In making the determination of a person's ability to pay for the cost of an attorney, the court shall consider the person's income and the availability of any assets subject to execution, including but not limited to cash, stocks, bonds, and any other property which may be applied to the satisfaction of judgments, and the nature and complexity of the case.

Sec. 3. Section 600A.6, subsection 3, Code 2005, is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

NEW PARAGRAPH. c. A statement that the person against whom a proceeding for termination of parental rights is brought shall have the right to counsel pursuant to section 600A.6A.

- a. The person requests appointment of counsel.
- b. The person is indigent.
- c. The court determines both of the following:

(2) The person has a colorable defense to the termination of parental rights, or there are substantial reasons that make termination of parental rights inappropriate.

attorney shall be paid reasonable attorney fees as determined by the state public defender.

Notwithstanding section 8.33, unencumbered and unobligated receipts in the revolving fund at the end of a fiscal year do not revert to the general fund of the state. The judicial branch shall on or before February 1 file a financial accounting of the moneys in the revolving fund with the legislative services agency. The accounting shall include an estimate of disbursements from the revolving fund for the remainder of the fiscal year and for the next fiscal year.

Sec. 7. Section 602.8102, subsection 133, Code 2005, is amended by striking the subsection.
