

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Burrows / Burroughs Barclay Senator _____
Represented Clarke County Iowa

1. Birthday and place 8 Feb 1803 North Carolina

2. Marriage (s) date place
Rachel Coffin Morgan County, Indiana

3. Significant events for example:
A. Business _____
B. Civic responsibilities _____
C. Profession Mechanic

4. Church membership _____

5. Sessions served 12th General Assembly 1868

6. Public Offices
A. Local Clarke County Board of Supervisors
B. State _____
C. National _____

7. Death 6 June 1880 Willis, Iowa; buried Maple Hill Cemetery, Osceola, Iowa

8. Children Mrs. J. Ball; Mrs. J. J. Willey; Mrs. Reese; Allen;

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education _____

_____11. Degrees _____

12. Other applicable information _____

- He moved to Ohio at an early age, then to Morgan County, Indiana where he married. They lived in this county until 1856.
- He was the auditor of Morgan County, Indiana for several terms.
- He moved to Mount Pleasant, Iowa in 1856 and then in a short time he moved to Clarke County, Iowa where he lived for a number of years.
- His wife, Rachel, died 8 Mar 1863, buried Maple Hill Cemetery, Ia.
- He lived among his daughters as he got older.

Sources Log For Legislation Entries

Applicability

Source	Non Applicable	Applicable	Information obtained
-			Obituary - The Villisca Review, Villisca, Iowa, Thurs. June 10, 1880, p. 2, col. 4
-			Clarke County, Iowa Centennial WPA Vol 1
-			History of Clarke County, Iowa 1886, p. 318

Henry Howard, and G.
 on Finance,
 M. Hart, and Dr. Scott.
 Programme,
 J. ...ts, and Jas. M.
 on Music,
 Amos Warfield, and officers of the day
 e:
 A. Embree.
 ts, Jas. Roberts, Wm.
 Raffenburg.
 Adams.
 H. Jno. H. Baldwin.
 y. R. J. Osborne. ding the Secretary to
 ings in the various pa-g here, the meeting add that the members of ommittees meet at the
 rd, Saturday evening,
 erf)arrangements.
 F. M. Sillik, Sec.

Local Happenings.
 We acknowledge our ap-good newspaper by sayillisca REVIEW is eager-t this office every Fri-y its patrons; though nes disappointed by its ewhere until Monday.
 ews of the REVIEW is e interesting with the e paper, collecting as it s of interest growing out evelopment of new towns important enterprises
 s field of labor.
 e is steadily moving ying a little here and
 ope of a brighter day.
 py merchant, E. J. Spauling a large, commodious se, which will add gransoutheast corner of town e well the prosperity of

DIED.

On Sunday, June 6, '80, at the residence of J. J. Willey, of this place,
 Hon. B. Burrows, aged 77 years.
 The deceased was born in the state of North Carolina, Feb. 8, 1803. Moved to Ohio at an early age, thence to Morgan Co., Indiana, where he married Miss Rachel Coffin and resided until 1856. During his residence there he was county Auditor for several terms in succession and was known not only at home but throughout the state, as a shrewd and influential politician, whose opinions were highly respected and whose ability on the stump and at the polls contributed largely to the success of his party. He moved to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, in '56, and thence in a short time after to Clark Co.
 where for a number of years he was chairman of the county Board, and represented the county in the state assembly in '68.
 At Osceola in this county his wife died, about 13 years ago.
 He has been actively engaged in some business all his life until within a few years, failing health compelled him to adopt quieter habits. His home was at Osceola, the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. Ball, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Allen Burrows, but part of his time he spent in visiting a daughter at this place, Mrs. J. J. Willey, and one in Wahoo, Nebr., Mrs.
 Reese whose husband is Prosecuting Attorney in one of the Judicial districts. For several weeks past he has been afflicted with a disease of the stomach and this combined with the weakening effects of old age, brought him gradually to the end, surrounded by all his children, who spared nothing that affection and medical skill could do for him. The remains, attended by the relatives, were taken on the Monday morning train to Osceola, where the final resting place will be made by the aid of his faithful wife of forty years. Mr. Burrows was a man of un-vines.

 Steps are being taken to incorporate Elliott, which, according to our view, ought to have been done some time ago, but there is no time too late in which to do right.
 Charley Irwin is having the drug store painted and is fixing some inside this week.
 Miss Butterfield was sick and unable to teach the fore part of the week
 A party of Griswoldites visited the Future Great on Sunday last. We hope they looked at Elliott as we do
 i. e., the best young town in southwestern Iowa.
 Mr. J. W. Woods is taking picture for the citizens of Elliott this week.
 The presidential excitement ran high here, and you could hear cheer for Grant and Blaine all over town.
 Mr. Wornan, of Creston is puttin up a new building next to Mr. Carperter's store.
 The Adventists have services nex
 Sunday at the school house, at 5 p. m.
 A cordial invitation is extended to all
 Rev. Cunningham preaches at th school house every other Sabbath, W believe he is a Presbyterian.
 Mr. Gleason, of Red Oak, was i town last week. He has great fait in the future of Elliott.
 Banker Moore of the Valley Bank
 Red Oak, was also up looking afte his interests.
 Miss Devoss has returned hom from school at Ames. She is stoppin with her brother, Mr. Joe Devos
 Her health was not good and she r turned to recruit up some.
 The greenbackers are trying to smi and shake each others hands in orde to get up a little enthusiasm ove their coming convention, but it's ha work. Gentlemen, accept our symp hy.
 Hank McMillin is building a ne butcher shop just east of the Pot

the Villisca Review is eager or at this office every Friday by its patrons; though sometimes disappointed by its somewhere until Monday.

Views of the REVIEW is more interesting with the paper, collecting as it items of interest growing out of development of new towns or important enterprises in its field of labor.

ville is steadily moving proving a little here and hopes of a brighter day. happy merchant, E. J. Spaulding a large, commodious house, which will add grandeur to the southeast corner of town, will use well the prosperity of the city.

collier continues to buy and sell large quantities of goods, and to buy them.

restaurant presided over by Mr. McKim well patronized.

Worgan, our wagon maker, is in his shop, and continues to give satisfaction to his many customers.

Drake and J. B. Stevens, our stock buyers, are continuing on the war-path, adding growth and prosperity to our city.

Louke is doing the harness work for this vicinity in a satisfactory manner.

Wives and day laborers are all busy at work. Farmers are rejoicing in the prospect before them, since the winter has been so kind.

Gilchrist, while driving his horse across the bottom south of town one day, was thrown from the horse falling on his neck and shoulder injuring him up considerably, and it might be seriously injured.

Wm Love, our former hotel proprietor who has been trying the board-and-care enterprise in Clarinda for several months past, has moved back to daughter, Mrs. J. Ball, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Allen Burrows, but part of his time he spent in visiting a daughter at this place, Mrs. J. J. Willey, and one in Wahoo, Nebr., Mrs. Reese whose husband is Prosecuting Attorney in one of the Judicial districts. For several weeks past he has been afflicted with a disease of the stomach and this combined with the weakening effects of old age, brought him gradually to the end, surrounded by all his children, who spared nothing that affection and medical skill could do for him. The remains, attended by the relatives, were taken on the Monday morning train to Osceola, where the final resting place will be made by the side of his faithful wife of former years. Mr. Burrows was a man of unyielding integrity, affectionate at home, somewhat austere in public, but with a responsive heart when once touched. Living as he did during the most momentous times of our country's history, he was familiar with its men and affairs, and with a remarkable memory of events, names and dates, and gifted with an original and clear style of recital possessed by few, his discourse was always intensely interesting. As a good man, an intelligent citizen, and one whose long life links the past with the busy present, Mr. Burrows will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

At his residence, 3 miles north of town, on Wednesday evening, June 6, 1880, Mr. G. W. Thomason, aged 60 yrs.

Mr. Thomason came from Illinois to this vicinity about 25 years ago and has resided here ever since except during 3 years service for the Union. He was a man of great honesty, kind and obliging and universally respected by his many friends and neighbors. The remains were taken to the Arlington cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Wainwright from near Waukegan, Ill., called at this office last week. They are the proud pa-

Mr. Gleason, of Red Oak, was in town last week. He has great hopes in the future of Elliott.

Banker Moore of the Valley Bank, Red Oak, was also up looking after his interests.

Miss Devoss has returned from school at Ames. She is stopping with her brother, Mr. Joe DeWitt. Her health was not good and she returned to recruit up some.

The greenbackers are trying to get up a little enthusiasm for their coming convention, but it's no work. Gentlemen, accept our sympathy.

Hank McMillin is building a butcher shop just east of the Court House. As he is a first rate butcher we wish him success in his enterprise.

John M. Smith's little girl is sick with lung fever, but at this writing is some better, we understand.

Mr. Carpenter went east on business last Monday and will return last of this week.

The railroad company enlarged the stock yards at Elliott the fore part of this week, and they have the satisfaction of the stock shippers of this vicinity.

Mr. Baldwin had the misfortune to lose, by death, a very valuable horse last week.

PREFERRED LOCAL

Mutton, Mutton, Mutton. from Moore's Fulton Meat Market.

IT HAS NO POLITICAL SYMPATHY

But for curing all summer ailments of the stomach and bowels Brown's Blackberry and Ginger is no equal. No family is safe without it. For sale everywhere. 50¢ a bottle.

A CLEAR POLITICAL HISTORY

May be secured and constipation and biliousness cured by using it.