HOUSE FILE WITHDRAWN

Windschitl of Harrison asked and received unanimous consent to withdraw House File 890 from further consideration by the House.

DISSENT FROM SENATE FILE 562

Speaker Grassley, Majority Leader Windschitl, and Minority Leader Prichard:

Article III Section 10 of the Constitution of the State of Iowa provides:

Protest – record of vote – Every member of the general assembly shall have the liberty to dissent from, or protest against any act or resolution which he may think injurious to the public, or an individual, and have the reasons for his dissent entered on the journals; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house, on any question, shall, at the desire of any two members present, be entered on the journals.

I have here a written statement explaining the reasons for my dissent.

Prior to July 1, 1973, one could not be convicted of rape solely upon the uncorroborated testimony of a complaining witness. Regardless how believable, a single witness's testimony could not support a conviction. The complaining witness's testimony had to “...be corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense.” Iowa Code § 782.4 (1973).

When the corroboration requirement was eliminated effective July 1, 1973, the statute of limitations for rape was eighteen months after its commission, regardless of the age of the complaining witness.

Since 1973, the statute of limitations for the crime of rape has been renamed sexual abuse and expanded numerous times. Not only has the statute of limitations been lengthened, but the statute has been amended, in part, to apply to complainants under the age of eighteen years.

Now, SF 562 eliminates the statute of limitations for sex abuse offenses committed on or with a minor (under the age of eighteen years) with the criminal proceeding being “...commenced at any time after the commission of the offense.”

It is this eradication of the statute of limitations that will be injurious to the public.

Because of the passage of time, an accused's ability to remember and defend will fade, if not disappear. An accused's denial alone will not be enough to rebut the complaining witness's believable, yet uncorroborated allegation.

In 1767 William Blackstone stated “the law holds that it is better that 10 guilty persons escape, than that 1 innocent suffer” or to paraphrase his doctrine, it is better for ten guilty persons to go free, than have one innocent person be convicted.

SF 562 has laid the groundwork for innocent people to be convicted.

Such a conviction would be an injustice and would be injurious to the citizens of Iowa.

Representative Rick L. Olson
House District 31
