

Standard Form For Members of the Legislature

Name of Representative Greenleaf, Daniel C. Senator _____ Represented Linn County

1. Birthday and place 21 Mar 1823 Switzerland County, Indiana

2. Marriage (s) date place
(1) Amanda Young Jul 1852
(2) Augustine V. Young Dec 1858

3. Significant events for example:

A. Business _____

B. Civic responsibilities _____

C. Profession Physician

4. Church membership Methodist Episcopal

5. Sessions served 5th General Assembly 1854

6. Public Offices

A. Local _____

B. State _____

C. National _____

7. Death 17 Mar 1897 Bloomfield, Iowa

8. Children Stephen; Eugene Jr. by first wife; Horace C.; Mattie; Lella; Gertrude; Ruth; Edmund; Daniel and Inez

9. Names of parents _____

10. Education

Educated in a log house schoolhouse in Switzerland County, Indiana; Greensburg Seminary

11. Degrees

University of Missouri, St. Louis, MO - MD degree

12. Other applicable information

- His*
- He grew to manhood in Switzerland County, Indiana.
  - He began studying medicine in 1844 with Dr. William Armstrong of Greensburg, Indiana.
  - While studying medicine he taught school; then traveled through the South and into Texas.
  - Military service - Mexican War - Co. D. 1st Texas Infantry where he served 5 months.
  - He returned home to medical studies.
  - He began practicing in 1848 in Shelbyville, Indiana.
  - He came to Bloomfield, Iowa and began practicing medicine, as well as opening the first drug store in Bloomfield.
  - Military service - Civil War - 4th Iowa Infantry, assistant surgeon promoted later to full surgeon.
  - His first wife, Amanda, died in 1857.
  - His wives were sisters.

ALL HORROR.

of Frank Penrod,
d to Death.

Frank Penrod, teamster le man for the Eldon ompany, at Laddsdale.
th Friday night of last Laddsdale were attending school exercises, when cry of fire was heard upied by Frank Penrod be on fire. As quickly ple gathered to suppress house was all on fire he children, aged about ears, were in the burn-thing further is known e fl. than was known at ve children who lost their s:

6.

girl and the baby were ie only remains found d bones. John and Ross he house alive, but lived The school house, where dest and youngest child school exercises at the ught fire, was but one om the Penrod home.
of fire was given the of the building, saw his erally wrapped in flames, abl o the ground, he e of the house and burst nd succeeding in pulling s from the bed, just inside re they slept. The others urther away, and before

Obituary.

After a lingering illness of several months, Dr. D. C. Greenleaf, died at his home in this city, Wednesday March 17, 1897.

Dr. Greenleaf was born March 21, 1823, in Switzerland county, Indiana, and there he grew to manhood, and was educated in the log school house, and Greenbug Seminary. Began the study of medicine in 1844, with Dr. Wm. Armington, of Greensburg, and during his studies he taught school and took a trip through the South, and into Texas before the annexation; went to Galveston and enlisted in Co. D, First Texas infantry, for the Mexican war, under Gen. Taylor's call, and served about five months; when he returned home to his medical studies, began practicing in 1848, at Shelbyville, Indiana, and in 1850, went to St. Louis and graduated from the medical department of the Unsversity of Missouri. He came to Bloomfield in the spring of 1850, and began practicing. He opened the first drug store here, and in 1859, went to St. Louis, and when the war broke out, he returned. In May 1863, he was appointed assistant surgeon, of the Fourth Iowa Infantry, and being promoted full surgeon, he remained with it till the close of the war, when he again returned to his practice. In 1855, he was elected to the legislature, as a Whig, and served his constituents with great credit, for one term. He was married in July 1852, to Miss Amanda Young, a native of Pennsylvania, who died in 1857, leaving two children, Stephen and Eugene Y. He was married again in December, 1858, to Augustine V., a sister of his first wife, and they have eight children, Horace C., Mattie, Della, Gertrude, Ruth, Edmund, Daniel and Inez.

Dr. Greenleaf was one of the oldest residents of this county, during all of which

PERSONAL

J. M. Smith made a short business to Pulaski Monday morning.

Palmer Trimble was in the city Mo transacting business.

I. S. Pepper and A. H. Boles wei Pulaski Friday visiting with friends.

J. M. Shaw, of Pulaski, was in the Thursday.

Kirk England and son, returned their eastern trip last Thursday.

J. H. Plank was in Cincinnati, I last Thursday attending to some i ance matters.

E. A. Duckworth, of Lancaster, souri, was in the city last Friday tling up taxes on his land in this co

Fred Allender returned from Ch the first of the week where he has be tending school.

Mrs. F. W. Eichelberger is in Se Missouri, this week visiting wit brother, Henry Pratt.

R. L. Hardy, J. A. Rominger and Dabney returned to Iowa City the f the week, after a short visit with folks.

J. G. Patterson, of Centerville, a M. Patterson, of Unionville, Missou tended the funeral of their father, Patterson, last Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Watson and daughter, zelle, who have been visiting in th several days returned to Ft. Mc Sunday evening. Mrs. Jennie C and Master Paul accompanied home.

Jehu J. Patterson.

The death of Jehu J. Patterson, residence of his daughter and s law, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Guernsey, i city on the evening of March 27, the passing away of one of the o respected citizens of Davis cour

... be reached the house fell in rash.
 ... and wife, the oldest son aged the babe are all that is left of a seven, who only a short time ago d t. hearts of the now bereaved

... is an employe of the Eldon Mining Co., and a Christian e and his wife are heart broken the deep sympathy of the entire ty.

... eral took place Wednesday af. all five being buried in one coffin. er, who has been sick more or inter, is prostrated with grief, a hich but few people have to bear. ption lists are being circulated usehold goods and clothing are the parents and the two surildren are left with only the they had on.

... we print the list of petit jurors pril term of court. The grand nai the same throughout the dge fee will preside at the com-

PETIT JURORS.

- erry.....Bloomfield
- nstrong.....Bloomfield
- y.....Bloomfield
- awkins.....Belknap
- npbell.....Mark
- unders.....Bloomfield
- avis.....White Elm
- llemberger.....Bloomfield
- get.....Troy
- les.....Bloomfield
- ler.....Ormanville
- wnsend.....Drakesville
- obard.....Coatsville
- ens.....Savannah
- ardy.....Drakesville
- rnell.....Pulaski
- leC nell.....Drakesville
- yburn.....Bloomfield
- on.....Bloomfield
- irk.....Bunch
- guson.....Bloomfield
- eggs.....Floris

... time he has been engaged in the practice of medicine. Besides being an excellent physician, he was an honored and upright citizen, and commanded the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

The funeral took place Friday from the family residence, conducted by Rev. F. W.
 Evans, of Des Moines, and Rev. T. B.
 Hughes, of the M. E. church, of Bloomfield, of which the deceased was a member.

NOTE. Owing to a misunderstanding as to who was to contribute the memorial notice for this paper, we were not permitted to publish it last week.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The Almighty Creator having been pleased out of his wisdom to remove our esteemed brother, D. C. Greenleaf, whose memory we revere and whose loss we deplore, from the cares, troubles, afflictions, suffering and sorrows of this transitory existence to a state of eternal duration; and Whereas The long and intimate relation we have held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in the Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons, renders it befitting that we record our appreciation of him and offer up before the world to his memory our last tribute of respect and thereby demonstrate the sincerity of our past esteem; therefore

Resolved, That we as a fraternity will miss his presence and wise council by which we have heretofore been benefitted and will ever be held in remembrance by the fraternity;

Resolved, That the removal of such a life from among us leaves a vacancy that will be deeply realized by all the members of the fraternity and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public;

Resolved, That with the deepest sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased, whose familiar footfall was a token of joy and whose kind words spread a halo of love about them, we express our hopes that even so great a loss to us all may be a message for good by him who doeth all things well

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge, a copy published in the local papers and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

T. A. DUNLAP,
 J. F. SCARBOROUGH,
 T. P. BENCE,
 Committee

... respected citizen J. Davis of Bloomfield, The event universal sentiment of esteem, for a life of many few faults. Sunday aftern eral was held in the Bapt which he was a member. I than full of citizens, who g out distinction as to den express by their presence, for the deceased and sym bereaved ones. The eulog ed by Rev. W. F. Laidley Rev T B. Hughes, of the

Mr. Patterson was bo Carolina in 1814. With early childhood, they rei nessee. Here the father d only about fourteen years boy rose to the demand of and bread winner for mother and smaller orpha He removed the family 1830 and from Illinois in to Lee county, and in 1 county where he has since farm, six miles south, and until the day of his death.

His beloved companion 1893. They now rest side beautiful cemetery north

Eight children all who were at his bedside durin ness. All that devoted unwearied care could do last days comfortable was surrounded the aged fathe close of life's day as the s clouded sky.

His christian life was in quiet enduring virtues th acterized him as a citizen He united with the North tist church in 1856 and wit in Bloomfield in 1880, and that from the altars of th lesson of his life should b from thence he should be last resting place.

The family of father Pat came a large family tree eight children thirteen