mination of three weeks' work by a couple of the tried and true sisters, rich brought to the throbbing heart each Obsolete her enthralling hope, rich, seven years hence, will cause a ruder, with eagle eye, along the avenues of the matrimonial market. A large green box was brought forth, varying on top, in letters of gold, the following:

OLD MAIDS' MALE.

Upon opening was found, addressed in a bold man-like hand, a dainty envelope containing a finely executed likeness of the ideal of each Antique in the latest tints of chlorophyll, azure, orange or scarlet combinations of the lithographers art, together with a beautiful word picture, which we have never found in the NEWS, Milton, Shakespeare or Longfellow.

They meet again in four weeks near the M. E. church.

UNLOOSENED A TEAM.

Jacob Geyer, of Talleyrand, May Get into Serious Trouble.

A G. Schulte was last Friday night called by telephone from Talleyrand to prosecute the case of the state of Iowa vs. Jacob Geyer.

The NEWS, as always, tries to give the exact facts of the case as they come to its knowledge. It appears that Jacob Geyer and John Brounshousen had a quarrel in Talleyrand at the home of John Wallerich where Geyer was ordered out of the house. Jacob Geyer going out, found Mr. Brounshousen's team safely tied to a hitching post and unloosened the hitching straps, led the team on and that done run to his home a few rods away.

Fortunately, Frank Strickland, constable, caught the horses and by his conduct saved the team. Public feeling in and about Talleyrand is all against Geyer, and if Mr. Schulte, from whom we receive this information, is correct, Geyer will surely be punished. The case was by Schulte dismissed to save costs and he immediately took steps to bring the case before the grand jury direct.

NOTES.

Inte. nce with a team, harness, or any part of a vehicle, is dangerous in the extreme. Imagine when you go to church or that Mr. Gruber and wife were dangerously hurt with some weapon—some said "knucks" but Schulte make it so clear to the jury that his client was not guilty of this charge that the jury after two hours deliberation rendered the above verdict. Schulte must have tried to do his best and the general opinion of our people who attended the trial and heard the fair instructions of Judge Ryan is that the verdict is a just one. Schulte seems to be a criminal lawyer. Look out for him.

Death of William McGrew.

Died, Hon. Wm. McGrew, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Peck, on West Fourth street, at 9:30 last night of typhoid malaria, having been sick since Wednesday last. His age was 77 years, 1 month and 9 days. Deceased was the father of Mrs. J. M. Peck and Mrs. J. T. Bowles, and a brother of Mrs. W. A. Jordon of this city. The funeral will occur to-morrow after-noon from the Peck residence, officiated by Rev. I. P. Teter. It will be in charge of the Odd Fellows.

The above notice we find in the Ottumwa Courier of Monday, Feb. 15th. Mr. McGrew was for a great many years a resident of Lancaster township, this county, and was well known by all our citizens. He came to Keokuk county with his parents, before Iowa was admitted into the union of states. His father located near Manhattan, in the early 50's; he was elected to the legislature as member from Keokuk and Washington counties, and he was an able and active member. S. W. Brunt who was intimately acquainted with him, says that he was a man who "always lived in the sunshine," that nothing ruffled him, he took things as they came, the bitter with the sweet, his friends were numbered by the thousands where-ever he lived or had any dealings. He has been a resident of Ottumwa for about ten years, if we mistake not in the time. He was an excellent man in every respect.

LATER.—His body was interred in a vault at the Ottumwa cemetery and will be removed to Sigourney in three weeks and buried by the Odd Fellows of this city.

Junior League Social.

The Junior League had a valentine and musical entertainment at the Needham home last Friday night. The club members volunteered and each one present responded by playing a piece on
