

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Campbell, Milton K. Senator _____

Represented Audubon, Shelby, Adams, and Cass Counties Iowa

1. Birthday and place 1 Nov 1837 Belmont County, Ohio

2. Marriage (s) date place
(1) Mary E. Currier ^{1868?} 6 Sept 1886? Jasper County, Iowa
(2) Beatha Todd 27

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities _____

C. Profession Mercantile businessman; teacher; farmer

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 16th General Assembly 1876

6. Public Offices

A. Local _____

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 18 or 20 Dec 1929 Pomona, California; buried

8. Children By 1st wife - Carl (died after graduating from Grinnell College); Grace (died at age 4); Hammi (died at age 19); by 2nd wife - Margaret; Milton K. Jr.; Helen; Albert (died soon after the family moved west)

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education Education in the local schools of Jasper County, Iowa

11. Degrees Attended Central University, Pella, Iowa for 2 years

12. Other applicable information

- When he was a small boy he came with his parents to Jasper County, Iowa
- After college he taught school
- Military service - Civil War - 5th Iowa Infantry
- He returned from the war, got married and went into the mercantile business
- He later sold the business and moved to Shelby County, Iowa
- His first wife, Mary E., died some years after moving to Harlan.

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
- Obituary	- The	The	Information obtained

Protestant Churches to Observe Prayer Week

Indic. Series of Union Meet- s Arranged from Jan- uary 6 to 13

Protestant churches of will observe the week of in common with the Pro- churches throughout the from Jan. 6 to Jan. 13. The ts have been arranged for local Ministerial Associa- d we urge the members of urches in the community to ese services their best sup-ces will be held four eve- n the week, closing with t union service at the ist church on Sunday night, ule of meetings: lay, Jan. 8—Place: St. Episcopal church; speaker, D. Wendel.

uesday, Jan. 9—Place: Chris- ure' speaker, Rev. Allen he. gh.

ay, Jan. 10—Place: Con- nial church; speaker, Rev. Russell.

y, Jan. 11—Place: Grace church; speaker, Rev. S. Lewis.

ty evening, Jan. 13—Place: ist church; speaker, Rev. lam Bast, e invited to attend.

would have prevented the f most, if not all, the sick le asks judgment for $915 loss of the hogs, refund cost of treatment, $21.35, 00 paid for post-mortem tion, together with inter- costs of action.

Woods has filed a claim H. L. Wood & Co., ask- payment of labor claims owed by the plaintiff at e of the sale of the de's restaurant, the Corner another party. The plain- s for his own labors, 13. for other labor ac- assigned to him. He asks ointment of a receiver of ceeds of the sale, and the t from said proceeds of the d labor claims.

Babcock demands a me- Hen against certain real

M. K. CAMPBELL
FORMER RESIDENT
DEAD IN WEST

Passed Away at Home in Pomona, Calif.—Once Banker Here.

Friends here have received word of the death of M. K. Camp- bell, who passed away at his home in Pomona, Calif., either Dec. 18 or 20. Mrs. George Sherrard of Denver, a one-time ward of Mr. Campbell, gives the date of death as the 20th, in a letter to her aunt, Mrs. B. B. Bowen. Mr. Campbell's son, M. K. Campbell, Jr., who lives in Old Mexico, and did not attend the funeral, states in a letter to F. F. Wunder, that his father died on the 18th. Mr. Campbell at death had passed his 91st birthday which came on Nov. 1st.

The death of Mr. Campbell will be of interest to many Shelby county people, as he was a lead- ing citizen of the county from 1873 to 1905. Upon coming to this county, he settled upon a farm south of Harlan, which was raw prairie at the time. The farm was later owned by J. H. Louis, and now is owned by C. P. Larson.

He did not remain upon the farm for long, but moved into Harlan, going into the real estate business. In 1880 he assisted in organizing the Shelby County Bank, the second bank to be or- ganized in Harlan. For two years he was a member of the board of directors, and in 1883 was chosen cashier. He continued with the bank as cashier, later as president, until the institution was sold to Messenger & Frazier in 1905. Soon after disposing of the bank and his other proper- ties, himself and family moved to California, settling at San Diego, later moving to Pomona.

Mr. Campbell's worth and gen- eral standing was shown by his selection, in 1876, to represent the counties of Shelby, Cass, Adair and Audubon in the lower house

Auto Show Could Well Be Staged

Public Taking Exceptional Interest in Many New Models Shown Here

Hurrah for the new auto models. Many of them are here. The pub- lic is all excited, and steps are making a well-beaten track from the show rooms of the Chevrolet, Essex and Whippet.

The E. M. Christensen Auto Co. is showing a Chevrolet coach of the new six-cylinder model. In- vestigation discloses that there are many pronounced changes in construction, other than the ad- ditional two cylinders.

The Brodersen Bros. unloaded their first carload of the new Es- sex, termed "The Challenger" by its manufacturer. The new car is a handsome "boat." And the claims made for this new model, with its improved construction, bring a truly high-grade car to the public at an exceptionally low cost.

The Paulsen Motor Co. has the new Whippet Four and Six on ex- hibit. The Whippet's greatest production year of 1928 will be far surpassed in 1929, the manu- facturer believes. Both the new models are handsome ones, more in the line of other cars in body lines than heretofore. They feat- ure the centralized "finger-tip control" which prospective buyers of new cars will wish to know about.

Well, here's to a good year to all the auto dealers.

FIVE SPECIAL SELLING EVENTS ON THE WAY

Harlan has five big special selling events to start either to- day or yesterday, which make re- tail buying in Harlan of special incentive now. The five events are mercantile sales put on by Hansen, Bauer's Shoe Store, W. H. Lemke and the Harlan Cloth- ing Co.

All five events feature worth- while reductions in prices. The most of us are much in favor of

TWO G

Josef

The Rueser interest in the hi today itanis teen

The this with and I comm largely of su losing stalwa so it i view t career

Jose Jan. 1 many. life D Westn ness c 11 mo

Mr. good and w also s and p of mi his co en W France

After morabi berg i ing to opport in the to com he can

He e ty, low where his fam in the h. mo thined

Jos. Babcock demands a mechanic's lien against certain real estate owned by Sarah Gearhart, defendant, to secure a claim of $50 for moving a house. He asks foreclosure of said mechanic's lien.

Lathelyn Smith brings foreclosure suit against Minnie Florence Miller and others, asking judgment for $400, interest and costs, upon an unpaid promissory note, and foreclosure of the mortgage securing same given upon the east half of block 4, Defiance, Iowa.

The Aetna Life Insurance Co. brings suit against A. S. Peterson, guardian of Magnus C. Peterson, asking judgment, interest and costs, upon unpaid promissory note for $7000, and foreclosure of a mortgage securing said note given upon a Douglas township farm of 117.4 acres.

Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong asks for a divorce from Dr. F. C. Armstrong, basing her plea upon cruel and inhuman treatment. She asks the custody of three minor children and $100 per month for the support of herself and children, in accordance with the terms of a previous stipulation. She states that herself and the defendant were married May 17, 1919.

Annis & Rohling Co. ask judgment against John H. Schmitz and others on promissory note for $1400, interest and costs; and decree of foreclosure of a real estate mortgage upon 400 acres of Westphalia township land given in security of said note.

Leonard C. Paup and Frank B. Paup ask for the sale of lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, block 38, Long's addition to Harlan, and the division of the proceeds therefrom among themselves, owners of an undivided one-half, and Jos. H. Paup, owner of the other undivided one-half.

The Clinton Copeland Co., Calumet Baking Powder Co. and the C. C. Taft Co. bring suit against H. L. Wood and others. They state that they understand that defendant Bennett Cullison has in his possession a sum of money representing the purchase price of the restaurant business known as The Corner Inn; that defendant Cullison intends to pay from said funds certain claims for labor. The plaintiffs allege that the labor claims are not entitled to preference, but that the funds should be distributed among the plaintiffs or among all creditors pro rata.

The counties of Shelby, Cass, Adair and Audubon in the lower house of the 16th general assembly.

M. K. Campbell was born Nov. 1, 1837, in Belmont county, Ohio. When he was a quite small boy he came to Jasper county, Iowa, with a man named William Ramodge. He was educated in the local schools, and attended Central University at Pella two years. Later he became a school teacher.

He enlisted for the Civil War in the 5th Iowa Infantry. Participated in battles at Madrid, Mo., Iuka and Corinth, Miss., and along the Yazoo river. Late in 1863 he became ill of malarial fever, and continued an invalid until he was discharged in August, 1864.

September 6, 1886, he was united in marriage, in Jasper county, to Mary E. Currier, daughter of the Rev. Joshua Currier, a prominent clergyman of that county. After which he entered the mercantile business in a Jasper county town, continuing as such until he sold his business and moved to Shelby county. Three children were born to them, Carl, Grace and Fannie. Grace died when four years of age, Fannie at 19 while a student at Tabor College, and Carl in Harlan after he had completed the course at Grinnell College. Mrs. Campbell passed away some years after the family had moved to Harlan.

Sept. 27, 1884, Mr. Campbell was remarried to Miss Bertha Todd of Tabor, Iowa, who was a daughter of the well known first president of Tabor College, a pre-Civil War celebrity and friend of John Brown, who was later hanged by the people of Virginia at Harper's Ferry, after Brown had made an unsuccessful attack upon that state, the freeing of Negro slaves being his purpose.

Four children were born of this second marriage, Margaret, M. K. Jr., Helen and Harriett. The latter died shortly after the family moved west. The remaining daughters are married, as we have been told, and one lives in the east, perhaps both. The son, as his letter to Mr. Wunder would indicate, lives in Old Mexico. Mrs. Campbell also survives her husband in the home at Pomona.

Those who remember the Campbells will regret Mr. Campbell's passing and sympathize with his bereaved widow and family.

Gas Buggy Taxes

while reductions in prices. The most of us are much in favor of the moderate weather which has been our lot during the ten days preceding the coming of the new year. But that weather is difficult upon all retailers who have stocked up heavily on winter merchandise. Shelby county can well feel proud of its retailers. Harlan's retailers carry splendid stocks of every conceivable sort of merchandise. It is all of good quality. Immense sums must be tied up in these retail lines bought for the service of the community. When weather conditions allay the need of these stocks by their patrons, methods of disposal must be adopted. Styles change, making goods obsolete from the style standpoint. It is much better to sell at cost one year than to carry merchandise over a year, paying interest on the investment, and then selling at a loss.

We feel sure that these special sales are well worth investigating.

H. M. Sorensen Bought Knight Bakery and Cafe

H. M. Sorensen took possession last Thursday of the Knight Bakery & Cafe, owned for several years by Cecil Knight.

The business will be conducted along the lines as heretofore, except that Mr. Sorensen will manage both the cafe and bakery, whereas the cafe during the last two or three months has been operated by H. L. Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Wood have vacated the rooms above the bakery, which have been occupied by the Sorensen family.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight departed for Tekamah, Neb., after the sale. They will visit relatives for a short while, and Mr. Knight will secure a location elsewhere.

CAMP FIRE NOTES.

The regular meeting of the high school girls of the camp fire was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Troyer, Tuesday afternoon. The girls presented their guardian, Mrs. Troyer, a lovely gift in appreciation for all she has done for them during the past year.

FAMILY DINNER NEW YEARS DAY

Mrs. Andrew Jacobsen enter-