8. No amendment to the rules of the house, to any resolution or bill, except technical amendments and amendments to bills substituted for by senate files containing substantially identical title, language, subject matter, purpose and intrasectional arrangement, shall be considered by the membership of the house without a copy of the amendment having been filed with the chief clerk by 4:00 p.m. or within one-half hour of adjournment, whichever is later, on the day preceding floor debate on the amendment. If the house adjourns prior to 2:00 p.m. on Friday, the final deadline is two hours after adjournment. However, committee amendments filed pursuant to the submission of the committee report may be accepted after this deadline. This provision shall not apply to any proposal debated on the floor of the house after the thirteenth week of the first session and the twelfth week of the second session. No amendment or amendment to an amendment to a bill, rule of the house, or resolution shall be considered by the membership of the house without a copy of the amendment being on the desks of the entire membership of the house prior to consideration. However, the membership of the house may consider an amendment or an amendment to an amendment to a bill, rule of the house, or resolution without a copy of the amendment being on the desks of the entire membership of the house prior to consideration if a copy of the amendment is made available to the entire membership of the house electronically.

The cost of printing shall be deposited with the treasurer of state in advance at a rate to be fixed, and the newspaper publication of the bill shall be without cost to the state. No legalizing act may be introduced until all provisions of law have been complied with.

Rule 61
Committee Public Hearings

The chair of a committee may call a public hearing for the purpose of receiving public comment on any matter within the purview of the committee.

The chair shall call a public hearing upon the written request of committee members according to committee rules, but no more than one-third of the committee members shall be required.

A public hearing shall not be called or requested after final action on the bill, joint resolution, or nullification resolution has been taken by the committee. However, a public hearing called or requested before final action has been taken by the committee may be held after final action on the bill, joint resolution, or nullification resolution has been taken by the committee.

The chair shall designate a time and place for a public hearing and provide public notice at least five days prior to a public hearing.

A bill, joint resolution, or nullification resolution for which a public hearing has been called can be voted to the calendar but cannot be debated until after the public hearing has been held. If a bill, joint resolution, or nullification resolution for which a public hearing has been called is not debated by the house during the session in which it is introduced, the request for the public hearing is deemed to have lapsed upon adjournment sine die of that session.

Amendments shall be considered by earliest position in the bill. Amendments to the same place in the bill shall be considered by the lowest amendment number. An amendment which inserts language after a line and an amendment which inserts language before the succeeding line shall be considered amendments to the same place in the bill.

However, an amendment to strike the enacting clause shall always be considered first. An amendment filed by a committee shall have the next highest order of priority, followed by an amendment to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new language. An amendment to strike language or to strike and insert new language, except an amendment to strike everything after the enacting clause and insert new language, shall not be considered before amendments to perfect all or part of the same portion of the bill.

2. A motion to reconsider may be made not later than adjournment on the legislative day following the legislative day of the action sought to be reconsidered. Where the floor manager voted on the prevailing side, the floor manager has the prior right to make the motion, until adjournment on the legislative day of the action sought to be reconsidered. Members present may cast their votes, either by operating the voting mechanism located at their assigned desk or by signaling the speaker from the floor of the house or from the south visitors' gallery if they are unable to vote at their assigned desk. Only a member may operate the voting mechanism at that member's assigned desk. The speaker shall announce the votes of members signaling their votes. Upon direction of the speaker only those members at their desks and voting shall be counted. Members who are not present shall not cast their votes except:

1. Members who have not voted may record their votes on any record roll call vote except quorum calls within ten minutes after the outcome of the vote has been announced. Members shall initial their recorded votes on a copy of the record roll call at the speaker's station. However, if the aggregate of votes cast under this rule would change the outcome of the vote on a question, then none of the votes cast on the question under this rule shall be recorded. A member may request announcement of the names of members so recorded after the ten-minute period.

2. Members meeting in a conference committee or in administrative rules review committee at the time a vote is taken on a question may have their vote recorded within thirty minutes or adjournment, whichever is first, of that same legislative day, provided the aggregate of votes cast does not change the outcome of the vote on a question.

Rule 75Voting in the House and Duty of Voting

Voting on a question put to members on the floor of the house shall not occur between midnight and 8 a.m. on any legislative day except for voting on a motion to recess, defer, or adjourn. Except as limited in Rule 76, every member who is in the house when a question is put shall vote unless the house has excused that member from voting for special reasons; however, such member must have asked to be excused from voting prior to the time the speaker puts the question.

Rule 76Limitation on Right to Vote

No member shall vote on any question in which the member or the member's immediate family member, as defined in chapter 68B of the Code, has a direct financial interest different from other similarly situated persons or classes of persons of the general public.

Rule 77Call of the House

Upon written request of five members, the presiding officer shall compel attendance of absent and unexcused members for the consideration of specified bills, resolutions, or amendments.

A call of the house shall specify the propositions to which it is to apply and must be put into effect before roll call is taken on the proposition. The request may be filed with the chief clerk at any time before final action upon the propositions, who shall notify the house immediately.

Rule 78Method of Calling the House

Upon a call of the house, the names of the members shall be called by the chief clerk and the absentees noted, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called. The sergeant-at-arms shall be directed by the speaker to compel the attendance of absent members, unless they are previously excused. Any member occupying the member's seat during a call of the house shall be counted by the speaker and that person's name entered in the journal as being present for the purpose of making a quorum.

Rule 79
Method of Calling the Roll

The electrical voting machine shall be used for a call of the house, a quorum call or a roll call vote on any question. If the electrical voting machine is not in operating order when it is necessary to take a record roll call vote, the presiding officer shall order the vote to be taken by calling the roll in alphabetical order, except the name of the presiding officer shall be called last.

During the casting of the vote with the voting machine, the individual votes and the vote totals shall be shown on the display boards. Before the voting machine is closed, the presiding officer shall inquire of the house, "Have you all voted?"

Rule 80
Quorum and Record Roll Call Votes

Previous Question

When a member moves for the previous question, the member shall state whether the motion will apply to the main question, to all the amendments, or to particular amendments. The motion requires an affirmative vote of at least a constitutional majority of the members. If the motion for a previous question is not adopted, the house shall proceed in the same manner as before the motion was made.

If the motion is adopted, all debate must end and the house will vote upon the question except:

1. If the motion applies to the main question, the member in charge of the measure will have ten minutes to speak for the purpose of closing discussion before the vote on the measure is taken.
2. If the motion applies to an amendment, the member proposing the amendment will have five minutes to speak for the purpose of closing discussion before the vote on the amendment is taken.
3. If a member has filed a written request with the chief clerk of the house indicating the member's desire to speak on a particular question. The request must be filed before the motion is made by the movant. The request allows a member to speak on a particular question before the closing discussion by the member who is in charge of the measure or who is proposing the amendment.

Rule 82
Division of the Question

Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends questions so distinct that one being taken away, the remainder may stand separately for discussion by the house. Upon request to divide an amendment, the chief clerk shall restate the division and note the divided amendment in the house journal. An amendment to strike out being lost shall not preclude an amendment to strike out and insert. An amendment to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible.
