PIONEER OF COUNTY IS CALLED BY DEATH

B. F. TIPTON, FORMER LEGISLATOR, DIES AT AGE OF EIGHTY-NINE YEARS.

Dazell Foster Tipton, Washington county pioneer, former member of the state legislature and for many years prominent in county affairs, died at midnight last night at his home near Lexington in Cedar township, ten miles northwest of the city.

He had been confined to his home by illness for the last several years and of late weeks had been sinking so rapidly that his death had been expected. He was a very active man in the prime of his life and until the last decade was one of the leading figures in the county. He was 89 years of age.

Came Here in 1850.

Born in Franklin county, Ohio, on June 27, 1828, Mr. Tipton accompanied his parents to Illinois when a lad of ten years and was married when twenty-one years of age to Lucinda Jackson. After living in Illinois a year they came to Washington county in 1850.

In 1862 Mr. Tipton was a man nearly thirty-five years of age and had a family of several children, but that fact did not prevent him from offering his services to his country, and he enlisted in August, 1862, in Company A, Twenty-fifth Iowa, the company organized and commanded by Colonel D. J. Palmer. He was one of the best soldiers in the company. Such is the testimony of Colonel Palmer and others of his comrades.

Elected to Legislature.

After his return to civil life Mr. Tipton became interested in the life of his home community and until failing health caused him to seek retirement, always was prominent in the progressive movements of the county. In 1886 he was elected to represent this county in the state legislature and served two terms in the general assembly. He made a splendid record in the legislature and in other offices in which he was called upon to serve. He was a stalwart republican since he became of voting age. Mr. Tipton was a member of the G. A. R. at Wellman and of the Methodist church at Lexington. He was prominent in the church, being one of the trustees of the benevolence and contributing liberally to its support.

Mrs. Tipton died March 21, 1909. Six children survive Mr. Tipton. They are Israel Tipton of Newkirk, Okla., Alonzo Tipton of Arkansas City, Kansas, John A. Tipton of Pawnee, Okla., Mrs. C. C. Gardner of Wellman, Mrs. Joe A. Blerman of southwest of town and David H. Tipton, who made his home with his father during the latter's declining years. Mr. Tipton also has two sisters, Mrs. Jane Timmons of Cedar township, who is over ninety years of age, and Mrs. M. A. Mason of Davenport.

Funeral Not Arranged.

The hour for the funeral service has not been definitely decided upon, since word is awaited from one of the sons. It will not be before Friday afternoon or Saturday.

MAKE SLIGHT RAISE IN COUNTY TAX LEVY

SUPERVISORS MAKE INCREASE OF 1.2 MILLS, CAUSED BY HIGH EXPENSES.

Yesterday the board of supervisors fixed the tax levy for the county for the coming year. It shows an increase of 1.2 mills, which is considered slight in proportion with the increase in expenses and the raises that have been made by the state and various cities.

The state tax, apportioned by the executive council at Des Moines, composed of state officials, has been raised nearly three mills, making an increase in the general tax of over four mills for the people of Washington county.

Increase Poor Fund.

In this county the increase is in the poor and insane funds. Heretofore there has been no poor fund and the amount needed for the poor has been taken from the general fund and a half mill levied for the county home fund. This year a poor fund has been made, for which a levy of 1.5 mills has been apportioned, and the county home fund omitted.

This change was made necessary by the fact that the general fund would not stand the strain of helping the poor from it. The expenses of running the county have greatly increased in the last year and the expense of the repairs at the court house must be met from this fund.

Last year there was a balance in the insane fund, while this year there isn't and the levy of 2 mill was necessary to provide the amount needed to care for the county's insane.

Comparison With Last Year.

Here is the apportionment for the various funds, giving a comparison of the levies for 1916 and 1917:

	1916	1917
General state	4.33	7.25
Capitol extension	.17	.17
County	5.00	5.00
Bridge	5.00	5.00
County road	1.00	1.00
County Road building	2.00	2.00
School	1.00	1.00
County home	.5	.5
Poor		1.5
Insane		.2
Soldiers' relief	.5	.5
County hospital	1.00	1.00
Totals	29.5	21.62

SUPERVISORS NAME THE ROAD PATROLS

MEN APPOINTED IN VARIOUS SECTIONS OF COUNTY TO CARE FOR HIGHWAYS.

Last winter the legislature passed a law providing that the county supervisors appoint certain men to look after and keep in repair the county road system. They are called road patrols.

A certain section of highway was seen that it is kept in the best of condition.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICINITY OF WELLMAN

Wellman Advance: The Queen Esthers held their regular month-ly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. D. Snavelly Monday evening. De-votionals were led by Rose Daw-son. Eighteen members answered to the roll call, and four visitors were present. The lesson was led by Alice McConnell, assisted by other members of the circle. Plans were made for a musical program, to be given in the near future. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour.

Hon. B. F. Tipton, one of the most highly respected citizens of Washington county, answered the final summons at his home near Lexington Tuesday evening, at the ripe old age of 89 years. He had been confined to his home for several years and the past two weeks declined rapidly. His death was not unexpected. He was af-flicted with no illness, and his de-mise was due simply to the wear-ing out of life's machinery.

The new Mennonite church at West Union is being rushed to rapid completion. There are several boss carpenters working on the building, besides many others who have worked at the trade. The structure will be very similar to the new Lower Deer Creek church, which was dedicated a week ago last Saturday.

The Eardley Bell, Jr. Land Co. has been doing things the past week. Through their efforts the Bender farm, known as the D. K. Shaver place, near Amish, was sold to T. H. Wetzell. There is 160 acres in the place, and the consideration was $28,000, or $175 per acre.

and remained at home with his parents until he had attained his majority. Subsequently he operated a rented farm for six years, at the end of which time, by careful expenditure and close economy, he had accumulated sufficient capital to enable him to purchase his present place of eighty acres on section 24, Jackson township. As the years have gone by he has brought the property under a high state of cultivation and improvement and in addition to growing the cereals best adapted to soil and climate, he makes a specialty of raising and feeding stock, both branches of his business proving a good source of remuneration to him.

On the 25th of March, 1896, was celebrated the marriage of Mr. Brown and Miss Anna B. Pearson, whose birth occurred in Washington county, December 25, 1869, her parents being Abram and Julia Pearson. A sketch of her father is given on another page of this volume. Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Washington Academy and prior to her marriage taught school for several years. She is now the mother of three children, namely: Lloyd P., who was born December 21, 1897; Donald E., whose birth occurred October 27, 1901; and Lois Hazel, whose natal day was March 10, 1903.

Mr. Brown gives his political allegiance to the democracy and is now serving as school treasurer. Fraternally he is connected with lodge No. 868, M. W. A., at Washington, Iowa. His religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Methodist Episcopal church at Washington, with which his wife is also identified. They are widely and favorably known throughout the county in which they have spent their entire lives and are numbered among its substantial, representative and worthy residents.

HON. B. F. TIPTON.

No history of Washington county would be complete without extended reference to Hon. B. F. Tipton, one of the venerable citizens of Cedar township who has now passed the eighty-first milestone on life's journey. He has lived in this county for almost six decades, during which period he has not only been a witness to the changes which have occurred and events which have shaped its history, but has borne his full share in the work of general improvement and upbuilding. Loyalty to duty has ever been one of his marked characteristics and as the years have gone by he has left the impress of his individuality for good upon the material, intellectual and political progress of this part of the state. He was born in Franklin county, Ohio, June 27, 1828, a son of Jonathan and Malinda (Denison) Tipton, natives of Ohio and Kentucky, respectively. In the year 1838 Jonathan Tipton removed to Fulton county, Illinois, where he resided until 1851, and then came to Washington county, Iowa. He entered land from the government in Cedar township and for seven years made his home thereon, giving his time and energies to its cultivation and improvement. In 1858 he bought another farm and made his place of residence up to the time of his death, which occurred in 1883 when he was seventy-nine years of age. His wife long survived him, passing away in 1901 at the very venerable age of ninety-five years. They were worthy and respected pioneer residents of the county and the efforts of Mr. Tipton constituted a valuable force in promoting the agricultural progress of the community. Unto him and his wife five children were born: Jane, who is now the wife of C. A. Timmons and is living in Cedar township; B. F.; John, now residing in Oklahoma; Mary, the wife of R. C. R. Young, a resident of Idaho; and Martha, the wife of William Mason, of Ottumwa, Iowa.

B. F. Tipton accompanied his parents on their removal to Illinois when a lad of ten years and there continued with his parents until after he attained his majority, and the public schools of Illinois afforded him his educational privileges. He was twenty-one years of age when he was united in marriage to Miss Lucinda Jackson, who was born in Ohio in 1827, a daughter of John and Asenath Jackson. Both of her parents died in Illinois and were laid to rest at Knoxville.

Following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Tipton began their domestic life in Illinois where they lived for a year and then came to this county where Mr. Tipton has since made his home. At one time he owned four hundred and fifty-seven and a half acres of land and was extensively engaged in farming, placing his fields under a high state of cultivation and carrying on agricultural pursuits in a most progressive, systematic and prosperous manner. However he has since sold some of his property and has given some of it to his children, so that his holdings now comprise one hundred and thirty acres on section 17, Cedar township. He also made a specialty of raising and feeding stock and found this a profitable source of income, for he handled good breeds of horses, cattle and hogs, and therefore found a ready market when he desired to make a sale. The rich soil of Iowa responded readily to the care and labor which he bestowed upon it as he tilled his fields in the cultivation of his crops. Year by year he gathered abundant harvests and his labor eventually brought to him substantial financial returns. His present condition of prosperity is in marked contrast to his condition at the time of his arrival here. When he entered his land from the government his financial resources were very limited and his first home in the county was a log cabin, covered with a clapboard roof. Years passed and his success enabled him to provide an attractive home for his family supplied with all the comforts that go to make life worth living.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Tipton were born seven children: Israel, now living in Oklahoma; John and Alfonso, who are likewise residents of that state; Florence, the wife of C. C. Gardner, of Wellman; David, living in Wapello, Iowa; Myrtle, the wife of Joseph A. Simerman, a resident farmer of Cedar township; and Hazard, deceased. The wife and mother departed this life March 21, 1900, and was laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery, leaving her husband and six children to mourn her loss. She was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church and her earnest, Christian life gained for her the love and admiration of all who knew her.

Mr. Tipton is also a member of the same church to which he has long been most faithful. He was one of the trustees and at all times he has contributed generously to its support and done all in his power to promote its growth and extend its influence. He is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic Post at Wellman, Iowa, being entitled to membership through his three years' service as a soldier in the Civil war. In the early days of the long conflict between the north and the south in the attempt on the one hand to overthrow the Union and on the other to preserve it intact, he joined the boys in blue of Company A, Twenty-fifth Iowa Infantry. He participated in several hard fought battles, was with Sherman on the celebrated march from Atlanta to the sea and yet was never wounded. He delights in meeting with his old army comrades and thus maintains his membership in Wellman Post. In politics he has ever been a stalwart republican from the organization of the party which was formed to prevent the further extension of slavery and which has ever been recognized as the party of progress. He has taken an active interest in its work as a local leader and was honored with election to the state legislature, in which he served during the twenty-first and twenty-second assemblies, being the first man in Washington county that was elected for a second term up to that time. He took an active interest in promoting legislation for the benefit of the general public, supporting various measures which are now found on the statute books of the state. He also served on the school board for several years and the cause of education found in him a stalwart champion. He has made a splendid record in his military and political service and in his business career. In fact, in every relation of life he has displayed the traits of honorable and upright manhood and now, when he has passed the eighty-first milestone on life's journey, he receives the veneration and respect which are ever accorded those who have lived worthily and well.

T. W. HUNTER.

T. W. Hunter is numbered among the enterprising, industrious agriculturists of Washington county, who has devoted his energies to tilling the soil to great advantage and during the brief period in which he has been engaged in agricultural pursuits has met with a full measure of prosperity. His birth occurred in Des Moines county, Iowa, September 24, 1870, and he is a son of A. Hunter, also a native Iowan. His brother-in-law, George H. Paul, is a wealthy and influential real-estate dealer in this locality whose biography appears in another part of this volume.

T. W. Hunter was taken to Louisa county, Iowa, by his parents when he was five years of age and there he attended the district schools where he acquired his education. Being reared upon his father's farm, he early became familiar with the various departments of agriculture. When he was twenty years of age he removed with his parents to this county, where he completed his education by pursuing a course of study in the academy, and he remained upon the home farm assisting in agricultural duties until he was married. He then rented land, which he cultivated for five years, and on the expiration of that time, in 1902, he located on section 1, Washington

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.
