, Saturday, April 24. Miss Spaulding, of California rendered two beautiful piano solos, and Miss Willis sang and responded to encore. Mr. Hoyt of Des Moines, landscape artist, was introduced and talked interestingly on "How to Make a City Beautiful." The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Delmage of Des Moines, was introduced by Mrs. Burberry, chairman of Civics Committee and gave an address along the line of civic betterment. Among the things that women should be especially interested in were, milk supply inspection, pure water supply, a better enforcement of pure food laws, a civic Sunday, civic luncheons, a study of public utility laws etc. She

RICHLAND TOWNSHIP.

ANDERSON, C. L., farmer, Sec. 15; P. O. Hartford; born in Maryland, March 29, 1827; when only a few years of age his parents moved to Ohio, locating in Knox county; there he was raised on a farm: in the fall of 1850, he came to Iowa, and settled in Allen township, Warren county, which was then Polk county: he went to Hartford in the spring of 1852, and in 1855 was married to Miss Ellen Morgan; she died in the year 1860; on the breaking out of the Rebellion, he enlisted in the first company from Warren county, he being the first man from his township (Richland). On the organization of the company, he was elected 1st Sargent, which position he held until May, 1862, when he was commissioned 2d lieutenant of the company; he was in some of the hottest and most closely-contested battles of the war; he had many narrow escapes, having been marked by the rebel bullets three different times, one of which came near being fatal, being shot through the arm and body, November 5, 1862, in a hot but short engagement; after laying in the hospital for some weeks, he was granted a leave of absence: when again fit for duty, he returned to his command and remained with it until a few days after the siege and fall of Vicksburg, when on the 12th of July, 1863, he was taken prisoner by the enemy at Jackson, Mississippi; he remained in their hands nearly twenty months, being in Libby prison for nine months; the balance of the time he was at Macon, Georgia, Charleston and Columbia South Carolina, as well as other and less noted places of rebel torture and starvation; while at Columbia, he made his escape, and for three long weeks endeavored to reach the Union lines by traveling at night, and hiding in some secluded place during the day; but at an evil hour, when nearly worn out by fatigue and hunger, but still inspired by the love of liberty, the fatal moment came, and he was again in the hands of the enemy; about the first of March, 1865, he was exchanged near Wilmington, N. C. He was sent around to Anapolis, Maryland by ocean, and from there to Washington, District of Columbia, where, on the 12th of March, 1865, he was honorably discharged; he immediately came home, arriving there on April 16th, one day after the death of President Lincoln; July 30, 1865, he was married to Miss Ann F. Hancock, a native of Ohio: soon after his marriage, he purchased a fine farm of 138 acres near Hartford, upon which he still resides; they have a family of two sons and one daughter; Charles M., Stella P. and Ernest; one deceased, Delmer L.
