lacking. Business men, farmers, mechanics and representatives of almost every other department of industrial activity are common there. But there is no printer. The fact throws a new light on a character that has long been commonly misjudged. The printer does not have a spiritual and natural form. The printer today is a home owner. He is of fixed employment and he has no time for late suppers and fast rides in the benzine buggy. He is—and always was—far above the average man in information and intelligence. All the notable events of human life pass thru his hands and make impressions on his brain. The fact that more than 20 bankers are in the Ohio penitentiary, and not one printer, tells of the relative honesty of the printer of today—and tells more, for there are ten printers in the land to one banker. It shows us that the most common and most dangerous crimes of today are not being committed by the world's workers.—Fra Elbertus, in April Philistine.

ST. JOHN'S DAY AT ALLERTON.

The Masons of Wayne and adjoining counties met at Allerton in honor of St. John's day and elected five candidates to the degree of master masons. The work of the organization began in the afternoon, three candidates being given the work, after which an adjournment was taken for the banquet, which was served at 7 p. m.

In the evening two more candidates were raised, the work being finished at midnight, but owing to the rainstorm which was holding sway on the outside the visiting members put in a goodly portion of the remainder of the evening in an experience meeting in which all of the orators of the order told of the goodness of being a Mason.

This celebration is given in honor of one of the patrons of the masons, the other St. John day being celebrated in December. The work of the day and evening was participated in by the different lodges of the county, each elevating one candidate. The lodges were Humes-ton, Lewisburg, Corydon, Promise City, and Allerton, while many members from other lodges were in attendance.

HON. D. M. CLARK PASSED AWAY.

Word was received in Corydon Wednesday of the death of Hon. D. M. Clark. Tuesday afternoon at his home in Fredonia, Kansas, where he moved from New York some years ago.

Mr. Clark was one of the early settlers of Wayne County, the family home and farm being at New York, where the greater part of his life was spent and where he reared a family of the best citizens of the county.

Mr. Clark was honored in many ways while a resident of this county representing the county in the legislature and in many minor capacities in his township.

Some years ago he went to Kansas and made heavy investments in agriculture and oil land, being followed by his grown sons who have become the best citizens of that part of the country.

HON. D. M. CLARK.

The picture herewith of Mr. Clark was taken some years ago but is a good likeness of the old gentleman, whom every person in the north part of the county knew.

The body arrived in Corydon yesterday evening. The funeral will take place at New York at 11 a. m. this morning (Friday.)

Interment at the New York cemetery.

RINGLING BROS AT CENTERVILLE.

On Friday, July 19 the people of this vicinity will have an opportunity of attending Ringling Brothers' circus at Centerville, and it is probable that many will go from here, as this splendid organization is far better than ever before, being made up almost entirely of European performers new to America.

The equipment of the circus is all brand new, and over a million dollars was spent in adding novel features. The greatest parade ever presented will take place in the forenoon. In it will be 1,264 men, women and children, 658 horses, nine herds of elephants and three miles of hand carved golden chariots, floats and dens, and gorgeous spectacular attractions.

Space will not permit of mention of the many European novelties, presented in a tent twice as big as that of any other circus. The Riccobono horses wear boots, coats and trousers. One sits in a chair and reads a paper; when the clock strikes ten he lights a candle, goes to his bed, removes his clothes, even to his ponderous boots, blows the candle out and retires. Last winter people went from all over Europe to Paris to see the act

D. M. CLARK DEAD

He Died at His Home in Fredonia Kansas, on Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m.

HEART FAILURE THE CAUSE

Hon. D. M. Clark, a pioneer citizen of Wayne county, but for last few years a resident of Fredonia, Kan., where he has a large interest in natural gas, passed away quite suddenly on Tuesday afternoon, at his home in Fredonia, of heart failure. His remains arrived on Thursday and placed at rest on Friday in the New York cemetery beside his wife.

Hon. D. M. Clark was born in Scott county, Indiana, July 25, 1824 and was therefore nearly eighty-three years of age. He was raised on the farm and was practically a farmer during his entire life. In 1841 he made his first visit to Iowa, assisting to drive what was thought to be the first flock of sheep into the state. He made his second visit in 1845, and located in 1849 in Wapello county, where he bought an 80-acre farm and lived in a rude log house 12x14 in size, with clapboard roof and door, puncheon floor and for some time without a window. There was neither a nail or piece of iron used in its construction. After living in this house for one winter he built a hewed-log house. This farm soon grew to 260 acres, which he sold in 1863 and removed to near New York, Union township, Wayne county, where he purchased 400 acres of Mr. M. Clark and soon became one of the

This Sunday school has an enrollment of 50 scholars with an average attendance, winter and summer of 40 each Sunday. It must be remembered that many of the scholars have considerable distance to come to get there. Of the 50 scholars 98 per cent of them are professing christians.
J. A. Smith is superintendent of this school and Earl Burton is story.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith and Mrs. Winfield Evans was elected as their delegates to Davenport and left for that place Tuesday night. If there are any other Sunday schools in this county which can beat that record we would be glad to hear from them.

Salary Raised.

The people of Wayne county especially the patrons of the mail routes will be glad to learn that the carriers have been notified of a raise in their salary to take effect July 1st. Certainly no one deserves a raise any more than the helpful mail carriers. At present Corydon carriers are getting $10 a year but after July 1st they will all be raised. The list of carriers and their new salaries are as follows:

W. Clark route 1.....	$900
D. Logue route 2.....	864
George Harn route 3.....	864
B. Herbert route 4.....	864
W. H. Crock route 5.....	900

Wm. S. Dickenson Dead.

Mr. William S. Dickinson, of Comoke City, one of the most prominent merchants on the western shore, is dead.—Baltimore

There was neither a nail or piece of iron used in its construction.
After living in this house for one winter he built a hewed-log house.
This farm soon grew to 260 acres, which he sold in 1863 and removed to near New York, Union township, Wayne county, where he purchased 400 acres of Mr. M.
Cross, and soon became one of the largest land owners as well as one of the wealthiest farmers of Wayne county. He started the first herd of fine cattle in the county and was among the first to put out a large apple orchard of 200 trees.
He was a prominent politician, being a whig and one of the original abolitionists; throughout the war was a Republican, drifting into the Greenback party in 1867, and afterwards affiliating with the Democratic party. In 1878 he was elected senator from the counties of Wayne and Monroe, being elected on the Greenback ticket.
The following year he was nominated by the Greenback party for governor of Iowa, and in the fall of 1882 was the nominee of the same party for congress in this the eighth congressional district. He was a prohibitionist always and an elder in the Christian Church for twenty years or more. His first wife was an invalid for many years before her death some years ago.

Mr. Clark was an honest, honorable, upright citizen, honored and esteemed by all who knew him.
He raised a family of eight children, everyone of whom were good citizens and an honor to him. He enjoyed good health for over four score years, and his many friends in this county will hear of his death with sorrow.
