LAMONI CHRONICLE

LAMONI (IA.) CHRONICLE THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1923

ALL KNOWN PEOPLE ARE CALLED TO THEIR REWARD

IER. OLD SOLDIER PASSES

A small remnant of the Grand Army of the Republic once a strong organization in Lamoni, was again in mourning this week when Mr. Baker passed to a well earned rest early morning, after a severe illness of several weeks.

Mr. Baker was born in Brookfield County, N. H., March 18, 1842, and passed away at his home on Tenth Street, Lamoni, the morning of March 13, 1923, making the time of his death, 84 years, 11 months and 26 days old.

He was left motherless at an early age and was compelled to support himself, enlisting in the 2nd N. H. Vol. Inf., the famous three-year regiment left the state. Mr. Baker was in twenty-seven engagements, among them the famous battle of Gettysburg, Bull Run and Antietam. He was gradually promoted until he attained the rank of First Lieutenant and command of his company for several months.

After he came West, settling in Boone County, Iowa, where on May 1, 1867 he was united in marriage with Mary G. Alden, which faithful she survives him. To this union were born four daughters, Mrs. Anna of Fontanelle, Iowa; Mrs. Ella of Farnhamville, Iowa and two died at the age of twenty, two named being twins.

THOMAS TEALE

Thomas Teale, son of Frederick and Diana C. Teale, was born in Greenwich, Kentshire, England, January 10, 1842. In 1849 he came with his parents to the U. S. living a short time in Orleans County, N. Y., moving from there to Wisconsin, where they lived until 1847, then they moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where they lived until the fall of 1855, when they moved to Jo Davis County, Ill., where he grew to manhood and received as liberal an education as the pioneer days afforded. In 1861 his patriotism was stirred by President Lincoln's first call for three year volunteers. He enlisted in Company E 15th Illinois Infantry. He was wounded at the battle of Shilo by a musket ball in the right hip, and after hospital-treatment was sent home on furlough. He soon rejoined his regiment and continued in the service until August, 1863, when he was discharged for disability and returned to the family home in Illinois. In 1865 Mr. Teale came to Decatur County and settled on a farm in Fayette township.

In 1867 he married Lucinda Graham, to this union were born four children, Charles, Fred E., Bert and Orra, all of whom are still living and were present at their father's death. In 1877 the death messenger robbed Mr. Teale of his wife. In 1878 he married Mrs. Edith Wharton, who was wife and companion until June 1910, when death again entered the home and took away the loved one.

COLLEGE PLAYERS PLEASE

The College Players added a triumph to their record for the Friday night when they delighted a large audience with the production of three one-act plays.

The plays were preceded and interspersed by music by the college orchestra. The orchestra presented very fine numbers on this occasion but they were evidently not appreciated by the audience, judging from the lack of attention. There seems to be a general understanding here elsewhere that the announcement of an orchestral number is a signal for the pressing of a button to start a general buzz and hum of conversation which not only prevents listening to the part of the talker but spoils the pleasure of those who would otherwise enjoy it. These musicians devote a lot of time and labor preparing numbers, giving their services and it seems to us the least that we expect is a quiet hearing.

The first play presented was "The Forest Shop." The stage setting was especially artistic, making the play very realistic. Miss Pauline R. carried delightfully the part of Maude, the office girl, while that of Slovisky, the proprietor, a Jew, was equally well handled by Clifton Hommuth. Florence Thompson, Miss Wells, and Walter Daykin, Mr. Jackson, lovers who had been engaged for fifteen years, and Hannah as an office boy were well played and completed the cast.

The "Will o' the Wisp" was a representation of Irish superstition and the acting was of a very high order. The characters were a simple country woman, Arvilla Lorance, poet's wife, Addie Belle, a the last two named being twins.

In the spring of 1873 Mr. and Mrs. Baker moved to Bourbon County, Kansas, where they met with reverses of various kinds and in 1877 came to Decatur county locating at Pleasanton. Here they remained only one year and went to Adair county, Iowa, in 1878. They located in Pleasanton in the spring of 1907, when they bought the home where they have lived ever since.

Deceased was baptized a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on April 15, 1878, being later ordained to the office of elder. For sixteen years he occupied as a traveling missionary, continuing for sometime after he was really physically unable to endure the exposure incident to a life of this kind. He was an ardent upholder of the faith he had espoused and was loath to give up active service.

For a number of years deceased has been suffering with hardening of the arteries and resulting afflictions and for the past two weeks has suffered intensely, death coming as a relief. His companion and two daughters were with him at the last, Mrs. Summers being sick with the flu and unable to come.

Funeral services will be held from the church this afternoon at 2:30, with C. E. Wight as speaker. Body will lie in state at the residence from 10 to 12.

MRS ANNE McFADDEN DEAD

Mrs. J. M. Lysinger received word Tuesday of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Anne C. McFadden at the home of Mrs. B. M. Anderson in Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. McFadden came from her home in Los Angeles, California, to Omaha, arriving there the first of February, where she expected to remain until June. At this time she expected to come to Lamoni to make her home with Mrs. Lysinger, but death overtook her ere her dreams were realized. She was 81 years of age.

The body was brought to Lamoni accompanied by Mrs. Anderson and the funeral will be held from the J. M. Lysinger home at 2:30 Friday.

and companion until June 1910, when death again entered the home and took away the loved one.

In 1883 and 1885 Mr. Teale made business trips to England, his native land. In 1885 he was elected as representative to the General Assembly of Iowa, and re-elected in 1887, serving two terms in the legislative halls, with credit to himself and honor to his county. Mr. Teale has had a varied and successful business experience. In 1897 he erected the first business house in Lamoni and was engaged in merchandising until 1888, when he moved to Leon, and became a member of the firm of Young and Teale, continuing merchandising for two years. In 1894 with Judge Harvey and others he bought the Farmers & Traders Bank of Leon. In 1913 he was elected president of the Farmers & Traders State Bank, which position he retained to the close of his long and useful life.

He was also president of the Iowa State Bank at Mount Ayr and stockholder and director in the Farmers State Bank of Lamoni, and Garden Grove. In 1911 he married Mrs. Hannah Van Devort, with whom he had been acquainted from his boyhood days.

Mr. Teale and his wife have been regular attendants of the Presbyterian Church since coming to Leon. He was chairman of the church building and finance committee when the new church and manse were built in 1917, and has served as chairman of the board of Church Trustees for many years. His high ideals and wise counsel were always appreciated and will be greatly missed.

As a devoted husband, an indulgent yet firm father, a loyal friend, an upright and progressive citizen and a Christian gentleman, his death will be a loss felt by all, and it may be well said the world is better from his having lived and contributed his part to its many interests.

His devoted wife, four sons, three brothers, grand-children and many other relatives and friends will feel deeply their loss in his passing to his reward eternal in the heavens, where a crown of righteousness awaits his coming.

of M. D. Some time later the course was lengthened to four years and he returned and after further study was graduated in 1901 with the M. D. degree. He then went to Vienna, Austria, and took a five months' course in the Allgemeine Krankenshaus, or General Hospital. Upon returning to the United States he located in Davis City, Iowa, and in the intervening years has built up a large and distinctively representative practice. He also conducts a well equipped sanitarium on the second floor of the building in which his office is located and gives much attention to surgical work. Although he devoted many years to preparation for his profession he has never allowed himself to believe that his student days are over, but on the contrary is constantly seeking to add to his knowledge of both medical and surgical science.

Dr. Reed was married February 8, 1900, to Miss Edith Shelby, of St. Louis, a daughter of Joseph and Victoria (Cissel) Shelby. Her father was for many years a farmer of Perry county, Missouri, and was living there at the time of his demise. His widow survives and makes her home in St. Louis. Dr. and Mrs. Reed have two children: Roe B., who was born July 2, 1901, and who is now a student in the Davis City high school; and Shelby D., whose birth occurred November 16, 1905, and who is attending the Davis City schools.

Dr. Reed is a republican and was for one term mayor of Davis City, while for several years he has held the office of city physician. Fraternally he belongs to the local lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and his wife is a member of the Rebekahs. He holds membership in the Decatur County Medical Society, of which he served for one term as president; the Iowa State Medical Society, in which he is well known; and the American Medical Association. He has the confidence of the general public and of his colleagues in the profession and personally he is very popular. He is prominent in county and state medical circles and his practice has grown steadily since he first located in Davis City.

THOMAS TEALE.

Thomas Teale, president of the Farmers & Traders State Bank of Leon, is prominent in financial circles in this part of Iowa and is also known because of his connection with public affairs as for two terms he served as a member of the house of representatives of the state legislature. He was born in Greenwich, England, June 10, 1842, of the marriage of Frederick and Letitia (Hamm) Teale, who in 1843 emigrated with their family to America. They first located in New York but later removed to Jo Daviess county, Illinois, where they spent the remainder of their lives. They were the parents of seven children, of whom five are living. Six sons served in the federal army during the Civil war, all of whom returned alive although five, including our subject, were wounded.

Thomas Teale grew to manhood in Illinois and received liberal educational advantages. He continued his studies while serving in the army, which indicates his determination to secure a thorough education. He enlisted in Company E, Fifteenth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, as a private and remained with that command until wounded at Shiloh. Being thus disabled for further service he was honorably discharged and returned to Illinois. At the close of the war he came to Decatur county, where he had resided for a time in 1860. At that time he made his home at Decatur City but upon returning to this county he secured land near what is now the site of the city of Lamoni. He turned his attention to the improving of his place and in the fall of 1879 erected the first business house in Lamoni, in which he conducted a general store for a number of years. Later he turned the management of the establishment over to his son Bert, who was connected therewith until 1894. In 1888 our subject came to Leon, where he engaged in merchandising as a member of the firm of Young & Teale, whose place of business was on the west side of the square. That firm continued to conduct the store until 1890, when Mr. Teale sold out his interest, Mr. Young becoming sole proprietor of the establishment. Mr. Teale then entered the banking business in Leon and in 1894 organized the Farmers & Traders Bank, a private institution, which later became the Farmers & Traders State Bank, under which name it is now conducted. Mr. Teale has been president of the bank since its organization and its steady growth has been largely due to his excellent management. His son, Fred E., a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this work, is cashier of the institution. The bank owns the building in which it is located and which it has remodeled, making it one of the best bank buildings in the city. The upper floor is given over to offices. In 1892 our subject established the Commercial Bank of Lamoni, which he sold before establishing the Farmers & Traders State Bank at Leon. He is also heavily interested in the Farmers State Bank of Lamoni, which his son Ora manages, and the Iowa State Bank of Mount Ayr, which is conducted by his son Bert. Mr. Teale has considerable real estate, owning a store building which he erected in Lamoni and a number of farms in the county. He understands business conditions thoroughly and is quick to recognize and take advantage of opportunities which many others fail to see. He is recognized as one of the most successful bankers of the county and his advice is often sought on matters of finance and investment.

In 1867 Mr. Teale was married in this county to Miss Lucinda Graham, who was born in Jo Daviess county, Illinois, and accompanied her parents, Theodore and Lethee Graham, to this county soon after the close of the Civil war. She passed away in 1877, leaving four sons: Fred E., Ora and Bert, previously mentioned; and Charles, who is engaged in the implement business at Mount Ayr. All are married and our subject has several grandchildren.

Mr. Teale is a republican and has twice been honored by election as representative of his district in the state legislature, serving as a member of that body during the twenty-first and twenty-second general assemblies. In that capacity he proved capable and public-spirited and made a very creditable record. He attends the Presbyterian church and his wife favored the Methodist church. He is a loyal member of Leon Post, No. 261, G. A. R., and through that organization keeps in touch with others who fought for the preservation of the Union. He is widely known and all who have been associated with him hold him in the highest respect and esteem him for his genuine worth.

G. S. FOREMAN.

G. S. Foreman, senior member of the firm of Foreman, Teale & Company, of Lamoni, who deal in implements and in real estate, was born at Lawrence, Van Buren county, Michigan, on the 14th of March, 1868, a son of John and Lucy (Setchell) Foreman, both of whom were natives of England. They were married in that country and remained there for several years, coming to the United States just before the outbreak of the Civil war. They located in Michigan, where the father gave his attention to farming. In 1876 they came to Decatur county and settled one mile south of Lamoni, the father operating a farm for six or seven years. He then removed to Lamoni and in 1881 became the owner of the hotel here now known as the West Hotel and conducted that hostelry for about two years, after which he sold it and purchased other property. He is still residing

Note:

"Hon. Thomas Teale has been identified with Decatur County and its business interests since the fall of 1865. He was born in Greenwich, Kentshire, England, January 10, 1842, a son of Frederick and Diana C. Teale. In 1843, his parents came to the United States, and made their first home in Orleans County, New York, but shortly moved to the West, and for a time lived in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin, and from there they moved to Jo Daviess County, Illinois. When Thomas was a boy he was left fatherless, and in a great measure was thrown on his own resources. Thus early in life he learned the practical lessons of self-reliance, and that nothing worthy of having could be obtained without effort. He grew to manhood in Jo Daviess County, and in 1861, upon President Lincoln's first call for three year volunteers, enlisted in the defense of his country, and was assigned to Company E Fifteenth Illinois Infantry. At the battle of Shiloh he was wounded in the right hip, with a musket ball, and after hospital treatment was granted a furlough. He rejoined the regiment and participated in the engagement at Hatchie, and subsequently, his wound giving him trouble, he was detailed Brigade Postmaster, serving in that position until August 1863, when, on account of disability, he was honourably discharged. Returning to the family home in Jo Daviess County, he remained there until he removed to Iowa, in 1865. His first purchase of land in the county was 160 acres on section 16, Fayette Township. This he improved, but subsequently moved to the farm where he now lives on section 4, about one mile west of Lamoni, where he has a fine farm of 320 acres, all under cultivation, and his building improvements are among the best in the township, his home showing the thrift and refinement of the owner. Soon after the village of Lamoni was laid out, he erected a stone building and stocked it with hardware and farm implements, and now has a good trade. Fayette township has no more active and energetic citizen than Thomas Teale. Enterprising and public-spirited, he has assisted materially in all projects that tend to the upbuilding of town and county. In politics Mr Teale is a Republican, and quite prominent in the councils of the county. In 1885 he was elected to represent the district in the Iowa General Assembly. Mr Teale was married in 1867, in Jo Daviess County, Illinois, to Lucinda Graham, daughter of Theodore Graham. After ten years of married life the death angel entered the home and took from it the wife and mother, leaving the father with four young children - Charles, Frederick, Erastus and Orta. In 1878 Mr Teale married Edith (Patterson) Wharton, daughter of Robert Patterson, and widow of Andrew Wharton by whom she has three children - Zula, wife of Joseph P. Peters...James P. and Arthur D. Mr Teale has three brothers in Decatur Township; James in Davis City; and Eugene in Bloomington Township. One brother, George H., lives in Riley Township, Ringgold County; one, Albert, at Kellerton, and another, Joseph, in Nebraska."

"Hon. Thomas Teale has been identified with Decatur County and its business interests since the fall of 1865. He was born in Greenwich, Kentshire, England, January 10, 1842, a son of Frederick and Diana C. Teale. In 1843, his parents came to the United States, and made their first home in Orleans County, New York, but shortly moved to the West, and for a time lived in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin, and from there they moved to Jo Daviess County, Illinois. When Thomas was a boy he was left fatherless, and in a great measure was thrown on his own resources. Thus early in life he learned the practical lessons of self-reliance, and that nothing worthy of having could be obtained without effort. He grew to manhood in Jo Daviess County, and in 1861, upon President Lincoln's first call for three year volunteers, enlisted in the defense of his country, and was assigned to Company E Fifteenth Illinois Infantry. At the battle of Shiloh he was wounded in the right hip, with a musket ball, and after hospital treatment was granted a furlough. He rejoined the regiment and participated in the engagement at Hatchie, and subsequently, his wound giving him trouble, he was detailed Brigade Postmaster, serving in that position until August 1863, when, on account of disability, he was honourably discharged. Returning to the family home in Jo Daviess County, he remained there until he removed to Iowa, in 1865. His first purchase of land in the county was 160 acres on section 16, Fayette Township. This he improved, but subsequently moved to the farm where he now lives on section 4, about one mile west of Lamoni, where he has a fine farm of 320 acres, all under cultivation, and his building improvements are among the best in the township, his home showing the thrift and refinement of the owner. Soon after the village of Lamoni was laid out, he erected a stone building and stocked it with hardware and farm implements, and now has a good trade. Fayette township has no more active and energetic citizen than Thomas Teale. Enterprising and public-spirited, he has assisted materially in all projects that tend to the upbuilding of town and county. In politics Mr Teale is a Republican, and quite prominent in the councils of the county. In 1885 he was elected to represent the district in the Iowa General Assembly. Mr Teale was married in 1867, in Jo Daviess County, Illinois, to Lucinda Graham, daughter of Theodore Graham. After ten years of married life the death angel entered the home and took from it the wife and mother, leaving the father with four young children - Charles, Frederick, Erastus and Orra. In 1878 Mr Teale married Edith (Patterson) Wharton, daughter of Robert Patterson, and widow of Andrew Wharton by whom she has three children - Zula, wife of Joseph P Peters...James P. and Arthur D. Mr Teale has three brothers in Decatur Township; James in Davis City; and Eugene in Bloomington Township. One brother, George H., lives in Riley Township, Ringgold County; one, Albert, at Kellerton, and another, Joseph, in Nebraska."
