COOK!

HON. J. C. COOK,

DEMOCRATIC AND GREENBACK CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS,

Will speak at the democratic County Convention, on Saturday, Sept. 4th, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Delegates to the democratic state convention, Des Moines on the 2d of September will be charged only two cents per mile on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.

DELEGATES to the democratic state convention at Des Moines on the 2d of September, will find headquarters at the Aborn House, and excellent accommodations at a reasonable price. If you want to be where you will see everybody stop at the Aborn.

GO UP BALDYS!—An itinerant fanatic canvassed the city a few days ago looking for bald-headed men from whom he could juggle fifty dollars apiece for a nostrum that he warranted would bring the hair out. Sure enough it does bring out all the hair leaving the heads to which it is applied as smooth and polished as billiard balls.

RUNAWAY.—Henry Meyers, accompanied by his sister and Miss Cole, started with one of Davis' teams to camp-meeting last Sunday, and it seems that he attempted to pass everything on the road. He upset the carriage and hurt himself and Miss Cole severely. The buggy was demolished.

MORAL.—What profiteth it a man to pass everybody on the road and then break his own leg?

RETURNED.—Mr. W. I. Poag, ex-Treasurer of Wapello county, returned last week from Colorado, where he has been during the last four months. Mr. Poag has secured some valuable mining claims and

The Hotel de Drake, located in Peterson's new block, promises to be one of the most popular places in the city. The proprietress, Mrs. S. A. Drake is thoroughly qualified to make her enterprise a success, being fully acquainted with how to run an establishment of this kind, and never spares pains to make her guests comfortable; and every delicacy the market affords will always be found on Mrs. Drake's table in abundance. Gentlemen who long for a boarding place that will seem just a little different from home should give Mrs. Drake a trial.

HON. CHARLES DUDLEY, died at his residence near Agency City on Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock after a long and painful illness. Mr. Dudley was born in 1813, and has lived in this county since 1843. He has served as county commissioner three terms; in the state Legislature twice and as commissioner for building the state capitol. He was a man of strong convictions, and we may say prejudices, but he was honest in his views, and for this we honor his memory. His death will be sincerely mourned in this county.

FOR IOWA CITY.—Mr. F. R. Campbell, who came to this city with the house of John Morrell & Co., and who has occupied an important position in the establishment ever since, has gone to Iowa City to assume the duties of Superintendent of a large packing house, similar to the one in this city. The citizens have organized a joint stock company with a capital of $100,000 which they have put into the business. The selection of Mr. Campbell as superintendent is a guarantee of the success of the establishment. He is a man of practical experience, and full of energy. He is besides a gentleman whom we commend to the good people of Iowa City.

ELDON.

A visit to Eldon last week gave us an opportunity of sketching a few rough notes concerning town and its inhabitants. Eldon has improved during the last year. It has a certain air about it indicating prosperity, increased business, life, energy and a determination to grow.

It is a good newspaper town, which is another evidence of healthy condition; dead or dying towns don't patronize newspapers. But Eldon does, and here the DEMOCRAT AND TIMES, we are to say, has many subscribers and friends, and among them we note

JAMES BRADLEY.

Mr. Bradley is the baker of town, and good bread and groceries he furnishes to the people. He is the agent of the D. & T. in Eldon and will receive and receipt subscriptions.

ANDREW WALTER, supplies the good people with best of fresh beef, mutton, etc.

DR. BROWNFIELD, is the good village physician, kind hearted neighbor, and just justice of the peace.

MARTIN DOOLEY, dispenses the fluid refreshment according to law.

A. C. RECK & SONS, have a complete general stock of goods consisting of hardware, goods, groceries, clothing and grain. Mr. E. T. Roland is partner and is also a clerk in excellent establishment.

THE HUSTON HOUSE, is kept by Wm. Houston and very good hotel.

RICHARD SHEA, attends to all the tin business and sells the best stoves.

PAT HOLLAND, is the boss boot and shoe maker many of the citizens of Eldon well know.
