DEATH OF GEO. W. BASSETT.

It Occurred Yesterday at Elsinore California.

Mrs. A. L. Kirkup received a telegram to day announcing the death of her brother, Mr. George W. Bassett, of Elsinore, California, last night at 10 o'clock. Mr. Bassett had been in ill health for some months, but no such sudden termination was anticipated.
 His home was in Los Angeles, but he had gone to Elsinore a short distance from the city hoping for benefit from the springs there. Mr. Bassett was for many years one of the foremost citizens of Fort Dodge. He sought a home in California for his health, which was greatly benefitted for a time. He leaves a wife and little daughter.

...an old gentleman who had passed his ...eightieth year. The funeral took ...place from the Catholic church to...day at 10 o'clock.

Treasurer John Abel drove out to Collfax township to attend the funeral of his uncle Francis Abel whose death took place Sunday. The funeral took place Tuesday p. m. and the remains of the departed were interred in the cemetery in that place.

Workmen were engaged yesterday afternoon in replacing one of the large plate glass windows in Cheney's store.
It was broken some time ago and was not removed until today when the balmy atmosphere gave a splendid opportunity for such an undertaking.

Miss Kate Warner, of Dayton, who has been holding the position of postmistress in that city in place of her father who died last fall, has been appointed by the administration to fill the unexpired term. Miss Warner is a young lady who is fully competent to fill the position.

Pocahontas Record: There is a man living a short distance east of town who has wheels in his head and claims to see Jesus Christ walking about his farm. He just moved in from Buena Vista county and the change has convinced him that he must be very near a veritable paradise.

Albert Kelley, the fifteen year old son of H. J. Kelley, of Vincent, died at the home of his parents of typhoid fever. The funeral will take place today. The hearse will leave the house at about 10 o'clock and the remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

Mr. George W. Bassett, well known in this city of which he was an old resident and in which he is a large property holder, died at Elsimore, California, Thursday, February 6th.
The news reached this city Friday, a telegram being received to that effect being received by his sister, Mrs.
A. L. Kirkup. Mr. Bassett was an uncle of Mrs. George Roberts.

The remains of John Smith, formerly of this city, arrived from Minneapolis last evening, on the 5:45 train and were brought to the home of his mother on First Street. Mr. Smith died from consumption the disease to which his brother also succumbed some time ago. The funeral will take place from the house today at 2 o'clock under the auspices of Ashlar Lodge.

The young people's society of the Swedish Lutheran church will give a
