Sec. 30. NEW SECTION. 489.208A Withdrawal of filed record before effectiveness.

1. Except as otherwise provided in sections 489.1024, 489.1034, 489.1044, and 489.1054, a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing may be withdrawn before it takes effect by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of withdrawal.

2. A statement of withdrawal must comply with all of the following:

a. Be signed by each person that signed the record being withdrawn, except as otherwise agreed by those persons.

b. Identify the record to be withdrawn.

c. If signed by fewer than all the persons that signed the record being withdrawn, state that the record is withdrawn in accordance with the agreement of all the persons that signed the record.

3. On filing by the secretary of state of a statement of withdrawal, the action or transaction evidenced by the original record does not take effect.

Sec. 31. Section 489.209, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.209 Biennial report for secretary of state.

1. A limited liability company or a foreign limited liability company ~~authorized~~ registered to ~~transact~~ do business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a biennial report that states all of the following:

a. The name of the company.

b. The street address of the company's registered office, the name of its registered agent at that office, and the consent of any new registered agent.

c. The street address of its principal office.

d. In the case of a foreign limited liability company, the state or other jurisdiction under whose law the foreign company is formed and any alternate name adopted under section 489.805, subsection 1.

2. Information in a biennial report under this section must be current as of the date the report is delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The report shall be executed on behalf of the limited liability company or foreign limited liability company and signed as provided in section 489.203.

3. The first biennial report ~~under this section~~ in this state must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 1 of the first odd-numbered year following the calendar year in which a limited liability company was formed or a foreign limited liability company was ~~authorized~~ registered to ~~transact~~ do business. A subsequent biennial report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 1 of each following odd-numbered calendar year. A filing fee for the biennial report shall be determined by the secretary of state pursuant to section 489.117. Each biennial report shall contain information related to the two-year period immediately preceding the calendar year in which the report is filed.

4. If a biennial report does not contain the information required in this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting limited liability company or foreign limited liability company in writing and return the report to it for correction.

5. The secretary of state may provide for the change of registered office or registered agent on the form prescribed by the secretary of state for the biennial report, provided that the form contains the information required in section 489.114. If the secretary of state determines that a biennial report does not contain the information required in this section but otherwise meets the requirements of section 489.114 for the purpose of changing the registered office or registered agent, the secretary of state shall file the statement of change for the registered office or registered agent, effective as provided in ~~section 489-205~~ 489.207, subsection 3, before returning the biennial report to the limited liability company as provided in this section. A statement of change of registered office or registered agent accomplished pursuant to this subsection shall be executed by a person authorized to execute the biennial report.

Sec. 32. NEW SECTION. 489.210 Duty of secretary of state to file — review of refusal to file — delivery of record by secretary of state.

1. The secretary of state shall file a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing which satisfies this chapter. The duty of the secretary of state under this section is ministerial.

2. When the secretary of state files a record, the secretary of state shall record it as filed on the date and at the time of its delivery. After filing a record, the secretary of state shall deliver to the person that submitted the record a copy of the record with an acknowledgment of the date and time of filing and, in the case of a statement of denial, also to the limited liability company to which the statement pertains.

3. If the secretary of state refuses to file a record, the secretary of state shall, not later than fifteen business days after the record is delivered, do all of the following:

a. Return the record or notify the person that submitted the record of the refusal.

b. Provide a brief explanation in a record of the reason for the refusal.

4. If the secretary of state refuses to file a record, the person that submitted the record may petition the district court of Polk county to compel filing of the record. The record and the explanation of the secretary of state of the refusal to file must be attached to the petition. The court may decide the matter in a summary proceeding. If the court orders the record to be filed, the court may order it filed with an effective date that is the date on which it was submitted to the secretary of state for filing.

5. The filing of or refusal to file a record does not do any of the following:

a. Affect the validity or invalidity of the record in whole or in part.

b. Create a presumption that the information contained in the record is correct or incorrect.

6. Except as otherwise provided by section 489.116 or by law other than this chapter, the secretary of state may deliver any record to a person by delivering it by any of the following:

a. In person to the person that submitted it.

b. To the address of the person's registered agent.

c. To the principal office of the person.

d. To another address the person provides to the secretary of state for delivery.

Sec. 33. Section 489.302, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.302 Statement of limited liability company authority.

1. A limited liability company may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of authority. All of the following apply to the statement:

a. It must include the name of the limited liability company and the name and street address and mailing addresses of its ~~principal office~~ registered agent.

b. With respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the limited liability company, it may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the position to do any of the following:

(1) ~~Execute~~ Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the limited liability company.

(2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the limited liability company.

c. It may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to do any of the following:

(1) ~~Execute~~ Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the limited liability company.

(2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the limited liability company.

2. To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed by the secretary of state under ~~section 489.205, subsection 1~~, a limited liability company must deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment or cancellation stating all of the following:

a. The name of the limited liability company.

b. The name and street address and mailing addresses of the limited liability company's ~~principal office~~ registered agent.

c. ~~The caption of the statement being amended or canceled and the date the statement being affected became effective.~~

d. The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement ~~being affected~~ is canceled.

3. A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a limited liability company to persons that are not members.

4. Subject to subsection 3 and section 489.103, subsection 4, and except as otherwise provided in subsections 6, 7, and 8, a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge or notice of the limitation ~~by any person~~.

5. Subject to subsection 3, a grant of authority not pertaining to a transfer of real property and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person gives value, any of the following applies:

a. The person has knowledge to the contrary.

b. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2.

c. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.

6. Subject to subsection 3, an effective statement of authority that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of the limited liability company ~~and that, a certified copy of which statement~~ is recorded by ~~certified copy~~ in the office for recording transfers of the real property, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value, any of the following applies:

a. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2 and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real property.

b. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective, and a certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real property.

7. Subject to subsection 3, if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability company is recorded in the office for recording transfers of that real property, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

8. Subject to subsection 9, an effective statement of dissolution or a statement of termination is a cancellation of any filed statement of authority for the purposes of subsection 6 and is a limitation on authority for the purposes of subsection 7.

9. After a statement of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may deliver to the secretary of state for filing and, if appropriate, the secretary of state may record a statement of authority that is designated as a post-dissolution statement of authority. The statement operates as provided in subsections 6 and 7.

10. A statement of authority filed by the secretary of state under ~~section 489.205~~ 489.207, subsection 1, is effective until amended or canceled as provided in subsection 2, unless an earlier cancellation date is specified in the statement.

11. An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and may be recorded by certified copy for the purposes of subsection 6, paragraph "a".

Sec. 34. Section 489.304, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.304 Liability of members and managers.

1. ~~For debts, obligations, or other liabilities~~ A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited liability company, ~~whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise~~ all of the following apply: is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the company. A member or manager is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the company solely by reason of being or acting as a member or manager. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the company.

~~a. They are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company.~~

~~b. They do not become the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a member or manager solely by reason of the member acting as a member or manager acting as a manager.~~

2. The failure of a limited liability company to observe ~~any particular~~ formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on ~~the members~~ a member or ~~managers~~ manager for ~~the debts, obligations,~~ a debt, obligation, or ~~other liabilities~~ liability of the company.

Sec. 35. Section 489.401, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.401 Becoming member.

1. If a limited liability company is to have only one member upon formation, ~~a the person becomes the a member as agreed by that person and the organizer of the company or a majority of organizers if more than one.~~ That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If different, the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.

2. If a limited liability company is to have more than one member upon formation, those persons become members as agreed by the persons before the formation of the company. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and may be, but need not be, one of the persons.

3. ~~If a limited liability company has no members upon formation, a person becomes a member of the limited liability company with the consent of the organizer or a majority of the organizers if more than one. The organizers may consent to more than one person simultaneously becoming the company's initial members~~ After formation of a limited liability company, a person becomes a member according to any of the following:

a. As provided in the operating agreement.

b. As the result of a transaction effective under subchapter X.

c. With the affirmative vote or consent of all the members.

d. As provided in section 489.701, subsection 1, paragraph "c".

4. ~~After formation of a limited liability company, a person becomes a member upon~~ A person may become a member without any of the following:

a. As provided in the operating agreement Acquiring a transferable interest.

b. As the result of a transaction effective under article 10 Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.

~~c. With the consent of all the members.~~

~~d. If, within ninety consecutive days after the company ceases to have any members, all of the following occur:~~

~~(1) The last person to have been a member, or the legal~~

~~representative of that person, designates a person to become a member.~~

~~(2) The designated person consents to become a member.~~

~~5. A person may become a member without acquiring a transferable interest and without making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.~~

Sec. 36. Section 489.402, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.402 Form of contribution.

A contribution may consist of ~~tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited liability company, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to contribute money or property, and contracts for services to be performed~~ property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to the limited liability company or an agreement to transfer property to, perform services for, or provide another benefit to the company.

Sec. 37. Section 489.403, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.403 Liability for contributions.

1. A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally. ~~If a person does not make a required contribution, the person or the person's estate is obligated to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made, at the option of the company.~~

2. ~~A creditor of a limited liability company which extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 may enforce the obligation~~ If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited liability company to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

~~consequence may take the form of reducing or eliminating the defaulting member's proportionate interest in a limited liability company, subordinating the member's interest to that of a nondefaulting member, a forced sale of the member's interest, forfeiture of the member's interest, the lending by other members of the amount necessary to meet the member's commitment, a fixing of the value of the member's interest by appraisal or by formula and redemption, or sale of the member's interest at such value or other penalty or consequence~~
The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the members. If a creditor of a limited liability company extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

489.404 Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

1. Any ~~distributions~~ distribution made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares among members and persons dissociated as members, except to the extent necessary to comply with any a transfer effective under section 489.502 and any charging order in effect under section 489.503.

2. A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company only if the limited liability company decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

3. A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in section 489.708, subsection 3 4, a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

4. If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution. However, the company's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the company by the member or a person dissociated as a member on whose account the distribution is made.

Sec. 39. Section 489.405, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.405 Limitations on distribution.

1. A limited liability company shall not make a distribution, including a distribution under section 489.708, if after the distribution any of the following applies:

a. The limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the company's activities and affairs.

b. The limited liability company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved, and wound up, ~~and terminated~~ at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution, and winding up, ~~and termination of members~~ up of members and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to ~~those~~ the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

2. A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection 1 on ~~financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting~~

~~practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances~~ any of the following:

a. Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances.

b. A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, the effect of a distribution under subsection 1 is measured as follows:

~~a. In the case of a distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a transferable interest in the company, as of the date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the company as defined in section 489.102, subsection 5, paragraph "a", as of the earlier of any of the following:~~

(1) The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited liability company.

(2) The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the limited liability company in return for the distribution.

b. In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed.

~~b. c.~~ In all other cases, as follows any of the following:

(1) The date that the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within not later than one hundred twenty days after that date.

(2) The date that the payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the distribution is authorized.

4. A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the company's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

5. A limited liability company's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued ~~in connection with or as part of~~ as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection 1 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest ~~are~~ is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made ~~to members~~ under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest ~~on the indebtedness~~ is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

6. ~~In subsection 1, "distribution" does not include amounts constituting reasonable compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits program~~ In measuring the effect of a distribution under section 489.708, the liabilities of a dissolved limited liability company do not include any claim that has been disposed of under section 489.703, 489.704, or 489.706A.

Sec. 40. Section 489.406, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.406 Liability for improper distributions.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or a manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made in violation of section 489.405 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 489.409, the member or manager is personally liable to the company for the amount of the distribution ~~that~~ which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of section 489.405.

2. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in subsection 1 applies to the other members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

3. A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution ~~to that person was made in violation of~~ violated section 489.405 is personally liable to the limited liability company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 489.405.

4. A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection 1 may do all of the following:

a. Implead any other person that is ~~subject to liability~~ liable under subsection 1 and seek to ~~compel~~ enforce a right of contribution from the person.

b. Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection 3 and seek to ~~compel~~ enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection 3.

5. An action under this section is barred ~~if not~~ unless commenced within not later than two years after the distribution.

Sec. 41. Section 489.407, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.407 Management of limited liability company.

1. A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the operating agreement does any of the following:

a. Expressly provides that any of the following apply:

(1) The limited liability company is or will be "manager-managed".

(2) The limited liability company is or will be "managed by managers".

(3) Management of the limited liability company is or will be "vested in managers".

b. Includes words of similar import.

2. In a member-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

a. ~~The~~ Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the management and conduct of the limited liability company are vested in the members.

b. Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

c. A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company may be decided by a majority of the members.

~~d. An act outside the ordinary course of the activities~~

~~of the company, including selling, leasing, exchanging, or otherwise disposing of all, or substantially all, of the company's property, with or without the goodwill, may be undertaken only with the consent of all members~~ The affirmative vote or consent of all the members is required to do any of the following:

(1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited liability company's property, with or without good will, outside the ordinary course of the company's activities.

(2) Undertake an act outside the ordinary course of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company.

(3) Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subchapter X.

(4) Amend the operating agreement.

~~e. The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.~~

3. In a manager-managed limited liability company, all of the following rules apply:

a. Except as ~~otherwise~~ expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the limited liability company is decided exclusively by the ~~managers~~ manager, or, if there is more than one manager, by a majority of the managers.

b. Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company.

~~c. A difference arising among managers as to a matter in the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the managers.~~

~~d.~~ c. The affirmative vote or consent of all members is required to do any of the following:

(1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited liability company's property, with or without the goodwill, outside the ordinary course of the company's activities.

(2) ~~Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under~~ article 10 Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the limited liability company's activities and affairs.

~~(3) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the company's activities~~ Approve a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication under subchapter X.

(4) Amend the operating agreement.

~~e.~~ d. A manager may be chosen at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote or consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

~~f.~~ e. A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.

~~g.~~ f. A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the person incurred while a manager.

4. An action requiring the vote or consent of members under this chapter may be taken without a meeting, and a member may appoint a proxy or other agent to vote, consent, or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, personally or by the member's agent.

5. The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in management as a member and a manager.

6. ~~This chapter does not entitle a member to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of the company~~ A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to the company beyond the amount of capital the member agreed to contribute.

7. A payment or advance made by a member which gives rise to a limited liability company obligation under subsection 6 or section 489.408, subsection 1, constitutes a loan to the company which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

8. A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

Sec. 42. Section 489.407A, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.407A Real estate interest transferred by limited liability company or foreign limited liability company.

1. A transfer of an interest in real estate situated in this state held by a limited liability company or a registered foreign limited liability company authorized to ~~transact~~ do business in this state is subject to the provisions of this section.

2. a. In a member-managed limited liability company, a transfer of an interest in real estate held by the company may be undertaken by any of the following:

(1) As provided in the operating agreement, or if the operating agreement does not so provide, only with the consent of all members.

(2) As provided in a statement of authority filed by the limited liability company with the secretary of state and the recorder of the county where the real estate is situated pursuant to section 489.302.

b. A requirement of paragraph "a" is applicable to every transfer of an interest in real estate situated in this state held by a member-managed limited liability company, whether or not the transfer is in the ordinary course of the company's business.

3. a. In a manager-managed limited liability company, a transfer of an interest in real estate held by the company may be undertaken by any of the following:

(1) As provided in the operating agreement, or if the operating agreement does not so provide, only with the consent of a majority of all managers.

(2) As provided in a statement of authority filed by the limited liability company with the secretary of state and the recorder of the county where the real estate is situated

2. If a registered foreign limited liability company changes its name after registration to a name that does not comply with section 489.108, it shall not do business in this state until it complies with subsection 1 by amending its registration statement to adopt an alternate name that complies with section 489.108.

Sec. 72. NEW SECTION. 489.907 Withdrawal of registration of registered foreign limited liability company.

1. A registered foreign limited liability company may withdraw its registration by delivering a statement of withdrawal to the secretary of state for filing. The statement of withdrawal must be signed by the foreign limited liability company and state all of the following:

a. The name of the foreign limited liability company and its jurisdiction of formation.

b. That the foreign limited liability company is not doing business in this state and that it withdraws its registration to do business in this state.

c. That the foreign limited liability company revokes the authority of its registered agent in this state.

d. An address to which process on the foreign limited liability company may be sent by the secretary of state under section 489.116, subsection 3.

2. After the withdrawal of the registration of a foreign limited liability company, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in section 489.116.

Sec. 73. NEW SECTION. 489.908 Deemed withdrawal upon domestication or conversion to certain domestic entities.

A registered foreign limited liability company that domesticates to a domestic limited liability company or converts to a domestic business corporation or domestic nonprofit corporation or any type of domestic filing entity or to a domestic limited liability partnership is deemed to have withdrawn its registration on the effectiveness of such event.

Sec. 74. NEW SECTION. 489.909 Withdrawal upon dissolution or conversion to certain nonfiling entities.

1. A registered foreign limited liability company that has dissolved and completed winding up or has converted to a domestic or foreign nonfiling entity other than a limited liability partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of withdrawal. The statement must be signed by the dissolved foreign limited liability company or the converted domestic or foreign nonfiling entity and state:

a. In the case of a foreign limited liability company that has completed winding up all of the following:

(1) Its name and jurisdiction of formation.

(2) That the foreign limited liability company withdraws its registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf.

(3) An address to which process on the foreign limited liability company may be sent by the secretary of state under section 489.116, subsection 3.

b. In the case of a foreign limited liability company that has converted to a domestic or foreign nonfiling entity other than a limited liability partnership, all of the following:

(1) The name of the converting foreign limited liability company and its jurisdiction of formation.

(2) The type of the nonfiling entity to which it has converted and its name and jurisdiction of formation.

(3) That it withdraws its registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf.

(4) An address to which process on the foreign limited liability company may be sent by the secretary of state under section 489.116, subsection 3.

2. After the withdrawal of the registration of a foreign limited liability company, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in section 489.116.

Sec. 75. NEW SECTION. 489.910 Transfer of registration.

1. If a registered foreign limited liability company merges into a nonregistered foreign entity or converts to a foreign entity required to register with the secretary of state to do business in this state, the foreign entity shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a transfer of registration statement. The transfer of registration statement must be signed by the surviving or converted foreign entity and state all of the following:

a. The name of the registered foreign limited liability company and its jurisdiction of formation before the merger or conversion.

b. The name and type of the surviving or converted foreign entity and its jurisdiction of formation after the merger or conversion and, if the name does not comply with section 489.108, an alternate name adopted pursuant to section 489.906A.

c. All of the following information regarding the surviving or converted foreign entity after the merger or conversion:

(1) The street and mailing addresses of the principal office of the foreign entity and, if the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation requires it to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of that office.

(2) The street and mailing addresses of the place of business of the foreign entity's registered agent in this state and the name of its registered agent.

2. On the effective date of a transfer of registration statement as determined in accordance with section 489.207, the registration of the registered foreign limited liability company to do business in this state is transferred without interruption to the foreign entity into which it has merged or to which it has been converted.

Sec. 76. NEW SECTION. 489.911 Administrative termination of registration.

1. The secretary of state may terminate the registration of a registered foreign limited liability company in the manner provided in subsections 2 and 3, if any of the following applies:

a. The foreign limited liability company does not pay within sixty days after they are due any fees, taxes, interest, or penalties imposed by this chapter or other laws of this state.

b. The foreign limited liability company does not deliver its biennial report to the secretary of state within sixty days after it is due.

c. The foreign limited liability company is without a registered agent or its registered agent has no place of business in this state for sixty days or more.

d. The secretary of state has not been notified within sixty days that the foreign limited liability company's registered agent or the registered agent's place of business has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued.

2. The secretary of state may terminate the registration of a registered foreign limited liability company by doing all of the following:

a. Filing a certificate of termination.

b. Delivering a copy of the certificate of termination to the foreign company's registered agent or, if the foreign company does not have a registered agent, to the foreign company's principal office.

3. The certificate of termination must state all of the following:

a. The effective date of the termination, which must be not less than sixty days after the secretary of state delivers the copy of the certificate of termination as prescribed in subsection 2, paragraph "b".

b. The grounds for termination under subsection 1.

4. The registration of a registered foreign limited liability company to do business in this state ceases on the effective date of the termination as set forth in the certificate of termination, unless before that date the foreign company cures each ground for termination stated in the certificate of termination. If the foreign company cures each ground, the secretary of state shall file a statement that the certificate of termination is withdrawn.

5. After the effective date of the termination as set forth in the certificate of termination, service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the entity was registered to do business in this state may be made as provided in section 489.116.

Sec. 77. NEW SECTION. 489.911A Registration to do business in this state.

1. A foreign limited liability company shall not do business in this state until it registers with the secretary of state under this chapter.

2. A foreign limited liability company doing business in this state shall not maintain a proceeding in any court of this state until it is registered to do business in this state.

3. The failure of a foreign limited liability company to register to do business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign company or preclude it from defending a proceeding in this state.

4. A limitation on the liability of a member or manager of a foreign limited liability company is not waived solely because the foreign company does business in this state without registering.

5. Section 489.801, subsection 1, applies even if a foreign limited liability company fails to register under this subchapter.

Sec. 78. NEW SECTION. 489.911B Foreign registration statement.

1. To register to do business in this state, a foreign limited liability company shall deliver a foreign registration statement to the secretary of state for filing. The registration statement must be signed by the foreign company and state all of the following:

a. The name of the foreign limited liability company and, if the name does not comply with section 489.108, an alternate name as required by section 489.906A.

b. The foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation.

c. The street and mailing addresses of the foreign limited liability company's principal office and, if the law of the foreign company's jurisdiction of formation requires the foreign company to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of that required office.

d. The street and mailing addresses of the place of business of the foreign limited liability company's registered agent in this state and the name of its registered agent.

2. The foreign limited liability company shall deliver the completed foreign registration statement to the secretary of state, and also deliver to the secretary of state a certificate of existence or a document of similar import duly authenticated by the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law it is incorporated which is dated no earlier than ninety days prior to the date the application is filed by the secretary of state.

Sec. 79. NEW SECTION. 489.911C Amendment of foreign registration statement.

A registered foreign limited liability company shall sign and deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to its foreign registration statement if there is a change in any of the following:

1. Its name or alternate name.

2. Its jurisdiction of formation, unless its registration is deemed to have been withdrawn under section 489.908 or transferred under section 489.910.

3. An address required by section 489.911B, subsection 1, paragraph "c".

4. The information required by section 489.911B, subsection 1, paragraph "d".

Sec. 81. Section 489.1002, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1002 Relationship of subchapter to other laws.

1. This subchapter does not authorize an act prohibited by, and does not affect the application or requirements of, law other than this subchapter.

2. A transaction effected under this subchapter shall not create or impair a right, duty, or obligation of a person under the statutory law of this state other than this subchapter relating to a change in control, takeover, business combination, control-share acquisition, or similar transaction involving a domestic merging, acquired, converting, or domesticating business corporation unless any of the following applies:

a. If the corporation does not survive the transaction, the transaction satisfies any requirements of the law.

b. If the corporation survives the transaction, the approval of the plan is by a vote of the shareholders or directors which would be sufficient to create or impair the right, duty, or obligation directly under the law.

Sec. 82. Section 489.1003, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1003 Required notice or approval.

1. A domestic or foreign entity that is required to give notice to, or obtain the approval of, a governmental agency or officer of this state to be a party to a merger must give the notice or obtain the approval to be a party to an interest exchange, conversion, or domestication.

2. Property held for a charitable purpose under the law of this state by a domestic or foreign entity immediately before a transaction under this subchapter becomes effective may be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, devised, or otherwise transferred only to the extent a public benefit corporation is able to divert from such objects under chapter 504.

3. A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance which is made to a merging entity that is not the surviving entity and which takes effect or remains payable after the merger inures to the surviving entity.

4. A trust obligation that would govern property if transferred to a nonsurviving entity applies to property that is transferred to the surviving entity under this section.

Sec. 83. Section 489.1004, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1004 Nonexclusivity.

The fact that a transaction under this subchapter produces a certain result does not preclude the same result from being accomplished in any other manner permitted by law other than this subchapter.

Sec. 84. Section 489.1005, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1005 Reference to external facts.

1. A plan may refer to facts ascertainable outside the plan if the manner in which the facts will operate upon the plan is specified in the plan. The facts may include the occurrence of an event or a determination or action by a person, whether or not the event, determination, or action is within the control of a party to the transaction.

2. The following provisions of a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter or a plan delivered for filing in lieu of a statement shall not be made dependent on facts outside the record or plan:

a. The name and address of any person.

- b.* The registered office of any entity.
- c.* The registered agent of any entity.
- d.* The number of authorized interests and designation of each class or series of interests.
- e.* The effective date of a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing.
- f.* Any required statement in a record delivered to the secretary of state for filing of the date on which the underlying transaction was approved or the manner in which that approval was given.

Sec. 85. Section 489.1006, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1006 Appraisal rights.

An interest holder of a domestic merging, acquired, converting, or domesticating limited liability company is entitled to contractual appraisal rights in connection with a transaction under this subchapter to the extent provided in any of the following:

- 1. The operating agreement.
- 2. The plan.

Sec. 86. Section 489.1007, Code 2023, is amended by striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

489.1007 Excluded entities and transactions.

This subchapter shall not be used to effect a transaction involving a bank, insurance company, or public utility where any chapter governing the regulation of such entity does not permit the transaction.

Sec. 87. NEW SECTION. 489.1021 Merger authorized.

1. By complying with this part, all of the following apply:
a. One or more domestic limited liability companies may merge with one or more domestic or foreign entities into a domestic or foreign surviving entity.

b. Two or more foreign entities may merge into a domestic limited liability company.

2. By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign entities, a foreign entity may be a party to a merger under this part or may be the surviving entity in such a merger if the merger is authorized by the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 88. NEW SECTION. 489.1022 Plan of merger.

1. A domestic limited liability company may become a party to a merger under this part by approving a plan of merger. The plan must be in a record and contain all of the following:

a. As to each merging entity, its name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity.

b. If the surviving entity is to be created in the merger, a statement to that effect and the entity's name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity.

c. The manner of converting the interests in each party to the merger into interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.

d. If the surviving entity exists before the merger, any proposed amendments to all of the following:

(1) Its public organic record, if any.

(2) Its private organic rules that are, or are proposed to be, in a record.

e. If the surviving entity is to be created in the merger, all of the following:

(1) Its proposed public organic record, if any.

(2) The full text of its private organic rules that are proposed to be in a record.

f. The other terms and conditions of the merger.

g. Any other provision required by the law of a merging entity's jurisdiction of formation or the organic rules of a merging entity.

2. In addition to the requirements of subsection 1, a plan of merger may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

Sec. 89. NEW SECTION. 489.1023 Approval of merger.

1. A plan of merger is not effective unless it has been approved according to all of the following:

a. By a domestic merging limited liability company, by all the members of the company entitled to vote on or consent to any matter.

b. In a record, by each member of a domestic merging limited liability company which will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the merger becomes effective, unless all of the following apply:

(1) The operating agreement of the limited liability company provides in a record for the approval of a merger in which some or all of its members become subject to interest holder liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all the members.

(2) The member consented in a record to or voted for that provision of the operating agreement or became a member after the adoption of that provision.

2. A merger involving a domestic merging entity that is not a limited liability company is not effective unless the merger is approved by that entity in accordance with its organic law.

3. A merger involving a foreign merging entity is not effective unless the merger is approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 90. NEW SECTION. 489.1024 Amendment or abandonment of plan of merger.

1. A plan of merger may be amended only with the consent of each party to the plan, except as otherwise provided in the plan.

2. A domestic merging limited liability company may approve an amendment of a plan of merger according to any of the following:

a. In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended.

b. By its managers or members in the manner provided in the plan, but a member that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the merger is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change any of the following:

(1) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by the interest holders of any party to the plan.

(2) The public organic record, if any, or private organic rules of the surviving entity that will be in effect immediately after the merger becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the interest holders of the surviving entity under its organic law or organic rules.

(3) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

3. After a plan of merger has been approved and before a statement of merger becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic merging limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

4. If a plan of merger is abandoned after a statement of merger has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by a party to the plan, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of merger becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the merger is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain all of the following:

a. The name of each party to the plan of merger.

b. The date on which the statement of merger was filed by the secretary of state.

c. A statement that the merger has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

Sec. 91. NEW SECTION. 489.1025 Statement of merger — effective date of merger.

1. A statement of merger must be signed by each merging entity and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

2. A statement of merger must contain all of the following:

a. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of each merging entity that is not the surviving entity.

b. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the surviving entity, and if the surviving entity is a foreign entity, the street and mailing addresses of an office of the surviving entity that the secretary of state may use for purposes of section 489.1026, subsection 5.

c. A statement that the merger was approved by each domestic merging entity, if any, in accordance with this part and by each foreign merging entity, if any, in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation.

d. If the surviving entity exists before the merger and is a domestic filing entity, any amendment to its public organic record approved as part of the plan of merger.

e. If the surviving entity is created by the merger and is a domestic filing entity, its public organic record, as an attachment.

f. If the surviving entity is created by the merger and is a domestic limited liability partnership, its statement of qualification, as an attachment.

3. In addition to the requirements of subsection 2, a statement of merger may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

4. If the surviving entity is a domestic entity, its public organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.

5. If the surviving entity is a domestic limited liability company, the merger becomes effective when the statement of merger is effective. In all other cases, the merger becomes effective on the later of the following:

a. The date and time provided by the organic law of the surviving entity.

b. When the statement is effective.

Sec. 92. NEW SECTION. 489.1026 Effect of merger.

1. When a merger becomes effective, all of the following apply:

a. The surviving entity continues or comes into existence.

b. Each merging entity that is not the surviving entity ceases to exist.

c. All property of each merging entity vests in the surviving entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment.

d. All debts, obligations, and other liabilities of each merging entity are debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the surviving entity.

e. Except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of merger, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of each merging entity vest in the surviving entity.

f. If the surviving entity exists before the merger, all of the following apply:

(1) All its property continues to be vested in it without transfer, reversion, or impairment.

(2) It remains subject to all its debts, obligations, and other liabilities.

(3) All its rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes continue to be vested in it.

g. The name of the surviving entity may be substituted for the name of any merging entity that is a party to any pending action or proceeding.

h. If the surviving entity exists before the merger, all of the following apply:

(1) Its public organic record, if any, is amended to the extent provided in the statement of merger.

(2) Its private organic rules that are to be in a record, if any, are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger.

i. If the surviving entity is created by the merger, its private organic rules are effective and all of the following apply:

(1) If it is a filing entity, its public organic record becomes effective.

(2) If it is a limited liability partnership, its statement of qualification becomes effective.

j. The interests in each merging entity which are to be converted in the merger are converted, and the interest holders of those interests are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of merger and to any appraisal rights they have under section 489.1006 and the merging entity's organic law.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or organic rules of a merging entity, the merger does not give rise to any rights that an interest holder, governor, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the merging entity.

3. When a merger becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to any of the merging entities and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the merger has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of that entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the merger becomes effective.

4. When a merger becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic merging limited liability company with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

a. The merger does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the merger became effective.

b. The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the merger becomes effective.

c. This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the merger had not occurred.

d. The person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are provided by this chapter, law other than this chapter, or the operating agreement of the domestic merging limited liability company with respect to any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the merger had not occurred.

5. When a merger becomes effective, a foreign entity that is the surviving entity may be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a domestic merging limited liability company as provided in section 489.116.

6. When a merger becomes effective, the registration to do business in this state of any foreign merging entity that is not the surviving entity is canceled.

Sec. 93. NEW SECTION. 489.1031 Interest exchange authorized.

1. By complying with this part, any of the following apply:

a. A domestic limited liability company may acquire all of one or more classes or series of interests of another domestic entity or a foreign entity in exchange for interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.

b. All of one or more classes or series of interests of a domestic limited liability company may be acquired by another domestic entity or a foreign entity in exchange for interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.

2. By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign entities, a foreign entity may be the acquiring or acquired entity in an interest exchange under this part if the interest exchange is authorized by the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 94. NEW SECTION. 489.1032 Plan of interest exchange.

1. A domestic limited liability company may be the acquired entity in an interest exchange under this part by approving a plan of interest exchange. The plan must be in a record and contain all of the following:

- a.* The name of the acquired entity.
- b.* The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the acquiring entity.
- c.* The manner of converting the interests in the acquired entity into interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.
- d.* Any proposed amendments to all of the following:
 - (1) The certificate of organization of the acquired entity.
 - (2) The operating agreement of the acquired entity that are, or are proposed to be, in a record.
- e.* The other terms and conditions of the interest exchange.
- f.* Any other provision required by the law of this state or the operating agreement of the acquired entity.

2. In addition to the requirements of subsection 1, a plan of interest exchange may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

Sec. 95. NEW SECTION. 489.1033 Approval of interest exchange.

1. A plan of interest exchange is not effective unless it has been approved according to all of the following:

a. By all the members of a domestic acquired limited liability company entitled to vote on or consent to any matter.

b. In a record, by each member of the domestic acquired limited liability company that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective, unless all of the following apply:

(1) The operating agreement of the limited liability company provides in a record for the approval of an interest exchange or a merger in which some or all of its members become subject to interest holder liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all the members.

(2) The member consented in a record to or voted for that provision of the operating agreement or became a member after the adoption of that provision.

2. An interest exchange involving a domestic acquired entity that is not a limited liability company is not effective unless it is approved by the domestic entity in accordance with its organic law.

3. An interest exchange involving a foreign acquired entity is not effective unless it is approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

4. Except as otherwise provided in its organic law or organic rules, the interest holders of the acquiring entity are not required to approve the interest exchange.

Sec. 96. NEW SECTION. 489.1034 Amendment or abandonment of plan of interest exchange.

1. A plan of interest exchange may be amended only with the consent of each party to the plan, except as otherwise provided in the plan.

2. A domestic acquired limited liability company may approve an amendment of a plan of interest exchange according to any of the following:

a. In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended.

b. By its managers or members in the manner provided in the plan, but a member that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the interest exchange is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change any of the following:

(1) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by any of the members of the acquired company under the plan.

(2) The certificate of organization or operating agreement of the acquired company that will be in effect immediately after the interest exchange becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the members of the acquired company under this chapter or the operating agreement.

(3) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

3. After a plan of interest exchange has been approved and before a statement of interest exchange becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic acquired limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

4. If a plan of interest exchange is abandoned after a statement of interest exchange has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the acquired limited liability company, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of interest exchange becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the interest exchange is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain all of the following:

a. The name of the acquired limited liability company.

b. The date on which the statement of interest exchange was filed by the secretary of state.

c. A statement that the interest exchange has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

Sec. 97. NEW SECTION. 489.1035 Statement of interest exchange — effective date of interest exchange.

1. A statement of interest exchange must be signed by a domestic acquired limited liability company and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

2. A statement of interest exchange must contain all of the following:

a. The name of the acquired limited liability company.

b. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the acquiring entity.

c. A statement that the plan of interest exchange was approved by the acquired company in accordance with this part.

d. Any amendments to the acquired company's certificate of organization approved as part of the plan of interest exchange.

3. In addition to the requirements of subsection 2, a statement of interest exchange may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

4. An interest exchange becomes effective when the statement of interest exchange is effective.

Sec. 98. NEW SECTION. 489.1036 Effect of interest exchange.

1. When an interest exchange in which the acquired entity is a domestic limited liability company becomes effective, all of the following apply:

a. The interests in the acquired limited liability company which are the subject of the interest exchange are converted, and the members holding those interests are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of interest exchange and to any appraisal rights they have under section 486.1006.

b. The acquiring entity becomes the interest holder of the interests in the acquired limited liability company stated in the plan of interest exchange to be acquired by the acquiring entity.

c. The certificate of organization of the acquired limited liability company is amended to the extent provided in the statement of interest exchange.

d. The provisions of the operating agreement of the acquired limited liability company that are to be in a record, if any, are amended to the extent provided in the plan of interest exchange.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement of a domestic acquired limited liability company, the interest exchange does not give rise to any rights that a member, manager, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the acquired limited liability company.

3. When an interest exchange becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to a domestic acquired limited liability company and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the interest exchange has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective.

4. When an interest exchange becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic acquired limited liability company with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to all of the following rules:

a. The interest exchange does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the interest exchange became effective.

b. The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective.

c. This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the interest exchange had not occurred.

Sec. 99. NEW SECTION. 489.1041 Conversion authorized.

1. By complying with this part, a domestic limited liability company may become any of the following:

- a. A domestic entity that is a different type of entity.
- b. A foreign entity that is a different type of entity, if the conversion is authorized by the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

2. By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign entities, a foreign entity that is not a foreign limited liability company may become a domestic limited liability company if the conversion is authorized by the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

3. If a protected agreement contains a provision that applies to a merger of a domestic limited liability company but does not refer to a conversion, the provision applies to a conversion of the limited liability company as if the conversion were a merger until the provision is amended on or after January 1, 2009.

4. A domestic entity that is not a limited liability company may become a domestic limited liability company if all of the following apply:

- a. The domestic converting entity complies with section 489.1043.

- b. The domestic converting entity files a statement of conversion in accordance with section 489.1045.

Sec. 100. NEW SECTION. 489.1042 Plan of conversion.

1. A domestic limited liability company may convert to a different type of entity under this part by approving a plan of conversion. The plan must be in a record and contain all of the following:

- a. The name of the converting limited liability company.
- b. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converted entity.
- c. The manner of converting the interests in the converting limited liability company into interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.
- d. The proposed public organic record of the converted entity if it will be a filing entity.
- e. The full text of the private organic rules of the converted entity which are proposed to be in a record.

f. The other terms and conditions of the conversion.

g. Any other provision required by the law of this state or the operating agreement of the converting limited liability company.

2. In addition to the requirements of subsection 1, a plan of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

Sec. 101. NEW SECTION. 489.1043 Approval of conversion.

1. A plan of conversion is not effective unless it has been approved according to all of the following:

a. By a domestic converting limited liability company, by all the members of the limited liability company entitled to vote on or consent to any matter.

b. In a record, by each member of a domestic converting limited liability company which will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective, unless all of the following apply:

(1) The operating agreement of the limited liability company provides in a record for the approval of a conversion or a merger in which some or all of its members become subject to interest holder liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all the members.

(2) The member voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the operating agreement or became a member after the adoption of that provision.

2. A conversion involving a domestic converting entity that is not a limited liability company is not effective unless it is approved by the domestic converting entity in accordance with its organic law.

3. A conversion of a foreign converting entity is not effective unless it is approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law of the foreign entity's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 102. NEW SECTION. 489.1044 Amendment or abandonment of plan of conversion.

1. A plan of conversion of a domestic converting limited liability company may be amended according to any of the following:

a. In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended.

b. By its managers or members in the manner provided in the plan, but a member that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the conversion is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change any of the following:

(1) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by any of the members of the converting limited liability company under the plan.

(2) The public organic record, if any, or private organic rules of the converted entity which will be in effect immediately after the conversion becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the interest holders of the converted entity under its organic law or organic rules.

(3) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

2. After a plan of conversion has been approved by a domestic converting limited liability company and before a statement of conversion becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic converting limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

3. If a plan of conversion is abandoned after a statement of conversion has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the converting entity, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of conversion becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the conversion is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain all of the following:

a. The name of the converting limited liability company.

b. The date on which the statement of conversion was filed by the secretary of state.

c. A statement that the conversion has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

Sec. 103. NEW SECTION. 489.1045 Statement of conversion — effective date of conversion.

1. A statement of conversion must be signed by the converting entity and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

2. A statement of conversion must contain all of the following:

a. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converting entity.

b. The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converted entity and if the converted entity is a foreign entity, the street and mailing addresses of an office of the converted entity that the secretary of state may use for purposes of section 489.1046, subsection 5.

c. If the converting entity is a domestic limited liability company, a statement that the plan of conversion was approved in accordance with this part or, if the converting entity is a foreign entity, a statement that the conversion was approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation.

d. If the converted entity is a domestic filing entity, its public organic record, as an attachment.

e. If the converted entity is a domestic limited liability partnership, its statement of qualification, as an attachment.

3. In addition to the requirements of subsection 2, a statement of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

4. If the converted entity is a domestic entity, its public organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.

5. If the converted entity is a domestic limited liability company, the conversion becomes effective when the statement of conversion is effective. In all other cases, the conversion becomes effective on the later of the following:

a. The date and time provided by the organic law of the converted entity.

b. When the statement is effective.

Sec. 104. NEW SECTION. 489.1046 Effect of conversion.

1. When a conversion becomes effective all of the following apply:

a. The converted entity is any of the following:

(1) Organized under and subject to the organic law of the converted entity.

(2) The same entity without interruption as the converting entity.

b. All property of the converting entity continues to be vested in the converted entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment.

c. All debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converting entity continue as debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converted entity.

d. Except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of conversion, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the converting entity remain in the converted entity.

e. The name of the converted entity may be substituted for the name of the converting entity in any pending action or proceeding.

f. The certificate of organization of the converted entity becomes effective.

g. The provisions of the operating agreement of the converted entity which are to be in a record, if any, approved as part of the plan of conversion become effective.

h. The interests in the converting entity are converted, and the interest holders of the converting entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of conversion and to any appraisal rights they have under section 489.1006.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement of a domestic converting limited liability company, the conversion does not give rise to any rights that a member, manager, or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the converting entity.

3. When a conversion becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the converting entity and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the conversion has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

4. When a conversion becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic converting limited liability company with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to all of the following rules:

a. The conversion does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the conversion became effective.

b. The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that arises after the conversion becomes effective.

c. This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the conversion had not occurred.

d. The person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are provided by this chapter, law other than this chapter, or the organic rules of the converting entity with respect to any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the conversion had not occurred.

5. When a conversion becomes effective, a foreign entity that is the converted entity may be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and other liabilities as provided in section 489.116.

6. If the converting entity is a registered foreign entity, its registration to do business in this state is canceled when the conversion becomes effective.

7. A conversion does not require the entity to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the entity.

Sec. 105. NEW SECTION. 489.1051 Domestication authorized.

1. By complying with this part, a domestic limited liability company may become a foreign limited liability company if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.

2. By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign limited liability companies, a foreign limited liability company may become a domestic limited liability company if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 106. NEW SECTION. 489.1052 Plan of domestication.

1. A domestic limited liability company may become a foreign limited liability company in a domestication by approving a plan of domestication. The plan must be in a record and contain all of the following:

- a.* The name of the domesticating limited liability company.
- b.* The name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated limited liability company.
- c.* The manner of converting the interests in the domesticating limited liability company into interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing.
- d.* The proposed certificate of organization of the domesticated limited liability company.
- e.* The full text of the provisions of the operating agreement of the domesticated limited liability company that are proposed to be in a record.
- f.* The other terms and conditions of the domestication.
- g.* Any other provision required by the law of this state or the operating agreement of the domesticating limited liability company.

2. In addition to the requirements of subsection 1, a plan of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

Sec. 107. NEW SECTION. 489.1053 Approval of domestication.

1. A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating limited liability company is not effective unless it has been approved according to any of the following:

a. By all the members entitled to vote on or consent to any matter.

b. In a record, by each member that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective, unless all of the following apply:

(1) The operating agreement of the domesticating limited liability company in a record provides for the approval of a domestication or merger in which some or all of its members become subject to interest holder liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all the members.

(2) The member voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the operating agreement or became a member after the adoption of that provision.

2. A domestication of a foreign domesticating limited liability company is not effective unless it is approved in accordance with the law of the foreign limited liability company's jurisdiction of formation.

Sec. 108. NEW SECTION. 489.1054 Amendment or abandonment of plan of domestication.

1. A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating limited liability company may be amended according to any of the following:

a. In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended.

b. By its managers or members in the manner provided in the plan, but a member that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the domestication is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change any of the following:

(1) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by any of the members of the domesticating limited liability company under the plan.

(2) The certificate of organization or operating agreement of the domesticated limited liability company that will be in effect immediately after the domestication becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the members of the domesticated limited liability company under its organic law or operating agreement.

(3) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the member in any material respect.

2. After a plan of domestication has been approved by a domestic domesticating limited liability company and before a statement of domestication becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic domesticating limited liability company may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

3. If a plan of domestication is abandoned after a statement of domestication has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the domesticating limited liability company, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of domestication becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain all of the following:

- a. The name of the domesticating limited liability company.
- b. The date on which the statement of domestication was filed by the secretary of state.
- c. A statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

Sec. 109. NEW SECTION. 489.1055 Statement of domestication — effective date of domestication.

1. A statement of domestication must be signed by the domesticating limited liability company and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

2. A statement of domestication must contain all of the following:

- a. The name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticating limited liability company.
- b. The name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated limited liability company and the street and mailing addresses of an office of the domesticated limited liability company that the secretary of state may use for purposes of section 489.1056, subsection 5.

c. If the domesticating limited liability company is a domestic limited liability company, a statement that the plan of domestication was approved in accordance with this part or, if the domesticating limited liability company is a foreign limited liability company, a statement that the domestication was approved in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation.

d. The certificate of organization of the domesticated limited liability company, as an attachment.

3. In addition to the requirements of subsection 2, a statement of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

4. The certificate of organization of a domestic domesticated limited liability company must satisfy the requirements of this chapter, but the certificate does not need to be signed.

5. If the domesticated entity is a domestic limited liability company, the domestication becomes effective when the statement of domestication is effective. If the domesticated entity is a foreign limited liability company, the domestication becomes effective on the later of all of the following:

a. The date and time provided by the organic law of the domesticated entity.

b. When the statement is effective.

Sec. 110. NEW SECTION. 489.1056 Effect of domestication.

1. When a domestication becomes effective, all of the following apply:

a. The domesticated entity is all of the following:

(1) Organized under and subject to the organic law of the domesticated entity.

(2) The same entity without interruption as the domesticating entity.

b. All property of the domesticating entity continues to be vested in the domesticated entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment.

c. All debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the domesticating entity continue as debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the domesticated entity.

d. Except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of domestication, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the domesticating entity remain in the domesticated entity.

e. The name of the domesticated entity may be substituted for the name of the domesticating entity in any pending action or proceeding.

f. The certificate of organization of the domesticated entity becomes effective.

g. The provisions of the operating agreement of the domesticated entity that are to be in a record, if any, approved as part of the plan of domestication become effective.

h. The interests in the domesticating entity are converted to the extent and as approved in connection with the domestication, and the members of the domesticating entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of domestication and to any appraisal rights they have under section 489.1006.

2. Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or operating agreement of the domesticating limited liability company, the domestication does not give rise to any rights that a member, manager, or third party would otherwise have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the domesticating company.

3. When a domestication becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating limited liability company and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic limited liability company as a result of the domestication has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by this chapter and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective.

4. When a domestication becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic domesticating limited liability company with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to all of the following rules:

a. The domestication does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the domestication became effective.

b. A person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the domestication becomes effective.

c. This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the domestication had not occurred.

d. A person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are provided by this chapter, law other than this chapter, or the operating agreement of the domestic domesticating limited liability company with respect to any interest holder liability preserved under paragraph "a" as if the domestication had not occurred.

5. When a domestication becomes effective, a foreign limited liability company that is the domesticated company may be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and other liabilities as provided in section 489.116.

6. If the domesticating limited liability company is a registered foreign entity, the registration of the limited liability company is canceled when the domestication becomes effective.

7. A domestication does not require a domestic domesticating limited liability company to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the limited liability company.

Sec. 111. Section 489.1101, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

w. Marital and family therapy or mental health counseling, provided that the marital and family therapist or mental health counselor is licensed under chapters 147 and 154D.

x. Social work, provided that the social worker is licensed pursuant to chapter 147 and section 154C.3, subsection 1, paragraph "c".

5. "Professional limited liability company" means a limited liability company subject to this article subchapter, except a foreign professional limited liability company.

6. "Regulating board" means any board, commission, court, or governmental authority which, under the laws of this state, is charged with the licensing, registration, certification, admission to practice, or other legal authorization of the practitioners of any profession.

7. a. "Voluntary transfer" includes a sale, voluntary assignment, gift, pledge, or encumbrance; a voluntary change of legal or equitable ownership or beneficial interest; or a voluntary change of persons having voting rights with respect to any transferable interest, except as proxies.

b. "Voluntary transfer" does not include a transfer of an individual's interest in a limited liability company or other property to a guardian or conservator appointed for that individual or the individual's property.

Sec. 112. Section 489.1106, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1106 Professional regulation.

A professional limited liability company shall not be required to register with or to obtain any license, registration, certificate, or other legal authorization from a regulating board in order to practice a profession. Except as provided in this section, this article subchapter does not restrict or limit in any manner the authority or duties of any regulating board with respect to ~~individuals~~ an individual practicing a profession which is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board, even if the individual is a member, manager, employee, or agent of a professional limited liability company or foreign professional limited liability company and practices the individual's profession through such professional limited liability company.

489.1107 Relationship and liability to persons served.

This ~~article~~ subchapter does not modify any law applicable to the relationship between an individual practicing a profession and a person receiving professional services, including but not limited to any liability arising out of such practice or any law respecting privileged communications. This ~~article~~ subchapter does not modify or affect the ethical standards or standards of conduct of any profession, including but not limited to any standards prohibiting or limiting the practice of the profession by a limited liability company or prohibiting or limiting the practice of two or more professions in combination. All such standards shall apply to the members, managers, employees, and agents through whom a professional limited liability company practices any profession in this state, to the same extent that the standards apply to an individual practitioner.

Sec. 114. Section 489.1110, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1110 Convertible interests — rights and options.

A professional limited liability company shall not create or issue any interest convertible into an interest of the professional limited liability company. The provisions of this ~~article~~ subchapter with respect to the issuance and transfer of interests apply to the creation, issuance, and transfer of any right or option entitling the holder to purchase from a professional limited liability company any interest of the professional limited liability company. A right or option shall not be transferable, whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or in any other manner. Upon the death of the holder, or when the holder ceases to be licensed to practice a profession in this state which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, the right or option shall expire.

Sec. 115. Section 489.1112, subsections 4, 5, and 6, Code 2023, are amended to read as follows:

4. When a person other than a member of record becomes entitled to have interests of a professional limited liability company transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to interests of the professional limited liability company, the professional limited liability company shall immediately purchase the interests. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this section shall be applicable whether the event occurs as a result of appointment of a guardian or conservator for a member or the member's property, transfer of interests by operation of law, involuntary transfer of interests, judicial proceeding, execution, levy, bankruptcy proceeding, receivership proceeding, foreclosure or enforcement of a pledge or encumbrance, or any other situation or occurrence. However, this section does not apply to any voluntary transfer of interests as defined in this article subchapter.

5. Interests purchased by a professional limited liability company under this section shall be transferred to the professional limited liability company as of the close of business on the date of the death or other event which requires purchase. The member and the member's executors, administrators, legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall promptly do all things which may be necessary or convenient to cause transfer to be made as of the transfer date. However, the interests shall promptly be transferred on the books and records of the professional limited liability company as of the transfer date, notwithstanding any delay in transferring or surrendering the interests or certificates representing the interests, and the transfer shall be valid and effective for all purposes as of the close of business on the transfer date. The purchase price for such interests shall be paid as provided in this article subchapter, but the transfer of interests to the professional limited liability company as provided in this section shall not be delayed or affected by any delay or default in making payment.

6. a. Notwithstanding subsections 1 through 5, purchase by the professional limited liability company is not required upon the occurrence of any event other than death of a member, if the professional limited liability company is dissolved within sixty days after the occurrence of the event or voluntarily elects to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company pursuant to section 489.1119A within sixty days after the occurrence of the event. The certificate of organization or operating agreement of the professional limited liability company may provide that purchase is not required upon the death of a member, if the professional limited liability company is dissolved within sixty days after the date of the member's death.

b. Notwithstanding sections 1 through 5, purchase by the professional limited liability company is not required upon the death of a member if the professional limited liability company voluntarily elects to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company pursuant to section 489.1119A within sixty days after death.

Sec. 116. Section 489.1113, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1113 Certificates representing interests.

Each certificate representing an interest of a professional limited liability company shall state in substance that the certificate represents an interest in a professional limited liability company and is not transferable except as expressly provided in this article subchapter and in the certificate of organization or an operating agreement of the professional limited liability company.

Sec. 117. Section 489.1114, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1114 Management.

1. All managers of a professional limited liability company shall at all times be individuals who are licensed to practice a profession in this state or a lawful combination of professions pursuant to section 489.1102, which the limited liability company is authorized to practice. ~~A person who is not licensed shall have no authority or duties in the management or control of the professional limited liability company. If a manager ceases to have this qualification, the manager shall immediately and automatically cease to hold such management position.~~

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, upon the occurrence of any event that requires the professional limited liability company either to be dissolved or to elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company, as provided in section 489.1119A, all of the following apply:

a. The professional limited liability company ceases to practice the profession that the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, as provided in section 489.1119A.

b. The individuals who are not licensed to practice in this state a profession that the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice may be appointed as officers and directors for the sole purpose of doing any of the following:

(1) Carrying out the dissolution of the professional limited liability company.

(2) If applicable, carrying out the voluntary election of the professional limited liability company to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company, as provided in section 489.1119A.

Sec. 118. Section 489.1115, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1115 Merger.

A professional limited liability company shall not merge with any entity except another professional limited liability company subject to this article subchapter or a professional corporation subject to chapter 496C. Merger is not permitted unless the surviving or new professional limited liability company is a professional limited liability company ~~which~~ that complies with all requirements of this article subchapter.

Sec. 119. Section 489.1116, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1116 Dissolution or liquidation.

A violation of any provision of this article subchapter by a professional limited liability company or any of its members or managers shall be cause for its involuntary dissolution, or liquidation of its assets and business by the district court. Upon the death of the last remaining member of a professional limited liability company, or when the last remaining member is not licensed or ceases to be licensed to practice a profession in this state which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, or when any person other than the member of record becomes entitled to have all interests of the last remaining member of the professional limited liability company transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to such interests, the professional limited liability company shall not practice any profession ~~and it~~. In that case, the professional limited liability company shall either be promptly dissolved or shall promptly elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company as provided in section 489.1119A. However, if prior to dissolution all outstanding interests of the professional limited liability company are acquired by two or more persons licensed to practice a profession in this state which the professional limited liability company is authorized to practice, the professional limited liability company need not be dissolved nor elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company and may instead practice the profession as provided in this article subchapter.

489.1117 Foreign professional limited liability company.

1. A foreign professional limited liability company may practice a profession in this state if it complies with the provisions of this article subchapter. The secretary of state may prescribe forms for this purpose. A foreign professional limited liability company may practice a profession in this state only through members, managers, employees, and agents who are licensed to practice the profession in this state. The provisions of this article subchapter with respect to the practice of a profession by a professional limited liability company apply to a foreign professional limited liability company.

2. This article subchapter does not prohibit the practice of a profession in this state by an individual who is a member, manager, employee, or agent of a foreign professional limited liability company, if the individual could lawfully practice the profession in this state in the absence of any relationship to a foreign professional limited liability company. This subsection applies regardless of whether or not the foreign professional limited liability company is authorized to practice a profession in this state.

Sec. 121. Section 489.1118, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1118 Limited liability companies organized under the other laws.

This ~~article~~ subchapter does not apply to or interfere with the practice of any profession by or through any professional limited liability company organized after July 1, 1992, under any other law of this state or any other state or country, if the practice is lawful under any other statute or rule of law of this state. Any such professional limited liability company may voluntarily elect to adopt this article subchapter and become subject to its provisions, by amending its certificate of organization to be consistent with all provisions of this ~~article~~ subchapter and by stating in its amended certificate of organization that the limited liability company has voluntarily elected to adopt this article subchapter. Any limited liability company organized under any law of any other state or country may become subject to the provisions of this ~~article~~ subchapter by complying with all provisions of this ~~article~~ subchapter with respect to foreign professional limited liability companies.

Sec. 122. Section 489.1119, Code 2023, is amended to read as follows:

489.1119 Conflicts with other provisions of this chapter.

The provisions of this article subchapter shall prevail over any inconsistent provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 123. NEW SECTION. 489.1119A Election to no longer be a professional limited liability company.

A professional limited liability company may elect to no longer be a professional limited liability company but continue its existence as a limited liability company by filing with the secretary of state an amendment to or restatement of its certificate of organization that states that the limited liability company is no longer a professional limited liability company and amending its name to no longer indicate it is a professional limited liability company.

Sec. 124. NEW SECTION. 489.1204 Severability clause.

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

Sec. 125. NEW SECTION. 489.1207 Application to existing relationships.

1. For purposes of applying this chapter to a limited liability company formed before the effective date of this Act, references in the limited liability company's operating agreement to provisions in this chapter in effect before the effective date of this Act are deemed to be references to the comparable provision in this chapter after the effective date of this Act.

2. A limited liability company that has published notice of its dissolution and requested persons having claims against the limited liability company to present them in accordance with the notice pursuant to section 489.703 as that section existed immediately prior to the effective date of this Act shall be subject to the requirements set forth in that section as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of this Act, including the right of a claim by a person that is commenced within five years after publication of the notice.

3. For the purposes of applying this chapter to a limited liability company formed before January 1, 2009, all of the following apply:

a. The limited liability company's articles of organization are deemed to be the company's certificate of organization.

b. For the purposes of applying section 489.102, subsection 15, and subject to section 489.112, subsection 4, language in the limited liability company's articles of organization designating the limited liability company's management structure operates as if that language were in the operating agreement.

c. If a professional limited liability company's name complied with section 490A.1503 as that section existed on December 30, 2010, that company's name shall also be deemed to comply with the name requirements of section 489.1103 of the 2011 edition of the Iowa Code.
