AN EXCELLENT SCHOOL REPORT

The following items taken from e Superintendent's annual report ay be of interest to the people of agle Grove:

The enrollment in the high school or the year was 69 boys and 85 girls, total 154.

Average daily attendance 62.81 boys and 83 girls, total 139.3.

Number neither absent nor tardy 3 boys and 11 girls, total 14.

The assembly room of the high school provides for the seating of 4 pupils.

With a class of twenty two passing it and an eighth grade of ity six writing the examination iven by the Superintendent for admission into the high school, more oom is imperative. Probably not ewer than 15 from the country districts will ask admission and after aking due allowance for failures and removals the entering class will ill be large.

In the Lincoln school the enrollment was 403 with an average daily

Death of Judge S. B. Hewett.

Sumner B. Hewett died at Los Angeles, California, June 12, 1906. He was born in Northbridge, Mass, June 22, 1833. He was the son of S. B.
Hewett and Mary E. Hewett who were also natives of New England.

His early youth was spent at school in South Sutton and East Douglass, Mass., and later in the Academy at Woonsocket, R. I. At the age of 18 he commenced work in the wholesale Furniture establishment of Shearer and Paine of Boston, Mass.
At the age of 21 he was married to Abbie S. Parker of Blue Hill, Maine.
In 1854 accompanied by N. B. Paine he came to what is now the site of Eagle Grove, Iowa, and took a large tract of land while in February 1855 they were joined by their families including Mr. Hewett's parents. Here they built one of the first log cabins upon the Boone river in which they all lived. Their home was in plain sight of the large tree in which was the old eagle's tree nest, from which Eagle Grove P.O. and later the city of Eagle Grove got its name.

At their cabin the meeting was held at which Wright county was organized. Mr. Hewett was the surveyor of Wright county and later was elected County Judge, which office he held for a number of years.

The early years were full of privations and dangers of pioneer life, at first there were no railroads in Iowa and provisions were freighted from Davenport and later Iowa City was the nearest market, then Des Moines and still later Iowa Falls was the nearest market. Hostile Indians still lived here and at the time of the Spirit Lake Massacre, he was among the "Home Rifles" who guarded the properties of the families who retired during that trying time.

Judge Hewett was collector of internal revenue for Iowa during the Civil War and at its close he was elected to the State Legislature which position he held for a number of years. He has always been very prominent in social events as well as in politics. From early times until after the City of Eagle Grove sprang into existence the Eagle Grove P. O. was at his home.

It was through his influence that the C. N. N. W. officials were induced

S. B. HEWETT DEAD. PERSONAL MENTION

Former Eagle Grove Citizen Expires at Home in California.

The many friends of Mr. S. B. Hewett will be pained to learn of that gentleman's death at his home in Santa Barbara, Calif., which occurred June 12. Mr. Hewett was one of the men prominent in the early upbuilding of this city and at the present time has a large amount in real estate holdings here. He laid out the Hewett's Park addition in the southwest part of the city, which is one of the most desirable residences portions of the city. Until the past two years Mr. Hewett has been a regular visitor to our city, was known and respected by all our citizens. Concerning his death, we take the following from a Santa Barbara paper:

"Former Judge Summer B. Hewett, a wealthy and prominent resident of this city, died today in Los Angeles, after suffering for about two years from locomotor ataxia, which made him helpless. Judge Hewett was about 74 years old, a native of Eagle Grove, Iowa, which was built upon his farm and at one time he owned practically the whole town.

He leaves an estate there, a home in Los Angeles, property near Westlake, and an elegant residence in this city. He held many prominent positions in the east, being a justice of the peace, judge of the Superior Court, collector of internal revenue, a member of the Iowa Legislature. He came to Santa Barbara about twenty years ago, and was interested in mining and stock raising in this locality. He was married twice, his first wife being buried in this city about twelve years ago. He was married here to Miss Kenyon, who had grown up in his household since childhood.

S. B. Hewett.

From an Eagle Grove special to the Register and Leader we take the following concerning the life of Hon. S. B. Hewett:

"Word has just been received here of the death of Summer B. Hewett former member of the Iowa legislature and one of the most prominent pioneers of northern Iowa, at his home near Los Angeles. Al-
