LIFE OF DOCTOR PRICE

Abraham Cutter Price was born in Urbana, Ohio, September 10, 1822, where he resided with his parents until 1841 when Price Sr. brought his family to the then territory Iowa. He settled near Iowa City or what is now Iowa City. The neighbors of the Price family were principally Indians. Powashek's tribe of the Sax and Fox. While a young man, A. C. Price was well acquainted with the above named chief and many of his braves, was with them on their hunting expeditions, at their lodges and well liked by the tribe.

A. C. commenced the study of medicine in Iowa City, attended one course of lectures in St. Louis. He came to Sigourney in 1847, continued his studies and attended one course of lectures. After he settled in Sigourney the doctor commenced the practice of medicine here and soon had an extensive practice in the territory at least, for at that early date the settlers were scarce and the doctors few. E. H. Skillman was the only other doctor in the north half of the county, in fact one could include the south half of Iowa county. Price & Skillman rode this territory over when called to administer to the sick. To practice medicine in those days was no science. No roads, no bridges, but little timber and nothing to break the force of the storms that came in the winter months. No storms so bad, no night so dark but Dr. Price would go when called. He was very successful as a physician and a surgeon.

He married Amanda F. Stebbins, of Sigourney, in 1852. To them were born four children, one son and three daughters. One daughter survives him, Maud Curry, wife of H. B. Curry, of Trenton, Mo. His wife died in 1897 and with the son and one daughter lays in the East cemetery of Sigourney. Dr. Price had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Curry, where he passed away at 12.30 a. m., March 9, 1903. He was buried at Trenton, Mo., his comrades of the Grand Army layed him to rest.

Dr. A. C. Price outside of his practice as a physician and a surgeon took an active part in the affairs of the community in which he resided. Politically he was first an old line whig and ever ready to defend the principles of the party by argument. He assisted in organizing the republican party and on that platform he was elected to represent Keokuk county in the legislature of the state, making an efficient member and looking after the interest of his constituents.

In the removal of the county seat from Lancaster to Sigourney Dr. Price took quite an active part. He attended the legislature and with others got an act passed enabling in Sigourney to Dr. Cook and moved to Kansas City, Kansas, where he engaged in the drug business. After some years he returned to Sigourney and returned to the practice of medicine.

When Oklahoma came into the market, Capt. Price went there and took up a homestead and took an active part in the organization of the county he settled was one of the first County Commissioners. His health failing he gave up an active life and for the past years made his home with his daughter as said before.

Capt. Price was one of the prime movers in getting up the Keokuk County Old Settlers Organization. His name appears among the first to sign the Constitution and By Laws of that organization. He joined the Masonic lodge early in the fifties. His name was on the books of the lodge at the time of his death. The foregoing is by one of Cap's Boys in the army J. T. PARKER.

Dr. A. C. Price outside of his practice as a physician and a surgeon took an active part in the affairs of the community in which he resided. Politically he was first an old line whig and ever ready to defend the principles of the party by argument. He assisted in organizing the republican party and on that platform he was elected to represent Keokuk county in the legislature of the state, making an efficient member and looking after the interest of his contestants.

In the removal of the county seat from Lancaster to Sigourney Dr. Price took quite an active part. He attended the legislature and with others got an act passed enabling the voters of the county to vote upon the question of removal. He also canvassed the county for signers to a petition to the County Judge to call an election for another vote on the county seat question, the first having been by the canvassing board, declared lost.

On the breaking out of the great Rebellion, '61 to '5 Dr. Price took a firm stand for the government and just as soon as he could shake up his business he volunteered and was the first man to sign the roll of Company D 13th Iowa. On the organization of the company in October 1861, he was elected captain of the company, there was no opposition. He took the company to camp at Davenport and on the 21st day of October, 1861 the entire company was sworn into secret service and assigned as Co. D, in the 13th Iowa 2nd Infantry then being formed, Capt. Price with the company and regiment when not engaged otherwise by orders on detached service. His health failed so he was not able to march, he tendered his resignation which was accepted and on the 12th of November 1862. While Capt. Price was not a military drill master he looked strictly after the rights of his boys and was brave to a fault. Had his health permitted and he staid with the command he would soon have been promoted to a field position.

Capt. Price came home to Sigourney and took his old practice of medicine also spending much of his time in looking after the welfare of the families of the boys he left at home and many of those old soldiers hold Capt. Price in grateful remembrance for what he did for them and theirs. Capt. Price sold out his interest Danger of Colds and Grip. The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by G. T. NAMUR and WM. WELLER. May 1.
