LYONS NEWS.

OLD RESIDENTS DIE.

Dr. Davis Passes away Without
Regaining Consciousness—Coy.

At 9:45 o'clock Monday morning Dr. Geo. M. Davis, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Lyons, died at his home on North Sixth street. On the evening of December 6 he fell from the hay loft of his barn and was rendered unconscious, from which state he never rallied.

Mr. Davis was born Oct. 1, 1820 in Montgomery county, O. He studied medicine and was admitted to practice in 1840. After fifteen years he removed to Lyons where he since resided. He was elected state senator in 1857, a remarkable coincidence being that his two brothers were each elected senators at the same time in other districts. He was appointed postmaster in 1864. He was also closely identified with early railroad construction in this part of the state. He was formerly a proprietor of the Lyons Lumber Co.

He is survived by his wife and children: Margaret A. of Omaha, Eugene E., of Oregon, Ill., Cora L., who teaches in the Chicago public schools, Gertrude M. and Mabel C., who reside at home. All of the members of the family were present at the last.

The funeral will probably be held Wednesday afternoon.

DEATH OF MRS. COY.

Mrs. Marie Coy, widow of the late Sage Coy, died at her home on North Sixth street at 8 o'clock Sunday morning from congestion of the lungs.
