Last Sunday evening a large number of friends accompanied by the Germania band called upon Mr. Nicholas Boyson and called to his memory the fact that he was just 31 years of age that day. Refreshments were served and everything that goes to make up a first class birth day party was enjoyed.

Mr. A. A. Childs, commercial traveller for S. H. Austin jr. Chicago, wholesale dealer in the best brands of smoking and chewing tobacco manufactured, visited Clinton this week. Mr Childs has been on the road for many years and has as yet the first time to handle a second class article. We heartily commend Mr. C. to our merchants as a strictly first class honorable gentleman who represents just what he carries and carries just what he represents.

The funeral of the late Dr. Ireland of Camanche was the largest ever known in that village. A large number went from each of the neighboring towns to pay their respects to the remains of the departed. Dr. Ireland was well known throughout the entire Northwest and had hosts of friends. His name will remain green in the memory of all who knew him for many years, as a man of sterling worth, and one always to the front in any move for public welfare.
