BONAPARTE CEMETERY

BONAPARTE TOWNSHIP, VAN BUREN COUNTY, IOWA

SECTION 7

This is a very old and very large cemetery, just west of the town of Bonaparte. It has a large gully going through it, with the older part of the cemetery on the near side of the gully. It is so deep that two bridges are needed to provide crossing. There are good graveled drives. The cemetery is kept up by volunteer labor, through the local cemetery committee. I was told that they raise money for the cause by having bake sales, etc. They are to be commended for the excellent way in which they care for this cemetery. The very old stones are in good condition. It is on high ground across the road from the river.

In this cemetery was found the only wooden marker in Van Buren County - marking the grave of Joseph Rabb.

NOTE:

Pages 57 through 63 of this cemetery are not included herein, but they may be found in possession of the Lee County Genealogical Society, Keokuk, Iowa, in the Library of the D.A.R., Washington, D. C. and in the Library of the Genealogical Society of the L.D.S. Church, 107 South Main, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Pages 57 through 63 are now in our possession.
