pioneers of Jasper county, who knew what toil and hardship and self-denial it took to develop a new country. He had never identified himself with any religious organization. The practice of his life was to live at peace with all mankind in honor preferring others to himself.

Death of J. W. Deweese.

From the Lincoln State Journal, we glean the following additional particulars in regard to the death of J. W. Deweese:

Joel W. Deweese was born on September 10, 1843, in Morgan county, Illinois. His parents removed to Pella, Iowa, one year later. While a boy he enlisted in the Twenty-third volunteer infantry, serving three years. He went to school at Pella, and there in 1869 married Miss Rebecca Ryan, sister of Robert and Thomas Ryan, well known in Lincoln. He studied law in Des Moines when the university law school was there. He practiced law for a time at Prairie City, and was elected a member of the Iowa legislature.

In 1879 Mr. Deweese removed to Lincoln. He was an adviser of Mr. Touzalin in legal matters, and soon became associated with T. M. Marquet, who was general counsel for the Burlington west of the river. That partnership lasted until the death of T. M. Marquet a little more than twelve years ago. The position of solicitor of the lines west of the river was then given to Mr. Deweese, and he held it to the day of his death. As solicitor he has been in direct charge of all of the litigation of the Burlington in this state and Kansas. He has had able assistants, but the work has been exceedingly heavy and has taken all of his strength.

Mr. Deweese leaves a wife and two sons and two daughters. Wilford Deweese lives in Harlan county and Fred Deweese is in the solicitor's office as an assistant. Of the daughters Miss Lena is at home, while Miss Julia is now on the return journey from Europe with the Lees party. She will return on Sept. 12.

The funeral was held on Thursday, Sept. 4, and the body interred in Wyuka cemetery.

Only Daughter Taken.

An epidemic of scarlet fever has been raging for some weeks in the country around Ira and Mingo, and five fatalities have already been recorded.

The last victim was the sweet and lovable babe of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, residing between Ira and Mingo. The daughter taken was their only child and she was the idol not only of her Such tender care as she received and as surrounded the sick bed as she strug-

Old Settlers at Mingo.

The last 'old settler's' meeting for this year in Jasper county, was held in a beautiful grove east of Mingo on last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The largest attendance was on Wednesday, but the crowds this year were not nearly as large as last year. There are several reasons why the attendance was limited, but the worst feature they had immediate community is in the throes of a siege of scarlet fever.
