We have not seen the remonstrance against licensing saloons this spring, but it is said to contain the signatures of 180 or 200 persons over the age of twenty-one. If this is true, it is evident that a majority of those the law recognizes as having a voice in the matter have pronounced against Messrs. Bacchus, Gambrinus & Co.

At this writing (2:40 p. m.

chapel is tolling for the death of Rev. Ziba Brown, pastor of the church, which took place at his residence about an hour previous.
It is too late for further notice of the sad occurrence this week.

Work on this number of the CITIZEN was rushed by both editor and printers, and the paper was put to press Wednesday forenoon, nearly two days ahead of time.

OBITUARY.

DR. ZIBA BROWN was born in Knox county, Ohio, September 21st, 1816; married to Jane Coffey, December 3d, 1837; became a member of the Protestant Methodist church 1832; commenced the study of medicine in Springfield, Ohio, in 1836; was ordained a minister of the Gospel, 1838. Soon afterwards he became identified with the Church of Christ, of which he continued a faithful minister till death.

He was a member of the Senate of Iowa in 1863 and 1864. Was Chaplain of the 5th Iowa cavalry after the Senate adjourned till the close of the war. He then came to Missouri, remaining there till 1872, when he came to Wilson county, Kansas.

In June last he became pastor of the Christian church in Fredonia. During his pastorate here he had the esteem of all the church and the good will of the citizens.

At 11 a. m. April 1st, 1875, he passed away as quietly as falling to sleep. He was ready and willing to exchange this world for the better land.
