lason family of singers, and on my way home I met a friend who told me that I had been drafted to go to the war. The idea brought up afresh the scenes of soldierly life, which had now become familiar. I went home, did my work, and after dinner sat down near the window with a violin in my hand. I had seldom used a violin or such a purpose, resorting generally to a lay melodeon. But while musing with the stringed instrument my thoughts wandered away to the south, to the camps a evening time, to the soldiers gathered there, and of my own future among them. Almost unconsciously my thoughts began to express themselves in words and music simultaneously as I drew the bow across the strings. Looked at from the present, the sentiment was probably the expression of my own feeling of loneliness and regret at parting from home than anything else, but I could see as plainly as if it were a real picture the events and feelings, expressed in the song at that moment. I wrote the words out that night and the music the following day."

Before the war had ended 100,000 copies of the song had been sold, while since that time the aggregate product has amounted to half a million copies. It is to be hoped that Mr. Kittredge made more on "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground" than did Major Byers on "Sherman's March to the Sea," of which an equal number of copies have been sold, and which, to date, has netted the author just $5.

Death has just claimed Mr. Kittredge, and the man who made thousands weep by his sentiment and melody is himself mourned. Certainly there could be no more fitting mark for his tomb than the line with which his name will always be associated: "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground."—Register and Leader.

HARDIN TICE IS DEAD.

Prominent and Representative Citizen Passes Away.

Died, at his home, 415 South Third street, Saturday, July 15, 1905, at 9:15 o'clock a. m., Hon. Hardin Tice, aged 75 years and 8 months. Funeral services from the residence Monday, July 17, at 3 p. m. Interment in Forest cemetery.

Deceased had been a sufferer since last winter from an abscess on the brain but was able to be about until about noon yesterday, when a rupture occurred. Death followed this morning.

The deceased leaves his wife and five daughters, with eleven grandchildren. The daughters are Mrs. A. C. Noel, Mrs. A. L. Christy, Mrs. Bert Walker of Des Moines, and Misses Lillian and Zora Tice.

The deceased was born in Montgomery county, Virginia, Oct. 27, 1829. He was the sixth son in the family. Soon after his birth the family removed to Sangamon county, Illinois, where he was brought up, receiving only a common school education. In 1852 Mr. Tice set out for the west, on horseback, locating in Black Oak township in this county, where he purchased 160 acres of land at $4.65 per acre, being allowed five years' time. With the help of an elder brother he broke in a profitable farm upon the prairie.

In November, 1853, Mr. Tice was married to Miss Mary J. Wilson, the daughter of a near neighbor, and began housekeeping in a log cabin he had built during the previous year.

In 1876 Mr. Tice rented his farm upon which he had been very successful, and removed to Oskaloosa. He had been previously prominent in politics, and in 1875 was elected representative of his county in the general assembly.

After seven years in Oskaloosa Mr. Tice removed to his farm in Union township, and successfully managed the farm for several years. He set out a very fine apple orchard, and for many years specialized in this fruit. For years Mr. Tice was a prominent figure in the Farmers' Institute and a constant exhibitor of his fine apples.

Mr. Tice and his wife were prominent members of the Christian church and the deceased was prominent in the movement in opposition to remove Oskaloosa college to Des Moines, when that was proposed in 1881. He led the opposition, securing donations of several thousand dollars towards retaining the school, and contributed largely to the movement himself.

occupation of farming. Our subject and his wife became the parents of four children, two now deceased: Sarah Jane, the wife of Joseph Stevens, resides in Marion County, Iowa; Daniel James lives in Merrick County, Neb.; Marietta, Mrs. John Harrold, lives in Des Moines Township; Orpha Ruth is at home; Samuel L., born in 1869, died Sept. 10, 1880, aged eleven years, six months and thirteen days. He was accidentally killed by the discharge of a revolver in his own hands.

Mr. Semple arrived in this county May 31, 1863, and located on section 4, in Scott Township, upon land then purchased, and which he has developed to the highest state of cultivation. The buildings and other improvements on his farm are of the most substantial character, and have been built with a view to both comfort and convenience. The house alone cost over $2,200. Mr. Semple is principally engaged in stock-raising, in which he has achieved signal success, and it has proven to him a most profitable branch of business. He is careful and systematic in farming, as in all other affairs in life, and a worthy representative of that sturdy ancestry which "knows no such word as fail." He possesses great force of character, and an indomitable will, matures his plans and then pursues them to successful results. Such men are valuable citizens, whether they be found in the public or private walks of life.

GEORGE ELLIS DIXON, located upon the fine farm of Mrs. Reeves in Scott Township, was born in Hennepin, Macon Co., Ill., Feb. 24, 1850, and is a son of Samuel Albert and Ase-nath (Nash) Dixon, who were natives of Northern New York, and are now living in Greenwood County, Kan., where Mr. Dixon yet follows the trade of his youth, wagon-making. George, the subject of this sketch, came to this county in 1862, having previously lived at Kirkville, Wapello Co., Iowa.

Mr. Dixon was married, Sept. 17, 1871, to Miss Jennie Hammitt, a native of Jefferson Township, Mahaska County, and a daughter of A. J. and Hester (Eveland) Hammitt, natives of Ohio, the former of Perry and the latter of Morgan County. To Mr. and Mrs. Dixon five children have been born, four of whom are now living: Hester Ase-nath was born Aug. 8, 1872; Harry Hammitt, born Nov. 21, 1874, died Aug. 30, 1876; Leonard Andrew was born March 8, 1878; Mary Cornelia, July 13, 1880; Clara Emma, Dec. 20, 1884.

Mr. Dixon is a painter by trade, and followed that business until the year 1882, when he removed with his family to the farm where he is now residing, and of which he has general supervision. The farm is a productive one, and turns out, under the skillful supervision of Mr. Dixon, as ample crops as it did in days of yore.

HON. HARDIN TICE, of Union Township, was born in Montgomery County, Va., Oct. 27, 1829. His father was of German descent, and his mother of English, but both American born. They were people of moderate means, yet possessing enough to own a home of their own after marriage. To them were born eleven children, seven boys and four girls, and they had the pleasure of seeing all grow to man and womanhood. Four are now deceased. The children lived commendable lives, not more than one having ever been engaged in a lawsuit, thus proving them peaceable and law-abiding people.

The subject of this sketch, Hardin Tice, was the sixth son. Soon after his birth, the family moved to Sangamon County, Ill., where he was brought up, receiving only the meager common-school education of that early time. There were no free schools in those days, and it was only those of ample means who could afford even to think of a college course. In the month of March, 1852, he started west on horseback, beginning life for himself, and having all his worldly possessions packed in a portmanteau. He located in Black Oak Township, this county, and bought 160 acres of land, on five years' time, without interest, at an agreed price of $4.65 per acre, and here, with an elder brother, began the work of making a farm from the raw prairie. For the first eighteen months after their location the brothers kept house by themselves, or, as it was commonly termed in those days, kept "bach." The first summer they cultivated a crop on eighty acres belonging to his brother, and spent the ensuing winter in hauling rails a distance of six miles with which to fence forty acres of his own land. The hauling was done with four yoke of oxen, and the entire day from sunrise to sundown was occupied in hauling one load of ninety rails. The following spring with their ox-teams they broke the sod upon the enclosed forty acres and planted it in corn.

In the fall of the same year Mr. Tice built a log house 10x14 feet, and also constructed a stable of rails and straw. Having made all proper arrangements for housekeeping, he sought the hand of Miss Mary J. Wilson in marriage, and Nov. 2, 1853, they were united in the bonds of matrimony. She was the daughter of a near neighbor, and was born May 8, 1835. Five daughters have been born to them: Clara, born Dec. 10, 1856, is now the wife of A. C. Noel, of Leighton; Emma, born 26, 1860, is the wife of A. L. Christy, of Des Moines, Iowa; Lily, born May 6, 1865; Dora, Nov. 27, 1869; Della, March 31, 1872.

The first two years following his marriage, Mr. Tice was engaged in farming and trading in horses, and then added that of buying and feeding cattle and hogs. This he continued with financial success until 1876, when he rented his farm and moved to Oskaloosa. During all these years Mr. Tice has occupied a prominent position in the politics of his county and State, nearly all the various township offices having been held by him, and in the year 1875 he was elected by the Republican party to represent this district in the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Iowa, receiving in this election the high compliment of securing more votes than any other man on his ticket.

After having spent seven years in the city of Oskaloosa, living a retired life in an elegant home, Mr. Tice removed to his present admirable location in Union Township, where he now occupies his time in general farming and stock-raising. His present farm, bought in 1881, is a half section of very fine prairie land, lying in Adams and Union Townships. His first work was to set sixteen acres arranged as to be a thorough windbreak for buildings and cattle-yards. The trees are large enough at this time, to make a splendid shade in the summer, and will soon be an admirable protection from the chilling winds of winter. Upon the farm is a very fine apple orchard of 200 trees, embracing fifty different varieties, many of which fruited for the first time in 1886. There is, perhaps, no farm in Mahaska County that for its age shows such a high state of cultivation, or has a better class of improvements. It is already a beautiful home, and will be much more so in the near future under the admirable management of its owner.

In educational matters Mr. Tice has always taken a great interest. He is a friend not only to our public schools, but to higher education. In 1881, when an effort was made to move Oskaloosa College to Des Moines, Mr. Tice opposed the measure in a forcible manner, and to his efforts, probably more than to any other one man, it was defeated, and Oskaloosa retained its old and widely known educational institution. When elected Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, he not only managed its general finances in an admirable manner, but taking the field, he solicited donations, first to pay off a debt of $6,500 which was hanging over the college, and when that was met, for the suitable endowment of the college. In this work he was eminently successful, securing donations amounting to $14,000, while he himself contributed liberally.

Mr. and Mrs. Tice are members of the Christian Church, and take an active interest in all things pertaining to the church's welfare. Hardin Tice may be properly pronounced a self-made man. His financial success in life, beginning as he did, with nothing but the labor of his hands, is the best possible evidence of the possession of abilities of a very high order. There are few men in Mahaska County better posted on general topics, or can express themselves more forcibly and to the point upon debatable questions. His early advantages were meager, but he improved them, and the distinguished ability with which he represented his county in the General Assembly of the State, is evidence of broad and liberal acquirements. At his elegant home there is unbounded hospitality, which is dispensed in an admirable manner by his charming wife and daughters. Personally and socially he occupies a very high place in the esteem of friends and neighbors.

MONES REEVES, deceased, formerly a resident of Scott Township, was born in the State of New York, Feb. 14, 1800, and was a son of Levi and Sarah (Meyers) Reeves. They were natives of the same State, and removed to Muskingum County, Ohio, when our subject was a boy eight years of age. There he remained until 1856, when, becoming of suitable age, he followed as a business, the buying and shipping of grain at Gaysport, Ohio.

Mr. Reeves was married in Ohio in 1828, to Miss Margaret Monroe, a native of Ohio, who became the mother of one daughter, M. Minerva, now the wife of James Finney. Mrs. Margaret Reeves died in Ohio, in July, 1859.

Mr. Reeves came to Mahaska County in 1856, settling on section 26, Scott Township, where he remained until his death, which took place March 28, 1879, at the age of seventy-nine years. He had been a second time married, Dec. 17, 1859, to Mary Eveland, a native of Ohio, who still survives, and lives upon the beautiful home farm of 375 acres, and in company with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, carries on the business of general farming.

BENJAMIN REAM, deceased, was born in Pennsylvania in 1823, and was a son of John and Lydia (Cling) Ream, natives of Pennsylvania. John Ream, who was born in 1800, was a tinner by trade, and worked many years at that business in Reading, Lancaster and Newcastle. He also owned and operated a farm in that State, which he sold in 1855. He then came to this county and purchased a farm in Garfield Township, which he afterward sold, and removed to Beacon, and there died in 1873, at the age of seventy-three years. His widow, who was born July 1, 1800, still survives, and resides at Beacon.

The subject of this sketch was married, in 1845, to Elizabeth Simpson, who died in the spring of 1855. He afterward married Charlotte Strang. He was a carpenter by trade, and a contractor and builder, and came with his parents to this county in September, 1855, settling in Scott Township, where he lived until the late war began, when he enlisted, July 22, 1861, in Co. C, 7th Iowa Vol. Inf., of which he became Second Lieutenant. He was severely wounded in the battle at Belmont, Mo., and died in hospital at Cairo, Ill., Nov. 22, 1861, and his remains were brought home and buried in the cemetery near Olivet.

Mr. Ream was a man of good ability, undaunted courage, and unflinching loyalty to his country, and was among the first of those who volunteered from this county to lay down his life in its defense.

JAMES P. COWAN, a resident of Oskaloosa Township, owns and occupies a fine homestead on section 25, which has been in his possession since 1868. He was one of the pioneer settlers of this locality, coming here while Oskaloosa was yet a village, and with his estimable wife has reared a family of children. Their lives have been attended with the trials and disappointments incident to pioneering, but at the same time they have had their joys and pleasures, and an abiding faith in Providence which has enabled them to meet adversity with brave and cheerful hearts. All their children have been spared to them, and in their comfortable and attractive home they are surrounded by many friends who have learned to both love and respect them for the principles of truth and honor which they have made the rule of their daily lives and in which they have trained their children.

The subject of this history was born in Washington County, Pa., Feb. 22, 1823, and is the son of John and Sarah (Proudfit) Cowan, both natives of Pennsylvania. The father was born in Allegheny County in 1789, and the mother in Washington County in 1799. Both died the same year, 1867, John Cowan being seventy-eight years of
