CONSIDERATION OF BILLS Regular Calendar

House Joint Resolution 8, a joint resolution requesting the proposal of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States imposing fiscal restraints upon and limiting the power and jurisdiction of the federal government.

WHEREAS, the founders of the Constitution of the United States empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against future abuses of power by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has ceased to live under a proper interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people, particularly for the generations to come, by proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States through a convention of the states under Article V of the Constitution for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power; NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

That the Congress of the United States is hereby petitioned to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, for submission to the states for ratification, to impose fiscal restraints on the federal government and limit the federal government's power and jurisdiction; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That, alternatively, pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States, the General Assembly, as the Legislature of the State of Iowa, makes application to the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the specific and exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, for submission to the states for ratification, to impose fiscal restraints on the federal government and limit the federal government's power and jurisdiction; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That if, within sixty days after the legislatures of two-thirds of the states make application for such convention, Congress proposes and submits to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which imposes fiscal restraints on the federal government and limits the federal government's power and jurisdiction, then this application for a convention shall no longer be of any force and effect; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the Constitution of the United States until the legislatures of at least two-thirds of the several states have made applications for a similar convention under Article V, or the Congress has proposed the amendments called for by this Joint Resolution, or the General Assembly acts to withdraw this application; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State shall transmit certified copies of this Joint Resolution to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the presiding officer in each house of the legislature in each of the states in the union, and to the members of Iowa's congressional delegation requesting their cooperation.

EXPLANATION

The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

This joint resolution constitutes a petition requesting the United States Congress to amend the United States Constitution, for submission to the states for ratification, to impose fiscal restraints on the federal government and limit the federal government's power and jurisdiction.

Alternatively, the joint resolution provides that pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, the Iowa General Assembly applies to the United States Congress to call a convention for the specific and exclusive purpose of proposing an amendment to the United States Constitution, for submission to the states for ratification, to impose fiscal restraints on the federal government and limit the federal government's power and jurisdiction.

Additionally, the joint resolution provides that if within 60 days after the legislatures of two-thirds of the states make application for such convention, Congress proposes and submits to the states for ratification an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which imposes fiscal restraints on the federal government and limits the federal government's power and jurisdiction, then the application for a convention shall no longer be of any force and effect.

Further, the joint resolution provides that it shall serve as a continuing application to call a constitutional convention until at least two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states have made application for a similar convention, or the Congress has proposed the amendments called for by the joint resolution, or the General Assembly withdraws the application.

Finally, the joint resolution requires the Secretary of State to transmit certified copies of the resolution to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the presiding officer in each house of the legislature in each of the states in the union, and the members of Iowa's congressional delegation, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up for consideration.

Windschitl of Harrison in the chair at 10:53 a.m.

Hagenow of Polk offered amendment H-1089 filed by him and moved its adoption.

Amendment H-1089 was adopted.

Hagenow of Polk moved that the joint resolution be read a last time now and placed upon its adoption and the joint resolution was read a last time.

On the question "Shall the joint resolution be adopted and agreed to?"
