STEWART FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY

BODY OF HON DAVID STEWART
 LAID AWAY BY HIS BROTH-ER MASONS

The funeral services in connection with the burial of Hon. David Stewart, were held yesterday afternoon, the services being in charge of the Masonic lodge of which he was a prominent and honored member. The services were held at North Liberty and the interment made in the North Liberty cemetery. A special train on the interurban from Iowa City took about one hundred and fifty from here and the services were in charge of the officers of Iowa City lodge No. 4.

The funeral procession was a mile or more in length, and it was estimated that 2000 people were in North Liberty to honor this respected citizen. The Masonic services were beautiful and appropriate and the funeral sermon by Dr. D. W. Wylie was a fine tribute to the departed.

Mr. Stewart passed away Friday night at about 9 o'clock at his late residence in North Liberty after a life of usefulness and influence. He was past eighty years of age.

Hon. David Stewart, a prominent and successful physician of Johnson county, has been a resident of Penn township for the past forty years, and enjoying an extended and lucrative practice, has taken an active and leading part in local politics. Occupying at various times the important official positions of the township, and ever discharging their duties with efficient ability, he was further honored by his election to the state legislature of Iowa, and in 1892, was the choice of the republicans for the same position but was defeated in the election.

Dr. Stewart was a native of Huntington Co., Pa., and was born March 24, 1830. He received a common school education at the place of his birth and assisted in the woolen factory of which his father was pro-

Trustee his advice and judgment have been invaluable factors in the promotion of local enterprise and improvements. For four years a Justice of the Peace, his legal decisions were ever rendered according to law and evidence, and in the transaction of the business of this frequently trying position, "Squire" Andrews gave universal satisfaction to the entire community of his locality.

Born in Richland County, N. Y., December 8, 1825, Mr. Andrews removed while very young with his parents to Oswego, N. Y., where they remained eight years; then locating in Trumbull County, Ohio, for one year, they finally settled in Erie County, Pa., where our subject grew to manhood. He had received a good education in the district schools of the Quaker State, and had otherwise well prepared himself for the battle of life before he entered into matrimonial relations in Erie County, and while yet in early manhood was united in marriage with Miss Harriet S. Cottrell, who survived her union with her husband but eleven months, and dying left to his care an infant daughter, Candace M., now the wife of Isaac Miller. Mr. Andrews married the second time, in Crawford County, Pa., wedding upon December 16, 1852, Miss Sarah S. Shepard, who was born in Erie County, Pa., July 6, 1827.

Following his second marriage, our subject made his home in Erie County, Pa., from where he and his wife departed for the West in the spring of 1854, arriving in Johnson County May 31. Since that period of time the family have been constant residents of Graham Township, a part of what was formerly included in Newport Township, and then was a sparsely settled district, and for the most part unbroken prairie where now highly cultivated fields yield their annual harvest. The homestead of Mr. Andrews is well improved with excellent buildings, a good residence and commodious barns, and betokens the wise and thrifty management of the prosperous and progressive owner. Our subject and his estimable wife are the parents of three children, two daughters and one son. The eldest-born, Jennie I., is the wife of Arthur E. Page; Jessie I. is the wife of James R. Cozine; Charles M. is the only son.

Mr. Andrews has since attaining his majority ever taken an active interest in both local and national politics. He is an ardent Republican and an earnest advocate of the principles of his party. Conscientious in the discharge of all obligations pertaining to the local offices which he has so worthily held, he has in all his public work been influenced by the principles of right and justice. Our subject and his good wife are invaluable assistants in the benevolent work of the Christian Church, of which religious organization they have long been members. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and their children, occupying positions of usefulness, influence and honor, are ever mindful of those less fortunate than themselves and by word and deed brighten the path of many a wanderer by the wayside. Arriving within the borders of the State in the full strength of early yet matured manhood, our subject has steadily won his upward way, and now, approaching three-score years and ten, has through the changing years kept untarnished by dishonest act the record of his upright life.

HON. DAVID STEWART, M. D., a prominent and highly successful physician of Johnson County, Iowa, has been a resident of Penn Township for more than thirty years, and, enjoying an extended and lucrative practice, has also taken an active and leading part in local politics. Occupying at various times the important official positions of the township, and ever discharging their duties with efficient ability, he was further honored by his election in 1869 to the State Legislature of Iowa, and in 1892 was the choice of the Republicans for the same position, but was defeated by his Democratic opponent, the Hon. John Springer. The result of the campaign was most satisfactory to the numerous patients of Dr. Stewart, who had no desire to lose, even temporarily, the services of so skillful a practitioner as our highly esteemed subject.

Dr. Stewart is a native of Huntingdon County, Pa., and was born March 24, 1830. His parents, Robert and Annie T. (McDonald) Stewart, were also natives of Huntingdon County, and were there reared, educated and married. Our subject received a common-school education in the excellent schools of his birthplace, and assisted in the woolen factory of which his father was proprietor until he was about twenty-one years of age, when, deciding to adopt the medical profession, he abandoned his former employment. In 1852 he entered the office of Dr. J. R. Smith, of Pine Grove, Centre County, Pa., and read with this excellent physician for two years, meantime attending the course of lectures at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and also studying at Ann Arbor, Mich. At last, a full-fledged M. D., Dr. Stewart began the practice of his profession at Colerain Forge, Pa., in 1855, but remained only a brief time in that locality, soon removing to Rock Grove, Stephenson County, Ill. After two years of professional duty there, our subject next made his home in Pontiac, Livingston County, where he practiced successfully for three years.

The then far West of Iowa at that time presenting strong attractions for our subject, he journeyed hither, and in 1860 settled in Penn Township, where he has since constantly engaged prosperously in medical practice, except for the comparatively brief period when he was in the service of the Government, in the troublous days of the Civil War. It was upon August 12, 1862, that Dr. Stewart received his commission and entered upon his duties as Captain of Company E, Twenty-eighth Iowa Regiment, in which capacity he served with faithful and gallant efficiency until the following December, when he was promoted to the position of Surgeon of the same regiment. For one year he did active and valuable service as an army surgeon, but was at the expiration of that time obliged to resign upon account of ill-health, and in July, 1863, returned to Penn Township, and after needed rest resumed professional duty. For a few months Dr. Stewart was the Government inspector of the alcohol works at Iowa City, but the professional demands of his immediate home locality require his devoted attention.

Our subject was married in Huntingdon County, Pa., July 14, 1855, to Miss Winnifred Duff, a native of the county and a lady highly esteemed for her intelligence, worth and culture. Dr. and Mrs. Stewart are the parents of seven surviving children. Mary A., the eldest-born, who is the wife of L. W. Alt; Winnie; Dr. C. E. Stewart, of Iowa City; William, the second son; Emma, the wife of Rolla Alt; Alex T. and Guy, who are yet unmarried. One child, a daughter, passed away at about two years of age. The parents of our subject, desiring to be near their son, came to Johnson County in 1865, and settled in Penn Township, where the father died in January, 1881, aged eighty-two years. The mother lived until August, 1892, and passed away at eighty-four years of age. The venerable father and mother, Robert and Annie T. (McDonald) Stewart, were of Scotch-Irish ancestry and possessed the energy, ability and thrift which characterize the union of these nationalities.

Dr. Stewart is fraternally associated with the Free Masons and is a valued member of White Marble Lodge No. 238, A. F. & A. M., of North Liberty, Iowa. He also wears the bronze button of the Grand Army and is a member of Post No. 8, of Iowa City. Intimately associated with the leading interests of the State, and one of the chief promoters of educational advancement and local enterprise in Johnson County, our subject is a thoroughly progressive man, faithful in the performance of every duty intrusted to his care, whether it be professional or official, and is widely known as a public-spirited citizen, worthy of the honor and high regard which he has so long received from the general public and a host of friends.

CARSON B. WRAY, a leading citizen and honored pioneer settler of Iowa, has for more than fifty years been a constant resident of Madison Township, Johnson County, where as County Supervisor and Township Trustee he has been an important factor in the upward growth and progress of this part of the Hawkeye profession at Centerville, continuing his residence and profession there the remainder of his life. In August, 1862, he enlisted in Company G, Thirty-sixth Iowa Infantry. He was chosen captain, receiving his commission from Governor Kirkwood October 4, 1862. He was captured with the entire brigade, of which his company was a part, at the battle of Mark's Mills, and for ten months was a prisoner at Tyler, Texas. He was exchanged in March, 1865; for a time was assistant inspector-general on the staff of Gen. Shaler, and also inspector-general of the Seventh Army Corps, commanded by Gen. J. J. Reynolds. He was mustered out at Duval's Bluffs, Ark., August 24, 1865. He was elected district attorney of the Second Iowa judicial district in 1874, and at the end of his service received the nomination of the Republican party for judge in the same district, but was defeated. In 1894 he was again nominated and elected, continuing on the bench until January 1, 1902, when he voluntarily retired. He was a prominent Mason, a member of the I. O. O. F., the Elks, the G. A. R. and the Loyal Legion.

LEWIS O. BLISS was born at Union Springs, Cayuga county, New York, July 29, 1826; he died at Iowa Falls, Iowa, April 21, 1910. He removed to Sheffield, Ohio, in 1834, and was educated at Kingsville Academy. He taught school for three years in Ohio and Kentucky, then engaged in the mercantile business in Ashtabula, Ohio. In 1854 he removed to Grant county, Wisconsin, where he engaged in business, but shortly afterward removed to Elliot, Minn., remaining until 1864, when he removed to Iowa Falls, Iowa. He established a mercantile business in Iowa Falls with William Wilde as his partner, continuing this partnership for many years. He was a member of the House of Representatives from Hardin county in the Fourteenth General Assembly.

JERRY M. WILSON was born near Canaan, Ind., July 16, 1842; he was killed by lightning near Winterset, Iowa, June 23, 1910. When he was about two years of age his parents removed to Adair county, Iowa, and established one of its earliest home circles. In 1862 he enlisted in Company I, 4th Iowa Cavalry, and served until the close of the war. With his regiment he participated in the siege of Vicksburg. In 1852 he removed to Union township, Adair county, to land upon which he resided for fifty-eight years and until his death. He was a strong, active citizen, serving as a member of the board of supervisors for a number of years and as chairman of that body when the Madison county court house was built in 1891. He was elected to the House of the Iowa Legislature in 1899, serving one term and refusing to be a candidate for a second nomination. At the time of his death he was president of the organization whose plan it is to build an electric traction line from Creston to Des Moines.

DAVID STEWART was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., March 24, 1830; he died at North Liberty, Jackson county, Iowa, June 10, 1910. He received a common school education and engaged with his father in the operation of a woolen mill at his native place, until 1852, when he began to read medicine in Pine Grove, Center

(Mrs. Alt, dau. of veteran)

1 Dec. 1939 IOWA CITY

HIS 72D BIRTHDAY.

Dr. David Stewart of North Liberty Attains That Venerable Age.

Monday, the 24th of March, was the 72nd birthday of the venerable Dr. David Stewart of North Liberty. The doctor came to Iowa and located at North Liberty, and at once engaged in the practice of his profession. He was largely instrumental in raising Company E of the 18th Iowa in the fall of 1862, and was elected its captain. Owing to his abilities as a surgeon he was soon promoted to the surgeon of the regiment, which position he filled creditably to himself and for the great good of his regiment. His kind heart and active personality soon endeared him to the entire regiment.

Owing to ill health he was compelled to resign this position, and he then returned to his former location at North Liberty, where he has been engaged in active practice ever since. The doctor has always been a staunch Republican, and was elected to the legislature from this county when there was some 400 Democratic majority.

As a citizen, a legislator and a physician, he has always occupied an active and leading part. His many friends congratulate him upon having attained his present age, and sincerely hope that his mental and physical activity may continue for many years to come.

Sharing the courtesy will be the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Alt and children, Mary and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. James Alt, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Alt, all of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Alt and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alt and daughter, Elizabeth Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowman, Max Alt, Maxine, June and Gregg Daniels, Lloyd and Ethel Bowman, all of North Liberty, Mr. George Alt, brother of the honoree, and his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Shifflett, of Grinnell, and Mr. William Frad of Iowa City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alt were married December 4, 1889 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Alt in Cedar Rapids, and they established their home on the farm where they have continued to live. They are active and in fairly good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Alt were born on adjacent farms near North Liberty. Mrs. Alt, 71, the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. David Stewart, observed her birthday September 14. Mr. Alt, whose 75th birthday anniversary was June 23, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Alt, who received the present homestead from the government in 1839, and were living there when they observed their golden wedding anniversary in 1889.
