White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without success. Then he was advised to try S. C. Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial bottle of S. C. Bitters is sent free to all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Obituary.

Thomas Brown, son of John and Margaret Brown was born in Wigtown Shire, Scotland, September 22, 1826, and died at Garden Grove, Iowa, July 23, 1901, being in his 75th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown came to the United States immediately after their marriage, in 1850, and lived for a number of years in McHenry county, Illinois. They removed to Garden Grove, Iowa, in 1869, and for the past 32 years have been residents of this neighborhood. He, in company with his wife and daughter Margaret paid a visit to his native home in Scotland in 1885 and spent a few weeks very pleasantly among old friends there.

Mrs. Brown preceded him to "the better land beyond" three years ago, and he has been in rather poor health ever since. He was fairly well educated and was a man of more than ordinary intelligence. He was kind and ready to lend a helping hand whenever it was needed.

He leaves a family of six children to mourn their loss, namely; Mrs. McKinney, (unfortunately at present on a visit to New York,) Margaret and Mary, at home, John, also gone to New York, James and Thomas. All having good comfortable homes in or near to Garden Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were both charter members of Pleasant Ridge Grange, P. of H., and were active members of that Order as long as it existed here.

A Most Liberal Offer,

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its special Farmer's Institute Editions and The Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add, for local, county and general news, our own paper, and make the price of the four one you only $1.00. Never before has so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named.
