S. W. McELDERRY DIES IN CAROLINA

Former Old Settler and
Father of North Side Man
Suffers Apoplexy
End

Word was received today by Congressman John J. Bush here of the death of S. W. McElderry, former well known La Crosse resident, at his home at Greenboro, N. C.

Mr. McElderry left La Crosse about ten years ago and was employed at the government bureau at Washington, D. C., until four years ago. At that time he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and has been an invalid ever since.

While a resident of La Crosse Mr. McElderry was justice of the peace. He was a member of the G. A. R. and the Knights of Pythias. Mr. McElderry was a member of Company L of the Forty-fifth Iowa infantry during the civil war and was actively engaged in the long campaign.

James McElderry, a son, resides in North La Crosse, and is an engineer on the Burlington railroad.

Mr. McElderry will be buried at Arlington National cemetery. Funeral services will be held under the auspices of the Lincoln post of the G. A. R., at the city of Washington. Mr. McElderry was a former member of this post.

Restaurant opened Sundays. Good dinner. A. J. Simonton, 302 S. 4th.

PUBLISHED BY
C. J. COLBY, CRESTON, IOWA,
1876.

He was admitted to Miami University in 1851, and graduated in 1853, and in the same year removed to Kossuth, in Iowa, where he became a teacher of languages; he determined, however, to study law, and returned to Ohio, where for a while he taught a district school.

In 1855, he entered, as a student, the office of the Hon. Samuel Galloway, Columbus, Ohio, and was admitted to the bar in 1856. He spent the next winter at Burlington, Iowa, and in the spring of 1857, removed to Afton, his present home, then a pioneer settlement in the western wilderness. Here he began to practice law.

He was married, in 1857, to Miss Narcissa Fullinwider, of Kossuth.

In 1858, Mr. McDill became County Superintendent, at the munificent salary of $75 per year. In 1859, he was chosen County Judge, and in 1861, on the invitation of his friend, Hon. J. W. Grimes, he visited Washington and was appointed to a clerkship of the Senate Committee on the District of Columbia. In 1862, he was appointed Clerk in the Treasury Department, and later, put in charge of Claims Division, Third Auditor's Department.

In 1866, he returned to Afton, and resumed law practice. In 1868, he was appointed Circuit Judge, and in 1870, District Judge, Third Judicial District, to fill a vacancy, and at next election was complimented with an unanimous election to the same office, there being no opposition. In 1872, he was nominated by the Republicans in the Eighth Congressional District of Iowa, and was elected to Congress, receiving 12,675 votes, to 6,999 cast for Col. Merritt. In the Forty-third Congress, he was a member of the Committee on Pacific Railroads.

IRA SEELEY.—This popular caterer for the public was born in Tioga County, Pennsylvania, October 8, 1830. His father settling in the wilderness, where Ira was born and rocked, not in the cradle of opulence, but in a sugar trough. When the boy was about seven years of age, his father moved to Western Pennsylvania, and settled in Mercer County; Ira working on the paternal farm until seventeen years of age, and then engaged in teaching a district school in the winter; after which he improved his education at a college in Wilmington, Pennsylvania. He then built flat-boats on a tributary to the Alleghany river, and afterward emigrated to Jasper County, Iowa, in the spring of 1855, making his home in this county June 12th of the same year. In 1857, he was chosen Sheriff of Union County, and was married to Miss M. A. Anderson, of Des Moines County, in August, 1859. In August, 1862, he enlisted in Company H, 29th Iowa Volunteer Infantry, serving through the war; after the close of which he was elected County Treasurer. At the expiration of his term of office, he bought land and improved a farm, four miles north of Afton, where he continued until January 1, 1876, when he purchased the Afton Tribune, and is, at this writing, conducting one of the live newspapers of Union County.

HON. S. W. McELDERRY.—This gentleman, one of the men of whom Union County may well be proud, is a native of Ohio, being born in Carrollton, in the Buckeye State, June 21, 1841; removing to Steubenville, in the same State, April, 1850. He acquired his early education wholly by his own efforts, working at Steubenville, in a glass factory, and in his 18th year emigrated, with his parents, to Jefferson County, Iowa, where he improved his education at the Fairfield University, after which he taught school, taking the opportunity, in his few leisure hours, to study law, being admitted to the bar in 1867.

Mr. McE. had the honor to be elected Mayor of Afton, in 1870, and was re-elected the two succeeding years. In the fall of 1875, he was elected to represent the 14th Representative District (comprising the counties of Ringgold and Union) in the 16th General Assembly of the State of Iowa; serving on the judiciary, constitutional amendments, military, representative and senatorial district committees.

Mr. McE. is one of the foremost lawyers in this county; unassisted and alone, he has struggled into the front rank of the legal profession, and is meeting with that measure of success that his attainments and abilities deserve.

C. S. REX was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, January 11, 1842, his father being a farmer. He moved to

S. W. McElderry, pension examiner for Uncle Sam, with headquarters at La Crosse, Wis., is in the city visiting with his family. He reports crops as being in an excellent condition in the Northern States and that the wheat yield will be up to the usual standard.

The Enterprise, (Afton, Iowa), 9 FEB 1893 - Personals

S. W. McElderry arrived Sunday afternoon from La Crosse Wis. He has been suffering from what is known as "winter cholera" and is considerably under the weather.

Afton Enterprise, (Afton, Iowa), Oct. 26, 1893 - Local news

The Family of S. W. McElderry started for their new home at La Crosse, Wisconsin, on Monday. We learn of this move to much regret having had a long acquaintance with them. Mr. Mceldery has had his home here over twenty five years, reared his family of four children, all of who are grown. He has held several offices of trust here and is considered a man to be relied on in anything place in his care. He is an able attorney and we hope he will meet with abundaut success in his new field of labor.
